By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poison, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about the Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Agh does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally emanates. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER warranted, on the reputation of Dr. Collins, its inventor, an old physician, to be the best plaster in the world of medicine. The union of the two great medical agents, viz., Electricity and Medical Gums and Essences, fully justifies the claim, and entitles this remedy to rank foremost among all curative compounds for all Internal Aches and Pains and Chronic Ailments.

Price, 25 Cents.

Be careful to call for COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER and you get some worthless imitation. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Patent Air Closet!

Superior to either Water or Earth Closets for General Use, and for the Sick Room, are indispensable.

They can be set up in any Room, Hall-way or Closet, or at the Bedside of the Sick, and are warranted to be Perfectly Odorless.

Being thoroughly ventilated from the front, and connecting with the chimney, the disagreeable odors and poisonous gases are carried off into the chimney, instead of escaping into the room.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12th.

The unprecedent heat of the last five days, following so suddenly the cool wave that came after the 4th, has had the effect to hasten the departure from town of all who have been lingering upon the hope of a cool summer. The few senators and members who remained to attend to private business, have closed their affairs or are closing them, and getting ready to go away. Day before yesterday was one of the hottest days ever known here and to the south of us in Virginia, and but for a cooling breeze in the early evening would have been almost intolerable. In connection with the enervating heat, a scare was attempted touching the yellow fever, based upon its appearance at Memphis; but this was not even successful as a passing sensation. The truth is that Washington never was in so good a sanitary condition as now. Everything that is possible to be done is done to prevent disease engendered by filth and malarial surroundings, and improvements are going on constantly. Shortly we may be able to boast that Washington is one of the healthiest cities in the country, summer as well as winter.

New efforts of the speculators have been brought to light to invade the Indian Territory under the pretence that certain lands there purchased of the Indians by the United States are open to settlement, but in reality to enrich a graceless ring at the expense of emigrants. The President and secretary of the interior gave notice long ago that those lands were not open for settlers, and that no emigration to the Indian Territory would be tolerated. Whoever goes there and "squats" is liable to be ousted at any moment, and will lose all his improvements. Nobody should be deceived by this effort to force emigration where it cannot legally go, and the newspapers ought to ventilate the fraud that is attempted in this affair.

Although all the accounts have not been made up, it is easy to estimate pretty closely the relations of the government receipts and expenditures for the last fiscal year. The total receipts for the year were $274,034,916, against $257,763,878 for the preceding year, an increase of $16,271,038, made up as follows: Customs, $7,311,795; internal revenue, $2,332,154; miscellaneous, $6,627,089. The receipts exceed the aggregate estimates presented to Congress in December last by the Secretary of the Treasury by $9,500,000. The ordinary expenses for the last fiscal year were $161,088,252, against $134,463,452 the preceding year, an increase of $26,624,800. This includes $5,500,000 paid on account of the fisheries award, $5,000,000 paid on account of pension arrearages, and $1,800,000 paid Capt. Eads for improvements at the mouth of the Mississippi river. Deducting those three extraordinary items, the excess of ordinary expenses for the last fiscal year, compared with the year ending June 30th, 1878, was about $13,000,000. The net surplus of revenues over expenditures is $7,946,000.

KNOX.

Scientific and Useful.

Mr. Sydney B. J. Skertchley, of the British Geological Society has been contributing a series of interesting articles to the English Mechanic on the topic of the antiquity of man. His closing essay he sums up as follows: "The question whether man was or was not in existence during the great cycle of the glacial period is settled in the affirmative. The evidence is so clear, and has been obtained in such widely-separated areas, that it would be astonishing it is not universally accepted, did we not know that such has been the history of all scientific discovery."

A patent has been taken out for a repeating match—that is, a match which can be struck a great many times and yield a light each time. The match consists of two rods of inflammable composition placed side by side in two compartments with a suitable case. In order to strike a light a scraper is moved by hand along a platform across the open ends of the two rods. The scraper removes a certain quantity of its substance from each rod and mixing these together, the light is produced. One stick is composed of three parts of chocolate of potash and one part of clay, thoroughly mixed, and formed into a thick paste by the addition of water, then dried. The other stick is made of three parts of amorphous phosphates and one part of clay prepared in the same manner.

The well-known inventor, George Westinghouse, has devised a lamp for passenger cars, which, he thinks, will supercede the ordinary oil lamp. It has been tried with satisfaction on the North British railway, Scotland, for some time. The use of the Westinghouse brake places at disposal a large amount of compressed air. When air is passed over benzine or similar light hydrocarbons, it becomes saturated with the hydrocarbon vapor, and then can be burned just like ordinary illuminating gas. Beneath each car, therefore, a long cylinder is placed, which is filled with a felt saturated with petroleum. A current of compressed air entering the cylinder at one end and escaping at the other is led up to the roof of the car and burned in lamps of very elegant construction.

Some years ago Mr. Watson Smith discovered that crude ammonia water, or gas liquor, as it is called, acts like a charm in extinguishing a fire in a tar distillery. He now recommends that owners of cotton mills and of tar works should have on their premises a stock of about 1000 gallons of this gas liquor, stored in a tank or old boiler, mounted upon brick-work, and at such an altitude as to give pressure enough for a good jet service in case of a fire. There is no reason why this cheap and efficient preventative of destructive conflagrations should not be generally adopted. It may be readily imagined, says Mr. Smith, how a jet of the liquor thrown into a burning room would act, when the action is so powerful in a comparatively open space, and with such a refractory substance as burning pitch. It would seem, he adds, that the extinguishing power of the liquor would be even further called forth by a more intensely hot fire, for here, in all probability, the ammonia would be decomposed, and the generated hydrogen and nitrogen gases would help to swell the volume of non-supportive gas, displacing the air, and so choking out the combustion.

Portsmouth Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, JULY 16, 1879.

The State Legislature.

The Senate and House met Monday evening with few members, and adjourned without doing any business of importance.

In the House, Tuesday forenoon, a bill in relation to taxation of savings banks was indefinitely postponed. A committee reported in favor of a State board of health.

News and Notes.

A very heavy wind and hail storm passed over Wells River, Vt., Monday evening, lasting fifteen minutes, and was followed by a thunder storm. Some of the hail stones were two inches in diameter. Crops and vegetation were destroyed and torn to shreds, one-third of the glass in the neighborhood was broken, large trees were torn up, fences were destroyed, houses unroofed and a barn blown over. It was the most severe storm ever known there, and the people were much alarmed.

Harriman, the pedestrian, eloped with Mrs. Stackhouse, wife of the steward of the St. James hotel in New York, on the 7th inst. Mrs. Stackhouse has returned to her husband, but he rejects her and has brought a suit for divorce, and one against Harriman for damages. Harriman's money in a bank at Boston has been attached.

All the employes in the composing department of the Boston Post were discharged on Saturday morning without a moment's warning.

Capt. Eads secured the maximum channel required by his contract both at the mouth of the Mississippi and at the Head of the Passes on the 10th inst., and the same was officially certified on that day. The Mississippi river is open to the sea for the heaviest commercial ships, there being twenty-six feet of water over a bar having originally only eight feet.

Samuel J. Mills, for the past ten years treasurer of the town of Bloomfield, Conn., is said to be $25,000 short in his accounts.

At Washington, D. C., Monday night, two negroes named Beckett and Poindexter had some pistol practice at each other, but neither managed to hit his mark. A ten-years-old girl was however hit in the head by Beckett, and will die.

Chastine Cox, the mulatto murderer of Mrs. Jane Lawrence DeForest Hull, in New York city, is now on trial for the crime.

The striking spinners at Fall River, Mass., are organizing with a view of emigrating to Kansas.

The resolution of the Senate declaring the expediency of opening negotiations for the abrogation of the fishery arrangement, for which we paid Great Britain $5,500,000, has been made public. That agreement was one of the most remarkable in the history of diplomacy. By the award of a majority of the arbitrators, we paid to Great Britain for the privilege of fishing off her coasts a sum greater than the gross amount of our catch on those grounds, and agreed to remit the duties on the product of English fisheries to three times the value of our catch! There was never before such a one-sided judgment; and the submission of our government to the award was as evidence of the highest good faith.

An Advent preacher at Worcester, Mass., Rev. Henry J. Munson of Modoc, Mo., scandalized his congregation Saturday night by uniting in marriage with Miss Mattie A. Eaton of Worcester after the Quaker form.

Moonshiners flourish at Corinth, Vt., and five illicit stills have recently been captured by a deputy marshal, who was shot at by the proprietor of one of them.

The Newburyport Germ tells of a woman in that city who has been married three times. She has neither been divorced or a widow. Her husband is alive, and having been sufficiently punished he does not object to her plurality of husbands, well knowing that they will get the worst of it.

Two men attempted to break into the dwelling of Cliffus Drugg, at Waterbury, Vt., Sunday night. Drugg fired a gun at them, wounding one of them in his leg and he was helped away bleeding, and groaning as if in great pain.

At a recent evening party at Dr. Washburn's, at Waterbury, Vt., the hand of a burglar was thrust through the mosquito netting of a window after the silver on a side table, but the servant entering the room frightened him away for a time. Afterward noises were heard about, and they caught the burglar in the cellar. The rogue proved to be a resident of the place, who has lived there several years under an assumed name, having fled from Massachusetts, married a farmer's daughter, lived with the old folks and had four children. There was a great commotion at the party. Ex-Gov. Dillingham, his daughter, the wife of Hon. Matt Carpenter, and other distinguished persons were present.

Brigantine Orloff, at Arichat, N. S., from the West Indies, lost the second mate and captain on the passage, by yellow fever. The vessel is now at quarantine, with no sickness on board.

The outstanding ten-forty bonds will all be called by the secretary of the treasury during the present month. One call for $10,000,000 was made July 9th; another, for $160,000,000, will be made on the 18th, and all the remainder, amounting to $22,000,000 and a fraction, will be called on the 21st.

A broker in Brooklyn has some of the Tabernacle church bonds, secured by mortgage on the church, for sale at seventy-five cents on the dollar, the bonds being nomically for $1,000 each. He opened negotiations with Deacon Alex. McLean of the Tabernacle, who thought that the bonds were too high, and as a reason for wishing to get them at a lower price, wrote to the broker saying that Rev. Dr. Talmage might not return at all. The broker promptly replied that there was no foundation for his suspicion, as Dr. Talmage would no doubt return, and would bring back money enough to redeem the bonds.

Buford, who shot Judge Elliott in the street because a jury in Elliott's court decided a case adversely to Buford, is on trial at Owenton, Ky. The defence will undoubtedly be insanity, and it is not likely that Buford will be very severely punished, as he belongs to an influential family.

Lucius Weaver, colored, on the 30th of May outraged Mrs. Howells, a white lady, at Strawberry Plains, fifteen miles from Knoxville, Tenn.; he was arrested on the 14th inst., identified by Mrs. Howells, and afterward taken from his guards by a mob of armed men and shot to death.

At Nashville, Tenn., Saturday night, Edward Monus shot and killed his nephew, J. McIntosh, and was fatally injured himself.

John Breckenridge, a mulatto, on Sunday committed a felonious assault on Miss Nanny Berry, a young white woman at Carlisle, Kentucky; he was lodged in jail, from which he was taken on Monday morning and hanged by a mob.

Among the most remarkable productions of this age and country is Hall's Hair Renewer. Its success is unparalleled. It is sought after by rich and poor, high and low, young and old. Inhabitants of foreign lands—the people of Australia, of Europe, and of South America find means to get it at whatever cost. It is because it works like magic. It restores the hair to its youthful color and beauty, and rebs approaching age of one of its disagreeable accompaniments. If you are getting bald, try it. Try it if you are getting gray, or if you have any disease of the scalp. Try it if you wish a good hair dressing. It will not disappoint you.—Munice (Ind.) News.

New Hampshire Items.

A terrific thunder shower, with high wind and hail, swept over the village of Woodsville Monday evening. Hailstones fell the size of hens' eggs. Several houses were unroofed and sheds blown down, and there is not a house in town but had windows broken in. Crops of all kinds were cut down and spoiled. Damage very heavy.

At Nashua a hearing was held on Monday before Judge Isaac W. Smith, of the supreme judicial court, in reference to the old unsettled accounts, made prior to March, 1874, of the Mechanics' savings bank. A decree of the court, in August of the same year, reduced the valuation fifteen per cent, and it is anticipated that a further reduction will not be made. Gen. A. F. Stevens, of Nashua, has been appointed receiver. The accounts of the bank are in a satisfactory condition. The decision will not affect the present good standing of the bank.

A Hot Weather Hint.

Dr. Buchanan, of New York, says: "As a curative measure I advise my friends to take from five to ten drops of dilute phosphoric acid (which can be cheaply obtained at any druggist's) in a glass of sweetened water. This can be repeated as often as necessary, but I would not recommend any one to use more than sixty drops, or a teaspoonful, in twenty-four hours. This is a cooling tonic and restorative to the system. Under its use the hot weather soon ceases to be intolerable, and its exhausting effects disappear. This is real 'brain food,' but it would restore many a drooping invalid to health by a pleasant phosphoric lemonade."

Political.

The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee at Washington is using a large part of the force of clerks and laborers of the House of Representatives and Senate for doing campaign work. Democratic documents are being folded with government paper and paste, and the democratic committee rooms are lighted with government gas. The republican committee, on the contrary, have their own building and furnish their own material and help. But then the democrats are reformers, and have always urged that the people's money should not be applied to the uses of any political party—except the democratic party.

At the municipal election in Annapolis, Md., Monday, the republicans elected the mayor, city counsellor and four of six members of the city council. The present mayor is a democrat.

—A bombastic Englishman writes to the Echo about the death of the Prince Imperial. —It is a singular fact that not one of the Imperial Napoleons has died in France or on French soil. Napoleon I., the founder of the family, died a prisoner at St. Helena; his son, Napoleon II., died in Austria; his nephew, Napoleon III., died an exile in England, and now his grand-nephew, the young man whom the French Imperialists have hoped would one day rule France as Napoleon IV., has met his fate at the point of Zulu spears, in South Africa.

A New Form of Investment.

The influx of wealth into this country after the past seven years of dullness is beginning to increase the speculative feeling in all channels of trade. Already the business centres are lively with the praises of mining, manufacturing, railroad, real estate and other speculations; but strange to say, so great is the well-deserved confidence in the strict integrity characterizing every action of the managers of the celebrated Louisiana Lottery that its tickets for the monthly grand drawings which cost two dollars each are a favorite purchase of the leading bankers and brokers in all the large cities. M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., or at No. 319 Broadway, New York city, will give all desired information.

Letters for the night mails [and no others] east or west may be deposited in the box at the Eastern depot, every day except Sundays.

E. G. PEIRCE, Jr., P. M.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for the New England States, To-Day:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16, 2 A. M

Southerly winds, slightly warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather, occasional rains, possibly followed in the interior by slightly cooler north-west winds and raising barometer.

AROUND HOME.

Preparations are nearly completed for a regatta on the river, to come off on Friday, August 8th.

The little Larrabee boy who was so badly injured by being run over by the cars at the Eastern depot last week, died of tetanus on Tuesday morning.

A very pleasant, wholesome and cooling drink for this hot weather is made of the pure lime juice imported and sold by C. E. Laighton & Son, when mixed with water and sugar.

Edwin Stone, Esq., was on Tuesday chosen treasurer of the Biddeford savings bank, to fill the vacancy caused by the suicide of Hon. R. M. Chapman, and immediately entered upon his duties.

Nellie Reagan of Dover was on Monday held in $200 for trial before the supreme court on a charge of keeping liquors for sale, a bottle of whiskey and a barrel of ale on tap having been found on her premises by officers.

The reform club picnic will be held at Dover point to-morrow, if fair weather. Rev. A. A. Waite will give several "chalk talks" during the day. Round trip tickets, for adults, forty cents each; half price for children.

Mr. John Malsbenden, merchant tailor, who since the Franklin block fire has occupied rooms up one flight of stairs at No. 9 Market street, on Tuesday moved into more easily accessible quarters at No. 101 Congress street, opposite the academy.

The amount of tax assessed for 1878 by New Hampshire upon the railroad corporations whose lines lead into this city are as follows: Concord & Portsmouth, $6,-946.01; Eastern in New Hampshire, $3,-990.92; Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway, $1,605.34.

The San Francisco Call of June 30th has the following mention of a well known Portsmouth gentleman: "Among the overland passengers arriving by Saturday's train was Captain C. H. Salter, of New Hampshire, who came out here to assume the duties of superintendent of the Pacific Mail dock. Captain Salter is an old ship-captain, and first visited this coast in early days as commander of the clipper ship Typhoon. Later, he was superintendent of the mail company's docks and ship-yard at Benicia, but resigned that position on account of ill-health, and returned to the east in 1872. Captain Salter will present his credentials to the agents of the company to-day, and enter upon his duties at once."

The class of '79 of the Portsmouth high school are about to circulate a subscription paper in order to raise funds sufficient to place a fountain on Haymarket square. This is the first thing of the kind that has ever transpired in this city, and we hope the citizens will respond liberally, as the more money the class receive the better fountain they can set up, —and a handsome, serviceable fountain at that place will not only add greatly to the beauty of one of the prettiest little spots in the city, but be often a positive convenience. The young ladies and gentlemen should be generously encouraged in their attempt to memorize their class by the erection of so durable and appropriate a monument as a public fountain.

There was a foot-race at the Granite State park, at Dover, Saturday afternoon, between "T. L. Young," who won the belt and first money in the recent "championship" contest at Dover, and an unknown man; the pools and betting were all in Young's favor, and it was from the first evident that he could easily have beaten, but the other fellow won. The race was palpably a fraud, gotten up to swindle a lot of the Dover people, and was so proclaimed by the referee, Mr. Hicks, the proprietor of the park, who declared all bets off and directed the pool money to be refunded. Mr. Hicks also ordered Young never to appear on that track again. After the bogus race was ended there was a five-miles race for a purse of $15, which was won by James Burns of Dover, in twenty-eight minutes and twenty-one seconds.

A special meeting of the city councils of Dover was called for Monday evening, to consider the proposition of the Eastern railroad to reduce the rental of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad. All private stockholders of the latter road were invited to be present at the meeting.

A woman going about the city with a subscription paper, soliciting pecuniary aid, gives her address as "Mrs. McKay, No. 12 Court street." We are informed by Mr. Loyne that no such person is to be found, and people are warned against giving her money until something more is known about her, as she is believed to be an imposter.

Some time ago—a month or two, if our memory serves correctly—an individual calling himself Rev. W. H. Sigston was in this city and vicinity, delivering temperance lectures and canvassing for a temperance paper. He lectured (and we believe preached) in Rye, Kittery and other neighboring towns, and in this city and perhaps in other places secured a goodly number of cash subscribers for his paper. But the first number of the excellent paper paid for, we are informed, has not yet come to hand, and the subscribers are beginning to think the "reverend" Sigston a fraud—a suspicion which long ago became a confirmed opinion in the mind of the job printer to whom Rev. W. H. Sigston owes $6.50 for work done and materials furnished.

Through the courtesy of Lieut. William I. Moore, acting executive officer of the Marion, we paid a visit to that vessel on Monday. The ship, which was built at this yard, has been nearly four years in commission, having lately returned from a cruise in European waters, and had an entirely new complement of officers and crew. We found the vessel in the most perfect order, the ship looking clean and healthy, with no sickness on board excepting some slight cases not serious enough to require their staying in the sick-bay during the day. Government has put on board this ship about 2000 pounds of disinfectant powder, a certain amount of it to be used daily and left in exposed places. The battery—six nine-inch broadside smooth-bores, an eight-inch pivot rifle altered from an eleven-inch smooth bore, and a small pivot rifle on the forecastle—shows good care; the rigging has been newly rattled down and tarred since her arrival here, and other improvements made, all which adds much to her appearance.

The treasurer of the Humbug Yachting and Fishing Association of this port has balanced his books for the year ending June 30th, 1879, and the exhibit is a most favorable one. Not taking into account the jack-knives lost overboard nor the clothing spoiled, and ignoring the amounts expended each Monday morning by individual members of the association for Magnolia Balm and other kinds of balm, for the complexion, etc., the treasurer finds that the fish caught during the year cost exactly $13.87 per pound. A new member—or rather a candidate for membership in this select association—has been down river three trips recently, on probation; and at the end of the last day's cruise he was unanimously voted worthy of being received into full membership, having shown himself an adept at digging clams and cleaning fish, philosophically indifferent to thunder storms and squalls, and able to sit still on the weather gunwale while the seas go down the back of his neck, just the same as the original members.

CORPORATION MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway railroad was held in the ward room on Elm street, on Tuesday forenoon at half-past ten o'clock.

Mr. Phillips, president of the corporation, made a statement concerning the condition of the road, and said that during the past year the Eastern railroad corporation has made several important improvements in the roadbed, etc., all being of a permanent character, noticeable among them being the filling in with gravel of the trestle at North Conway. He further said that the same policy in regard to improvements would be continued by the Eastern road toward this corporation. The report was accepted, and a vote was then taken for a board of directors for the ensuing year, and E. B. Phillips of Boston, Samuel C. Lawrence of Medford, Willard P. Phillips of Salem, George E. B. Jackson of Portland, and John Cumnock of Great Falls, received all the votes cast and were declared elected.

The directors subsequently had a meeting, and organized by choosing E. B. Phillips president; N. G. Chapin, of Boston, treasurer; and Wallace Hackett, of this city, clerk.

The proprietors of Portsmouth bridge held their annual meeting in the Elm street ward room at eleven o'clock Tuesday forenoon, and the following-named gentlemen were chosen directors for the ensuing year: Ichabod Goodwin of Portsmouth; E. B. Phillips, A. P. Rockwell and Henry J. Stevens, of Boston; Samuel C. Lawrence, of Medford; George E. B. Jackson, of Portland; and Albert R. Hatch, of Portsmouth. At a subsequent meeting of the directors Ichabod Goodwin was elected president and treasurer, and Wallace Hackett clerk.

The wear and tear of business life makes such tremendous drafts upon body and mind that without recourse to some sustaining agent they must give way under the pressure. To those who are breaking down, or wasting away from general debility or affections of the liver, stomach and the kidneys, a systematic course of the Bitters will so reinforce the vital functions as to baffle all the assaults of disease and restore the system to its wonted health.

For sale by all Druggists and respectable dealers generally.

Lost Seven Pounds in Three Weeks.

Allan's Anti-Fat is a genuine medicine, and will reduce corpulency from two to five pounds per week. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, acting entirely on the food in the stomach, preventing the formation of fat. It is also a positive remedy for dyspepsia and rheumatism.

BOSTON, MASS., Feb. 11th, 1877.
Botanic Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Gentlemen—The lady alluded to lost seven pounds in three weeks, by the use of Allan's Anti Fat. Yours truly,

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with rude and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.

What are the Profits!

This is the absorbing point that is of chief interest in every business transaction. By the combination system of operating in stocks, Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite the orders of thousands of patrons in various sums, into one immense amount, and operate them as a mighty whole, thus obtaining all the advantages of the largest capital and best skill. Profits are distributed pro rata among shareholders every month. In this way large gains are secured in short periods, and capital from $10 or $15 to $50,000 can be used with equal proportionate success. $20 will make $100 in 30 days. $150 will pay $1,500 profit, or 10 per cent. on the stock, and so on, according to the market. A citizen of Troy, made $815.75 on an investment of $50. Many customers are doing better. The new circular has "two unerring rules for success," and full details so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

It especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No one of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great avalanche of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, weeping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and throat, ulcers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

PORTSMOUTH

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14th.

The Sunday Chronicle of this city, which is the representative of the Forney family and of Gen. Grant's friends generally, has an important statement relative to that gentleman's movements. It is to the effect that Gen. Grant authorizes his friends to say that he will not probably return this year, and possibly not until after the time of holding the national conventions next year. He has been much annoyed, according to this authority, by the persistency with which a certain class of pretended friends have pressed him for re-election to the Presidency, and is disposed to take the advice of his better friends, and not allow himself to be used by the bummers, who expect to promote their own fortunes only by his resumption of political authority. In order to kill time, the general will travel in South America and elsewhere, and positively declines to come home until all receptions in his behalf for political effect shall be out of the question. The impression has been growing for some time that he would not allow himself to be used in politics again, and this impression was confirmed by the very significant fact that Senator Conkling and other friends of Grant have named Senator Windom as their choice for the nomination, a thing it is assumed they would not have done had their favorite been in the field.

As evidence of the unceasing vigilance necessary to the conduct of so great a department as the treasury, there will soon be issued statements showing the work that has been done in lopping off old abuses in various directions. The undervaluation in kid gloves by the chief importers at New York was a glaring wrong, and Asst. Sec'y French did well to push his inquiries and his reforms. It will be shown that hundred of thousands of dollars will be saved annually to the revenue by the changes made. The matter of the coloring branch in sugar was another sore place. By the reforms instituted half a million dollars already stand to the credit of the treasury that would have been lost otherwise. The sugar men in Baltimore have felt the heavy hand of the treasury officials, having lost one important case of fraud against them, and they have about given up the fight. The secretary has employed the ablest experts to expose these frauds. The forthcoming statements will contain many interesting facts besides those to which I allude.

An effort was made here yesterday by some sensational newspaper writer to create a scare about yellow fever. A report was circulated that a case had been found in the southern part of the city, and that the citizens were warned to "get out." There was no foundation for it, and nothing to give rise to the suspicion except it be the extraordinary precautions being taken by the health board and the citizens to provide against that or any other contagious disease. The city is in good sanitary condition. Some of the most eminent physicians have been interviewed on this point, and while, from the early period of its breaking out, they hold a gloomy view of the yellow fever in the southwest, they have no fear of its coming here.

I have authority for saying that Secretary Sherman will not make a stumping tour of Maine, as generally announced. He will make a financial speech at Portland on the 23d. Then he will go to Augusta as the guest of Senator Blaine, and will do no more speech-making unless in response to public receptions, or on occasions of that sort. Neither is it his purpose to speak in Boston as has been announced.

A book is in preparation here called the "Spartan Band," containing biographies and portraits of the greenbackers in Congress. From samples of advance sheets I judge it to be rather a cheap affair, more for campaign use than preservation. KNOX.

Lost Seven Pounds in Three Weeks.

Allan's Anti-Fat is a genuine medicine, and will reduce corpulency from two to five pounds per week. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, acting entirely on the food in the stomach, preventing the formation of fat. It is also a positive remedy for dyspepsia and rheumatism.

Gentlemen—The lady alluded to lost seven pounds in three weeks, by the use of Allan's Anti-Fat. Yours truly,

SMITH, DOODITTLE & SMITH, Wholesale Druggists.

—Weston will lecture. There is no use in concealing this any longer. The country might as well know the worst.—Boston Globe.

The "Trunk Mystery" Solved.

The finding in Saugus river at Lynn, Mass., on the 27th of February last, of a trunk containing the mutilated remains of a young woman who had evidently died from the effects of an abortion, is yet fresh in the public memory. The sensation caused by the discovery of the mutilated body will not soon be forgotten. The numberless identifications of the remains made a revelation of shame and crime that shocked the whole country. It was more than three weeks before it was proved beyond reasonable doubt that the girl was Jennie P. Clark, a young lady who had been for some time living in the family of Allen N. Adams of Boston Highlands, who was a constant attendant at church and Sunday school, and whose reputation for purity, modesty and worth was of the highest. No satisfactory solution of the mystery could be discovered and the sensation had nearly faded out, when on Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning of this week five persons were arrested for complicity in the tragedy. The evidence is that A. N. Adams ruined the girl; that she was taken to a place on Lagrange street, Boston, where an illegal operation was performed by one "Dr." Daniel F. Kimball, from the effects of which she died at Somerville, where she was nursed during her illness by "Miss Smith" and "Mrs. Smith;" that after her death Dr. Kimball cut her nose off with a forceps, and the body was put into the old trunk in which it was found, taken to Lynn and thrown into the river. Adams, Kimball, the two "Smith" women, and Mrs. Caroline C. Goodrich, the keeper of the Lagrange street den, which is owned by one Dr. Simonds, are the parties arrested. Simonds is also the owner of the notorious Half-Way house, near the bridge over the Saugus river in Lynn, where the body was found; and Adams was formerly in his employment. The Smith women on being arrested made a full confession, saying that the girl was brought to their house, and died there from the effects of an abortion performed by Madame Goodrich and Dr. Kimball. Mrs. Clark, the murdered girl's mother, has always insisted that Adams was the betrayer of her daughter; and evidence to that effect has been in possession of the police since a few days after the discovery of the body. Adams is a married man, and the girl had lived in his family for several years before her death.

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Constellation arrived at Portland from Halifax on the 15th inst.

The U. S. S. Wachusett, being unable to go above Vicksburg on account of the low water in the river, will return to New Orleans and remain there as long as the state of health along the gulf renders it prudent, for the purpose of enlisting boys.

New Hampshire Items.

William H. Clough, a boy about sixteen years old, died from sunstroke while bathing in the river at Manchester on the 14th inst.

The governor and council on the 15th inst. pardoned Charles Biddle from the State prison. He was sentenced from Hillsborough county for five years, in 1876, for burglary.

It is proposed a form a new State agricultural society, with headquarters in Merrimack valley. The new society will hold its fairs in central localities convenient to all sections of the State.

At Franklin Falls, Abraham Sunderland's house and barn with their contents, including $115 in greenbacks hid under a carpet, were totally consumed by fire on the 15th inst. Loss about $2,000; insured $1300.

The seventieth annual meeting of the New Hampshire Antiquarian society was held at Contoocook on the 15th inst., Rev. Silas Ketcham of Windsor, Conn., president, in the chair. A prominent feature of the exercises was an address by Hon. Clark Jillson of Worcester, Mass., on Secession in New Hampshire in 1778. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Col. L. W. Cogswell of Henniker; vice presidents, Capt. G. A. Curtis of Contoocook, and Dr. L. W. Peabody of Henniker; recording secretary, Charles Gould of Contoocook; corresponding secretary, W. S. Davis of Contoocook; treasurer, J. F. Jones of Contoocook; curator, G. H. Ketcham of Contoocook. A number of new members were elected. The curator reported an additions of 883 articles to the society's collection during the past year.

News and Notes.

James Mitchell, brother and advance agent of Maggie Mitchell, the actress, was cased in New York on the 15th inst. by George Hall, a well-known basso. Mitchell was quite seriously hurt, and Hall received several blows.

As Mr. Smith Babb was mowing in his field at Saccarappa, Me., recently, he drove over a bumblebee's nest, and the horses, maddened by the stings of the bees, bounded through the field at a headlong gallop. Mr. Babb was thrown from the machine, but escaped with bruises. The machine was stove to pieces and one of the horses, valued at $200, was so severely cut by the knives that it was necessary to kill it.

Mrs. James Bell of Dover, Me., on the 4th day of July gave birth to twins, making four children she has had within twenty months, the two former also being twins.

Joseph R. Butler, aged about forty years, and formerly a well-known worker in the Murphy temperance movement, was found dead in bed at Plymfield, Mass., on the morning of the 15th inst. His death was caused by an overdose of chlorate, he having taken six ounces during the night. The unhappy man had yielded to his appetite and gone on a drunken spree some time before, but had been sober for several days, and seemed much downcast at his relapse; whether the drug was taken with suicidal intent or to quiet his nerves is not known.

Reliable statistics relative to the business of the country show that the number of failures has largely decreased during the last six months, and that the condition of trade has materially improved throughout the country.

Returns to the department of agriculture of the condition of the crops are unusually favorable, and the prospects of a good harvest will do much to increase the general impetus given to business this year.

The following is a list of vacancies now existing at West Point which are to be filled by appointment upon recommendation of members of Congress from their respective districts: Maine, 5th; New Hampshire, 1st; Rhode Island, 2d. The following vacancies will occur in 1880: Massachutts, 2d, 9th, 10th and 11th; New Hampshire, 3d; Vermont, 1st.

Kidder, Peabody & Co., of Boston, passed an entry at the custom house on the 15th inst., consisting of 3,173,692 lbs. of sugar, duties on which amounted to $80,257.47. This is the largest entry of sugar ever passed in one day, and the largest entry ever made, except one of wool in 1871, which amounted to $80,-500.

William McKenzie, who mysteriously disappeared in January last from the house of Thomas L. Hahn, about twelve miles from Des Moines, Iowa, a few days since as mysteriously turned up again at Polk Centre, near Hahn's. Since his departure Hahn has been tried several times for the murder of McKenzie, and once narrowly escaped lynching.

One-hundred-ton guns have been matched against twenty-four-inch steel plates in Italy, and the guns came out ahead. Four British and one Italian vessel have armor of that thickness, but of iron instead of steel, while one Italian iron-clad has four 100-ton guns, and four British iron clads have eight of them.

There will be no calls for 10-40 bonds as was erroneously reported, but all outstanding called 10-40 bonds will mature during the present month. On the 9th inst., $10,000,000 matured; $160,000,-000 will mature on the 18th, and $23,-566,300 on the 21st. These bonds were called on the 9th, 18th and 21st of April. There are no bonds now subject to call.

The farmers in the vicinity of St. Albans, Vt., are encouraged by the destroyer of potato bugs, an insect known as the potato beetle parasite—a striped bug similar to the cucumber bug, but larger. He follows the potato bug and eats its eggs after they have been laid upon the vines. This will probably be the last year of the operations of the Colorado beetle to any considerable extent, in that vicinity, as the parasite has appeared in large numbers.

By virtue of an act of Congress, passed at the recent extra session and approved June 21st, 1879, repealing sections 4,771, 4,772, and 4,773, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, the biennial examination of invalid pensioners is abolished from that date. An examination would have become due at the next payment, and aside from more or less delay in such payment, its abolishment will save pensioners much annoyance and expense, as many of them are obliged to travel a considerable distance to appear before the nearest surgeon or board of surgeons appointed to make such examinations.

Political.

Senator Windom's challenge to the democrats to prove that any one of the thirty-three democratic Congressional investigating committees has shown that a republican has stolen a dollar from the public treasury, is still unanswered.

The Poole brothers, of Pickens county, Ga., were "suspected of being republicans." Such men have no right to live in Georgia. They are dead now.

Senator Vest, of Missouri, boasts that he was nursed by a colored woman, a slave, when he was a baby, and intimates that no man is a gentleman who did not enjoy that luxury in early life. The race of "gentlemen" will soon become extinct. Of the same democratic senator it is said that during the yellow fever epidemic of last year, when the north was straining every nerve to help the suffering south, he made a speech at Warrensburg, Mo., in which he asserted that "the north was simply doing her duty and giving back to the south what had been stolen during the war."

The Baltimore Gazette, democratic, says that the local politics of Baltimore have gotten into such a muddle as to fill every decent citizen with disgust at the daily work of the self-constituted leaders. Nevertheless democracy has worked its own perfect work in that city by its own methods of brutality and ballot-box stuffing for more than ten years.

The Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald, democratic, looks for good to come out of the late session of Congress. It says: "It will establish a precedent that will be of future benefit. Future Congresses will not attempt to force a President by the 'rider' plan to sign laws he does not approve. Let us hope the 'rider' plan will be forever discarded. It is a tricky and dangerous method."

At Harrisburg, Va., on the 4th, numerous confederate flags, great and small, were displayed about the city at sunrise and kept flying all day. But what attracted most enthusiasm was the exhibition of three large portraits—of George Washington, Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson—having underneath in bold letters the inscription "Those are our heroes." The portrait of Benedict Arnold was not there.

A Fox Beaten by a Bantam.

Mr. W. P. Levis, proprietor of the Gem City paper mills, has a miniature zoological garden at his mills on Water street, and among the collection of "birds and beasts" is a diminutive bantam rooster. A few days ago a tame crow, while taking a meditative walk, came in too close proximity to a sly fox that was feigning sleep near his den, where he was confined by a light chain. Reynard was apparently oblivious to all passing things, but before the crow was aware of danger the fox had seized it. Then there was a loud "caw, caw," and a flapping of wings which attracted the attention of the little bantam rooster. He took in the situation at a glance, and rushed to the rescue of his feathered companion. The plucky little rooster flew into the face of the fox, struck hard with wing and spur, and so worried the fox that he dropped the crow and gave his attention to the rooster, but his feathered antagonist proved as agile as he was brave, and as soon as he saw the poor crow, minus a few feathers, hop safely off beyond the limits of Reynard's chain, he ran away. The fox then skulked into his den.—Dayton (Ohio) Journal.

A New Form of Investment.

The influx of wealth into this country after the past seven years of dullness is beginning to increase the speculative feeling in all channels of trade. Already the business centres are lively with the praises of mining, manufacturing, railroad, real estate and other speculations; but strange to say, so great is the well-deserved confidence in the strict integrity charmcterising every action of the managers of the celebrated Louisiana Lottery that its tickets for the monthly grand drawings which cost two dollars each are a favorite purchase of the leading bankers and brokers in all the large cities. M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., or at No. 319 Broadway, New York city, will give all desired information.

SANFORD'S JAMAICA GINGER

Enlarged May 1, 1879. Price unchanged.

The only combination of the true Jamaica Ginger with choice aromatics and French brandy, for correcting impurities of the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels, breaking up colds, chills and fevers, is SANFORD'S JAMAICA GINGER. For relieving gouty and rheumatic pains, preventing malarial fevers, and promoting sleep it is truly wonderful. Ask for SANFORD'S. tang19

Of the different summer beverages manufactured at this establishment it is hardly necessary to say a single word. They have become popular "on their own merits" and can be found in many private families and on sale in every hotel, saloon and restaurant in this locality.

The lagers bottled by me are from the best breweries in the country, and it is safe to say that there is no better in the world.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17, 2 A.M

Local rains, followed by cooler, clearing weather. Winds shifting to northerly and westerly, with rising barometer.

AROUND HOME.

Rev. C. F. Sinclair of Boston has received a unanimous call as pastor of the Unitarian society at Dover.

Mr. Nat. Wiggin, of Greenland, lost a horse on Monday of this week; it is supposed the animal was stolen.

Three boys belonging in Dover, who had left their homes without leave, were arrested in this city on Wednesday by Officer Moore, and detained to await the arrival of their parents.

The steamer Empire State made a trip from Boston to the Isles of Shoals on Tuesday of this week. During the trip the American Steam Gauge company held its annual meeting, and all the stockholders on board were paid a dividend of twelve per cent, after which they and their families, with invited guests, sat down to a banquet.

The Piscataqua Association of Congregational ministers met at the Congregational church in Stratham on the 15th inst. Twenty-two ministers were in attendance. The opening sermon was by Rev. Geo. E. Street of Exeter. There were addresses by Rev. Dr. Robie of Greenland, Rev. Mr. Lewis of South Berwick, Me., and others.

A large party of members of St. John's parish and Sunday school, and invited guests, went to Fort Constitution on Wednesday of this week on a picnic excursion, permission to use the fort and buildings for a picnic having been granted, and the party being taken down in the U. S. S. Leyden. There was a brisk shower in the afternoon, but there was good shelter for all, and the picnickers on their return reported a very pleasant time indeed.

A boat heavily laden with stores for a party of campers-out down river, made a line fast to the steamer Leyden, Wednesday morning to get a tow down as far as Fort Constitution, whither the steamer was bound with the picnic excursionists of St. John's church and Sunday school. As soon as the steamer got fairly under way it became evident to the small boat's crew that she would tow under before getting far, and theyamade haste to cast adrift, which they managed to accomplish none too soon.

Dr. Charles Cullis, assisted by Bishop Fellowes and many other prominent clergymen and laymen from the different denominations, will conduct a conference for prayer and for the promotion of a life of consecration and faith, at Old Orchard beach, York county, Me., beginning July 25th and continuing to August 7th. Arrangements are made for a plain but wholesome table, and sleeping accomodations in tents, cottages, or at the hotels. Excursion tickets will be furnished on the Boston & Maine railroad for about half fare.

The convicts in the State prison at Concord, Mass., in arranging their recently-detected plan for effecting a wholesale prison delivery, appointed Henry Lewis, an expert locomotive engineer, to take charge of the railroad train they proposed to seize in the yard, and use it as a battering-ram on the gates of the prison. This Lewis is the convict who escaped from that prison in December last by secreting himself in a car loaded with old hoop iron, and who was subsequently arrested in this city for burglary, identified as an escaped convict, and returned to his old quarters.

Five carrier pigeons, belonging to a Mr. Walters of Charlestown, Mass., were let loose in Exeter at three o'clock in the afternoon on the 15th inst., and after a few circles in the air headed for Boston. The birds are young ones, in training, this being their fourth trip. Their first flight was from Lowell Junction to their home, a distance of twenty miles, which they passed over in fourteen minutes. They went from Haverhill, Mass., to Boston, thirty-three miles, in seventeen minutes; and from Newton Junction to Boston, forty-three miles, in twenty-two minutes. The flight from Exeter to Boston, fifty miles, was made by the birds in twenty-eight minutes.

The house of Mr. Valentine Doane, father of Valentine Doane, Jr., of this city, at Harwichport, Mass., was broken into on the evening of the 13th inst. while the family were at church, and a pocketbook containing a check for $130, $75 in bills and valuable papers stolen. Deputy Sheriff Kelley of Dennisport tracked and arrested Elsias Chase and Elsias Chase second, of Brewster, Mass. They pleaded guilty and were required to furnish bonds of $1,000 each, and were committed in default.

A stranger giving the name of Joseph M. Walton, a peddler of some kind of catarrh medicine, hired a fine horse and beach carriage on Monday of this week of J.W. Weeks, of Greenland, to drive to this city, stating that he would return immediately. Nothing having been seen or heard of the man or team the matter was placed in the hands of the officers, by whom the team was traced as far as Newburyport.

A valuable silver lode has been discovered at Acton, in York county, Me., which bids fair to become of great value. It is some three or four miles long, and from four to eight feet in width. The ore is argentiferous galena, assaying from $20 to $300 per ton.

Mrs. Lorenzo R. Herson of Berwick, Me., fell down stairs on the night of the 15th inst., striking on her head, and was fatally injured. She had arisen to close a window in an adjoining room, and mistook the stairway entrance for her room.

Huntress & Tibbetts, of Dover, run a daily stage line between that city and York beach.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

Adjourned meeting Wednesday evening, July 16th, to consider the report of the special committee on teachers' salaries appointed at the regularmeeting July 2d; present Mayor Sise, Mrs. Wilson, and Messrs. Gardner, Locke, Hoyt, May, Wendell, Knight and Pender.

The report of the special committee was as follows:

We would recommend that the teachers in the Primary Grade be paid for the first year $275, for the second year $300, and for the third year $325.

That the teachers in the Intermediate Grade be paid for the first year $325, second year $350, and third year $375.

That teachers in the Second Grammar Grade (including the teachers of the Woodbury and Plains schools) receive for the first year $375, second year $400, and third year $425.

That the grammar masters receive for the first year $900; for the second year $1000.

That the teacher of the Lafayette school receive $240 per annun.

That substitutes receive $1 per diem, while employed; and regular teachers absent from school receive (for the balance of the month only) all surplus after paying substitutes.

	1878—79	1879—80	Less
High school	$3500	$3250	$250
Grammar masters	3000	2900	100
Writing master	1000	600	400
Grammar assistants	2500	2125	375
Intermediate	4450	4100	350
Primary	4025	4150	475
Lafayette school	240	240
Totals	$19,315	$17,365	$1,950

Your committee have made no recommendation in regard to Mr. Kidder, as they learn that a movement is contemplated to change the grade of this school agreeably to recommendation from the committee on salaries. They would therefore recommend that further consideration in relation to the amount to be paid this teacher be postponed until next regular meeting.

The report and recommendations of the special committee were adopted, making a reduction in expenses of $1950, to which add the amount saved by dispensing with two teachers, $775, minus the increase in Miss Shackley's salary of $75, and the total decrease will be $2650.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

A young lad named Norton had his arm broken in the rigging loft at the navy yard on Wednesday afternoon.

A reception was given to Senator Thurman and wife, of Ohio, at the residence of Capt. Jonathan Young at the navy yard, on Wednesday evening. Many distinguished gentlemen were present.

DOVER ON THE RAILROAD MATTER.

Agreeably to notice, the city councils of Dover held a meeting on the evening of the 14th inst., to consider the proposition of the Eastern railroad in relation to the rental of the Portsmouth & Dover road. The boards met in convention, and Mayor Guppey stated at length the action taken by the directors of the latter railroad and by the city of Portsmouth, and further informed the convention that the president of the road, under authority of a vote of the board of directors, had retained as counsel for the road one of the most experienced railroad lawyers in the State, Col. John H. George. The convention then dissolved, and the councils in concurrence authorized Mayor Guppey "to take such action in behalf of the city, in connection with the directors of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, the agents of the city of Portsmouth, and other stockholders, as on consultation with them may be deemed expedient, to enforce and protect the rights and interests of the city in said Portsmouth & Dover railroad under the lease thereof by the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire; and to commence either alone or in connection with Portsmouth and the other stockholders, any suit in law or equity in the name of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, or otherwise, which on such consultation shall be deemed advisable to protect the interests of the city." The city treasurer and joint standing committee on finance were instructed to hire on behalf of the city a sum not exceeding $8,000, to meet the July coupons on the city's railroad bonds. The votes of the two boards were unanimous.

LOVE AT THE SEASHORE.

Rye beach furnishes the latest love romance, Miss Sarah Brown, a beautiful Pennsylvania heiress, having become engaged to Mr. Robert G. Miller, the son of a Rye beach fisherman, and himself nothing more nor less than the skipper of one the hotel yachts. Miss Brown frequently went out to sail in Robert's yacht, and he went dead in love with her, but kept the secret to himself, only paying her great attention. In return the young lady was very courteous. A few days ago Miss Brown got a fish bone in her throat, and her condition became so dangerous that it was decided to send to Portsmouth, ten miles off, for a doctor. Robert insisted on being the messenger, and mounting a swift horse, started off at great speed. When half way to town he unfortunately fell from his horse, dislocating one ankle and breaking an arm, but with heroic courage remounted and drove on, but fainted with pain and exhaustion after delivering his message at the doctor's office. The doctor on reaching Miss Brown quickly removed the fish bone, but declared that she could not have lived five minutes longer, and that she owed her life to the heroism of young Miller, narrating the circumstances here related, Miss Brown thereupon fell in love with Robert, and is to marry him as soon as he recovers sufficiently from his injuries. So write a veracious Rye beach correspondent of the New York Commercial, and anybody may believe it who wishes.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

The wear and tear of business life makes such tremendous drafts upon body and mind that without recourse to some sustaining agent they must give way under the pressure. To those who are breaking down, or wasting away from general debility or affections of the liver, stomach and the kidneys, a systematic course of the Bitters will so reinforce the vital functions as to baffle all the assaults of disease and restore the system to its wonted health.

LAIGHTON BROS. & CO.

—Miss Belle Stotwell is the appropriate name of a young New York lady who distinguished herself at an archery meeting recently.

—An order, which is, perhaps, unprecedented in railroad annals, has just been issued by the superintendent of the eastern division of the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad, forbidding brakemen on all trains, and especially the freights, from flirting with female passengers and girls along the line, and instructing the conductors to see that the order is strictly enforced.

—Certain culinary precautions are observed respecting Parisian omnibus conductors, on account of their intercourse with travellers. It is known that by rotation conductors may be called at any time to replace a discharged or sick driver. When a conductor was notified that instead of remaining on the step at the door of the omnibus he would have to take the rein, "Ah!" exclaimed he, raising his eyes to heaven in an outburst of joy, "now I can eat garlic!"

—There was a time when the standard of smoking tobacco was maintained, even after the brand became popular; but those days are gone by. When a new kind comes out now it is splendid—it is actually pure, and is advertised on fences and rocks and in patent medicine almanacs. Every one rushes for it, and all acknowledge its fine flavor. It is at this time that the manufacturers begin to work hay into it, so that you can either smoke it yourself or feed it to your horse as you desire.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with rude and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE
GAZETTE
Established 1736.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating remedy.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Eczema, Itch, Itch, Scrotula, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive influence. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulceration, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or is best applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

PORTSMOUTH

Daily Chronicle.

To Restore the Drowned.

The Connecticut board of health have issued a little tract giving directions for the treatment of persons who have been rescued from the water, when life appears to be suspended. The State board of health of Michigan originally published similar directions. Persons who have been in the water half an hour, or even longer, it is claimed, have been restored by this process, which is:

RULE 1. Lose not a second's time, but remove all obstructions to breathing, at neck and waistbands; turn the patient on his face, with the head down hill; stand astride the hips with your face towards his head, and, locking your fingers together under his belly, raise the body as high as you can without lifting the forehead off the ground, and give the body a smart jerk to remove mucus from the throat and water from the windpipe; hold the body suspended long enough to slowly count one, two, three, four, five, repeating the jerk more gently two or three times.

RULE 2. Place the patient face downward, and maintaining all the while your position astride the body, grasp the point of the shoulders by the clothing, or, if the body is naked, thrust your fingers into the armpits, clasping your thumbs over the points of the shoulders, and raise the chest as high as you can without lifting the head quite off the ground, and hold it long enough to slowly count one, two, three. Replace him on the ground, with his forehead on his flexed arm, the neck straightened out, and mouth and nose free. Place your elbows against your knees and your hands upon the sides of his chest over the lower ribs, and press downward and inward with increasing force long enough to slowly count one, two. Then suddenly let go, grasp the shoulders as before and raise the chest; then press upon the ribs, etc. These alternate movements should be repeated ten to fifteen times a minute for an hour at least, unless breathing is restored sooner. Use the same regularity as in natural breathing.

RULE 3. After breathing has commenced, restore the animal heat. Wrap him in warm blankets, apply bottles of hot water, hot bricks, or anything to restore heat. Warm the head nearly as fast as the body, lest convulsions come on. Rubbing the body with warm cloths or the hand, and slapping the fleshy parts may assist to restore warmth, and the breathing also. If the patient can surely swallow, give hot coffee, tea, milk, or a little hot sling. Give spirits sparingly, lest they produce depression. Place the patient in a warm bed, and give him plenty of fresh air; keep him quiet.

Before natural breathing is fully restored, do not let the patient lie on his back unless some person holds the tongue forward. The tongue by falling back may close the windpipe and cause fatal choking.

Do not give up too soon. You are working for life. Any time within two hours you may be on the very threshold of success without there being any sign of it.

Avoid delay. A moment may turn the scale for life or death. Dry ground, shelter, warmth, stimulants, etc., at this moment are nothing—artificial breathing is everything—it is the one remedy—all others are secondary.

One Week in Wall Street.

October 7th, 1878, Western Union Telegraph stock sold at the New York Stock Exchange for 96.1-8 per share; Oct. 14th, 1878, it sold at 86.3-4, a fluctuation of 9.3-8 per cent. in seven days; 12,500 shares sold on a margin of one per cent. required an actual capital of $12,000. The same stock delivered at 86.3-4 gave a profit of 9.3-8 per cent. on the stock or $937.50 per 100 shares. On the whole 12,500 the actual profit was $117,187.50 or 9.3-8 times the capital used, in one week. This is a single case taken from the official record of the Stock Exchange, and shows how money is made so rapidly in stocks. Few people, however, have the necessary cash to put up in order to realize such immense profits as these, but capital in any amount from $10 to $50,000 can be used with equal success by the new combination system of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York, have established. By this method of pooling thousands of orders in various sums and operating them as one immense capital, shareholders realize large profits which are divided pro rata monthly. New circular contains two unerring rules for success, and full information, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and Bonds wanted. Government Bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1879.

The State Legislature.

In the House, on the forenoon of the 16th inst., after various committee reports of minor interest, the bill for the abolition of capital punishment was called up. The question was upon the motion for indefinite postponement of the bill. Messrs. Greely of Gilmanton and Adams of Sandwich spoke against the bill, and Messrs. Campbell of Concord, Patten of Manchester and Dodge of Manchester in favor of it. The House adjourned without action. In the afternoon, the committee on manufactures reported "inexpedient to legislate" on the bill to tax the franchise and reservoir rights of the Winnepisseogee Lake Cotton & Woollen Manufacturing company, and the report was adopted. The special committee on the reduction of railroad freight and passenger tariffs reported a bill, which, with an amendment offered, was ordered to be printed. The following bills were passed: To protect the rights of citizens of the State holding claims against citizens of other States; in relation to the rights of husband and wife in the estate of a deceased husband or wife; changing the time of catching trout or salmon. The report of the joint committee that the session be brought to a close on Saturday morning, the 19th inst., was adopted. The bill to incorporate the Ashuelot railroad company came up on a third reading, and after discussion was refused passage on an aye and nay vote.

In the House, on the forenoon of the 17th, on a motion to indefinitely postpone the bill to abolish capital punishment, the vote was 125 for the motion and 102 against it. The ayes and noes were demanded, and a discussion ensued that lasted until adjournment.

Tornado in Massachusetts.

Massachusetts was visited by a wind, hail and rain storm on Wednesday afternoon of this week, and though the tempest lasted but a short time it resulted in more disaster to life and property than ever before occasioned in that State. In Boston and vicinity trees and chimneys were blown down, houses unroofed by the wind, or set on fire by lightning, and the hail caused heavy damage to window glass, and even injured horses and cattle. In the harbor the storm was particularly destructive to yachts and small boats, and many casualties are reported.

In some other cities and towns the effects of the storm were visible in the partial or entire destruction of buildings and crops. In some places the roads and railways were blocked by the number of trees blown across them. The storm lasted a little over a half an hour, in Boston, during which time the wind attained a velocity of sixty miles an hour, and the thermometer fell twenty-six degrees. Many of the fine trees on the common were badly damaged by the wind, hail and lightning.

At South Boston the damage to property was very great. Henry Semtream, a German, twenty-three years old, was drowned by the capsizing of a row boat, and a companion was nearly dead when picked up. Three boys, names unknown, were also drowned by their boat being blown over. Many of the yachts anchored off City point foundered at their anchors. Schooner yacht Myrtle went down near East Boston flats; Thomas Dundon clung to the masthead and was saved, but his wife, his two sisters and a niece, and a boy named Arthur Ryan, were drowned. A boy named Walter H. Hittinghime was drowned off Nut island by the capsizing of a sail-boat. Capt. Tirrell, of schooner H. W. Foster, lying off Peddock's island, was drowned in attempting to reach his vessel. A boy was drowned by a capsize off Downer's Landing, three other boys and two men being picked up by steamer Stamford. A catrigged boat was seen to go down off Hull, and two unknown bodies washed ashore from her. A fisherman's boat was picked up off Nix's Mate, bottom up. The harbor steamers were badly shaken up, but no serious mishaps occurred.

At Nantasket beach the hail and wind were tremendous, and the lightning incessant. Carriages and buggies were blown over, boats were turned bottom up, houses were blown down and people were forced against the rocks and injured to such an extent that their lives are despaired of. The Albion house was utterly destroyed, the lower story being literally blown out from under the upper part of the building, which came down upon the ruins and spread out on all sides; several persons were injured in this wreck, but none killed. An unknown man was killed by lightning outside of the Rockland house. A photograph saloon was blown to pieces, and a young man employed there, named Charles Ackert, was hurled into a crevice in the rocks with such force as to crush in his skull, fatally injuring him. Tents, barns, a windmill, carriage and bathing houses, and other structures, were totally destroyed.

At Pittsfield buildings were unroofed and blown down, trees torn up by the hundred, glass broken, and damage to the amount of $20,000 done. Two persons were killed, and four or five others severely hurt, some of them fatally.

At West Stockbridge a boy was killed by a falling tree. One chimney-stack of the Berkshire glass works was blown down, and the other struck by lightning. At Fitchburg the spire of the Universalist church was blown down, and the tin roof stripped from the city hall, the blow lasting only two minutes; no lives were lost, and no person was seriously injured.

At Taunton, Newton, Cambridge, Lawrence, Gloucester, Springfield and other places much injury was done to barns, church steeples and chimneys, and immense quantities of window glass broken.

Crops throughout the State suffered severely.

News and Notes.

Steamship State of Virginia, from New York for Glasgow with seventy-four passengers, 104 head of cattle and a general cargo, was wrecked on Sable island, near Halifax, on the night of the 12th inst., and three ladies and five children were drowned in the surf while landing.

Five new cases of yellow fever were reported at Memphis on the 17th.

William Tobin, a brakeman on the Air Line at New Haven, has been arrested for theft and repeated attempts to wreck trains by secretly uncoupling cars. His motive seems to have been revenge on Caleb T. Hubbard, a conductor, who had detected him in thefts. The death of a brakeman named Bassett, several months ago, is supposed to have resulted from one of his attempts.

Norwich (Conn.) society is scandalized over the disappearance of Charles McDowell, thirty-five years old, for two years a clerk in Burnham's book store, and quite a ladies' man, who has run away, leaving debts of over $600. He owes $100 for flowers, two years' pew rent at the Broadway church, where he attended regularly, a $75 liquor bill at a drug store, and other debts. He came from Hagerstown, Md., and claimed to have been a confederate soldier.

The depression in the cotton trade of Great Britain continues, and it is estimated that in six of the prominent manufacturing districts nearly one million spindles are idle.

John Wade, an old resident of Stowe, Vt., in his 87th year, and his wife, in her 84th, have been married sixty-five years, and have been members of the Methodist church for about fifty years.

Edward Stowell, in the police court at Newburyport on the 16th inst., was sentenced to the Westboro' reform school for seven years, for stealing fifty cents and a contribution box from the Prospect street church in Newburyport.

Wednesday of this week was the hottest day in New York for eight years, and cases of sunstroke were numerous.

A gentlemen who recently travelled in western Alabama predicts that ten thousand people will leave that section for Kansas next spring.

Rev. Allen G. Clark, pastor of the Olivet Congregational church at Bridgeport, Conn., who was recently fined in a city court for slandering the church treasurer, has resigned. As he is supported by part of the church, a lively time is anticipated when his resignation is considered.

The case of William Hayes for firing the shop of Nelson & Merrill in Peabody, Mass., came up by continuance on the 16th inst., and Justice Merrill decided to hold the prisoner for trial at the superior court in $5,000. The bail was formerly $8,000. Hayes is now under $15,000 bonds on three charges of incendiarism.

A despatch from Bangor, Me., on the evening of the 16th inst., says: "A woman was found this afternoon in an occupied mill in Upper Stillwater, gagged, bound and unconscious. She proved to be Mrs. Adeline Sherman, a domestic in the family of Arthur Sawyer. She left home last night at seven o'clock, and is supposed to have taken refuge during a heavy shower in the mill, when she was surprised by tramps, gagged and outraged. She was nearly dead when found, and has not yet been restored to consciousness. Great excitement prevails, and the authorities will use every endeavor to discover the perpetrators."

The one hundredth anniversay of the battle of Stony Point was celebrated on the site of the memorable contest, on the 16th inst. Gen. Joseph R. Hawley of Hartford delivered the oration of the day. A dozen excursion boats, steamers and barges, brought 12,000 persons to participate in the celebration. The heat was intense, the mercury marking ninety-eight degrees in the shade, and there were numerous cases of prostration. The "sham battle" did not take place, owing to the exhausted condition of the troops by heat. A signal was given from the summit of the fort, and the United States ships Minnesota and Saratoga each fired twenty-one guns, and the celebration was over.

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Speedwell, on detached service for dredging operations under direction of the fish commission, arrived at Gloucester, Mass., on the 16th inst., to take on board the dredging apparatus belonging to the commission, and sailed for headquarters at Provincetown on the following evening.

The Largest Ferryboat in the World.

The San Francisco Post says that work upon the Central Pacific company's new monster ferryboat, the Solano, now building at West Oakland, has been pushed ahead so rapidly that it will soon be ready for launching. She is much longer, even, than the City of Peking, and has a greater width of beam than any vessel afloat. Her measurements are: Length, 424 feet; width over guards, 116 feet. The Solano will have two vertical beam engines of sixty-inch bars and eleven-inch stroke, built by Harlar & Hollingsworth, Philadelphia. The wheels are thirty feet in diameter, with buckets having a face of seventeen feet. Eight steel boilers, each twenty-eight feet in length, will be provided, and will be made in pairs, with a smokestack to each pair. The engines work independently, each moving one wheel, which will revolve independently of the other. The hold is divided into eleven water-tight compartments, which renders her less liable to sink, and also strengthens her. Four tracks will be placed upon her decks, which will accommodate forty-eight freight cars or twenty-four passenger coaches. Her slips will be provided with aprons 100 feet in length, which will admit of cars being taken aboard without uncoupling from the engine. The Post says: "The Solano is intended to run between Martinez and Benicia, where slips are being built for her. By this route the distance between San Francisco and Sacramento will be but eighty-five miles, instead of 140 miles via Livermore, and 151 via San Pablo. It is expected that upon her establishment on the ferry line the Vallejo route will be practically abandoned, only local business being done through it.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

ROCKINGHAM, SS.

By the Judge of Probate for said County.

TO the heirs at law and creditors of the estate of ELIZA SALTER, late of Portsmouth, in said County, deceased, intestate, and all persons interested in said estate, greeting.

You are hereby notified that CHARLES H. SALTER, administrator of the estate of said deceased, will present his account of administering said estate at a Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in and for said County, on the Second Tuesday of September next, at 10 o'clock A. M. for examination and allowance.

At the same Court the Report of the Commissioner of Insolvency on said estate will be taken into consideration for acceptance.

You are therefore hereby cited to appear at said Court to be heard thereon, and to make such objections as you may then have, if any, and notice is hereby required to be given by causing this citation to be published three weeks successively in the Portsmouth Daily Chronicle, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least one week prior to said Court. By order of the Judge.

Generally clear and cooler weather, with northerly and westerly winds, and raising barometer.

AROUND HOME.

Senator Hall of this district has extended an invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Thurman to visit Dover previous to their departure for the White Mountains.—Times.

William Hurd, of Dover, and his coworkers of the Jonadab Mission, have pitched their gospel tent at Georgetown, Mass., and are laboring there, it is said with good success.

The U. S. S. Powhatan, which has been expected to pay a visit to this port, has received orders to proceed from Portland to Philadelphia, to tow around from the latter port to Pensacola the sectional dry dock for use at the navy yard there.

By the will of the late John Walker the Home for Indigent Women gets a bequest of $500; the Children's Home $500, and the Universalist society $200. The balance of the property goes to his immediate connections. The estate is stated to be valued at over seventy thousand dollars.—Times.

The attention of navy yard workmen and others having occasion to use the steamer James Sampson as a means of transportation across the river, is invited to several slight changes in the time-table, which can be found in the regular advertisement in another column.

A party of young men in Dover are making arrangements for an excursion from that city to Newport, R. I., Martha's Vineyard, New York, and from thence one hundred miles up the Hudson river, stopping at West Point. The excursionists are going by water, chartering a steamer for the purpose, and will be absent about two weeks.

Arthur G. Tufts, formerly of Dover, has been appointed to an important position in the telegraphic department of the Union Pacific railroad, with headquarters at Omaha, Nebraska. Thomas W. Pierce and Andrew Pierce, formerly of Dover, were chosen on the board of direction of the Galveston, Houston & San Antonio railroad in Texas at a recent meeting, and Thomas W. Peirce was subsequently elected president of the board.

The reform club picnic at Pinkham's grove, Dover point, Thursday, was attended by a large number from this city, Newcastle and Dover. At three o'clock in the afternoon services at the stand were conducted by Mr. G. W. Randall, president of the club; prayer was offered by Rev. Ephraim Ricker, of Dover, and a little boy from Barrington gave a very pleasing recitation. Rev. A. A. Waite then addressed the large audience, giving a very interesting account of his experience among the colored people. W. H. Dodge, Esq., president of the Dover reform club, Rev. Mr. Ricker, and others, made short addresses, and the services closed with singing and a "chalk talk" by Mr. Waite. The rest of the time was spent in games of all kinds. Mr. John Westley Wilson catered to the wants of the multitude, and the best of order prevailed throughout the day.

Treasurer R. M. Chapman of the Biddeford savings bank, who recently shot himself, is said to have left his property, some $30,000, to the bank. He is supposed to have committed suicide through nervousness, and fear that loans made by the late president, William P. Haynes, were not properly secured, and that the bank might suffer greatly. His bequest to the bank may have been for the purpose of saving it from loss. After a partial examination of the bank by examiner Joseph Titcomb, he reports that all notes, bonds and securities called for by the books of the bank, except $70, an error of long standing, are found in the safety vaults at Portland, and that the cash to balance the books is on hand. A valuation of the securities will be made as soon as practicable.

The Dover Enquirer of the 17th inst. says: "The meetings of Rev. Mr. Waite, in his gospel tent on Lexington street, still continue to attract large crowds, and all appear to be interested. Last Thursday evening several car loads came up from Portsmouth, and added fine singing to the other exercises. He has been induced to continue his labors here for two weeks longer, and we hope great good may result to the cause of temperance and religion from his efforts."

SAILING REGATTA.

Arrangements have been completed for a sailing regatta on this river, to come off on Monday, July 21st, at two o'clock P. M.; two prizes will be offered; the race is to be for all boats in Portsmouth harbor, with time allowance, based on the water-line measurement of the boats; flying start. The course will be as follows:

From a stake boat off Clark's island, around a boat anchored off Little Harbor, around Kitt's rock buoy, around a boat anchored off Fort McClary, and back to stake boat,—all course marks to be left on the port hand in passing.

There are a number of new boats on the river this season, and some of the old ones are good sailers, so if the day is favorable and the breeze good and stiff a fine race may be anticipated.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

John R. Reding appeared before the board in behalf of Edmund P. Roach, asking the board to remit the amount of taxes due on his property. Referred to committee on accounts.

An invitation from the city government of Manchester to the Portsmouth city government to participate in the ceremonies of dedicating the soldiers' monument, Sept. 11th, was accepted and referred to the next city goverment.

Martin Hoyt asked permission to place a hitching post in front of his residence on School street; referred to committee on streets with power.

E. C. Bean made a claim of $25 for sheep killed by dogs; referred to committee on claims.

E. C. Winchester asked to have the road in from of his residence on Lafayette road repaired, stating that if the city would allow $200, he would do the rest at his own expense.

Messrs. Anderson and Jenkins asked permission to encumber Court street for building purposes; granted.

Petition of Icabod Goodwin and others for a sewer on State street, between Cabot and Summer streets, was referred to committee on drains to report.

Notice was received of the action of the Dover city government in regard to the Portsmouth & Dover railroad matter.

Dennis Shea asked leave to open Court street to repair drain; granted.

Consideration of question of better water supply for Market square reservoir, was continued for one week longer.

Mrs. W. H. Y. Hackett asked for a gas light in front of her residence on Congress street; referred to committee on gas lights.

Committee on claims recommended that the bill of Daniel W. Jones be paid. Accepted and adopted.

Committee on fire department recommended that W. I. Trafton's communication respecting telephonic fire alarm be referred to next city government.

Petition of Frank Jones and others for the city to put several of the streets in the outskirts under the superintendence of the street commissioner, was considered, and it was voted to grant the petition, and that the city solicitor be instructed to make the necessary changes in the ordinance in relation to the subject.

The following were elected members of the board of instruction for three years; Mrs. Hellen C. Knight, Dr. James R. May, Mercer Goodrich, and William C. Newton.

PRESS EXCURSION.

A portion of the New Hampshire Press Association, with ladies, arrived in this city on Thursday, on their annual excursion. The number is smaller than in some former years, several members being detained at the legislature, and the Concord newspaper men being unable to get away. A special train took the party to Dover point at 12:30 o'clock, and shortly after their arrival dinner was served. After dinner they proceeded to Dover, where they were met by carriages furnished by Col. Bracewell and other gentlemen, and driven about the city; and after inspecting the principal points of interest, the mills, ect., they partook of an excellent collation provided by Col. Bracewell. Returning to this city, the party had supper at the Rockingham, where they remained for the night.

To-day they visit the navy yard, Kittery point, etc., and have a steamboat ride down the harbor, putting up at the Wentworth at Newcastle.

GIVE 'EM A TASTE.

Complaint was made at the police station on Thursday that tramps had entered the house of Robert B. Adams, corner of Pearl and Hanover streets, and insulted his wife. Officers visited the place, but the scoundrels had left; later in the day, however, two of them were seen near the post office, and were locked up in the police station. We are informed that several complaints have been made of their soliciting food at houses, and that when given good, wholesome food they have contemptuously thrown it away; at other places they are said to have forced their way in against the expressed wishes of the inmates, using insulting language.

If our information concerning these bummers is correct, or anything near correct, we venture to suggest to the proper authorities the propriety of giving them a dose of the "infamous tramp law." That law was passed to meet the cases of just such fellows—for notwithstanding the talk of a certain class of political tramps about "oppression of the laboring man," etc., no laboring man has ever been in any way endangered by it, nor is there the slighest likelihood that one ever will be; and no real working man nor even any politician ever really believed the law would hit any person except the peripatetic pests who have made themselves such a terror in Maine for a year past. Since the tramp law was passed, we have heard few stories of loafing, thievish bummers forcing their way into houses, and terrifying women, in this State, and this is the first instance of anything of the kind in this city since that date, so far as we have heard. Hence we suggest that now is a good time to commence the enforcement of the law, to teach the bumming fraternity that it will be enforced when occasion demands, and that it is not a mere scarecrow erected by honest and hard-working people in hope to frighten off thieves and loafers. If the law is not enforced, the tramping fraternity will soon find it out, the State will again be overrun with ruffians insolently demanding—when they cannot conveniently steal—whatever they fancy, and such infernal outrages as that just reported at Upper Stillwater, Me., will be likely to occur in any New Hampshire village.

Give the gentry a taste of the tramp law.

Fish Farming.

Anyone reading the published works on fish culture is led to believe that a small stream or pond will produce more food for the table than ten times the same amount of space in field farming. My experience is that a pond covering one acre, with a depth of five feet, when well stocked with catfish, yellow perch and sunfish (the best kinds for ponds), will yield one good meal per week for a good sized family without being fed; and if well fed, three times that quantity. The above kinds of fish will do well if there is sufficient water flowing in to keep the pond full in dry weather; space and depth of water being of much more consequence than the amount of flow. These kinds of fish need no attention in hatching and will take care of themselves; only feeding when large enough for the table being necessary. Animal matter only is the natural food for fish; yet yellow perch and sunfish will occasionally eat bread crumbs, etc. Curd, made from either sweet or sour milk, is good for most kinds of fish. The ponds should be well screened at the outlet, in order to save the fish at high water.—Cor. Tribune.

—The human skeleton consists of more than two hundred distinct bones. Some five thousand less, it is calculated, than a shad contains. And yet man professes to be more wonderfully and fearfully made than any other living creature.

—There was a time when a sultan would have considered his days numbered did he allow himself to be seen driving through the streets of Constantinople with a Christian lady. Yet that is what has recently occurred. Not only did Sultan Hamid take a long drive one pleasant afternoon with Lady Layard, wife of the English minister, but he condescended to fatigue himself by holding her parasol over her head, while she did the driving.

At the meeting of the governor and council, on the 16th inst., William Butterfield and Horace A. Brown of Concord were appointed auditors of printing accounts in place of John M. Hill and Geo. E. Jenks, declined; and William L. Foster of Concord was appointed trustee of the State library, vice George Stark, resigned.

John Coyan's daughter, seven years old, was drowned below Leavitt Mill, near Fabyans, on the night of the 15th inst. The body was recovered.

As two children of Caleb Monroe of Canaan were at play under a cart body on the 16th inst., it tipped over and killed the oldest, a girl of nine years, the other escaping.

At Charlestown, on the 16th inst., Marston & March, proprietors of the Eagle hotel, Fairbrother, proprietor of the Cheshire Bridge hotel, and James Bowman and Ansel Moore, were arrested for illegal liquor selling.

Right Rev. William W. Niles, Episcopal bishop of New Hampshire, on account of impaired health will sail from Boston for Europe on Saturday, to be absent several months. While he is abroad the diocese will be in charge of the standing committee, of which Rev. H. A. Coit is president.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with rude and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.

Book and Job
PRINTING OFFICE!
UP ONE EASY FLIGHT.
Chronicle Building, Portsmouth N.H.
Over D. H. Montgomery's Store.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula down to Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the ablest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, compound of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blocked Sensation about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, acrid, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 17th.

Perhaps the most effective ornamentation is that consequent on the employment of ribbon bows, to say nothing of the coquettish belt to match. These bows are placed anywhere and everywhere, and the results are as charming as can be. And yet as if in perversity, we constantly see the ribbon bow or tie at the throat discarded, in order to give place to a single large flower or bunch of small flowers, as the case may be. Bunches of flowers are indeed a notable feature in the outfit of the Saratoga belle. They are worn par excellence at the waist on the left side, but as I have said, they give finish at the neck, or sometimes a smaller bouquet or single flower is at the throat, while an addition of the same kind, but larger, is at the waist. Daisies are the rage, but as a change we see pond lilies, crushed roses or violets. 'Tis an ill wind that blows nobody any good, as the little boys are making fortunes by selling bouquets or single pond lilies.

COSTUMES.

Mixtures of colors in costumes are quite remarkable. Miss Tiffany of New York the other day wore a dress of ecru camel's hair combined with pale blue, while a brocaded ribbon, showing bright mixtures of red and blue, gave finish, and an Alsatian bow to match appeared on her head. Again, I observed Mrs. Vanderbilt, who was dressed one morning in a pink striped lawn, with broad-brimmed hat lined with pale-blue satin, and an immense crimson poppy on the outside. The shade hats worn on piazzas and about the streets (for we all go about in a reckless sort of a way, with or without a hat indeed; with or without gloves; with long trailing muslins, or habited in demure walking suits) are captivating by reason of the variety and the extreme abandon of the mode of trimming. Sometimes great piles of crushed roses are heaped together without foliage; sometimes 'tis one large flower; a modest bunch of small flowers; or again careless sprays, which hang down occasionally as far as the waist. Fayal work is quite in favor, and one of the prettiest morning costumes, worn by a daughter of Judge Hilton, was of zephyr gingham having rows of Fayal work let in throughout. Another superb toilette, worn by Mrs. Astor of New York, was of white satin elaborately trimmed with fine Fayal work. Miss Marvin, daughter of the owner of a leading hotel here, is celebrated for her toilettes. She wore the other morning a polonaise of ecru silk embroidered in self color, and edged with ecru Spanish blonde. A square of Spanish blonde was thrown over her shoulders, and confined in front by a bouquet of yellow crushed roses. Her hat was a broad-brimmed Leghorn trimmed with ecru ribbon, white ostrich plume, and crimson roses. Skirt, black velvet.

ARCHERY.

What a contrast all this to the simple yet coquettish costumes of flannel, bunting or cheese cloth, with bandana trimmings, which the belle assumes when trying her skill at archery or lawn tennis. There is a rage for both these games, as the implements thereof everywhere exposed for sale bear witness. Those most highly esteemed are made by Philip Highfield of London, whose agents here are Peck & Snyder, 124 Nassau St., New York. The same widely known firm are agents for Jefferie's Lawn Tennis, and also have on hand a pretty little book sold at twenty-five cents, which is a complete guide to Lawn Tennis and Badminton, while at the same price, another little volume, the Modern Archer, gives full information as to the rules of archery. For ten cents, they forward a catalogue containing more than seven hundred illustrations of sporting goods adapted to all seasons of the year.

NEW DESIGNS.

A word as to some new designs. The Ilona walking costume consists of a tight fitting basque, with cut-away fronts showing a pointed vest and skirt trimmed with deep box-plaited flounces, while the Nerissa overskirt certainly also may be singled out because of its graceful stylishness, the more so as it is adapted to any class of dress goods or wash materials. With this the Lucille basque would combine tastefully, having cut-away loose fronts and tight fitting vest. I cannot omit mention of the Berenice walking skirt, which shows a draped apron turned back with revers above a finish of plaits and flounces below. For travelling the Brighton ulster is the leading design.

HAIR DRESSING.

Hair dressers are making money fast, but I cannot see that they bring about anything novel. We observe for the most part clusters of finger puffs set high on the head, or chateleine braids low at the back—sometimes both together, but what is there new in this? Some variety is given by a waved coil with short curls at the back, or again all the hair may be waved, drawn back with some stray locks left in front, and confined low down with a finish of short curls. Frizzes, or crevee coeur locks, are almost universally seen, but not in such exaggeration as formerly.

LUCY CARTER.

Portsmouth Chronicle

SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1879.

The State Legislature.

In the House, on the afternoon of the 17th, the bill to regulate freight and passenger tariffs on railroads was passed. After a discussion, under a suspension of the rules, the bill for the abolishment of capital punishment again came up, and an aye and nay vote was taken upon the question of an indefinite postponement; the bill was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 116 ayes to 86 nays. The bill reducing the salaries and compensations to State officers and members and officers of the legislature was indefinitely postponed.

In the House, on the forenoon of the 18th, the following bills were passed: Relating to the running of trains on the Suncook Valley railroad; in amendment of the act to incorporate the Manchester & Fitchburg railroad; to amend the charter of the Manchester & Keene railroad; acts providing for liens; in favor of common carriers. The committee on railroads reported inexpedient to legislate on bills to amend the general laws relative to railroad corporations, and to punish giving and receiving illegal fares on railroads. Both reports were adopted. The bill to provide for minority representation in corporations was returned from the Senate with an amendment, which was concurred in.

The Yellow Fever.

There was one death by this disease at Memphis on the 17th, Mrs. James Hester being the victim. The five cases reported are all under one roof, in two families named Hester. James Hester is a wharf-boat watchman. Other suspicious cases of sickness were reported, but they had not developed as yellow fever.

A Memphis despatch of the 18th inst. says a dozen or more of the Hesters' neighbors have been taken sick since the 16th, and that in another part of the city four persons in one family are sick, with a number of single cases scattered around, but the physicians do not pronounce all the cases yellow fever. The river towns are reported as increasing the stringency of their quarantine.

The brig Shasta, from St. Domingo and bound to Chester, Pa., arrived in great distress at the Lazaretto, twelve miles below Philadelphia, on the 17th. Of the nine men on board, seven were down with the yellow fever, and four deaths had occurred, the captain among the number.

A Lively Congress.

The Haytien Congress can discount the Congress of the United States for disorderly conduct, notwithstanding the number of fire-eating rebel brigadiers in the latter. A terrible state of affairs is reported in Hayti. In the legislative chamber at Port au Prince there has been a general shooting affray, in which over forty members were killed. Fighting in the city continued up to the latest advices, and the town was on fire. A paper published at Kingston, Jamaica, on July 3d, says that "in consequence of a dispute in the house of representatives, the brother of the president was shot by a member who took offence at language which had been used. M. Caval, though wounded in the arm, returned the fire and shot his opponent, when a general firing followed, and the populace and police outside fired into the building. The president of the senate and others were shot down, and when the Jamaican steamer left for this port the government troops were raking the streets with mitrailleuses." The same paper of July 8th says that on the 30th ult. a serious fire occurred in Port au Prince, caused by "firing of shells in the town, and several blocks of buildings were burned, a number of lives lost and many persons wounded, the inhabitants having to take refuge in the hills. A widespread revolution was considered imminent."

News and Notes.

The persons arrested in Boston for alleged complicity in the Jennie Clark case, were indicted on Thursday by the grand jury, as principals or accessories before the fact. They were arraigned in the afternoon, pleaded not guilty, and committed in default of $15,000 bail each.

The loss of life around Boston by the tornado of the 16th inst. was much greater than first reported. The number of persons known to be dead, or missing with no hope of return, is now put at about thirty.

The dead bodies of five of the six men who started in a sail-boat from Port Colborne, Ont., on the 3d inst., for Buffalo, N. Y., to spend the 4th, have been found. A bottle containing a farewell message from the men was previously picked up, and said their boat was foundering in a furious gale at one o'clock P. M. on the 3d inst.

A man and boy, both unknown, were killed on the New York & New England railroad at Hyde Park, Mass., Friday morning. The man was torn in pieces, and the boy never spoke after being struck.

The trial of Chastine Cox for the murder of Mrs. Hull was concluded in New York on the 17th inst., the jury returning a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Cox, who had borne a smiling countenance all through the trial, his vanity being evidently gratified at his sudden notoriety, was sentenced to be hung on the 29th of August.

The committee appointed by the legislature of Pennsylvania to investigate the alleged over-issue of State bonds of 1858, have discovered that there was no such over-issue, the only error being a clerical one by which the State was charged with $21,000 too much in 1858, and with $21,000 too little in 1862, the amounts balancing each other.

The villain who abused and nearly murdered Mrs. Witham (not Sherman, as at first stated,) at upper Stillwater, Me., has been arrested, and proves to be a man named Edgar Kennistor, who boarded at Sawyer's, where she worked. After being restored to consciousness she stated who her assailant was and that he met her near the mill, and after making base proposals which she rejected he knocked her down and accomplished his purpose. She fainted and knew nothing more till she was found and restored. After he had bound and gagged her he placed her in an old boat in the basement of the mill, and left her, as he supposed, to die. He was found and arrested, and is held for examination. The woman could have lived but a short time longer had she not been accidentally discovered. The man is said to be a married man somewhere. The woman is the wife of a man living on the town poor farm, and was on the way to her husband with some necessaries when accosted and assaulted.

A despatch to the Portland Press says that Detective John S. Heald has discovered a farewell letter to the public, written by Lewis M. Libbey of Temple, Me., the man recently found dead in that town and supposed to have been murdered, which proves pretty conclusively that Libbey died by his own hand. The letter is evidently the work of an insane man, and shows that Libbey was depressed in spirits and in a frame of mind that might lead to suicide. A more careful examination of the hole where the body was found shows that it would have been an easy matter for Libbey to drown himself therein.

Rev. M. A. Gates, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., while engaged at work on his farm barn Thursday, fell from the roof and broke his right thigh badly, also fracturing his left ankle.

At West Burke, Vt., recently, a Mrs. Couchie was holding seances. Zim Fogg was watching the materializations as they appeared, and when one pretty spirit came out the temptation to embrace her was too much. Zim threw his arms around her, and found he was embracing the medium herself. Of course he was disappointed, but once having her in his arms he investigated, and found her dressed in thin garments. In her traps were several spirit hands manufactured of paper, which had been efficient in awakening interest in her exhibitions.

At Martin, Texas, on the 16th inst., during the trial of a case in court, Sheriff Featherstone quarrelled with Thomas Gaither, drew a revolver and shot the latter thrice, one wound necessitating the amputation of his leg. Featherstone fled, pursued by a posse. On the same day, at McKavitt, Texas, while Constable Cisco was taking Andrew Burns to jail the latter broke away. Cisco drew a revolver and commanded him to stop. Burns bared his bosom and dared Cisco to shoot. The constable fired three shots, each striking Burns in the bosom. He cannot survive. Nice place, Texas.

New Hampshire Items.

Alonzo Sargent, of Grafton, dropped dead in a hay field while raking, on the afternoon of the 16th inst. Age about seventy years.

President Hayes has declined the invitation of Gov. Head to attend the soldiers' reunion and temperance camp meeting in August, on account of his numerous engagements.

People who went up Mt. Washington a few days ago were surprised to find the Summit house windows, on the exposed side, snowed up and frozen up, and the promenade platform, like the rocks about, still almost over shoes in snow, and every post and northwest-facing rock still covered to a depth of nearly half a foot.

Several newspapers and individuals in Maine and Massachusetts are engaged in the pleasant occupation of working up a case against New Hampshire. It seems that not many years ago a woman, who had been deceived and abused by her lover, sat by the window in her humble home, when, without warning, her spirit was loosed and she was dead. She was murdered. The man who deceived and abused her did the deed. It was premeditated. It was a crime that sent terror to every hearth-stone, and consequently New Hampshire had only the disposition to furnish the villain—no matter what profession or repentance he might make when the rope was put about his neck—with six feet of mother earth. It is done; well done; satisfactorily done; it will be done in the same way for the next saint that does such a deed, and anybody, and everybody, in Maine, Massachusetts or elsewhere, may do and perform all the forgiving that their sensitive souls suggest. The rope remains on the cross-beam and is the proper thing for murderers. As a Jersey paper remarks concerning capital punishment and its abolition, "Let messieurs the murderers give the example, and cease to execute us."—Nashua Telegraph.

Naval Affairs.

Leave of absence is granted to Passed Asst. Paymaster George A. Deering for thirty days, upon the arrival of the Tallapoosa at Portsmouth; to Medical Director S. F. Coues, on duty at the New York naval hospital, for two weeks from the 17th inst.; to Chaplain Wm. H. Stewart, attached to Portsmouth navy yard, for thirty days from the 24 of August.

Two officers of the U. S. S. Quinnebaug, at Constantinople, while going in a small boat aboard that vessel on the 12th inst., were stopped opposite the palace by Turkish soldiers, taken before the authorities and detained two hours. On Monday, the 14th, after an energetic demand by the United States minister, the Turkish naval commander in the presence of the crew of the Quinnebaug made personal excuses, when the minister declared the amende complete.

—Just in proportion as the thermometer goes up, lager goes down.

—A military man, pitching into an opponent, exclaimed: "Why, his sword was never drawn but once, and that was in a raffle."

—An English showman's version of the story of Darius, Daniel and the lions, was as follows: "'At him,' says the king. 'We won't,' says the lions. 'At him again,' says the king. 'Blowed if we will,' says the lions—which was a sell for the great King Darius, and wery wexatious."

AROUND HOME.

Temperance meeting this (Saturday) evening at 7:45 o'clock, at Mission hall. All kinds of suasion.

In addition to the bequests already announced as made by the late John Walker to charitable societies in this city, we learn that he left $500 to the Howard Benevolent society.

The Epping camp-grounds are reported in excellent condition, with several families already there, established for the season. The camp meeting will begin August 25th and close on the Saturday following.

Mr. M. J. Leary, acting under authority of Mr. Colburn, will deliver the Boston Sunday Globe or Herald at the houses of all persons in this city who desire it done, immediately on the arrival of the papers by train. Persons wishing either of the papers are requested to leave name and address at Dr. Preston's drug store.

Michael Cunningham, of this city, who was sentenced to two years and six months in State prison at the October, 1877, term of the supreme court, for breaking into and stealing from freight cars on the Eastern railroad, was pardoned out Friday by Gov. Head on account of sickness; he being very low in consumption.

In our last issue, we published a notice of the marriage in Kittery on the 9th inst., of Mr. Frank T. Kate and Miss Mary Lizzie Deane. The bride was a daughter of the brave Color Sergeant William Deane of the old Second Maine, who was killed at Bull Run, and borne from the field clinging to his colors, from which he refused to be parted till death loosened his fingers from their clasp.—Bangor Whig and Courier.

A despatch was received in this city on Friday from the police authorities of Chelsea, Mass., saying that they had found the team stolen on the 14th inst. from Mr. John W. Weeks of Greenland by Joseph M. Walton, the peripatetic peddler of some quack medicine for the cure of catarrh. The team was found at a livery stable, but the thief has not yet been traced.

Mr. John H. Downing, in the employ of Mr. Cyrus L. Brown, while assisting in filling the ice chest in Brown's store on Friday was badly hurt. The door of the ice-chest is some distance above the floor, and while hoisting up a large cake of ice the hooks slipped, and the cake in falling struck Mr. Downing on the head, inflicting injuries which it is feared are very serious. Dr. Whittier dressed his wounds.

A careless boy on Thursday attempted to drive a blind horse, belonging to Mr. Joseph O. Ham, on the Elwyn farm, near the Plains, over an old well covered with plank weakened by decay, when the animal broke through and fell in head foremost. All attempts to raise him from his position were unavailing, and he died in a few minutes. The horse, although sightless, was in good working condition, and was valued at one hundred dollars. The lad was raking hay with a wheel-rake when the accident occurred.

The Portland Press of Friday says: "It was the intention of Rear Admiral Wyman to permit the Powhatan to remain here ten days or a fortnight, but yesterday he received new orders from the department to proceed to Portsmouth, and there change his flag to the Marion, while the Powhatan was ordered to proceed to Chester, Penn., and thence to the Pensacola yard to refit. The Powhatan will therefore depart for Chester to-day. Admiral Wyman and staff may remain in the city a day or two longer." We are assured that the statement in Friday's CHRONICLE that the Powhatan is ordered to tow the sectional dock around from Philadelphia to Pensacola, was correct; we believe the ship requires no refitting at present, and if she did it is not likely she would be sent to Pensacola to have it done, just as the yellow fever season is commencing. It is reported that Admiral Wyman's flag, and also the band, will be transferred to the Marion to-day.

The majority of the lasters at the shoe factory at Kennebunk struck a few days since, and their demand not being granted, they have gone to Lynn for employment.

Oliver F. Webster, of Dover, who is fifty-one years old, challenges any man of his age in that city to race him a mile for $10 a side. He is old enough to engage in better business.

Oliver Dore of Dover was thrown from a load of hay in that city a few days ago, had two ribs broken and one hip injured, and was badly jarred besides. He is about sixty years old.

Wilbur Horne, formerly of Dover but now a conductor on the Galveston & San Antonio railroad in Texas, was thrown from his train recently, and had a shoulder badly hurt and an arm broken.

THE PRESS EXCURSION.

On Friday the excursionists, with numbers considerably augmented since the previous day, embarked on the steamer James Sampson, at about nine o'clock in the forenoon. The navy yard was visited, every courtesy being shown the party by the officials; and after inspecting the yard, the U. S. S. Marion, etc., and looking through the ship houses and workshops, the party re-embarked and were taken to Kittery point, where a ramble on shore was had, followed by a trip down the river in the steamer, which finally landed them at the Hotel Wentworth at Newcastle, where dinner was served. In the afternoon the excursionists cruised at will about Newcastle, the new earth-work fort at Jaffrey's point, which is supposed to be good for harbor defence, and old Fort Constitution, which is considered valuable only as an ornament, being objects of especial attention, and the lighthouse on Fort point having many visitors.

This forenoon the party visit Little Boar's Head and Rye beach, in wagons.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, July 18; Bufford, J.

Two tramps, giving the names of Daniel J. Burdin and Thomas Clark, were brought before the court on a complaint under the tramp law. A large number of witnesses were present, among them being Mrs. Adams, wife of Mr. Robert B. Adams, agent of the Kearsarge mills, and a Mrs. Hoyt, both of whom had been insulted by the worthless wretches. The testimony offered was very strong against the defendants, and fully sustained the charges of the complaint, so they were ordered to severally recognize in $300 for their appearance at the October term of the supreme court. Nobody appearing who wished to risk six hundred dollars on the "honor" of the precious pair, they went to jail. The action of the police, and of the citizens insulted and annoyed by these bummers, in this matter, is simply just what it should be; and if messieurs the tramps are treated to a dose of, say, fifteen months at hard labor in the State prison, it will be a long day before we shall again hear of unprotected women in this city being insulted in their own homes by strolling thieves and loafers. The thanks of the public are due to whoever has been instrumental in bringing these two scoundrels up with such a severe turn.

George W. Brown, drunk, was fined $10, costs $6.90. Edward J. Clark, a "simple drunk," was fined $3, costs $6.90. Brentwood for two.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

The wear and tear of business life makes such tremendous drafts upon body and mind that without recourse to some sustaining agent they must give way under the pressure. To those who are breaking down, or wasting away from general debility or affections of the liver, stomach and the kidneys, a systematic course of the Bitters will so reinforce the vital functions as to baffle all the assaults of disease and restore the system to its wonted health.

Political.

The democratic secretary of the United States Senate has recently discharged a faithful, competent and respectable doorkeeper, Sidney L. Wilson, of New York, who lost both legs in the late war. Wilson has had charge of the ladies' gallery ever since 1869.

Mr. C. G. Thwing of China, a wounded Union soldier, has lost his place on the Capitol police, Washington, being kicked out by the confederates because he "fit on the wrong side," the side that don't harmonize exactly with their notion of civil service reform. "I'D—d pity it hadn't killed him" was the expression of one of those "womanly-natured" southern gentlemen at Washington, seeking office, when informed that Thwing had been seriously wounded during the war, fighting for the Union. Mr. Thwing has returned to his home in China.—Kennebec (Me.) Journal.

Lost Seven Pounds in Three Weeks.

Allan's Anti-Fat is a genuine medicine, and will reduce corpulency from two to five pounds per week. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, acting entirely on the food in the stomach, preventing the formation of fat. It is also a positive remedy for dyspepsia and rheumatism.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 11th, 1871.

Botanic Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Gentlemen—The lady alluded to lost seven pounds in three weeks, by the use of Allan's Anti Fat. Yours truly,

SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH,
Wholesale Druggists.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with rude and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.

—In this world brayin' is too often mistaken for brain.

—Among the most stylish headgear which now crowns the American gentleman is the "Granite Cassimere," doubtless so called on account of the number of bricks to be found inside.

GAZETTE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the worst Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, roaring in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst case of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, full directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

Treatment of Growing Poultry.

A delicate period, in the life of fowls, while growing, is when "shooting the red." This, particularly with turkeys, is a most trying season, and one which requires the strongest feed and best of care. Some birds do not mind it at all, but keep up strength and grow through it all, while others are weak and suffer from a loss of appetite; consequently they stand still a few days, sometimes a week, and if they do not fall back, the others grow away from them. The common fowls do not mind it so much. The cocks begins to show their pugnacious proclivities by voluntary picking a quarrel and entering on a free fight with each other. The females are quiet, and, where sisters in the same brood, seldom have any dispute. Before this period comes on the birds should have learned to eat whole grain, and thus grind their own provender. This method helps to keep up a brisk action to the blood and system and increases strength, while the moistened meal feed —too frequently given to young poultry —is heavy, sluggish and clogging, and when long continued is apt to result in a loss of appetite. The bird gets weak and dies from exhaustion.

Turkeys suffer most at this period, and are fickle feeders. They should never be allowed to miss a regular feed. If so, they are apt to become languid and indifferent, and the only safeguard with those young birds is to keep up the appetite and strength. Only through the food is the strength renewed and gained daily. Young turkeys oftentimes from weakness contract a water dropsy. Water collects between the two skins, and the little things are frequently blown up like bladders. Where the appetite is good, and all the swelling goes down through the night, there is l[illegible] fowls require watching. This general occurs just before, and sometimes at, the period of shooting the red. The writer has seen the neck swollen so full that the bird could not get its head to the ground towards nightfall when weary with the day's fatigue. Turkeys require warm weather. It can never be too hot for them while young and growing. The long, warm, summer days are beneficial, not only for the strengthening influence of the sun, but for the rest they obtain under cover of the noonday shade. In cloudy, damp weather the birds wander from place to place, unsettled an dissatified, using and wasting their strength in the vain endeavor of finding some situation that answers their requirements. When young such days tell on the flocks. The dews are heavy and the nights are chilly in June, and the birds naturally seek the deep grass of the meadows, which remain damp and moist until near midday. On this account, while young and the plumage in a downy state, they should be restrained until the sun is well up and the chill and dampness gone.

An eastern exposure, where the birds can have the full benefit of the open morning sunlight, should be chosen. An hour's sun in the morning is worth the whole day to the little birds. Turkeys grow rapidly. At the age of three weeks their backs are nearly covered, and they have obtained their first quill feathers in the wings and tail, and can endure more foul weather. As they increase in strength and growth they should be allowed more and more liberty each day, until given free range to go and come at will. When this rule is persevered in, the birds will be found to have assumed more quiet, home-like habits, and prefer to loiter about the yards and remain at home. They should never be allowed out of sight for a whole day. The regular feeding should be kept up, not so much that they require it so frequently, but to keep up the habit, and that all may have their fill. One is never sure of the number of the flock until Thanksgiving day comes and the birds are brought to the block.

When starting the red, the birds are also in a weak state from the making of feather material and growth at the same time; therefore it is highly necessary that the most nourishing food be administered and kept up throughout. Sour milk or curd alone is not sufficient food. Turkeys are extravagantly fond of buckwheat, and will eat considerable corn, but whole corn is too heavy a feed in warm weather, considering the weak condition of the growing chicks. Give them all they will eat of wheat or buckwheat until they are out of danger, and they will foot the bills. Whole wheat is the heartiest and most nutritious grain that fowls can get. There is less waste and more gluten and starch, which supports bone, muscle and tissue, and these materials, which go to make the whole, must be kept up. A smaller quantity of wheat is need to satisfy the needs of fowls than any other grain, on account of its flesh productive properties.

With ducks, the most delicate period is when commencing to grow the feathers. The body has attained one-third its size before this period comes on. They make the most rapid growth of all kinds of fowl, and require the most frequent rations of food, as it is soon exhausted and passed away from them. They turn their food into blood and body qualities within a shorter period than any other fowl, and their maturity is the earliest of our domestic birds. Hence their profitableness over other poultry.

—"Now is the time to lay in your winter fuel," as the tramp said when he crept into the replenished woodshed.

—Next year will be a very prosperous one for dealers in smoked glass. No less than seven eclipses are advertised.

—There was a man in Paris who, when he went out, was always robbed. Somebody said: "Why don't you carry pistols?" "Suppose I did—why, the robbers would take them too."

Portsmouth Chronicle

MONDAY, JULY 21, 1879.

The State Legislature.

The House on Friday afternoon ordered an investigation into the management of affairs in Carroll county, but refused to concur with the Senate in reducing the price of board in the insane asylum.

Both branches held evening sessions, and the disputed bills were nearly all disposed of. Neither house adjourned until after one o'clock Saturday morning. In the Senate, President Gallinger was presented with an elegant edition of Appleton's Cyclopædia. In the House, Speaker Huse was presented with a fine gold watch chain and seals, and Clerk Baker with an elegant gold-headed cane. The usual resolutions of thanks to minor officials were passed.

Both branches met Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. The fact was soon developed that they were as far from agreement as they were at adjournment. There appeared to be no possibility of agreement on the railroad bill to regulate rates and tariffs of freight and passengers, while the conferees on the omnibus bill felt that the prospect was discouraging for settling their differences satisfactorily, in which case the latter important bill would fail. The main points of difference were on taxing stock in corporations out of the State owned by citizens in the State, and exempting money loaned by individuals at less than five per cent. The House favored the former proposition; the Senate the latter, and neither would yield. The forenoon was spent in recesses and conferences upon this matter. At three o'clock the final result was reached. The railroad bill was killed, and the omnibus bill was passed with the disputed sections left out, which were passed as separate measures by the House, in which they originated, and the other branch non-concurred on each. Most of the members then left for home, while the clerks were engaged in engrossing this long bill. It was completed at 5:40 o'clock, and signed by the governor, who then prorogued the legislature. Ninety-four acts and forty-four joint resolutions were passed during the session.

The Yellow Fever.

The national board of health on Friday evening received official advices from Dr. Robert W. Mitchell, a member of the board and a resident of Memphis, stating that that city is dangerously infected with yellow fever in an epidemic form.

On Saturday three new cases were reported in Memphis, two being of young ladies who attended upon a woman named Tobin until her disease was pronounced yellow fever, and the other passenger agent of the Memphis & Charleston railroad. The son of the chief of police was dying of the fever at noon, but his case was not reported to the authorities. The people are panic stricken. A despatch at a late hour on Saturday reported six new cases, with the disease spreading.

The physicians of Memphis advise people to leave the city, and a general exodus has begun. Nearly all business is suspended. There is a panic in all towns on the Mississippi below Memphis, and no freight or passengers are allowed to land. The mail arrangements along the river are completely upset, and no mails have been delivered for several days. Galveston, Texas, will not receive mails or express from New Orleans.

News and Notes.

Robert Augerton of Danforth, Me., was fatally shot in his haying field Friday noon by Chandler Williams, of the same town. It is reported that Williams accused Augerton of improper relations with his (Williams') wife, and gave him five minutes to leave the country, which Augerton refused to do, whereupon Williams shot him. Williams has been arrested.

Chastine Cox, the murderer of Mrs. Hull, has been reprieved. His counsel Saturday applied to Judge Potter of the supreme court for a stay of proceedings. After listening to the argument of counsel the court decided to grant a writ, returnable the first Monday of October, when the case will be heard in the supreme court. Cox was overjoyed when the fact of the stay was communicated to him, and warmly thanked his counsel for their efforts in his behalf.

Hon. Alexander Ramsey, of Pennsylvania, has been tendered the position of secretary of war.

The cargo of the steamer State of Virginia, wrecked on Sable island, is valued at $375,000. The vessel cost $400,000. There is little hope of saving anything from the wreck.

Prince Jerome Bonaparte has been formally declared the head of the Napoleonic dynasty, and has issued an address declaring that it is the duty of his followers not to oppose the republic.

Two men named Blanchard and Hedges got into a dispute about the right to pick raspberries on some private grounds near Cheyenne, Wyoming, Friday. Hedges shot Blanchard twice in the hand, but was instantly killed by the return fire of Blanchard.

After an hour's desperate fight, in which all the reputable citizens and police of the town of Shickshinny, Pa., took part, some 300 rowdy miners were driven out of the place Wednesday evening.

An eight-year-old Brandon, Vt., boy named Bordeau quarreled with Frederick Trusha, nine years old, the other day, and shot him seriously with a rifle, the bullet passing through Trusha's body.

"Jimmy" Hope, one of the robbers of the Manhattan bank in New York, was on Friday sentenced to twenty years in the State prison.

A man giving the name of Henry Evans was arrested at Albany, N. Y., Saturday morning, for attempting to destroy the steamer Drew on her trip from New York, Friday night, by exploding two small cans of powder in a stateroom. No lives were lost.

By the capsizing of a yacht on the St. Lawrence river, opposite Point Aux Trembles, Friday afternoon, two young ladies and five men were drowned. One of the young ladies was the wife of the owner of the yacht, and the other a relative of Lieut. Gov. Letellier; and both moved in the highest circles of society.

New Hampshire Items.

The legislature (including Senator Ordway) adjourned sine die on Saturday.

A meeting of the Rochester & Nashua railroad stockholders was held in Nashua on Friday to vote on the act of the legislature permitting stockholders to exchange old bonds for new, the latter to be secured by mortgage on the Rochester & Nashua railroad. The act of the legislature was approved by an almost unanimous vote. Nashua loses, by investing in this road, $100,000, but should it prosper the city may recover the amount.

B. F. Elliott, the missing sewing machine agent, who was thought to have been murdered at Bartlett, in May last, was found alive and well at Bethel, Me., Friday, by John M. Harding, the suspected murderer.

Marston, March, Moore and Fairbrother, of Charlestown, arrested on the 16th inst. for illegal liquor selling, were each fined $100, and sentenced to sixty minutes in jail. They were conveyed to Newport, the county seat, incarcerated in the jail for the space of one hour and then released.

The Landaff Gold Mining company cleared up on Thursday at their large mill in Bath, and found they are running $11 a ton, which leaves a clear gain of $6 a ton, the working costing $5. There is greater activity in mining in that section than ever before. Wm. Lawry of Newburyport, Mass., has just completed and is now working a new mill in Lyman, and has machinery ready for a second mill. It is expected that other mills will soon be built.

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Powhatan sailed from Portland Saturday for Philadelphia.

The U. S. S. Vandalia is at New Bedford, and will remain there for a week, enlisting boys.

The U. S. S. Wachusett arrived at New Orleans on the 14th inst., from Vicksburg; she is very successful in enlisting, the number of applicants being very large.

The Army and Navy Journal says: "The announcement that the court of inquiry on the Constitution had found no blame attaching to anyone must be premature. Diligent inquiry fails to discover that any announcement of the finding of the court has been made by the secretary of the navy; and it is not to be presumed that any member of the court has communicated to any one the result of the findings."

Greenback Statements vs. Facts.

During the campaign in Maine which resulted in the final election of a democratic governor, the Aroostook Sunrise, a republican paper, went over to the greenback side and did able work for that party; but in a recent issue the greenback heresy is renounced by the editor in the following language:

A year of varied and not always pleasant experiences has convinced the proprietor of the Sunrise that his abandonment of the support of the republican party and its principles, and the making it the organ of a class of men calling themselves greenbackers, was a mistake, not conducive to his own welfare, to the good of the people of the county of Aroostook, of the State of Maine, or of the country at large. Our inexperience in political affairs, the clamor of a class of men who we have become convinced sought their own rather than their country's good, must be our excuse. In confessing a mistake honestly made, and sincerely carried out for some months, we think we have the right to an apology often claimed by older men than ourself, that doing so only proves that we are wiser to-day than we were yesterday!

A year has convinced us that the loud complaints of the last few years of the misdoings of the republican party have no valid foundation. That the statements made in the canvass of last year, that the government and the people were on the high road to bankruptcy and ruin, were false. The statement of the greenback candidate for Congress last year in this county, that the talk about resumption and return to specie payments in January, 1879, was a pretense, a fraud, a cheat, a swindle upon the people, has been proved by actual and successful resumption to be an error either of the candidate's judgment or sincerity; in either case unfitting him for the high station to which he aspired. Events have proved that the theory prominently put forth by greenback speakers and writers last year, that the government was carrying an immense debt which could never be paid except by an almost unlimited issue of greenbacks, practically irredeemable unless perhaps in the remote future, was the creation of demagogism and ignorance. The successful return of the country to the currency of the constitution and to commercial prosperity without a jar in the monetary affairs of the nation, the refunding of a large portion of the national indebtedness at an immense reduction of interest, and the general revival of business in all the business centres of the Union, the demand for labor everywhere at remunerative prices, prove that the men who made all the woeful predictions of last year were lacking in the essentials of a true manhood.

We have become satisfied that a large portion of the men who are the leaders in the greenback party are persons who were years ago weighed in the balance by the people and found wanting in the elements of character which render them safe and reliable political leaders. We have become convinced that the greenback movement of last year filled up the legislative halls at Augusta largely with men without political experience, sagacity or wisdom; and for the first time in the history of Maine, we had a legislature eminent for nothing except turbulence and insubordination to the time-honored rules of deliberative bodies. Professing to be reformers and the representatives of reformers, they reformed nothing, nor left anything better than they found it!

Whilst reducing to some extent the salaries of officials, a measure demanded by all parties to make them correspond to the changed value of our currency by the resumption of specie payment, they refused to reduce their own pay, until compelled to do so by Governor Garcelon. Pretending a special horror at political cliques and "rings," no political party in the country was ever so completely in the hands of leaders, to do the bidding of a few men so implicitly, as are the greenback party. So true, and obviously true is this, that the State convention of the party is accused of being the slaves of a "ring" by many of its own members, and that too before the party is one year old.

In view of these facts and many others which may be named, we have decided to dissolve the connection of the Sunrise with the greenback party. Our candidate for governor this year is Hon. Daniel F. Davis, and our candidates for senators, representatives and county officers will be the regular nominees of the republican party. The Sunrise during the campaign will be edited by its former editor and publisher, who will give to its columns no uncertain sound in favor of republican measures and principles, which for near a quarter of a century have guided the destinies of this State and Nation.

What $200 Did in Wall Street.

August 16th, 1878, a Phila. customer, wrote Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y.: "Dear Sirs: Yours containing remittance for $1,113.25, as profits on my 200 shares, is received. Accept my thanks, for I am very well satisfied. You may use this letter. I would recommend every one who feels disposed to speculate to send for your circular. This is but one instance out of thousands, by which the new combination system of operating in stocks enables people with large or small capital to make similar profits. By this excellent plan, the orders of thousands of customers from all parts of country are pooled into one immense sum and co-operated as a mighty individual account. Each member of the combination secures all the advantages of the largest capital united with experienced skill. Profits divided monthly; $10 invested returns $50, or 5 per cent on the stock, $75 will make $450, and so on, according to the market. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for sucess," and explains everything, so that any one can operate profitably. All kinds of stocks and bonds wanted. New Government loan supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange place, N. Y. City.

The Folio for August has been received. It contains, beside the regular miscellaneous reading matter, an unusual amount of new music, selected from new books now being published for the summer and fall trade. Published by White, Smith & Co., No. 516 Washington street, Boston.

—A few years ago, a coon-hunting Kentucky major had a fine piece of land which he desired to sell. He told a friend about it, who remonstrated with him and said: "Why, major, you ought not to think about selling that property now; it will be very valuable some day." "Valuable the devil!" replied the major; "I've not caught a coon off that land for ten years."

THE SUBSCRIBER takes this method of informing the public that he has purchased the Steamer JAMES SAMPSON, and will continue to run her as formerly between Portsmouth and Kittery. This boat was built in 1875, and is constructed of the best material; has double engines and is first class in all her appointments. It will be my aim to merit the public confidence, and I assure them that the boat will be in charge of reliable and competent men. Thanking the public for their generous support in making this a permanent institution, I shall as heretofore run the JAMES SAMPSON on stated times, and will inform the public of any change.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for the New England States, To-Day:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21, 2 A.M.

Slightly warmer, south-east to south-west winds, partly cloudy weather, and falling barometer, with rain in the northern portion of New England.

AROUND HOME.

A son of Mr. Charles O. Johnson, eleven years old, while at play on Friday evening slipped and fell, breaking his collar-bone.

The sailing race, open to all boats belonging on either side of the harbor, comes off this afternoon at two o'clock, the starting point being Clark's island.

A lady in this city recently returned a call made upon her seventy years ago. The two ladies had not exchanged visits since. The recipient of the call is more than ninety years of age, and in excellent health.

Miss Nellie I. Boynton, the soprano at the Unitarian church, has sent in her resignation which has been accepted. We regret to learn that Miss Boynton was obliged to take this step on account of poor health, her physician having ordered her to rest. Her many friends in this city wish her a speedy recovery and a brilliant success in the future.

Rear Admiral John H. Wyman, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, and his staff, arrived at the navy yard on Saturday, and were received by the officers of the yard and the marine corps, the regulation salute of thirteen guns being fired. The admiral has hoisted his flag on the Marion, the Powhatan having gone on tow-boat duty, but it is probable that the latter vessel will be again taken as the flag-ship when her present duty is completed. The band of the Powhatan, which it was reported would be transferred to the Marion, remains on board the former.

The schooner Annie & Millard, Capt. Blackman, arrived at this port on Saturday from Baltimore. On the previous Wednesday night, while off Montauk, Long island, during a heavy thunder shower the vessel's mizzen-topmast was struck by lightning, which shivered the topmast in pieces and then passed down the mizzen-mast to the after house, slightly injuring the lower-mast. In the cabin the mouldings were cleaned off, the doors shattered and other damage done to a considerable amount. Capt. Blackman and one of the seamen were knocked down by the shock, and remained insensible for some time. The shower in which the Annie & Millard was struck was probably the edge of the big thunder-storm that swept over Massachusetts that evening, and caused such great destruction of life and property.

Complaints are frequent of late from the boatmen on the river, in regard to the masters of the river steamers not sounding their whistles when approaching points of land, as we are informed the United States navigation laws direct them to do. There have been several narrow escapes recently of small boats from being run down at the narrows, which is a particularly dangerous place, as it is impossible for the occupants of a small craft on one side of Seavey's island point to see the low smoke-stack of a steamer on the other side, over the high land, and the whistle not being sounded the first warning the boatman has of the steamer's proximity is when she comes tumbling round the point on top of him. Unless more caution is taken by the steamboat captains we shall probably have a fatal accident in the narrows to chronicle at some time.

A curious sight every day at Rye beach is a carriage driven by an "Oriental" coachman in native dress, and closely followed by a young pig. The diminutive "rooter" trots along behind the wheels regardless of the clouds of dust, and now and then gives forth a noise between a grunt and squeal—perhaps to mark off the quarter miles. Now and then he will turn aside from the main road and enter the private grounds of a summer resident, much to his anxiety for his flower beds. At such times the "Jap" gives him lively chase, and when victorious, carries him back to the main road in his arms. Piggy stands still till his pursuer is fairly seated in the team, and then scampers off, much to the amusement of the bystanders and the disgust of the Oriental. As a general thing, however, piggy is contented to follow closely, and makes a very novel attendant, to say the least.—Ocean Breeze.

Mrs. Robert S. Smith, of Kennebunk, while tending a tethered calf recently got caught in its chain, which broke one bone of her leg above the ankle and dislocated the other.

Ansel Drew of Rochester was thrown from a carriage on Monday of last week, and had his right arm broken near the wrist. He also lost his pocket-book, containing about fifteen dollars, the accumulation of small savings to pay for a new suit of clothes.

Mr. M. H. Leavitt, of Newmarket, was stung about ten days ago on the forefinger of the right hand by a large black spider, and in a short time the wound became inflamed; the whole arm soon became swollen and was very painful for several days, and for a while serious results were feared, but Mr. Leavitt has now recovered.

The gentlemanly agent of Greenough & Co., of Boston, was distributing the new Portsmouth Directory for 1879 to subscribers on Friday and Saturday. Every business man should have one, and it is a handy thing to have in the house whether one is in business or not. Copies can be procured at Willis G. Myers' bookstore, at $1.50 each.

Catharine Hughes, a poor widow living in Dover, fell from a chair on which she was standing hanging out clothes, on Tuesday of last week, and was hurt so that her neighbors had to carry her into her house. She was attended and fed by the neighbors until Thursday, when a doctor was called, who found her hip broken in such a manner that her leg had contracted two inches in length. The poor woman was removed to the county farm.

Old Oaken Bucket Division, No. 2, Sons of Temperance, has elected and installed the following officers for the ensuing term: Horace A. Martin, P. W. P.; Miss Fannie M. White, W. P.; Mrs. Sarah L. Blatchford, W. A.; Charles T. Wiggin, R. S.; Miss Fannie Deverson, A. R. S.; Charles Humphrey, F. S.; Mrs. Amanda Holbrook, Treasurer; James Janvrin, Chap.; Miss Nora Hanscom, Con.; Mrs. Mary C. Taylor, Asst. Con.; Charles F. Larrabee, I. S.; Walter C. Meloon, O. S.

Says the Dover Democrat: "The report is made in one of the Great Falls papers that on Wednesday a keg of Paris green was found in the canal at that place, and that as the mill operatives drink freely of the water it was a lucky circumstance that it was found before the contents of the keg had been distributed in the canal. Quite likely it was lucky, but still, we should think that operatives who could drink that canal water and live, would find no difficulty from the absorption of a keg of Paris green."

Last week Major Urch secured for his aquarium two sharks and a number of other fish, and was particularly gratified at receiving two specimens of the fishing-frog or monk-fish, a creature consisting principally of mouth, same as a green-back stump-orator. Another attraction at the aquarium is a cat-fish, which is a far less formidable looking fish than the monk; but whereas the latter, with its immense mouth, has but very little power in its jaws, the cat-fish, with its small mouth, has such tremendous jaw-power that it can drive its blunt teeth through the edge of a boat's thwart, or grind up a man's hand like an egg-shell, if it can manage to get hold of it. The ill-tempered old cat seems to get along very well with the other inmates of the tank, contrary to the expectation of some of the fishermen. Prof. Baird, chief of the United States fish commission, has signified his intention of paying a visit to the aquarium this summer, with his staff.

THE HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

A number of enquiries have been directed to us, as to when operations for the improvement of this harbor are likely to be commenced; and if they are not to be commenced at all, why not. We give it up. Congress appropriated $20,000 to begin with, but where it has gone or is likely to go we cannot say, nor whose business it is to attend to the matter. Were Frank Jones in Congress now we would ask him about it, and get a satisfactory answer, too; but he isn't.

THE PRESS EXCURSION.

The wagon ride to Little Boar's Head and back on Saturday forenoon was a very pleasant trip, and greatly enjoyed by the party. The telegraph cable station at Rye beach, and the life-saving station, were visited; and as at other places every attention was shown the visitors by the gentlemen in charge. Dinner was served at the Wentworth on the return of the excursionists, and the afternoon, or what was left of it after dinner, was spent by each one as he or she pleased.

On Sunday a number of the party attended church in this city, others attending service at Newcastle; several didn't go to church at all. In the evening a most enjoyable concert was given at the Wentworth by the Music hall quartette of this city, complimentary to the excursionists.

This morning the party will return to this city in coaches, and a dinner at the Rockingham will end the meeting, the party separating for home in the afternoon.

DUN FISH.

The above luxury, once forming the Saturday dinner or so many of the well-provided families of New England, is now rarely if ever seen in its original perfection. When Noah Webster was preparing his dictionary, he wrote to the eminent Portsmouth merchant of half a century ago, John Haven, Esq., asking the favor of his procuring for him information as to the process of what was termed "dunning" in the preparation giving the name to the fish, which he did through the sources then readily open to him, and his reply, for which he received due credit, may be found, as follows, in the work of the great lexicographer:

"Dunning, (from dun, a color,)—The operation of curing codfish in a manner that gives it a particular color and quality. Fish for dunning are caught in the early spring, and often in February. At the Isles of Shoals, the cod are taken in deep water, split and slack-salted; then laid in a pile for two or three months, in a dark store, covered for most of the time, with salt-hay or eel-grass, and pressed with some kind of weight. In April or May, they are opened, and again packed as close as possible in the same dark store till July or August, when they are fit for use."—JOHN HAVEN.

The mode of preparation appears to be not at all difficult, and so much better is it than ordinary salt codfish, generally so hard, there would seem no reason why it might not be brought again into use, with all its old-time popularity.

To Get Rich.

Nothing is more easy than to get rich. It is only to trust nobody—to befriend none—to get all you can and save all you get—to stint yourself and everyone belonging to you—to be the friend of no man, and have no man for your friend—to heap interest upon interest, cost upon cent—be mean, miserable and despised for some twenty or thirty years—and riches will come as sure as disease and disappointment. And when pretty nearly enough wealth is collected by a disregard of all the charities of the human heart, and at the expense of every enjoyment, death comes to finish the work the body is buried in a hole, the heirs dance over it, and the spirit goes—where?

Lost Seven Pounds in Three Weeks.

Allan's Anti-Fat is a genuine medicine, and will reduce corpulency from two to five pounds per week. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, acting entirely on the food in the stomach, preventing the formation of fat. It is also a positive remedy for dyspepsia and rheumatism.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 11th, 1877.
Botanic Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Gentlemen—The lady alluded to lost seven pounds in three weeks, by the use of Allan's Anti Fat. Yours truly,

SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH,
Wholesale Druggists.

—A round trip,—falling over a ball.

—The eloping young lady of the period is the lily of the valet.

—The proper implement for flooring a ghost—A spirit-level.

—When a cat is so mad that her hair stands on end, she has a fur-straight appearance.

—Ninety dramatic and musical combinations are being organized to take the road the coming season.

—"Too much of a good thing," as the kitten said when it fell into the milk pail.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with rude and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.

Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
—THE—
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.
Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid medicine may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and entirely unattended with inconvenience accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no acrid or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18th.

Some erroneous impressions have been sent out from here under the guise of an interview with Hon. Wm. E. Chandler. Mr. Chandler came here as secretary of the republican congressional committee, and not as an agent of any presidential candidate, and therefore of course he spoke guardedly. He is a warm friend of Mr. Blaine, and labored for his nomination in 1876. He is also a friend of Zach Chandler, and is a stalwart like him. But he did not say that Chandler was the most hopeful candidate, nor that Washburne had even a chance. He thinks that the votes will be much scattered, that all the men he named will receive, support and that Windom is as likely to be the "dark horse" as any body. Mr. Chandler, I may add, has gone west for his health, and it is reported that he will appear in California to help his friend Gorham in the republican campaign there.

In view of the importance attached to financial legislation and discussion at this time, I shall be justified in calling attention to an important conference to be held in Saratoga, N. Y., on the 6th, 7th and 8th of August coming. It is called by the American Bankers' Association, who will hold their annual convention on that occasion, but it will embrace interests so wide as to cover the whole industrial and commercial affairs of the country. The proceedings will be non-partisan. The president of the Bankers' association is Hon. Alex. Mitchell, of Milwaukee, a leading democrat, and the other offices are divided among all parties, except of course the greenbackers, who have no interest in conservative financial affairs. The discussions will not be confined to banking or financial matters, but will embrace all subjects of legislation and private business. The matters of usury, State and municipal debt, currency reform, commercial growth and revenue improvement will be fruitful topics, and promise to elicit valuable contributions to our politico-economical literature. The assembly may have an important bearing upon the legislation of next winter.

As an impartial writer it is my duty to record the fact that the friends of other candidates are troubled by the "Tilden boom." That is the rather inelegant way of putting the popular movement looking towards a presidential nomination. There can be no doubt that Mr. Tilden is more favorably mentioned for that honor than he was a few months ago. It is a fact that many democrats who then spoke lightly of Mr. Tilden's chances have changed their minds, just as I intimated in this correspondence some time ago that they would do. The democratic party sees that the east must be considered in its financial views, and Tilden and Bayard are their representatives on that point. But Mr. Tilden has this advantage over Mr. Bayard, that he has a larger State to back him, a State that casts thirty-five electoral votes.

The rapidity with which the claimants under the arrears of pensions act have been paid is unprecedented in that kind of work in this country, and the republicans are claiming great credit for it. On the other hand the democrats say that the republicans were forced to do the work rapidly, and deserve no credit, but on the contrary are doing as they do for political effect during the political campaigns. The amount of money paid out on this bill since July 1st is $4,840,000. At the rate of allowances so far the total appropriations of the pension act, $25,000,000, will not hold out. Two-fifths of this amount has already been assigned.

The proposed national fair to be located in Washington as a permanent institution is progressing well, and its friends and promoters make very large promises for it. The citizens of Washington have contributed liberally towards the enterprise.

A very strong movement is on foot among western and southern men to have Sec'y Sherman reverse his decision relative to the construction of the Gamgee refrigerating and disinfecting ship. They want Prof. Gamgee to try the experiment of staying the spread of yellow fever and other contagions by his process, and think that under the bill passed and approved the secretary can give him the contract at once. The pressure from the threatened districts is very great. Senator Harris, of Tennessee, is doing noble work in behalf of whatever offers in the way of protection to his people, and Gen. Garfield and other northern men are helping him with their influence. KNOX.

—One little persistent fly, one that evades every attempt to be knocked off your face with a pillow, will stick closer and teach a stuttering man to talk plain quicker than anything yet invented.

The Yellow Fever.

Fifteen cases of yellow fever were reported at Memphis on Monday, up to noon, with two deaths. The secretary of war on Monday issued an order directing the quartermaster-general to supply the poor people of Memphis with tents.

There were two deaths from yellow fever at the New York quarantine hospital on Sunday, both of seamen from Havana.

News and Notes.

The two editors of the Albany, N. Y. Herald, a paper exposing the alleged extravagances of some of the city departments, were badly beaten Saturday night. One was stabbed and would have been killed but for the assistance of citizens.

The latest revolution in Hayti is said to have ended. The fighting in Port-au-Prince lasted five days and eighty houses were burned, but the commercial part of the city escaped. The loss of life was immense.

The exodus movement from North Carolina to the west has begun. Five colored men passed through Washington Friday, and say that they are but the pioneers in the movement, which has just started. They represent that they have been enduring an oppression worse than slavery; that they have been robbed of the fruits of their labors, and that their contracts for crops have been broken after their labor has been performed. One of the refugees says that a colored man is starved, threatened, and bribed into voting the democratic ticket.

New Hampshire Items.

A Catholic church is to be immediately erected at Charlestown, Sherman Paris, Esq., having given $1,000 for the purpose.

H. N. Colston, landlord of the Babboosic house at Amherst, was thrown from his carriage the other night, and fatally hurt.

The eighty-third annual course of Medical Lectures at Dartmouth College will be opened July 31, with an introductory address upon the history of the institution by G. P. Hubbard, M. D., LL. D., of New York city, who has been connected with the medical college since 1837. The number of the faculty will be increased, W. W. Seelye, M. D., of Cincinnati, and Louis Elsberg, M. D., of New York, having been engaged.

Darwin Werden, of Claremont, aged 22, started up Sugar river, Sunday afternoon, to wash his clothes, but was followed by Albert Kelsey, aged eleven, who immediately upon reaching the water, dove in. Werden saw he was drowning and jumped after him, but as neither could swim, both were drowned. The bodies were recovered shortly afterwards.

Hon. E. W. Stoughton, U. S. Minister to Russia, who founded and munificently endowed the Stoughton Pathalogical Museum at Dartmouth, has recently added several hundred dollars' worth of collections.

The war of the ex-confederate officers of the House and Senate against the crippled Union soldiers in their employ is continued. Sergeant-at-Arms Bright of the Senate has removed the legless hero of Gettysburg, Wilson, and justifies his removal; and now Capt. Demar, a republican soldier who lost his arm at Donaldsonville, is to be removed from a position under the doorkeeper of the House of Representatives. That doorkeeper was a major general in the confederate army. The crippled, one-armed soldier was a private in the Union service, but he is a republican, and he must go, the pro forma protestations of caucus chairman Senator Wallace, and of that great friend of the Union soldier, Senator Voorhees, to the contrary notwithstanding. It is said Mr. Demar's place is to be filled by a gentleman who is expected to be very influential for the democratic ticket in Ohio this fall.

—A charming remark of a little French girl whose father had just received a medal of honor: "Strange, is it not, mamma, that everybody put on an every-day look while we cannot conceal how truly happy we are?"

—Two Ohio Nimrods, camped in the woods of Michigan to hunt game, followed a bear track in the snow for three days before discovering that brain was a land-looker from Chicago who walked with his toes turned in.

—A boy in Crawford County, Ind., was a father at eighteen years of age. He lately married a second wife, and now, at the age of eighty, is happy with a second child. There is sixty-two years difference between the ages of the two children, and you can't force the older boy to give up his play and 'tend the baby; no, not wo .h a cent.

—"This, dear children, is the shoe of a Chinese lady; see how little it is; what a very narrow sole it has." "I'll bet it ain't as narrow as Deacon —'s. Father says his soul will fall through a crack in the floor some day and get lost," was the shrill comment of a boy given to sharp listening. The superintendent put the Chinese shoe in his pocket, and requested the school to sing "Pull for the Shore."

—The question now is, did the mule spinners stop work because they thought there were mules enough.

—The boy who calls another bad names does not become dignified when he heaves a rock at him, although he adds stone to his remarks.

—Frank Mayo has made a bit with "Davy Crockett" in Liverpool, and so expects that England generally will be pleased with his beautiful American play.

—A New York woman is accused of selling a superb pair of black carriage horses because they were not becoming to her now she had stopped dyeing her hair yellow.

—At a meeting in favor of cheaper beer, a New Orleans German said: "Shentlemen—I don't shpeak if you don't call upon me, but dere ought to be as much bulge in de beer glass ash deer ish in de barrel."

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.
The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood
The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.
The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price, $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.50.
Sold by all Druggists.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Jupiter" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $57.50 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCracken Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to

A CARD.

THE SUBSCRIBER takes this method of informing the public that he has purchased the Steamer JAMES SAMPSON, and will continue to run her as formerly between Portsmouth and Kittery. This boat was built in 1878, and is constructed of the best material; has double engines and is first class in all her appointments. It will be my aim to merit the public confidence, and I assure them that the boat will be in charge of reliable and competent men. Thanking the public for their generous support in making this a permanent institution, I shall as heretofore run the JAMES SAMPSON on stated times, and will inform the public of any change.

Mr. Hanscom is well and favorably known here as a most skillful draughtsman and practical mechanic.—Times.

Half-fare rates to Dover and back,—forty cents for the round trip—will be issued for use on Thursday, the 24th inst., to enable parties in this city to attend Elder Waite's tent-meeting on the evening of that day. Holders of these tickets can go to Dover by any regular train on Thursday, returning by a special train after the tent meeting is over.

The lower barber has not for months been so bare of vessels as it was on Sunday afternoon last, when the departure at noon of two eastward bound coasters left a solitary schooner, lumber laden, at anchor in Pepperell's cove. She looked mightly lonesome until just before night, when two other lumber vessels and a schooner loaded with empty fish barrels, and the sloop yacht Starlight, of Boston, ran into the cove and brought up.

The White Mountain Guide Book, published by Edson C. Eastman of Concord, is a book which the intending visitor to the mountain region of this State will find of great interest and value. Besides the usual maps, descriptions of points of special interest, etc., common to such works, it contains a list of most of the private boarding-houses in the mountain district, with the number of guests each can accommodate, and the price of board per week at each. For sale in this city by Mercer Goodrich.

The Tourjee excursionists, recently landed in Ireland, found themselves in the city of Cork on the Fourth of July, where they celebrated the day by a special entertainment at the Imperial hotel. The latest file of the Cork Daily Herald gives a report of the occasion in which the following paragraph occurs: "Mr. W. H. Hackett, lawyer, of Portsmouth, N. H., presided, and prayer was opened by Rev. C. P. H. Nason of Chelsea, Mass. When dinner had been discussed the chairman delivered a short address expressive of the pleasure which they had derived from their visit to Ireland, but adding that although they had in the pleasant scenes around enough to win them from their native land, still that day brought back fond memories of their own country."

SAILING REGATTA.

On Monday afternoon there was a sailing regatta in the lower harbor, open to all boats owned on the river, of whatever rig or model, with time allowance based on the length of the boats, measured at the water line. The entries were thirteen in number, as follows: "Unknown," Charles C. Dixon; "Clara," William H. Dixon; "Reliance," E. W. Getchell; "No Name," Thomas J. Billings; "Lillian," John Lowry; "Sea Beetle," George Bailey; "Myth," Samuel Pillsbury; "Fawn," George Witham; "Fire Fly", Oliver Adams; "John Neal," John Neal; "Ada," Valentine Doane, Jr.; "John Harvey," John Harvey; "Ben," John Amazeen.

A flying start was made shortly before three o'clock, the competing boats starting from the sloop yacht "Gen. Grant," of Kittery, anchored off Clark's island, and sailing around a boat anchored off Little harbor, thence around Kitt's rock buoy and a boat anchored off Fort McClary, and back to the starting point, all course marks being left on the port hand in passing.

There was a fine breeze, and the sight was fine as the boats got away, the number that went around the course being over thirty, while numerous others with crews of lookers-on "sloshed around" at will. The navy yard steam launch, with a party of ladies and gentlemen, and the steamer James Sampson with a crowd on board, were there, and spectators were thickly sprinkled along the Kittery and Newcastle shores; and the walls of Fort Constitution were largely occupied, while a couple of hundred people awaited on Clark's island the end of the race. The "Ada," the large sloop yacht belonging to Valentine Doane, Jr., was the first boat to pass the winning point, coming in minus her topmast, which she carried away just at the end of the race. The following table shows the actual sailing time of each boat, and the racing time as corrected by the rules for allowance:

Boat.	Sailing Time. h.	mm.	sec.	Corrected Time. min.	sec.
Unknown	1	25	31	51	5.3-10
Clara	1	23	1	51	4
Reliance	1	20	25	49	45 4-10
No Name	1	18	59	52	36 3-10
Lillian	1	23	22	51	54 6-10
Sea Beetle	1	27	3	57	19 8-10
Myth	1	16	45	48	2 3-10
Fawn	1	27	51	56	9 5-10
Fire Fly	1	20		53	6 5-10
John Neal	1	20	53	50	35
Ada	1	9		48
John Harvey	1	18	42	54	37 9-10
Ben	1	25	2	53	6 8-10

At the close of the race the prizes, two handsome cups offered by Mr. Decatur of Kittery, were presented to the winners in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentlemen on Clark's island, Capt. Doane, of the "Ada," taking the first prize with a record of forty-eight minutes, and Capt. Sam Pillsbury, of the "Myth," the second prize, the latter's time being forty-eight minutes, two and three-tenths seconds—pretty close work. The judges were Capt. Stover and Messrs. John Lawrence and Lemuel Davis, Mr. Calvin L. Hayes being the referee. The race was fine and the whole affair a very pleasant one, nothing occurring to mar the harmony of the occasion.

THE PRESS EXCURSION.

The original programme for the trip provided for a dinner at the Rockingham house at one o'clock on Monday, the excursion to end with the end of the dinner; but this was somewhat modified, a banquet being tendered the party by Hon. Frank W. Miller, president of the association, at his residence at Lincoln hill, in the morning, which was wound up with cheers for the host, for the ladies of Lincoln hill, and for Ex-Governor Goodwin, who with Rev. Mr. DeNormandie was among the guests. The forenoon boat was afterward taken for the Shoals, where the day was passed, the excursionists leaving for home in the evening.

Among the guests of the association present from outside the State were H. O. Houghton, of Cambridge, Mass.; Charles W. Slack of the Boston Commonwealth, and wife; George A. Marden, and C. M. Langley of the Lowell Citizen, and wife.

At a meeting of the Press Association on Monday the following was adopted:

Resolved, That our thanks be extended to the Concord, B. C. & M. R. R., and especially to the Eastern railroad for courtesies; the Rockingham house, Portsmouth, the Wentworth at Newcastle, Farragut at Rye, and the Oceanic at the Shoals; to John Bracewell, Esq., Dover Print Works, for his elegant hospitality; to Supt. Wm. J. Frazer, of the Direct U. S. Cable Co., and Capt. Rufus W. Philbrick of the U. S. Life Saving Station, both at Rye; for the interesting exhibitions of their departments; to Ex-Gov. Cheney, for his hospitality at Straw's Point and to Maj. David Urch for invitations to visit his extensive sea aquarium at Newcastle, and John Albee Esq., for kindly exhibiting to the party his picturesque residence at Newcastle, the Janvrin house, more than two centuries old.

Lost Seven Pounds in Three Weeks.

Allan's Anti-Fat is a genuine medicine, and will reduce corpulency from two to five pounds per week. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, acting entirely on the food in the stomach, preventing the formation of fat. It is also a positive remedy for dyspepsia and rheumatism.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 11th, 1877.
Botanic Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Gentlemen—The lady alluded to lost seven pounds in three weeks by the use of Allan's Anti Fat. Yours truly,

SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH,
Wholesale Druggists.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely pure—made from Grape Cream of Tartar, imported exclusively for this Powder from the Wine district of France. Always uniform and wholesome. Sold only in cans by all grocers. A pound can mailed to any address, postage paid, on receipt of 60 cents. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 171 Dunne St., New York. Most cheap powders contain alum; dangerous to health; avoid them, especially when offered loose or in bulk.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

The wear and tear of business life makes such tremendous drafts upon body and mind that without recourse to some sustaining agent they must give way under the pressure. To those who are breaking down, or wasting away from general debility or affections of the liver, stomach and the kidneys, a systematic course of the Bitters will so reinforce the vital functions as to baffle all the assaults of disease and restore the system to its wonted health.

For sale by all Druggists and respectable dealers generally.

What $200 Did in Wall Street.

August 16th, 1878, a Phila. customer, wrote Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y.: "Dear Sirs: Yours containing remittance for $1,113.25, as profits on my 200 shares, is received. Accept my thanks, for I am very well satisfied. You may use this letter. I would recommend every one who feels disposed to speculate to send for your circular. This is but one instance out of thousands, by which the new combination system of operating in stocks enables people with large or small capital to make similar profits. By this excellent plan, the orders of thousands of customers from city and country are pooled into one immense sum and co-operated as a mighty individual account. Each member of the combination secures all the advantages of the largest capital united with experienced skill. Profits divided monthly; $10 invested returns $50, or 5 per cent on the stock, $75 will make $450, and so on, according to the market. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success," and explains everything, so that any one can operate profitably. All kinds of stocks and bonds wanted. New Government loan supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange place, N. Y. City.

It is no longer an idle dream or boasting to affirm that Fellows' Hypophosphites, wherein are united nature's forces, will strengthen man and make his life not only endurable, but sparkling with rude and joyous health; this then we recommend when vitality is on the wane, or when the organism becomes enfeebled.

—The weather-wise man climbs a tree when he sees the animal appearing, head down.

—Nothing is too fanciful in the way of a hat to be worn at summer resorts. The broad brims are twisted in every imaginable shape, while the brightest of cherries, grapes or currants give finish.

—One of the most ingenious swindles yet attempted has recently been brought to light in France, if we may believe the Paris newspapers. Under the counters where goods were weighed in small shops were magnets which when placed in position by a movement of the foot attracted one of the scales of the balance—the one on which goods were placed.

THE NEW MODEL
BUCKEYE MOWER.

THE SUBSCRIBER continues for sale this standard machine. Twenty years of constant and successful competition with the combined skill of all other makers has perfected a machine that may justly be called the standard. It is now the most simple and combines more practical and excellent features than any other machine, and will be sold at greatly reduced prices this year. It is time for farmers to purchase articles that have true and known merits and not be deceived by the plausible stories told by irresponsible parties; too much money has already been wasted in this way. Before purchasing please examine the NEW MODEL BUCKEYE at the residence of the Subscriber or at the store of FRED P. WILSON, Portsmouth, N. H. 6ly1

Established 1756.

The Gazette s published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating tonic.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow pimples or spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the worst Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are entirely unlike them. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotted feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Are free not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The local remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of Instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores are most frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no acrid, caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1846, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

SANFORD'S

JAMAICA GINGER

THE QUINTESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER, CHOICE AROMATICS, AND FRENCH BRANDY.

A PREPARATION so elegantly flavored and medicinally decisive as to utterly surpass all previous preparations, Essences or Extracts of Ginger, Compound, Herb Teas, Pain Relievers, and the hundred and one digesting and nauseating nostrums with which we have been wont to dose ourselves. Its instantaneous flavor is Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cramps and Pains, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Cholera Infantum, Diarrhœa in Teething and all Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Sluggish Digestion, Want of Tone and Activity in the Stomach and Bowels, Oppression after Eating, Rising of Food and similar Ailments, Chills and Fevers, Colds and Chills, Feverish Symptoms, Malarial Fevers, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Symptoms of Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Gout, Cold Extremities, Suspended Circulation and Depressed condition of the Vital Forces, render it the Standard Household Medicine throughout the length and breadth of the land. On sea, on land, for the traveller, for the young, the aged, under all circumstances and conditions, both as a medicine and as a gentle stimulant or beverage, it is the most grateful and effective preparation ever compounded in the history of medicine.

Beware of diluted and worthless imitations recommended by dealers for purposes of gain. Ask for and insist upon having SANFORD'S JAMAICA GINGER.

Portsmouth Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23, 1879.

The Yellow Fever.

Twenty-one cases of the disease were reported to the Memphis board of health on Monday afternoon, making the total for the day thirty-six. A despatch from that city to the Cincinnati Commercial, Monday evening, gives the names of ten persons who died that day of the fever. It was expected the fever would be declared epidemic on Tuesday or Wednesday. The Memphis Herald suspended publication on Monday, and the Avalanche, Appeal and Ledger were all reduced one-half in size. The secretary of war has ordered 1500 tents and 200,000 rations to be forwarded to Memphis, to be used in aid of the yellow fever sufferers. The people are pouring from the city by every avenue of escape.

A rigid quarantine was established at Cincinnati against Memphis on Monday, and a partial quarantine at St. Louis and Cairo, Ill. The State board of health of Tennessee on Monday declared a strict quarantine of all the rest of the State against Memphis.

New Orleans is declared free from the scourge, though there are a number of cases of malarial fever.

On Tuesday morning, at Memphis, five new cases and four deaths since the previous evening were reported.

The Grasshopper Plague.

According to the Portland Press the grasshopper plague is upon us. It says that "Scarboro and portions of Cumberland county are literally covered with grasshoppers that are eating every green thing before them. From whence they came no one knows, but the fact is that they destroy every green thing as they move along in countless numbers. The farmers in that section are thoroughly alarmed about the matter. Tuesday morning Mr. Wm. Warren of Scarboro had a fine field of grain of several acres in extent, in fine condition. Tuesday night the field of grain was worthless. The grasshoppers have been there. Nor was this all; potatoes, peas, beans, in fact every green thing was destroyed. From Mr. Warren's field the insects passed into a large swamp. Here their appetite seemed to be as good for rushes, wild flags, etc., as for cultivated vegetables. They even stripped thistles and left the stalks standing bare. They move from field to field in immense numbers, filling the air with a humming sound. The farmers do not know what to do, as wherever they appear they stop until everything is destroyed, and the farmers are powerless to prevent it."

A similar condition of affairs is reported from several towns in upper Vermont, swarms of grasshoppers coming from no one knows where, and eating every green thing in their course. If they would only eat the potato-bugs.

Naval Matters.

The U. S. S. Kearsarge was at St. John's, Newfoundland, July 21st.

The Turkish government refuses to grant permission for the U. S. S. Quinnebaug to enter the Black sea, she being over 800 tons.

News and Notes.

Two sisters, Elizabeth and Ann Trowbridge, of Hyde Park, Ohio, aged respectively forty and forty-three years, hung themselves on Monday, on account of their father squandering their property and leaving them penniless. A younger sister, a dwarf, has been made insane by the double suicide.

A despatch from the wreck of the steamship State of Virginia, ashore at Sable island, says that on Saturday morning a small schooner ran alongside the wrecked vessel, and forcibly removed a large portion of the cabin furniture, including a piano and a large mirror, and before assistance could be sent from the shore, made off with the booty. The name of the pirate was concealed by painted canvas, but from her general appearance she was supposed to be a Gloucester fisherman.

The first serious disturbance that has occurred at Fall River, Mass., since the strike began four weeks ago, was provoked Monday evening by a crowd of women, who assaulted one of their own sex who went to work there that day. The crowd that gathered threw stones, and at one time threatened to grow to a dangerous mob, but was finally dispersed without any one being seriously injured.

It is now thought by some persons that Kenneson, arrested in Bangor for assault and rape on Mrs. Whitman at Upper Stillwater, Me., is innocent. He says it is a put-up blackmailing job. The woman is said to be a low character.

The value of the granite taken from the quarries at Dix island, Me., by the United States government for the erection of public buildings, within a few years, is stated by the superintendent to be $5,164,000.

At Decatur, Ill., on the 21st inst., Mrs. Rhinehart and her daughter, Miss Horiker, were drowned in the Sagamon river. The young lady was to have been married in the Catholic church that day, but her affianced failed to appear, and in a fit of desperation she started for the river, followed by her mother. She plunged in, and as Mrs. Rhinehart was attempting to save her, both were drowned. Others of the bridal party narrowly escaped the same fate.

Capt. Griffin, the special police officer at Newburyport who was fatally beaten by roughs on the 4th inst., was buried on Monday. The police force and many retired shipmasters were present. Two of the murderers are under arrest.

The ship St. Bernards, belonging to Nova Scotia, has been wrecked on the coast of Belgium, and her captain, the pilot and five men drowned.

Mrs. Ann Hathaway, of Fall River, Mass., while on her way to church on Sunday, trod on a lady's trail, fell and dislocated her hip.

Ex-tax collector Rywaldon of North Adams, Mass., has been arrested for embezzlement during 1876, 1877 and 1878, while in office, of $100,000.

The man and boy killed on the New York & New England railroad at Hyde Park, Mass., last week, were James Morris, aged seventy-two years, and his grandson James Morris, aged twelve years. They were buried Monday afternoon.

Edward Rowley, a well-known citizen of Pittsfield, Mass., was swindled out of $800 by a three-card-monte operator on Sunday. A fellow named Frank Harrington was arrested, but Rowley was unable to identify him and he has been discharged. It is said that Rowley will get his money back, however.

Saturday night, at a barn dance at Maysbury, in Todd county, Kentucky, an assassin in ambush sent a bullet through the heart of Frank Smith. The murderer is supposed to be a negro.

A republican club recently organized in Auburn, Me., numbers among its members twenty-five voters who carried the greenback ticket last fall. The Portland correspondent of the Boston Herald, Mr. Charles Couillard, who is probably as familiar with Maine politics as any other man in that State, writes from Portland to that paper under date of July 12th that the tide is now running strongly in favor of the republicans, the loss falling on the greenbackers. His testimony is corroborated by statements made by the press, and gentlemen favorably situated for obtaining correct information, all over the State. Honest republican greenbackers are getting sick of their company, and do not propose to work for the democratic party any longer, no matter how skillfully the bait may be concealed.

A Challenge.

As considerable cheap talk has been made as to the sailing qualities of my yacht, the "Myth," to settle the same I hereby challenge any yacht in harbor, long enough for 18 feet in length, to sail over a course four miles to windward and return, for any sum from five to twenty-five dollars. This challenge will remain open for two weeks. SAMUEL H. PILLSBURY.

KITTERY, July 22d, 1879.

Notice.

THE Board of Inspectors of Check Lists give notice that they will be in session at the City Building, Thursday, July 24th, Wednesday, July 30th and Saturday, August 2d, 1879, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock P. M. on each of said days for the purpose of revising and correcting the list of voters.

They will also be in session at the same place from 8 to 10 A. M. and from 1 to 3 o'clock P. M. on the day of election for the purpose of furnishing certificates to any person whose name may have been omitted and whom the Board are satisfied has resided in the Ward one year next preceding said election.

Per order of the Board of Inspectors,
J. H. GARDINER, Clerk.

New Hampshire Items.

A horse belonging to Ansel Marshall, of Dunbarton, that was bitten in the nose by a mad dog last May, went mad a few days ago and was shot. At times the animal's ravings were frightful.

Capt. Joseph Ackerman, of Nashua, a veteran of the Third New Hampshire Volunteers in the war, accidently shot himself Monday, and died in a few hours.

The Unitarian grove-meeting opened at the Weirs on Monday, with a larger attendance than was anticipated. Many of the leading preachers have arrived, and more are expected.

True W. Lougee, of Laconia, aged fifty years, was found dead in his field Monday. He is supposed to have died of apoplexy.

Speculation.

Since the creation, it is estimated that 27,000,000,000,000,000, people have lived on earth. This sum divided by 27,864,000 the number of square miles, gives, 1,314,522,086 to a square rod and 5 to a square foot. Suppose a square rod be divided in 11 graves, each grave would contain 100 persons. But this is speculation, and of no benefit to the 1,000,000,000 people that now exist, 500,000,000 of whom are invalids, 33,000,000 dying each year. What they most want are the facts concerning Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. For years his Golden Medical Discovery has been the standard remedy for the cure of all scrofulous, throat, and lung diseases. While for over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been unrivaled as a positive cure for catarrh. The testimony of thousands of ladies has been published, certifying that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription positively cures the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. For full information see the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages, price (post paid), $1,50. Over 100,000 copies sold. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on these properties has uncovered, above in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 46 to 86 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.60 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCrackin Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as large as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $2.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $180 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $180 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 23, 2 A.M.

Threatening and rain, with southerly and westerly winds, falling barometer, and slight change in temperature.

AROUND HOME.

Bass and blue-fish are sporting in the waters of the Piscataqua and Great bay.

Col. J. Horace Kent has been appointed receiver of E. Green & Co., clothiers, on goods attached February 28th last.

The tide-gates at the south pond cannot be opened. Mosquitoes are getting lively, and the boys say the water in the pond is jolly and warm for bathing.

Large catches of mackerel were made on Tuesday in the vicinity of the Shoals, and off Boar's Head, Hampton, the average size being number twos.

The splendid yacht Osprey, belonging to the New York yacht club, came up to one of the city wharves on Monday. She is the largest and finest yacht to visit this port so far this season.

We are indebted to the courtesy of G. H. Jenness, Esq., of Rye, assistant engrossing clerk of the United States House of Representatives, for a copy of the Navy Register of Jan. 1st, 1879.

The hay crop in North Hampton is now nearly all in the barns, the yield being lighter than last year. The potato bugs are reported as swarming in that town, and doing great damage to many of the fields.

Frank J. Hanson, Patrick McLaughlin and Russell Smith, of Dover, are entered for the seventy-five hours go-as-you-please contest in Boston this week under the management of O'Leary the pedestrian and Mr. Engelhardt of Boston. There are twenty entries, among them being "Old Sport" Campana, of Bridgeport, Conn.

On Saturday last, at South Berwick, James Burns, of Dover, ran five miles against six competitors, giving them large odds in this way: He started to race with one man, and when the latter finished a mile a fresh man started on the second mile, and so on, a fresh runner taking up the race at the commencement of each mile until the last, when two started. Burns won, and quite a large purse was raised for him by the spectators, of whom there were about five hundred.

A number of guests for the Pepperell house at Kittery point came down from Boston on Tuesday, using two steamers on the passage. The huge excursion steamer Empire State transported them as far as the Shoals, and the steamer James Sampson went out from this port and brought them in to their destination, the little steamer making the run in from Star island to Whale's-back in forty-five minutes, and towing quite a large boat astern. The Sampson's regular trips across the river were taken by a smaller steamer during the day, but she was in on time to herself take the evening ones, when the passengers are most numerous. The Empire State had seven hundred excursionists on board, Tuesday, and a band of music; on Sunday last, when she made another trip to the Shoals, the party was much more numerous.

In the common council chamber in the city building is a neatly framed map, placed there by Mayor Sise, showing the survey of this harbor made by Gen. Thom in 1878, with the proposed improvements in the way of removing gangway rock and the point of Badger's island ledge, and the breakwater between Goat (or Governor's) and Great islands. We were a little surprised on examining it to find that the gangway rock, between the south beacon ledge and the navy yard, which we had always supposed to be a boulder about the size of a house, extends over a very large space; and that the shoalest water on it at mean low tide is about twelve feet, whereas we always supposed there were fifteen feet on it at low water during spring tides. Mayor Sise has also had framed and hung in the common council room the handsome and valuable plan of the city of Portsmouth drawn in 1867 by Mr. A. M. Hoyt, and which if lost could not probably be replaced for less than $300.

The farm buildings of Theodore Wells of Kennebunk were burned Saturday night. Insured $3400; loss $4000.

On Saturday afternoon a horse under charge of Mr. E. H. Gove of Biddeford, secretary of State of Maine, ran away in that town and jumped over an iron fence, falling twenty feet down a perpendicular embankment on the other side, and leaving the shattered carriage to which he had been attached on the street side of the fence. Strange to say, the animal was not very badly injured, nor was there any person hurt.

The Portland Press says that on the evening of July 10th Will C. Frost, one of the Massachusetts pedestrian team, while walking from Wells to North Berwick, to arrange for a walk at the latter place, was attacked by three men, beaten senseless, robbed of $35 and thrown into Wells river. The water revived him and he crawled out, but fainted away in an adjoining field. In this condition he was found in the morning by Mr. Chick, a well known citizen of Wells, who owns the field. He lay in Mr. Chick's house until the evening of the 12th before he became conscious; it was found that he had been severely kicked about the sides, and hurt so badly that congestion of the bowels set in, but he has recovered sufficiently to return to Boston.

A CHANCE FOR A MATCH RACE.

Mr. Samuel H. Pillsbury, of Kittery, challenges any yacht in the harbor not exceeding twenty feet in length to a race of four miles to windward and return, with his yacht "Myth," for any sum from five dollars to twenty-five, the challenge to stand open for two weeks from July 22d. The Myth is certainly a good boat; a couple of years ago she won a boat's flag presented by Mr. Wm. B. Keen of Malden, Mass., to be sailed for by Kittery crafts, against eight or ten competitors, the course being from Clark's island around Branscom's rock buoy and return, the wind being strong during the race, with an ugly chopping sea running. On that occasion the crew of the Myth, after she crossed the winning line, were eight minutes bailing her out with buckets! In the race on Monday she took the second prize against twelve other boats, the "Ada" beating her but seven and three-quarters minutes actual time in a race of between six and seven miles, and but two and three-tenths seconds of corrected time. We have seen her work under all conditions, and we know that she sails very well in a light wind, can utilize the whole of a pretty stiff breeze, and minds a head sea less than most boats of her size; about three weeks ago she worked up from Biddeford to Portsmouth in ten hours under her mainsail alone, with the wind dead ahead and a heavy sea running—such a day as not many of the pleasure boats venture outside the harbor. We particularly remember how the weather was that day, for we ran outside and looked at it ourself, and then very expeditiously ran in again under the lee of the islands, such weather not being at all suited to our age and respectability.

But there are other fine boats on the river besides the Myth, and we presume Mr. Pillsbury's challenge will find some skipper prompt to take it up. The "Reliance," owned by Mr. George B. French of this city, is another fine, able boat, which gets over the ground well in a light breeze and can carry sail in a strong one; and the "Lillian," a little craft owned by Mr. John Lowry, is able to hold her own in almost any weather with a good many much larger boats than she. We shall be surprised if the Myth does not have to sail a match race consequent on her owner's challenge, the "official" notice of which can be found in another column of this paper.

THE PRESS EXCURSION.

To our fancy, the late excursion of the New Hampshire Press Association was the most sensible one planned since the association was first formed. It was not the most brilliant one, and may not have provided so much to talk about in the future as the trips to Montreal or Saratoga; but for furnishing the fraternity a chance to get acquainted with each other and to enjoy pleasant social intercourse, and to have a rest, with just enough sight-seeing to keep up the interest and prevent weariness, it was far ahead of any other of the summer trips. And this, we think, is what the annual reunions should aim to afford; editors and printers have to work hard enough at their business, without going in for a week or ten days of the hardest kind of work in riding hundreds of miles by rail or coach, and attending daily receptions and balls, and crowding a lot of sight-seeing which must be done into every hour, under the pretence that it is fun. From such an excursion the tired newspaper-man returns to his labor more tired than when he left it, and in not a few cases vows a mighty vow never to do so again—which vow he generally breaks the first time he has a chance; but from the recent excursion the participants returned home refreshed in both mind and body, and we believe that similar unpretending, pleasant and not costly reunions in the future will be more for the advantage of the association—we know they will be for the members as individuals—than such extended and comparatively costly trips as some of those of past years.

UNCLE SAM'S BLUNDERS.

Under the above heading a correspondent of the American Ship, signing himself "Barnacle" and dating his letter from this city, July 15th, says:

For some years I have been trying to find why the United States navy located a yard at Kittery, and why they maintain it by yearly appropriations of large sums of money, when every one living here knows that it is about the dearest place on earth to repair an old vessel or to build a new one. Especially is this true in these days of steamers, when skilled metal workers are an important factor in determining the cost of repairs and in construction, and when such supply of labor can only be found in the vicinity of very large cities, where iron ships and boilers are built in great numbers, and where skilled artisans reside. Such is not the case here. If the services of a dozen boiler makers were required at short notice, they would have to be imported from Boston or elsewhere. I frequently see large numbers of calkers working on one ship in other cities. What would Uncle Sam do if one of his ships came here to have her bottom calked in a hurry? I suppose they would have to do as was done at Pensacola navy yard, when the experiment of building the sloop Pensacola and gunboat Seminole was tried. The calkers and ship carpenters were sent out from New York at five dollars and upwards per day; also the machinists and boiler makers. Even the sails could not be made there. About all the sunny south furnished, in the way of constructive labor, was seven painters (all amateurs), and the only plumber to be found there was an ex-marine who had worked some at silver-plating. To be sure, there were a few sticks of live oak in the ships that grew in the State—a few hundred miles from the navy yard, but the white oak came from New Jersey. Just this state of things would exists here were the secretary of the navy to send a couple of steam frigates to Kittery navy yard for repairs, with only this difference—the few sticks of oak could not be furnished, as at Pensacola.

The officers' residences here are truly rural and a long way from Washington; but what, indeed, does it amount to if the costs for building or repairing ships are quadruple what they are or ought to be elsewhere? * * * * * * *

Really, I am anxious to see some figures as to the cost of repairing a ship, or building the same, at this yard as compared with the cost of other yards or at private ship-yards. Have you any such figures?

Rightfully or wrongfully, the authorship of the letter of which we reprint the larger part, merely leaving out some personal flings, is, by persons in this vicinity who have read it, credited to a gentleman who for a number of years (and until quite recently) filled a comfortable position on the yard to the entire satisfaction of—himself, the moderate amount of work and liberal pay being things he could stand about as well as anybody; and if this supposition as to the authorship of the letter is correct, and it certainly bears his ear-marks, the signature "Barnacle" is an eminently appropriate one. "Barnacle" first positively asserts that this navy yard is "about the dearest place on earth to repair an old vessel or to build a new one," and ends by saying he would like "to see some figures" showing the relative cost of building or repairing ships at this and other yards, plainly implying that he knows nothing at all on the subject he is talking about. His letter reads very well, but its ends don't match each other worth a cent. If he knows—and from the confident manner in which he writes we presume he knows everything, or thinks he does,—if he knows, what the official records prove, that ships are built and repaired at this navy yard cheaper than at any other yard in the country, then he tells a flat-footed lie when he says to the contrary; if he does not know it, and merely makes reckless misstatements "on spec," it would be well for him to read up a little before he proceeds to abolish this navy yard with his pen, which is so much more powerful than his sword ever was. His talk about the lack of skilled labor and ship-building materials is mere puerile twaddle, and his statements untrue at that, for there are plenty of unsurpassed shipwrights yet living in the Piscataqua river region, and ship-timber in abundance much nearer than to either the Boston or New York yards, were the yard depending on a local supply; but no navy yard depends on its local supply, and the facilities for drawing whatever is needed from other places, either by rail or water, are all that can be asked.

In answer to Barnacle's enquiry the American Ship editorially remarks:

There is no reliance to be placed upon any statement made, emanating from the Kittery navy yard, whether it be in relation to the quality of materials or the cost of work, as has been abundantly proven. Therefore, no tangible results can be reached from any inquiry, official or otherwise. Had the Burleigh investigating committee performed the duties of investigation for which they were appointed, instead of wasting valuable time, that cesspool of corruption would have been closed ere this.

With the American Ship's rap at the Burleigh investigating committee we are not much annoyed. It was a democratic committee of the "democratic reform House," appointed, as all other investigating committees appointed by Congress during the past four years have been, with the sole aim of making political campaign capital for the democratic party; that its conclusions were so lame and impotent was largely due to the fact that most of its time spent in investigating affairs at the yard was devoted to trying to find how it was that the contract-built sloop-of-war Enterprise cost so much more than the Essex, another vessel of the same model and dimensions built on the yard by the regular naval constructors, the latter being finished when she was done, while the Enterprise had to be rebuilt several times after she left the contractor's hands before she was seaworthy.

Right Time To Operate In Stocks.

By recent communication with prominent stock operators, we learn that now is a favorable time to take advantage of the stock market, by the new combination method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., the New York bankers, who have been so remarkable successful heretofore. This system is founded on correct rules of finance and is universally approved by the shrewdest operators. The orders of thousands of customers are massed into one immense capital, and operated as a great whole, dividing profits pro rata every month. In this way any customer can invest from $10 to $10,000 with equal proportionate success, and at the same time gain all the advantages of largest capital and best skill in manipulating the market. This firm's new circular has "two unerring rules for success" and full explanations. $50 will make $250, or 5 per cent.; $500 will return $3,000, and so on, according to the market. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

The morning assemblages of people at the springs at Saratoga to get their drinks are called constitutional conventions.

It seems unlikely that Sarah Bernhardt will return to Paris, and the Parisians have suddenly discovered that she doesn't amount to much anyway.

New Haven boasts of a kangaroo raj, brought from Colorado, where they abound. Its hind legs are long and its front ones very short. Its body is much shorter than that of an ordinary rat, being five inches in length, and its tail is six inches long. The color of the body is gray.

It is remarkable that the active ingredients of Fellows' Hypophosphites are alkaloids from trees which attain to very great ages; taken in connection with the fact that this preparation will increase the longevity of the human family is a somewhat singular coincidence.

—The worst that we can say about some men is that they have a strange fatality of never being seen at their best.

THE NEW MODEL
BUCKEYE MOWER.

THE SUBSCRIBER continues for sale this standard machine. Twenty years of consistent and successful competition with the combined skill of all other makers has perfected a machine that may justly be called the standard. It is now the most simple and combines more practical and excellent features than any other machine, and will be sold at greatly reduced prices this year. It is time for farmers to purchase articles that have true and known merits and not be deceived by the plausible stories told by irresponsible parties; too much money has already been wasted in this way. Before purchasing please examine the NEW MODEL BUCKEYE at the residence of the Subscriber or at the store of FRED P. WILSON, Portsmouth, N. H. GEO. B. PHILBRICK, - Rye Beach, N. H.

Established 1736.

The Gazette s published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of
$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy disheartening, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "torpid liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Propr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
"LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required in using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Sick Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Also does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Propr., World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, costiveness, tortoise, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The local remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, full directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

Daily Chronicle.

Old Time Chronicles, No. 181.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

William Whipple was a native of Kittery, Me., where he was born in 1730. At some time he became a resident of Portsmouth, and in 1776 was chosen a delegate to the Continental Congress, which met in Philadelphia. On the fourth of July he signed the Declaration of Independence. In the war of the Revolution he was Brigadier General and did good service. He died Nov. 28th, 1785, aged 54 years. Probably he died in Portsmouth.

Brewster in the "Rambles about Portsmouth," relates the following incident. He was engaged to be married to Mehitable Odiorne. On the evening fixed for marriage, the friends had assembled and the minister who was to officiate. All of a sudden the lady left the room. After waiting half an hour, Mr. Whipple went to the room where she was and found her divested of her wedding suit. She informed him that she had concluded not to be married that evening, but to defer it to some other. He expostulated, but in vain. He finally said to her, "now or never." Finding she would not consent, he left and never visited her again. The lady was said to be beautiful and accomplished. She married William E. Treadwell and had a son, Robert O. Treadwell. She lived to an advanced age and died in Rye in 1820. Mr. Whipple married Catherine Moffatt, but I have no account of their children. She lived to the age of ninety years, and died in 1822.

The sudden freak in refusing to marry just as the nuptials were expected to take place, is inexplicable. The like has appeared in a few other cases. It does not seem the right time to break an engagement. In some cases it may have been the caprice or whim of a vacillating mind. Sometimes it may have been a sort of a romantic disposition to create a sensation, a wonder or a marvel. But in any case it is not justifiable thus to break a promise and trifle with the social affections.

Too Hot for Him.

As confederate war reminiscences are always in order, here is one too good to be buried. The hero of the joke was one Jim. He was attached to Rosser's cavalry, in Stewart's command. Jim was noted for his strong antipathy to shot and shell, and a peculiar way he had of avoiding too close communion with the same; but at last all his plans failed to keep him out, and he, with his companion, under a lieutenant, was detailed to support a battery that composed a portion of the rear guard. The enemy kept pressing so close, in fact, as to endanger the retreating forces, and the troops covering the retreat had orders to keep the enemy in check a given period at all hazards, and the order was obeyed to the letter under a galling fire. Jim grew desperate. He then tried to lie down. In fact, he placed himself in every position that his genius could invent, but the hiss of the bullet haunted him still. At last, in despair, he called to the commanding officer:

"Lieutenant, let's fall back."

"I cannot do it, Jim."

"Well, I'll be darned if we don't get cleaned out if we stay here!"

"My orders, Jim, are to hold this place and support the battery of guns. If we fall back the enemy will rush in and capture the guns."

Just at this moment a well-directed bullet impressed Jim with the fact that a change of base was necessary. Jim found another apparently protected spot, and, as soon as he recovered his mind, he sang out:

"Say, lieutenant, what do you think them ere cannons cost?"

"I suppose about $1,000, Jim."

"Well," said Jim, "let's take up a collection and pay for the guns, and let the darned Yankees have them."

Speculation.

Since the creation, it is estimated that 27,000,000,000,000,000, people have lived on earth. This sum divided by 27,864,000 the number of square miles, gives, 1,314,522,086 to a square rod and 5 to a square foot. Supposes a square rod be divided in 11 graves, each grave would contain 100 persons. But this is speculation, and of no benefit to the 1,000,000,000 people that now exist, 500,000,000 of whom are invalids, 33,000,000 dying each year. What they most want are the facts concerning Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. For years his Golden Medical Discovery has been the standard remedy for the cure of all scrofulous, throat, and lung diseases. While for over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been unrivaled as a positive cure for catarrh. The testimony of thousands of ladies has been published, certifying that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription positively cures the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. For full information see the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages, price (post paid), $1.50. Over 100,000 copies sold. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Democratic Canards.

A couple of months ago the New York World printed a circumstantial account of the desperate measures President Grant proposed to adopt to squelch Tilden in case the latter had attempted to swear himself in as president of the United States before some Tammany police justice. The writer of the article gave as his authority Gen. Stuart L. Woodford, who according to the yarn as printed in the World told the writer all about it—what gunboats Robeson had in New York on the 4th of March, ready to sweep the streets with shot and shell in case the Tildenites attempted an armed revolution, and what orders were given to commanders of troops under President Grant's instructions. This sensational story enabled the country democratic press to use some startling headlines, but Mr. Robeson at once said the whole story was a lie, and showed that at the time referred to there was not one armed and commissioned government vessel in New York harbor. Gen. Woodford was absent in Europe when the tale was printed, (as the writer of it knew,) so he did not at once contradict it; but on arriving home on the 18th inst., he branded the yarn as a lie made out of whole cloth. Neither Robeson nor Woodford need have taken the trouble to say anything about it, for the story was written by the notorious John F. Mines, whose name attached to any statement is an unquestioned certificate of its utter falsity.

More recently—a week or two ago—the democratic country papers had another eruption of big-type headlines, calling attention to the shameless manner in which the radicals paid the witnesses who, called by the democrats to prove republican corruption, only shew up democratic villainy. The cause of this last outbreak of democratic horror was the alleged employment of Agnes Jenks in a fat sinecure position in the treasury department at Washington. Now Secretary Sherman pronounces the statement wholly false, as Mrs. Jenks is not and never has been employed by the department, and has never drawn money from the treasury; but the story has been published in all the democratic papers, and very few of them will contradict it—it might "hurt the party" were they to do that.

Sanitary Improvements in Memphis.

The impression has been very general in the north that the people of Memphis dealt with the fever-producing nuisances of their city in the same way that the Irishman did with the leaky roof of his shanty. A party of hunters sought shelter with Pat during a drenching rain, and found him crouched in a corner to avoid the streams of water pouring in everywhere through the roof. "Why don't you mend this roof, so it won't leak?" asked the visiters. "Mend it, is it?" said Pat; "how can I mend it in such a storm as this?" "But you can mend it in fair weather," was the reply. "It don't leak then," said Pat. It has been supposed that Memphis worked by the same rule—did all possible to avoid the fever when it appeared, yet after it was gone neglected to take any measures to keep it away; but a physician of Memphis writes to the Cincinnati Commercial that this is not just to the people of the striken city, and that Memphis is not in as bad sanitary condition as generally believed. Last winter the board of public works, composed of leading citizens, inaugurated a thorough system of sanitary improvement. In February the city was canvassed by specially appointed inspectors. Every house, out-building and yard in the district has been inspected. Over two thousand notices to abate existing nuisances have been served. A large force was also put upon the streets and alleys, and to-day the streets of Memphis are as clean as those of any other city. Over four thousand loads of refuse material of various kinds have been taken up and dumped into the river from the dump especially constructed by the district government for the purpose. Money was contributed liberally by the citizens, and a special tax was levied for the purpose of renovating the city and rendering it healthful.

The Yellow Fever.

A case of yellow fever was reported at Nashville, Tenn., on the 22d inst., the victim being a refugee from Memphis.

Thirteen new cases of fever, and one death, were reported at Memphis up to noon on the 23d inst.

Naval Matters.

The U. S. S. Vandalia, Commander Meade, sailed from New Bedford for Pensacola on the 22d inst.

The practice ship Constellation sailed from Portland on the 22d inst., for a cruise.

News and Notes.

An engagement took place near the mouth of Beaver creek, Dakota Territory, on the 17th inst., between two companies of troops and Lieut. Clark's Indian scouts of Gen. Miles' command, and 300 hostile Sioux. The troops lost four Indian scouts, killed, and two soldiers wounded. When Gen. Miles' main column, which was twelve miles behind, came up, the Indians were pursued fifteen miles, but made their escape to Sitting Bull's camp.

Samuel G. Grasty, a commercial traveller of Atlanta, Ga., was attacked in his room at his hotel in that city on the night of the 21st inst., by the father and brother of a Miss Read, with whom Grasty is said to have been improperly intimate. Grasty was badly cut on the head and hands; in return he fatally shot the elder Read, and broke the son's jaw with a bullet. Grasty was arrested.

District Attorney Stevens has notified the counsel for the parties recently arrested for causing the death of Jennie P. Clark, that they must be ready for trial the second Wednesday in August.

A young woman of Newark, Vt., was tarred and covered with rags the other day by five other young women. The cause of this attention is alleged immoral conduct on the part of the former. The rags were substituted for feathers, though the feathers are promised in future unless she changes her habits.

Clay Hughes was not on hand when the company assembled at Covington, Ky., to witness his marriage to Annie Berry. Mr. Brackett was sent out to hunt up the missing bridegroom, but before commencing the search he bought a revolver, so as to be prepared for any emergency. When found, Hughes said he had changed his mind about getting married. Brackett thought this was a proper time to use the weapon, but did it so unskillfully that not one of the bullets did any harm. However, the demonstration wrought another alteration in Hughes' feelings, and he submitted to the marriage ceremony.

In 1878, there were in New York 25,759 births, 27,008 deaths and 7,629 marriages.

Michael Sullivan of Springfield, N. J., grandfather of the baby that was buried alive, has been held for murder.

There was a great battle between the Zulus and British troops in south Africa, July 4th, which resulted in the rout of the savages. The latter numbered 15,000, and lost 800 killed; the British had ten killed and fifty-three wounded.

A three day's storm of wind and rain, commencing on the 19th inst., has prevailed in the British islands, and done immense damage to crops. In Yorkshire and Derbyshire, Eng., the crops are ruined, and Down and Antrim counties in Ireland suffered heavily.

President Coval of Hayti has resigned his office, and fled to Kingston, Ja. One hundred and thirty houses were burned, killed and three hundred persons wounded, during the revolution.

The men who swore most positively to the insanity of Tom Buford, the Kentucky murderer, all admit that they voted for his election to the legislature. Insanity takes curious turns in the Buford family. In his brother it manifested itself in the killing of negroes. For this he was tried for murder and acquitted on the ground of insanity, and when he was examined for insanity with a view of committing him to an asylum he was found sane. Forty-five witnesses testified to Tom Buford's insanity, among them his brother Abe, who gave as his reason that Tom had insisted that he was a better horseman than himself. Dr. Renfro thought him insane because several years ago he made the astonishing assertion that "several men had been killed by doctors, and he thought the medical profession was of no benefit to the world at large." Another thought him insane as he chewed tobacco in bed, and still another because he was in the habit of riding about gesticulating and swearing. One of the parties who has been listening to all this evidence comes to the conclusion of Dr Astley that "God is the only perfectly sane being in existence." The jury in the Buford case, after being out eighteen hours, brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, and fixed his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for life.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21st.

Some of Secretary Sherman's friends now deny the report that he will "take in" the convention of financiers at Saratoga on the 6th of August, on his present tour north. While he is greatly interested in what they may do, say these authorities, and has great confidence in their wisdom, he does not wish to have it appear that he is desirous of influencing their deliberations, especially as his policy may come in for a good share of discussion. While this impression prevails largely now as to the secretary's intentions, there are still many who say he will be there, and they expect he will make a speech somewhat similar to that he will previously make at Portland.

The "old whigs" have been heard from in Georgia again. It will be recollected that President Hayes invoked their support when he came into power, but they didn't respond. Now the democrats have split up so thoroughly in that State that other politicians invoke the aid of the O. W's. Nobody, however, puts much faith in them as an element of political strength, and besides that it is not likely the democrats will let go their strong hold there. The rumor that Stephens and Hill have united forces to oppose the Gordon faction promises a lively contest, but probably not democratic defeat, since the republicans are not strong in their organization and have no heart to work.

An organization has been formed here, pretending to be of soldiers, aiming to protect soldiers' rights and to promote the success of their claims, which will bear watching. It is in the hands of disreputable claim agents, who are trying to "take in" soldiers all over the Union, and get the contributions paid to more honorable attornies. The "poor soldier" dodge has been used profitably by a good many adventurers, and it is time for people to get their eyes opened to that fact.

The political committees are busily engaged now sending out tons of speeches and other matter. The republicans have a house all to themselves on F street, while the democrats have a committee room at the Capitol. About fifty House clerks are kept busy folding speeches for both parties. Last session is said to have been the most fruitful session ever known for political literature.

People here are once more agitated by the yellow fever reports from Memphis, anticipating its spread further north. The physicians, however, do not indulge in these fears. True, we are afflicted by defective outlets for the city's sewerage, which ought to have been improved by some means at the hands of Congress, but the general health of the city is good, and the sanitary arrangements are excellent. With ordinary care we need not fear the spread of yellow fever as far north and east as this.

Prof. Gamgee is more hopeful of getting his contract for constructing the yellow-fever ship. A flood of complaints and petitions are coming in from the Mississippi valley, touching the delay in carrying out the late act of Congress, and many members of Congress have besieged the secretary of the treasury in behalf of some immediate action.

The whole number of boys in the State reform school during the year ending May 1st, 1879, was 152; of this number 24 were of French parentage, 32 of American, and 96 of Irish; number remaining in the institution May 1st, 117.

George Miner, aged sixty-three years, fell backwards from a load of hay in Londonderry on the 21st inst., breaking his neck.

The Concord Monitor says that when the session of the legislature came to a close there were not over twenty members in the House. The members of the Senate had scattered in a proportionate degree.

W. W. Hill, a respected gentleman of Hillsborough Bridge, eighty years of age, recently fell from a load of hay, two of the wagon wheels passing over his body, breaking one rib, fracturing three more, and badly bruising his head and arm, his injuries being probably fatal.

Gov. Head has been invited to be present at the centennial celebration of the battle of Newtown, August 29th, near Elmira, N. Y. There New Hampshire regiments participated in that battle, under command of Brig. Gen. Pood, and Cols. Cilley, Read and Dearborn.

At a meeting of the governor and council, on the 22d inst., Wm. Griffin, serving a sentence of seven years in State prison for highway robbery, was pardoned, as was also Jesse Diehl, serving a sentence of thirty years for murder in the second degree; the latter is dying of consumption.

Charles W. Cook, the murderer of Susan Hanson, has made another confession, in which are the following new points: He says that Buzzell was not there with him on the night of the murder, nor does he know where he was; that he did not see him until 4:30 the next morning; reiterates the story of Buzzell's hiring him under a promise of $100, which has not been paid, Cook never having asked Buzzell for it, nor Buzzell ever mentioning it afterward. Says the gun was in the house when Frank Hobbs and others were searching, and if they had gone into the right room they would have found it; the gun was taken out of the chamber and secreted under some corn stalks in the barn while they were searching; Cook never saw it afterward; says he said that Buzzell was with him, because Cohen said they could not convict Buzzell as an accessory unless he was present; denies setting Churchill's barn on fire, and only said so because Cohen wanted to get the reward, and he said so to oblige him.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24, 2 A.M.

Partly cloudy weather, and areas of rain with north-east to north-west winds, slowly rising barometer and no decided change in the weather.

AROUND HOME.

A bakery has been started at York beach.

There will be a meeting of the national greenback party in the old custom house on Friday evening.

On Tuesday night of this week the saloon of John G. Cutler at Hampton beach was broken into, some money and small articles being stolen.

In the fire at Theodore Wells' place in Wells, on the night of the 20th inst., a cow was burned to death and two oxen so badly injured as to necessitate their being killed.

A French boy ten years old had his arm caught in some machinery in the Pepperell mill at Biddeford on the 22d inst., and it was so shockingly crushed that amputation at the elbow was found necessary.

Col. J. C. Butler will on Tuesday next have an excursion to Alton bay and across the lake to Centre harbor, and return, leaving the Eastern depot at ten minutes before ten in the morning, and arriving home at 7:45 in the evening; fare $2 for the round trip.

The Times says that on the night of the 18th inst. the house of Mrs. Lydia F. Pickering of Greenland was broken into, and Japanese goods, silver ware and other articles stolen. The thief was disturbed by the awaking of the lady, but got away with his plunder.

Mr. Editor:—In your issue of yesterday it was stated that J. Horace Kent was appointed receiver of the stock in trade of E. Green & Co. Supposing that this notice was intended to refer to us, we would state that neither Mr. Kent or any other person has been so appointed, and that our stock of goods is subject to our own control and the control of no one else.

E. GREEN & CO.

In Wednesday morning's CHRONICLE we mentioned that the tide-gates at the south pond could not be opened, and that in consequence of the water being confined the mosquitoes were getting numerous. Wednesday afternoon the gates opened of their own accord—another brilliant illustration of the benefits of advertising.

The Biddeford national bank and Biddeford savings bank both resumed business on the morning of the 22d inst., and at the hour of closing the national bank had received upwards of $7000 on deposit and had paid out about $729. The savings bank had paid to its depositors about $700, and received upwards of $1000. All excitement consequent on the suicide of the late treasurer of the savings bank has entirely subsided, and there is no fear of a run on either bank.

Pocahontas point, Gerrish's island, for a number of years past the favorite resort for campers-out, has been secured this season by a party of gentlemen from this city, who have erected upon it a cosy little wooden ranch which they call Seaside Lodge—less liable to blow away than the tents which have previously been pitched there, and dryer no doubt in a long rain storm, but not half so romantic. They also have regularly-fixed-up places to sleep in, chairs to sit in, and plates enough to give every man one at dinner, so nobody has to wait.

There being a vacancy at West Point to be filled by the appointment of a cadet from this congressional district, Congressman J. G. Hall announces that there will be a competitive examination of candidates for the appointment in the aldermen's room at Dover, on Monday, the 11th of August next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, before a board of three examiners. Candidates must be between the ages of seventeen and twenty-two years, able-bodied, and well versed in reading, writing, arithmetic, grammar, geography, and United States history.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, July 21st.

The houses at the beach report more company here this year than last year at this time. Mr. C. Austin Jenness has his house full of guests, and lodges some of his company at other houses.

The first hop of the season came off at the Sea View house on Saturday evening last; we noticed on the floor Howe Call, Esq., Wm. Russell Foster, Esq., well known lawyers of Portsmouth, and others.

Mr. G. H. Jenness of this town is the owner of a choice old Italian violin which he recently bought for a mere trifle in a pawnbroker's shop in Washington, and sent to Boston for repairs. After being fixed up, it turned out to be an instrument of great value. Several professional violinists of Boston, who have tested it, pronounce its tone of marvellous richness and purity. Mr. Jenness always has his weather eye open for a nice violin, and in this instance was extremely fortunate in getting a valuable specimen of the king of instruments for a mere pittance.

The "yarn" going the rounds of the press about a beautiful Pennsylvania heiress falling in love with the skipper of a fishing yacht named Robert Miller, is "all bosh;" there is no such person in town, and the whole story, which reads so delightfully romantic, is the invention of some one who wanted to create a sensation, and did it too.

A party of well known newpaper correspondents who are stopping at the boarding house of G. H. Jenness, Esq., went fishing Saturday morning, and one of the party, (Mr. Curtis, of the Chicago Inter-Ocean,) was prevailed upon to haul up a lobster-pot on the pretence of getting some lobsters for bait. When he had pulled the pot to the surface of the water he was horrified to find what appeared to be the corpse of a boy, fastened to the outside of the pot. A closer examination revealed the fact that the corpse was only a skillfully prepared "dummy," which his waggish companions had fixed up and anchored out in the water the night before. The perpetrators were hilarious over the entire success of their joke.

Postmaster Jenness reports eleven hundred letters going through Rye Beach post-office on Monday.

The base-ball fever has broken out here for the season. On Monday a match game of base ball was played in Uri H. Jenness' field on the South road, between the Farragut base ball club and a picked nine of Rye beach; the former club won, the score standing at twenty-five to one.

The weather is cool here for this season of the year.

SCRIBE.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, July 23; Batchelder, J.

Mary Mitchell, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was adjudged probably guilty, and bound over in the sum of $200 for appearance at a higher court. Jail in default.

THE STATE FAIR.

The Dover Democrat of the 22d inst. says: "The State Agricultural society held a meeting at the American house last evening to arrange a premium list and other preliminaries for the State fair to be holden in this city in September. Very liberal premiums will be offered to farmers for live stock and all other farm products. The purses for trotting horses have not been fully arranged as yet, but we understand they are to be more liberal than heretofore, the object being to draw some of the fastest horses in the country together. A rowing regatta on Willard's pond is talked of by the society, and we doubt not will be satisfactorily arranged. It is said that a straightaway course of one-half mile can be had on Willard's pond, which with a return trip would make a course one mile in length, which would be a fair distance for rowing. Several other new features are being talked of, the object being to make the fair so attractive that all farmers and trades-people will take a personal interest in its success. We think that the result will justify the predictions of the officers that the fair will be among the best, if not the best ever given in New Hampshire."

The fair is to be held at the Granite State riding park, September 16th to 19th, inclusive. The citizens of Dover and Great Falls have contributed $1,500 to put the grounds in order, including cattle pens, stalls, etc. At a meeting of the officers on Tuesday the judges and other officers were appointed. John L. Hicks is to be general superintendent, and the following gentlemen marshals: T. J. Jameson of Great Falls, chief; Albert P. Seavey of Dover, Chas. S. Ela of Rochester, E. D. Coffin of Portsmouth, Geo. H. Hall of North Berwick, Me., aids. York county, Maine, unites with this society in holding the fair.

A Challenge.

AS considerable cheap talk has been made as to the sailing qualities of my yacht, the "Myth," to settle the same I hereby challenge any yacht in this harbor, between 16 and 20 feet in length, to sail over a course four miles to windward and return, for any sum from five to twenty-five dollars. This challenge will remain open for two weeks.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 90 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $27.50 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCrackin Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the Engraving Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to

In the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery the grand capital prize of one hundred thousand dollars was divided into tenths, and became the property of as many young enterprising merchants, salesmen, clerks and commercial travellers doing business about Leonard St. and Broadway, New York, who, for a dollar apiece, became each worth ten thousand dollars. Much complaint is made by each lucky man that he lacked foresight enough to buy the whole ticket and get a hundred thousand. The next, [the 11th] drawing occurs August 12th, at New Orleans, La., where any information can be had by writing to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box. 692, New Orleans, La., or same at 319 Broadway, New York city.

HOSTETTER'S

BITTERS

The wear and tear of business life makes such tremendous drafts upon body and mind that without recourse to some sustaining agent they must give way under the pressure. To those who are breaking down, or wasting away from general debility or affections of the liver, stomach and the kidneys, a systematic course of the Bitters will so reinforce the vital functions as to baffle all the assaults of disease and restore the system to its wonted health.

For sale by all Druggists and respectable dealers generally.

We have received Nos. 1 and 2 of Moore's Rural Life, an illustrated monthly journal "for suburban, village and country homes." It is edited by D. D. T. Moore, who founded and for twenty-five years conducted Moore's Rural New Yorker, a publication always and deservedly popular throughout the country. The Rural Life is nicely printed on good paper, copiously and handsomely illustrated, and will be a favorite in every home into which it finds its way. Address "Moore's Rural Life, No. 34 Park row, New York," enclosing $1.50 for a year's subscription. Single number fifteen cents.

Right Time To Operate In Stocks.

By recent communication with prominent stock operators, we learn that now is a favorable time to take advantage of the stock market, by the new combination method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., the New York bankers, who have been so remarkable successful heretofore. This system is founded on correct rules of finance and is universally approved by the shrewdest operators. The orders of thousands of customers are massed into one immense capital, and operated as a great whole, dividing profits pro rata every month. In this way any customer can invest from $10 to $10,000 with equal proportionate success, and at the same time gain all the advantages of largest capital and best skill in manipulating the market. This firm's new circular has "two unerring rules for success" and full explanations. $50 will make $250, or 5 per cent.; $500 will return $3,000, and so on, according to the market. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

It is remarkable that the active ingredients of Fellows' Hypophosphites are alkaloids from trees which attain to very great ages; taken in connection with the fact that this preparation will increase the longevity of the human family is a somewhat singular coincidence.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1878. WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION. BUFFALO AND LONDON. CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago induced several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers:

Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres.
JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several specialties.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very aptly managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.

NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, sent postpaid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).

SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Cancer (Scirrhus, Encephaloid, Medullary, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-feet, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for those diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal experience. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and actual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it adequately fulfils a diagnosis of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Daily Chronicle.

Too Much of a Good Thing.

Some time since, in Indiana, an ox-team was run over by a railroad train at a crossing, and it was charged that the engineer did not blow his whistle as he ought in order to give sufficient warning. There was, accordingly, much indignation against the engineer and the railroad company, and, as the discussion went on, against engineers and railroads in general.

The legislature was in session and a general law was framed to meet emergencies suggested by this particular case. The wise men of the State house proceeded to enact that locomotives should sound their whistles for not less than eighty rods at each crossing, or the engineer should be held personally liable to a penalty of from $10 to $50.

The law has just gone into effect, and there has since been a continual din in all the towns and settled country. Schools have had to dismissed on account of the noise, runaways are on the increase, and passengers hold the irons in disgust. Indiana is a railroad State, more tracks centering in Indianapolis than in any other American town. Eighty rods is a long distance for a screeching whistle to be sounded, and the crossings frequent. Hence there is music in the air all along the line.

The people are going wild with noise and confusion. They can neither work by day nor sleep by night, and the whole State is aroused. Several municipalities have passed ordinances prohibiting whistling within their limits, but the law does not give incorporated towns this right. In one case the constitutionality of the law has been denied by the circuit court, and the case will at once go before the supreme court of the State.

But still the fiendish screeching goes on, and, as the legislature does not meet again for two years, the indignant Hoosiers call for immediate relief. They feel that they are paying too much for the whistle, which is very likely true. But the remedy is not yet found.

Profitable Stock Investment.

Before Messrs. Lawrence & Co., the New York bankers, inaugurated the combination system of operating in stocks, it was often very difficult for inexperienced operators, or even old stagers, to deal profitably by their single handed venture. Now the field is open to every one for successful operations, and capital in any amounts, from $10 to $20,000, can be used with equal proportionate profit. Instead of distracting efforts among many customers, the orders of thousands are concentrated into one vast pool and co-operated for the benefit of all, dividing profits pro rata every month. A prominent citizen of San Francisco made $1,264.83 from an investment of $300 last month. Other customers are doing better still. $25 pays $125 during the month, $200 returns $1,200, or 6 per cent on the stock, and so on as the market moves. New circular contains "two unerring rules for success," and full instructions for any one to operate profitably. All the advantages of unlimited capital and careful manipulation are secured by the combination method. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

Speculation.

Since the creation, it is estimated that 27,000,000,000,000,000, people have lived on earth. This sum divided by 27,864,000 the number of square miles, gives, 1,314,522,086 to a square rod and 5 to a square foot. Suppose a square rod be divided in 11 graves, each grave would contain 100 persons. But this is speculation, and of no benefit to the 1,000,000,000 people that now exist, 500,000,000 of whom are invalids, 33,000,000 dying each year. What they most want are the facts concerning Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. For years his Golden Medical Discovery has been the standard remedy for the cure of all scrofulous, throat, and lung diseases. While for over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been unrivaled as a positive cure for catarrh. The testimony of thousands of ladies has been published, certifying that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription positively cures the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. For full information see the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages, price (post paid), $1.50. Over 100,000 copies sold. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

— Inexpensive fans are made of mosaic cloth, and have all the effect of the satin Pompadour fans without the cost.

—Paper is worth six cents a pound in Peru until it is made into money. Then it depreciates about fifty per cent.

—The fool goeth out in a sailboat when he doesn't know a boom from a breaker, but the wise man picks up pebbles on the shore and flirts with the girl in a pink dress.

As a rule, lime juice is, particularly during the summer, a far more wholesome drink than any form of alcohol, and an ounce or two of pure juice in a tumbler of really cold water, sweetened to taste, is about the pleasantest beverage that can be taken when the thermometer is over seventy-five or seventy-eight degrees Fahrenheit.—London Lancet.

— The story is told that Longfellow and Fields were making a short pedestrian tour some few years since, when to their surprise an angry bull stood in the pathway, evidently intending to demolish both poet and publisher. "I think," said Fields, "that it will be prudent to give this reviewer a wide margin." "Yes," replied the poet, "it appears to be a disputed passage."

FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1879.

The Yellow Fever.

It is said that the first well defined case of yellow fever in Memphis this season was traceable to the most culpable neglect of sanitary precaution imaginable. The man and his family had been using bedding on which last year's yellow fever patients had lain and died, and it is feared that more deaths will occur from similar causes. Instead of destroying the fever-infected clothing, it had been stored in barrels and afterward brought out for use. The appearance of the yellow fever at Memphis is having one good effect, in inducing those who have control in other cities, south and west, to take immediate steps to improve their sanitary condition. Cincinnati appropriates $16,000 for this purpose, and the city fathers generally, where danger is apprehended, are on the alert.

There were fourteen new cases of fever, and four deaths, in Memphis on the night of the 23d inst. Two carloads of government tents arrived there on the 24th.

Three cases of the disease have occurred in a Texas town, among refugees from Memphis.

An Old Tyrant Dethroned.

Cotton is no longer king. The compilations made at the bureau of statistics (but not yet published) for the eleven months ending May 30th, 1879, disclose the fact that for the first time in the history of the country the exportations of breadstuffs have exceeded in value that of cotton and tobacco, the two staples of the south, combined. The following are the figures: Breadstuffs, $192,000,000; cotton, $159,000,000; provisions, $107,000,000; tobacco, $27,000,000.

Naval Matters.

Lieut. Comdr. George A. Converse is detached from the U. S. S. Marion, and placed on sick leave.

Lieut. Adolph Marix and Master Edward F. Qualtrough are detached from the U. S. S. Trenton, in European waters, and ordered to return home.

Chief Engineer A. J. Kiersted is ordered to the U. S. S. Vandalia, relieving Chief Engineer Joseph Trilley, who is detached and placed on waiting orders.

The U. S. S. Constitution, Capt. Badger, arrived at New York on the 23d inst. from Philadelphia.

Commodore Shufeldt reports his arrival in the Ticonderoga at St. Helena, from St. Paul de Loando. There had been considerable sickness on board, but the change of climate had improved the condition of all. The Ticonderoga would remain long enough at St. Helena to thoroughly establish the health of the officers and crew, and then proceed south. There had been but one death, of Francis Huxley, a boy.

News and Notes.

Geo. P. Rowell, & Co., in the American Newspaper Directory for July, show that the whole number of newspapers in the United States has increased since January of the current year, from 8,703 to 9,158. New papers abound in the Territories. Suspensions have been fewer than in any corresponding period for several years.

Frank Hobbs, colored, in jail at Redding, Ill., charged with outraging a white woman, was on the 23d inst. taken from jail and shot, and his dead body dragged about the streets, by a mob.

It has been determined by the Pennsylvania courts that Alleghany county, in which Pittsburg is situated, is liable for the damage done during the great strike in that city in 1877. The amount for which the county is held liable is $2,700,000, which it will bankrupt the treasury to pay. A little discreet shooting by the local authorities at the beginning of the riot, would have saved that bill.

A steamer reached New York on Saturday, bringing 600 Russian emigrants who had with them $400,000. Sixty families in the company have 213 children. They are said to be a remarkably fine-looking set of men.

A fair sample of coal has been discovered upon the premises of Elisha Small at North Lubec, Me., and Mr. Small has an offer of $12,000 for his farm.

Silas Morton, a respected citizen of Otisfield, Me., was thrown from a mowing machine recently while at work in the field, and so badly cut that he died in three hours.

It is stated that Mosby, consul at Hong Kong, has written to the secretary of State that in his judgment $40,000 of consular fees which belong to the government, collected at that office before his arrival, have not been accounted for; and that for the last seventeen years, of the fees collected under the law regulating Chinese emigration, he should judge at least $200,000 had not been reported to the treasury.

The Boston Advertiser of the 23d inst. says that the shipments of boots and shoes from that market the previous week were the largest ever made in the history of the trade, and comprised 50,746 cases, while the clearances since the 1st of January are 306,207 cases in excess of the shipments for the same period last year.

A Bismarck (Dakota) despatch reports that six miles above the Wolf Point Indian agency on the Missouri, Jos. Lambert, a woodman, and family, were attacked on the 21st inst., by Indians. Lambert, his wife and four children were killed and scalped. Two other children were so badly mutilated that they cannot possibly recover, and one little girl was carried away captive, to be held as a hostage.

Michael Ryan, contractor, was blown to pieces, Joseph Roucchoris had his head blown off, and A. W. Keith was blown to pieces by the premature explosion of a sand blast in a quarry at Huntington, Pa., on the 22d inst.

Gov. Colquitt of Georgia offers a reward for the murderers of a Mormon elder in Cotooza county on the 21st inst. There is considerable excitement there consequent upon the successful proselyting of Mormons in that vicinity.

Francis Murphy is said to have lost in San Francisco by mining speculations more than he has made by his temperance revival work in that city.

It is a part of the gossip of the day in London that the great object of the prince imperial of France in joining the English army in Zululand was to obtain the hand of the Princess Beatrice. The princess fainted upon hearing of his death.

The Orangemen of Ottawa, Ontario, had a big turn-out on the 23d inst., there being 5000 persons in line, including 300 Orangemen from Montreal. There were fifty-five banners, six brass bands and a large number of drum and fife bands. There was no disturbance, the police regulations being efficient.

Among the patents recently issued to Edison is one for a duplex telegraph and another for a sex-duplex telegraph; both of them were assigned to the Western Union company.

It is reported that Mrs. Asa B. Hutchinson, of the famous family of singers, has become exceedingly wealthy by the purchase of an undeveloped mine at Leadville, Colorado, which has since proved to be of remarkable richness.

Mrs. Cunningham, who was a prominent figure in the Burdell murder, is now living at West Haven, Conn.

Irene House, who shot and killed her husband, Orson House, the New York divorce lawyer, in June, 1876, has married Frank Parker, a wall paperer of Trenton, N. J. Irene is thirty-five years old, Frank twenty-three, and he is her fourth husband. The couple are running a farm near Trenton.

Mrs. Maud Roberts, of Jersey City, who is only fourteen years of age, is suing for a divorce from her husband, they having only been married three months ago. Both parties were engaged in a variety theatre at Hoboken. Samuel is stage manager.

Sir Henry Thompson, the English surgeon, says: "Persons who drink water when dining probably enjoy food more than those who drink wine. They have generally better appetite and digestion, and they certainly preserve an appreciative palate longer than the wine-drinker."

In Paris thirty-five years ago stores of all kinds were open on Sunday morning. Now all large establishments are closed, and only a few of the smaller ones are open. In Italy, too, labor is much more restricted on Sunday than formerly.

Martin F. Conway, the first representative in Congress from Kansas, is still in a lunatic asylum at Washington. He was a man of intellectual brilliancy and of undisputed integrity. His misfortunes impaired his mental health, and once he was so violent as to attempt to shoot Senator Pomeroy on the street.

Thorold, Canada, has some queer bylaws. Not long ago a lad was fined severely for selling lemons out of a basket on the street. Recently John Scott, a huckster, and T. A. Ivey, a local baker and confectioner, were fined for buying eggs on the market before ten o'clock, on the ground that they were traders, and as such, not allowed to buy on the market before the hour mentioned. Ivey did not buy the eggs to sell again, but to use in his business.

Political.

The republican State convention of Wisconsin on the 23d inst. nominated Smith for governor, James M. Bingham for lieutenant governor, Hans B. Warren for secretary of State, Richard Guenther for treasurer, and Alex. Wilson for attorney general.

The republican State convention of Pennsylvania met at Harrisburg on the 23d inst.; Hon Galusha A. Grow was chosen chairman, and Samuel Butler was nominated by acclamation as a candidate for secretary of State. The platform adopted sets forth the merits of the republican party, condemns the action of the democrats, and declares implacable hostility to the repeal of national laws which protect the purity of the ballot box and secure fair elections, asserting that the election of congressmen and presidential electors is clearly subject to national control, and that the democratic attempt to throw off that control is simply an effort to establish fraud at the national elections.

Secretary of the Treasury Sherman addressed an immense audience in Portland city hall on the evening of the 23d inst. Ex-Gov. Washburn was chairman of the meeting, and Senator Blaine and Congressman Reed occupied seats on the platform. Long before the hour appointed for the speech-making to commence every seat in the hall was filled, and all the available standing-room also. The secretary's speech was enthusiastically received, and three cheers were given for him at its close. Mr. Davis, the republican candidate for governor of Maine, Hon. James G. Blaine and Hon. Thomas B. Reed made brief speeches, and the meeting closed at a quarter past ten o'clock, with cheers for the cause and the candidate.

The democratic city committee of Boston has appointed a sub-committee to enquire into the private affairs of the Boston Post.

Ex-Congressman Glover, the champion democratic investigator of the last Congress, says he has unearthed very considerable frauds in the accounts of the democratic congressional committee of investigation that went to New Orleans. He alleges that fraudulent charges for board, clerks, stenographers, hackmen, etc., to the amount of $5000 were perpetrated by Sergeant-at-Arms Thompson. He says that one Frank A. Prescott, a professional forger, also obtained $1500, and the case was hushed up by Thompson's deputy, Donavin. This may be all true, for everybody is aware that democratic investigating committees are no better than they should be, and as a boss investigator Glover developed a surprising faculty of uncovering a nest of democratic thieves whenever he thought himself sure of a republican one; but it must be borne in mind that Glover is very mad with the democrats of the present Congress for refusing to print the mass of silly stuff collected by him from kicked-out officials and disreputable bummers, and by him called "evidence." And not only has Glover recently become very angry, but he was always a blunderer and a fool.

New Hampshire Items.

An attempt was made on the evening of the 23d inst. to kidnap a two-year-old child of Fred Virgin, of Concord. The child was playing in the door-yard of his residence on State street, when two women came along, opened the gate and enticed the child away by giving it candy. The neighbors saw the operation, and warned a servant girl of Virgin's, who went after the parties, overtaking them about two blocks above, and securing the child. A man also gave chase, but the women jumped into a close carriage and escaped.

At Manchester, during the thunder shower on the night of the 22d inst., the farm buildings of A. F. Whittemore, near lake Massabesic, were struck by lightning and consumed, with a horse, cow and other stock; loss $1500; insurance $600. At Contoocook the house of Gilman J. Straw was struck and considerably damaged; the bedstead on which Mr. Straw and his wife were sleeping was smashed to pieces, and Mrs. Straw paralyzed, but the lady will probably recover. At Charlestown the house and outbuildings of Charles N. Holden, with most of their contents, were burned; loss $2000; insurance $800.

A little daughter of Frank Carr of West Hopkinton recently fell through the floor of her father's mill and was carried through the flume into the water wheel and out of sight. The gate was shut down and she was taken out of the wheel chest all right.

AROUND HOME.

The board of assessors will hold a meeting in the city rooms this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Tax-payers should remember that the six per cent discount on payments expires with the 31st inst.

There will be a meeting of the national greenback party in the old custom house this (Friday) evening.

Ira S. Place, of Dover, while stooping to the floor to pick up a paper, on the 23d inst., had a small revolver fall out of his pocket, and it was discharged, the ball entering his leg just below the knee.

The steamer Appledore will make an excursion to the Shoals on Sunday, leaving steamboat wharf at ten o'clock A. M. and the Shoals at four P. M., giving passengers about five hours to enjoy themselves on the islands. Fare for the round trip, one dollar.

At a meeting of the New Hampshire Press Association held during their recent excursion here, James R. Stanwood, Oliver M. Knight and Charles S. Dodge of this city, and Dr. A. J. Young and John B. Stevens, Jr., of Dover, were admitted to membership.

Mr. Henry R. Spinney, of South Eliot, planted beans among his potatoes, and to prevent the slugs from destroying the latter used Paris green and plaster, liberally sprinkled over the vines. Recently a mess of string beans was gathered and eaten, the result being that those who partook of the dish speedily required the services of a physician, who says he was called none too soon. This shows that string beans on which Paris green has been sprinkled are not wholesome.

As a reply to the statement of E. Green & Co., in Thursday's CHRONICLE, that "neither Mr. Kent or any other person" has been "appointed receiver of the stock in trade of" that firm, and that "our stock of goods is subject to our own control and the control of no one else," the following is asserted by a legal gentleman connected with the case to be the facts of it: "The goods of E. Green & Co., at No. 54 Market street, were attached on the 28th of February, 1879, on a writ in favor of Weil, Dreyfus & Co. of Boston, and against Ephraim Green; J. Horace Kent has been appointed receiver of that portion of the stock of goods then attached, now remaining in the store. When the stock was attached, an inventory was taken, and the goods appraised at over eleven hundred dollars; when Mr. Kent took charge as receiver, on the evening of the 22d inst., the entire stock of the attached goods that could be found was three cheap overcoats, it being represented that all the rest had been sold."

The thunder storm which passed over this city on the night of the 22d inst., at about midnight, doing no harm other than the awaking of unsound sleepers, was very heavy and destructive in the middle of this State and in part of York county, Me. At Great Falls the barn of Charles Pike was struck by lightning and consumed, with farming tools and several tons of hay, and a cow that was gotten out of the burning building alive was so badly burned that as an act of humanity she was killed; loss $800; no insurance. At Farmington two barns belonging to David Upham were burned by lightning. At South Berwick, Me., the dwelling of Edward Butler was struck, and damaged to the amount of $200. At Wells the house, barn and stable of Rufus Williams were burned, it was at first stated by lightning, though the Biddeford Times says incendiarism is suspected, as a valuable horse belonging to Mr. Wells was found about half a mile from the house at the time of the fire, partly harnessed, as if he had broken away from would-be robbers; loss $1500; insurance $1200. The Parker house at Kennebunkport was slightly damaged by lightning, and a potato field partly ploughed up, to the utter demoralization of the potato bugs. Buildings were struck and destroyed at Charlestown, Manchester and Contoocook in this State; and the rain was very heavy all around.

S. H. Dumas & Son have leased the Gorham Hall hotel, at Exeter, for a term of five years. The senior member of the firm is the widely-known and popular proprietor of the Boar's Head hotel at Hampton.

Prof. Goldberg gave a very successful drawing-room entertainment of magic and slight-of-hand at the Appledore house, Isles of Shoals, on Wednesday evening of this week. Our readers will remember this gentleman's wonderful illusions at Music hall last winter.

Capt. John Webster will fill the vacancy occasioned in the Newmarket manufacturing company by the death of Col. Frost, until the annual meeting of the stockholders in September, when an agent will be chosen; Mr. Samuel Furber will have general charge of the work about the mills.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, July 24; Batchelder, J.

James Hobbs and S. Smith were complained of for an assault on Thomas F. Clinton, at Newcastle. Considerable time was consumed in hearing the testimony in the case, at the end of which the defendants were discharged. The complainant feels much aggrieved over this termination of the case, and informs us that he was the victim of an unlawful conspiracy to drive him from the town, and was very badly treated; but the evidence presented was not conclusive in that direction, owing to the conspiracy preventing the complainant from getting the witnesses he wanted, he says.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

Rev. E. M. O'Callaghan's request that the city accept and maintain gas light on Summer street, was referred to committee on gas lights.

The pay roll of assessors of taxes was presented and ordered to be paid.

Albert R. Hatch's bill of $162.75, for legal services, was ordered to be paid.

The ordinance in relation to change made in surveyor's district No 1, was referred to committee on bills on second reading. The amendment to section two, chapter nine, revised ordinances, in relation to same subject, was referred to the above committee.

It was voted that the petition of E. H. Winchester, for improvements on Lafayette road, be taken from the table and referred to the next city government.

The subject of better water supply for Market square reservoir was recommitted to committee on fire department, with mayor added, to ascertain if the aqueduct company will not consent to lay a larger pipe.

Committee on gas lights reported, recommending the petition of Mrs. W. H. Y. Hackett for a gas light in front of her residence on Congress street be granted. Report was not adopted.

Committee on claims reported on request of Edmund P. Roach, for a reduction of taxes for 1877, without any recommendation. Request not granted.

Petition of C. C. Jackson and others, for the widening of Vaughan street, was indefinitely postponed.

It was voted that the street commissioner be ordered to bring in the bills for the work done at the corner of Court and Pleasant streets, and that he appear before the board and explain the same.

A BETHEL FLAG.

It is proposed to raise a bethel flag over the Bow Mission hall, for the special benefit of seamen visiting this port; and as Portsmouth is the only port of any account in this State, the flag will be a credit to both State and city; seamen often attend the mission services, and there is need of such a mark that the place may be easily found. The whole arrangement—flag, spar, iron-work, etc., —will cost about thirty dollars. The spar will run twenty-five feet above the building, and on the flag will be inscribed the word "Bethel." Small sums have already been received, and it has been suggested that the matter ought to be made public, that any one interested in the sailor may have the privilege of contributing. Mr. Amos S. Foster, at the post-office, will be glad at any time to receive contributions. W. A. L.

THE ANTI-PIGEON-SHOOTING LAW.

The New Hampshire legislature, among other good acts in the cause of humanity at former sessions, never did itself more credit than in the passage of the new law prohibiting the barbarous sport of pigeon shooting, and like atrocities. Equal honor, to say the least, is due to the kind heart or hearts, whether one or more, that prompted the presentation to its notice of so good a cause, and through whose active influence, largely, the bill was passed. I can conceive of nothing more mean, degrading, and it may be added cowardly, than a body of men gathered for the pastime of killing or wounding a lot of harmless pigeons. A more contemptible pursuit cannot well be imagined. If they wish to show their skill as marksmen, no truer test is open to them than the bull's-eye, or the southern practice of snuffing a candle through a ring at the greatest distance a ball will reach. Many years ago it was a custom for the roughs of our city to go out of town on Fast day, and set up fowls to be shot at with a gun, or hit with a club, the privilege of doing so being paid for in small coin. We look for better things in a more enlightened age, and thanks to Heaven and the exertions of noble and humane hearts, such shameful scenes are no longer tolerated, and better still, are punishable by law. There were some good things in the "good old times" we often hear of, but acts were permitted then that we would regard as very disgraceful now. J. H. B.

President.—DEWITT C. BATES.
Secretary and Treasurer,—ROBERT J. S. WHITE

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which Aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.60 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCrackin Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to Luck Scattered in a Crowd.

In the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery the grand capital prize of one hundred thousand dollars was divided into tenths, and became the property of as many young enterprising merchants, salesmen, clerks and commercial travellers doing business about Leonard St. and Broadway, New York, who, for a dollar apiece, became each worth ten thousand dollars. Much complaint is made by each lucky man that he lacked foresight enough to buy the whole ticket and get a hundred thousand. The next, [the 11th] drawing occurs August 12th, at New Orleans, La., where any information can be had by writing to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box. 692, New Orleans, La., or same at 319 Broadway, New York city.

THE SECRET KEY TO HEALTH.—The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, 300 pages. Price only $1. How a Toad Undresses.

A gentleman sends to an agricultural paper an amusing description of "How a Toad takes off his Coat and Pants." He says he has seen one do it, and a friend has seen another do the same thing in the same way:

About the middle of July I found a toad on a hill of melons, and not wanting him to leave I hood around him; he appeared sluggish and not inclined to move. Presently I observed him pressing his elbows against his sides and rubbing downward. He appeared so singular that I watched to see what he was up to. After a few smart rubs the skin began to burst open strait along his back. Now, said I, old fellow, you have done it; but he appeared unconcerned and kept on rubbing until he had worked all his skin into folds on his sides and hips; then grasping one hind leg with both of his hands, he hauled off one leg of his pants the same as anybody would, then stripped the other hind leg in the same way. He then took his cast-off cuticle forward between his fore legs into his mouth and swallowed it; then, by raising and lowering his head, swallowing as his head came down, he stripped off the skin underneath until it came to his fore legs, and then grasping one of these with the opposite hand, by considerable pulling stripped off the skin; changing hands he stripped the other, and by a slight motion of the head, and all the while swallowing, he drew it from the neck and swallowed the whole. The operation seemed an agreeable one and occupied but a short time.

It is remarkable that the active ingredients of Fellows' Hypophosphites are alkaloids from trees which attain to very great ages; taken in connection with the fact that this preparation will increase the longevity of the human family is a somewhat singular coincidence.

—Time goes at its own gait and you can not hasten it by using "the spur of the moment." You may ask your friend to "stop a minute," but neither you nor he has the power to do it.

—The farmer who resides near a picnic ground now accumulates property by selling to parties, at a large advance, sugar, rice, and other commodities which they have forgotten to take with them.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)
DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago induced several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers: Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres. JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several specialties.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases, treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities offered superior for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.

NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Advisor" (1,000 pages, sent post-paid for $1.50); "Invalids' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).

SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Cataract (Stone in the Bladder), Stricture, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-foot, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having cured many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a diglecme of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of these affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

GILMORE & CO., successors to CHIPMAN, HOSMER & CO., Solicitors. Patents procured in all countries. No fees in advance. No charge unless the patent is granted. No fees for making preliminary examinations. No additional fees for obtaining and conducting a re-hearing. Special attention given to Interference Cases before the Patent Office, Extensions before Congress, Infringement Suits in different States, and all litigation appertaining to Inventors and Patents. Send stamp to GILMORE & Co. for Pamphlet of sixty pages.
Old Bounty Land Warrants.
The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,897,360 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. GILMORE & Co. pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.
Arrears of Pay and Bounty.
Officers, Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp to GILMORE & Co., and a full reply after examination, will be given you free.
Pensions.
All Officers, Soldiers and Sailors wounded, ruptured or injured in the late war, however slightly, can obtain a pension by addressing GILMORE & COMPANY.
Cases prosecuted by GILMORE & Co. before the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims and the Southern Claims Commission.
Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of the same experienced parties employed by the old firm. Prompt attention to all business entrusted to GILMORE & Co. is thus secured. We desire to win success by deserving it. Address

Chronicle Correspondence.

BOSTON, July 23d.

Did the tornado reach you? Of course, if I had read the papers as in duty bound, I should know whether it did or not, but I haven't been exactly in a mood for either newspaper reading or writing for the past ten days, which must account, by the way, for the unwonted length of time which has elapsed since I last addressed you. But you have kept posted as to the news of the day doubtless, and know what a terrible visitation of wind and hail and rain devastated the Hub and vicinity a week ago to-day. It was unquestionably the most fearful storm that ever swept over Boston; there was probably not a house in the entire city or suburbs which was not more or less damaged. Windows were shattered everywhere; blinds were torn from their fastenings and whisked through the air; roofs were raised, and in many cases entirely removed; skylights were demolished in almost every building; great trees were torn up by the roots, and the many pretty parks and the beautiful "Common" presented a sad appearance the next day, being strewn completely over with broken boughs and twigs and leaves. The lightning struck in many places, killing several people, besides the loss of life which resulted from the dreadful wind, which caught people from their feet and dashed them to the ground again. Why, a horse-car, filled with passengers, was literally blown from the track and thrown against the cubbstone; and in another case the driver of a car was stricken dead by a flash of lightning, and the horses ran wild with fright. Scarcely a household which did not meet some accident; even our little circle of a dozen friends who had sat in happy security around the board in the cosy little Oak Bluffs cottage the day before, did not escape,—one only of our party left us before that fatal day, and he was drowned in Boston harbor in the squall. A bright, gay, true young heart was his, who will be long missed and mourned by family and friends. But one companion was with him in the little yacht when it capsized, and he dived and caught his comrade in his arms and tried his best to save him, but it was useless.

But enough of the tornado, for it is a week old, and nothing lives to be a nine-days' wonder in these fast times. Since my return to the city I have only been out of the house twice, on both of which occasions my visits were to the doctor, so I haven't an over-abundance of gossip with which to burden you. Yesterday, however, I did supplement my pills and powder call by a rather pleasanter one at Music hall, whither I went to see if anything had yet been heard from our friends who are "doing" Europe under Dr. Tourjée's guidance, but although it is supposed that they reached the other side nine days ago, no word has come as yet. I went into Conservatory hall while I was there, to hear one of the Institute lectures, for you must know that the regular annual session of the Summer Normal Musical Institute is held there this season during the Conservatory vacation, the course in which consists of a regular succession of lectures on various important musical subjects by celebrated professors and instructors, interspersed with piano and organ recitals by eminent artists, and concerts by the pupils. There are no less than eight lectures each day, besides the concerts and recitals, and the private lessons in various departments which nearly or all of the students take, so they must be kept pretty busy. But I suppose they like to be busy, and besides, it is entirely optional with them how often they will take their lessons, and how many of the regular exercises they attend. Though I guess that few of the latter are missed, for they are certainly very valuable, if that I heard yesterday on church music is any criterion from which to judge. The students have jolly times, going down the harbor on Saturday excursions, getting up impromptu musicales at their several boarding-places, etc., so it isn't the "all work and no play" with them, which acted so deleteriously on the spirits of the immortal "Jack," after all!

I looked in vain on Boston streets for the novel styles in feminine costumes which I saw during my late brief sojourn in New York city and Coney Island. Why is it that Boston will persist in being six months behind the times in this matter of dress? The newest styles may always be found at our leading modistes' and in our best stores, and they are bought and paid for too, as soon as they appear, but—the strange part—they are not seen on Boston streets for a long time. At Saratoga or Long Branch, Boston ladies are as fashionably dressed as the belles of any other city. Well, I suppose it is because Boston is conservative to a degree; Boston doesn't like a new departure till its respectability has been proved by time, when, of course, it has become an old departure; and if any brave individual appears on her streets dressed a la mode of New York or Paris, why, Boston stares dreadfully through her eye-glasses, and as nobody who is any body likes to be stared at, nobody wears her really best clothes here.

Here the skirts of dresses all have flounces at the bottom; in New York they are made perfectly plain, without one particle of trimming of any kind, but with considerable fullness at the back, which is box-plaited into the belt. Here the bodies of dresses are all basques or polonaises; there they are plain or plaited or gathered round waists with belts, and with little, short, much-puffed-up overskirts, either with a very short, wrinkled apron front, or else open from the belt-line, and caught back in curtain-drapery, and always very full over the hips. The smooth-fitting corset-basque which was so stylish two years ago, is now dreadfully vulgar. Polonaises, however, may still be worn by adding a belt and puffing them up a great deal. To many of the belts are added sashes at the back; broad ribbon sashes with two flat, long loops and two ends, placed smoothly beneath the belt behind, in the old, old style of years ago. Very quaint and odd, but immensely pretty, looked a New York belle, who, with her papa was sojourning at the Cony island hotel where I stopped, in her brown dress, the plain short skirt of dark velvet, the plain round waist and little puffed-up overskirt of lighter brown silk—almost the old cinnamon brown—with its belt and precise sash at the back. Then her hair, —just think of it, girls!—was parted on top and down the back of her head, braided in two three-strand plaits, and turned forward, (dropping a trifle on the neck on each side) and carried up on top of her head, the braids standing out back of her ears, forming a perfect frame for her face. How is that for new old styles?

ROBIN.

SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1879.

The Yellow Fever.

Four new cases and one death were reported at Memphis on the afternoon of the 24th. Five hundred persons left the city that day.

A refugee from Memphis died in Cincinnati on the 24th, and another died at Louisville.

Five cases of yellow fever, and one death, were reported at Mississippi City on the 24th; it is said there is no danger of the disease spreading at that point.

The Chinese.

In 1878 the legislation of California passed an act making it a misdemeanor to sleep or lodge in a room containing less than five hundred cubic feet space for each person. The San Francisco board of supervisors then passed an ordinance requiring all those imprisoned in the county jail to have their hair cut to a uniform length of one inch. Many of the Chinese incurred the penalties of this act and ordinance. Finally, one Ho Ah How brought suit in the United States court against Sheriff Noonan of San Francisco. The sheriff pleaded in justification the city ordinance requiring the cutting of prisoners' hair. To this Ho Ah How demurred, and it was on this demurrer, raising the question of the validity of the ordinance, that the case came before the circuit court of the United States. Justice Field, of the supreme court, sustained the demurrer, saying the legislature having declared the punishment for violating the statue to be by fine and imprisonment, the board of supervisors had no right to add an additional punishment—that of cutting off the hair—which was clearly not imposed for any purpose of discipline, but was done designedly to add torture to the confinement.

Sherman at Lewiston.

Secretary Sherman on the evening of the 24th inst. addressed an audience of 3000 people from all parts of Androscoggin county, at Lewiston, Me. His speech differed somewhat from the one delivered by him at Portland, but like that was a plain and convincing exposition of the republican financial achievements and policy, and a damaging exposition of democratic and greenback heresies. After discussing the financial question at some length he said: "There are battles of the future which affect your welfare and your honor more than all the money questions that I could discuss. There are questions of the immediate future that rise above money and bonds, above property and profit. There is the safety and supremacy of the national government, which is again called into disrepute by the very men who managed the war against us for four years, for the doctrines which preceded the civil war, the very doctrine of State rights which led to the war, and caused a loss of blood and treasure to an extent for which there is no parallel. They are again coming up for discussion and decision. You cannot avoid them. An honest greenbacker today told me that while he had some doubts on the greenback question, he had become alarmed at the danger of the southern question. I tell you it is upon us. The solid south is made solid by a terror and violence I cannot describe or depict. The four or five millions of human beings whom we emancipated are now held in such terror by violence that they are practically deprived of the elective franchise. All the solid south wants is a few people in the north on any kind of issue to act with them, and then through their caucus they can rule and govern the country as they tried in civil war. (Wade Hampton said the other day that he did not care if a man was for hard or soft money, if only he was a democrat,) and then, if they can get enough democrats in the northern States to stand by the doctrine of State rights, to go into caucus—then the southern States will have a majority, and a majority of both houses and the electoral college, and they will put forward the same dogmas for which they fought during the four years of civil war. These questions cannot be blinked at."

"As of Old."

The platform of the democratic State convention of Pennsylvania declares that "The democratic party, as of old, favor a constitutional currency of gold and silver and of paper convertible into coin." The democratic party never favored a currency of "paper convertible into coin," either "of old" or at the present time. Before the war, servile devotion to slavery and bitter hostility to paper money of any kind were the distinguishing characteristics of that party. When the war began, the democratic party was particularly hostile to the greenback. Of late, it has been fond of the greenback, but particularly hostile to its convertibility into coin. There never was a time when the democratic party favored a paper currency convertible into coin, and all its recent acts prove that it now favors a paper currency not convertible into coin, nor secured by deposits of United States bonds.

News and Notes.

Gloucester fishermen are very indignant at the interference with their rights under the Washington treaty by the inhabitants of Cape Breton, by refusing to allow squid to be caught in their waters. These squid are needed for bait by the bank fleet, and the conduct of the people in that section, and their threats to cut up the seines of the American fishermen, it is held by the fishermen should be called to a strict account by the authorities at Washington. The Cape Ann Advertiser says that thirteen American vessels, five of them belonging to Gloucester, were not permitted to take bait, which might have been readily secured, and were consequently subjected to a loss of time which will make their voyage unprofitable, and tend to discourage the prosecution of the bank fishery, on which our markets rely for their supply of fresh halibut.

A Beaver creek (Dakota) despatch of the 17th inst., states that Lieut. Clark fell in with a hunting party of Sioux that day, and, after chasing them some distance, they fell back on their reserves and Clark found himself surrounded. He sent to Gen. Miles, who went personally with his force to reinforce Clark, when the Sioux retreated. Clark then charged them in front, and drove them across Little Rocky creek, their pace being accelerated by the fire of Rice's howitzers. After the second discharge the hostiles left in great haste, and Rice piled shells into them at a distance of 2,500 yards. The hostile party numbered between 300 and 400 warriors, who had mostly wickyups, instead of regular tepees. They had only a few squaws with them. One was captured, and one killed by a stray shot from the Crows. The friendly Indians took several scalps.

The value of real estate at Newburyport for the current year is $4,766,700; personal, $2,642,800; total, $7,409,588; reduction from last year, $168,500; rate of taxation, $15.50 on $1,000; polls, 3,298; rate, $1.68 each.

United States Marshal Henry, of Burlington, Vt., arrested three men Thursday in the vicinity of Jamaica for the illicit distilling of cider brandy. They were taken to Montpelier for trial.

The fish commission's new steamer, for which an appropriation has been obtained from Congress, will be appropriately named the Fish Hawk. She will be one hundred-forty-six feet nine inches long on the water line; twenty-five feet beam; ten feet nine inches depth of hold. The steamer will be fitted with every possible facility for dredging, preparing and preserving specimens, the propagation of fish, and the other work of the commission.

Mary Kendella, who died at Cleveland, Ohio, last spring, was 104 years old, and her husband, who is still living, is 105. They were the oldest married couple on record.

Wm. Hubbard and Wm. Woodward, milkmen, of Somerville, Mass., while intoxicated, Thursday evening, entered the laundry of Hop Lee, in Charlestown, where a dispute arose between them and the Chinamen concerning the payment of a bill. The Chinamen, of whom there were four, became infuriated and made an assault on the two men with an axe. The white men fled, but the Chinamen gave chase, inflicting fatal wounds on Hubbard and badly cutting Woodward. Hop Lee and his associates were arrested.

A duel took place on the 23d inst. at a point fourteen miles east of Columbus, Miss., in the State of Florida, between Capt. Humphreys and Major Moore. Five hundred people witnessed the affair. The combatants fired upon each other at a distance of ten paces with Smith & Wesson revolvers. Nobody got hurt, but several people were awfully scared.

The boiler of a threshing machine exploded on the 23d inst., ten miles south of Gendola, Ill., killing four men and wounding seven or eight others.

There is considerable excitement in Fall River over the intimidation of "nobsticks" by strikers; a number of assaults have been committed, but no serious trouble has yet occurred, and the manufacturers are more determined than ever to hold out.

It is reported from Washington that special and positive instructions have been sent by the war department to prevent Gen. Miles carrying on the Indian war, and telling him the only purpose of sending him into the field was to protect the navigation on the Missouri river.

Michael Bolander, foreman of a New York candy manufactory, was fatally stabbed in the street Thursday evening by an Italian he had a short time before discharged. The murderer was arrested.

The Lewiston (Me.) Machine company has one hundred and fifty men at work, and is driven with orders. The agent finds it difficult to obtain a sufficient number of skilled workmen, in spite of the fact, which the greenback speakers gravely state, that there are 3,000,000 men out of employment.

A farm-house near Conewango, N. Y., occupied by an aged couple named Crosby, was broken into on the night of the 23d inst., and Mrs. Crosby choked to death and Mr. Crosby shot. The thieves obtained thirty dollars. Suspicion rests upon two tramps seen on the road. The citizens turned out and now have them in custody.

The Mohawk river bridge at Ilion, N. Y., fell on the 23d inst., with twenty persons on it, who all went into the river. The only person hurt was Highway Commissioner Frederick A. Helmer of Herkimer, aged over seventy years, who had charge of the repairs. A stick of timber or bolt penetrated one lung, and it is thought he will die.

Rev. Mr. Ross of East Williams, Ont., has forbidden Freemasons to approach the communion table in his church on the ground that at Masonic funerals the name of Christ is not used in supplications to the Deity.

Arthur Austin of Alstead, nine years old, was sent after an old horse, usually gentle, the other day, and after failing to put the halter over the horse's head, the boy went behind and tried to drive him home, when the horse kicked the boy in the abdomen, causing inflammation and death in a short time.

The 50th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Wolcott of Claremont was celebrated recently. Three generations were present, among which only one death has occurred during the whole fifty years.

Some years ago the water board of Concord offered to furnish the State prison with 200,000 gallons of water per day, for the next ten years, at the rate of $3,000 per year. After mature consideration the State authorities have made an offer of $2,500 per year, and are awaiting an answer. This contemplates an outlay by the Concord people of raising $30,000 in constructing a reservoir on Head's hill of 2,000,000 gallons capacity, laying a twelve inch pipe to the prison, etc. The above offer is made with the understanding that at the end of ten years the State shall have equal privileges with the citizens of Concord.

The Methodist Sunday schools of Exeter and South Newmarket had a basket picnic at the Hedding camp-meeting grounds on the 23d inst.

The secretary of the striking spinners at Fall River, Mass., reports the reception, among other sums, of $24 from Dover, in support of the strikers.

Chief Engineer Thom Williamsan on Friday evening received by telegraph orders to at once report for duty on board the U. S. S. Powhatan at Philadelphia, and leaves this morning in the early train for Boston.

Charles H. Chase, of Stratham, while working a mowing machine some days ago had his right hand caught in the gearing and three fingers ground up, the index finger being so badly hurt as to necessitate its amputation.

The parties who came from somewhere to Stratham last fall, and again last spring, and dug for buried treasure the whereabouts of which in a pasture had been disclosed by a clairvoyant, gave up the job some time ago, not having found the treasure they sought.

During the year 1878 the Mutual life insurance company of New York paid the following policies in this vicinity:—John Stokell, $3,000; Ammi R. H. Fernald, $2,000, both of this city; Richard Scammon of Stratham, $2,000. The company paid twenty-one death claims in Maine and New Hampshire during that year.

It was reported Friday afternoon that the training-ship Portsmouth, Lieut.-Comdr. Crowninshield commanding, had arrived at this port and was at anchor in the lower harbor. Later in the day the new comer was announced to be the Constellation, and it was stated that she lost two anchors Thursday night near the Isles of Shoals.

"The Schooner on the Beach" is the name of an interesting story by Rev. E. A. Rand, and published by the American Sunday School Union. Mr. Rand has written several books for boys which have been received with favor, and this one, which has a salt water flavor pervading the whole, will be read with delight by every boy who is fortunate enough to get hold of it.

BOYS FOR THE NAVY.

The training ship Portsmouth, a sailing vessel of fourteen guns and 1125 tons displacement, will soon arrive in this port and will remain here ten days for the purpose of enlisting boys for the navy. From a circular issued by Secretary Thompson we compile the following, of interest to those who may wish to enter the service:

Candidates for admission must be not less than fifteen nor more than eighteen years of age, and before being enlisted must satisfy the examining board of officers, which consists of the captain, a line officer and the senior medical officer of the ship, "that he is of robust frame, intelligent, of perfectly sound and healthy constitution, free from any physical defects or malformation, and not subject to fits; that he is able to read and write. In special cases where the boy shows a general intelligence, and is otherwise qualified, the examining board, if they think fit, may enlist him, notwithstanding his knowledge of reading and writing is imperfect. That his height and measure are sufficient, being as follows:

Age.	Height.	Weight.	Chest measure.
15 years	4 ft. 11 in.	85 lbs.	27½ inches
16 years	5 ft. 1 in.	90 lbs.	28 inches
17 years	5 ft. 2 in.	100 lbs.	29 inches
18 years	5 ft. 3 in.	110 lbs.	30 inches

Each boy upon presenting himself for enlistment must be accompanied by his father, or by his mother in case the father be deceased, or by his legally appointed guardian in case he has no father nor mother, their signature being required on the shipping articles to perfect the enlistment. The parent or guardian, however, who by reason of distance, infirmity or other cause cannot accompany the son or ward to the place of enlistment, will be furnished, on written application to the commanding officer" of the ship, "with duplicates of a printed form of declaration, oath, etc., by which the enlistment will be perfected, should the boy be accepted by the board of examining officers. All expenses of travel must be paid by the candidates, whether accepted or not. If the examining officers are of the opinion that the boy is in every respect fit for service, the engagement to serve continuously in the service until twenty-one years of age is to be read and explained to him, and if he voluntarily agrees to its terms, he is then, in the presence of a witness, to sign the agreement and be enlisted. The education of the boys will comprise the elements of an ordinary English education, alternating with practical seamanship and other professional occupations designed to prepare them for sailors in the navy. The object is to place in the naval service, with the consent of their parents, such good and deserving boys as will elevate its standard, and make the navy more reliable as an arm of the national defence. Boys who have been convicted of crime cannot, therefore, be received, as it is not advisable that they should become the associates of the better class. The boys will be enlisted as third class boys, at the rate of $9.50 per month and one ration. While serving in the training ships, they may, if deserving, be promoted to rating of second and first-class boys, at the pay of $10.50 and $11.50 per month, respectively, and on cruising vessels will be entitled to higher ratings, at the discretion of their commanding officers, as a reward of proficiency and good conduct. They will be furnished an outfit of clothing, the cost of which will be charged to their repective accounts, or the parents may purchase the necessary outfit from the paymaster of the ship themselves, and give to their sons. Boys enlisted to serve until twenty-one years of age will not be permitted to allot any part of their pay to parents or guardians, nor will they be allowed to draw any money from the paymaster for this purpose. They will be allowed to draw monthly, from the paymaster of the ship, one dollar for pocket money, if out of debt, and will be allowed liberty to go on shore, at the discretion of the commanding officer. They will be tranferred to sea-going vessels as they become proficient, accompanied by the certificate of their commanding officer as to their conduct and qualification. If recommended for honorable discharge upon the expiration of their enlistments, they will receive continuous-service certificates, which will entitle them to three months extra pay of their rating when discharged and to the addition of one dollar per month to their pay, provided they re-enlist under such certificates for three years within three months from the date thereof. Boys will not be discharged from the service till they have reached twenty-one years of age, except upon a medical survey, inaptitude for the service, or for misconduct. Those injured in the service, or having contracted a disease in the line of duty, will be entitled to the benefits of a pension."

President.—DEWITT C. BATES.
Secretary and Treasurer,—ROBERT J. S. WHITE

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Exper" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 90 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.60 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCracken Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to

Number of Volunteers from Each State.

A statement has been issued by the war department giving the number of men furnished the Union army by each State and Territory, and the District of Columbia, from April 15th, 1861, to the close of the war of the rebellion. It shows that the total number of volunteers was 2,678,967, divided as follows:

Maine	73,114
New Hampshire	36,629
Vermont	35,392
Massachusetts	159,043
Rhode Island	23,699
Connecticut	57,379
New York	467,047
New Jersey	81,010
Pennsylvania	366,326
Delaware	12,878
Maryland	50,316
West Virginia	32,068
District of Columbia	16,872
Ohio	310,259
Indiana	197,147
Illinois	258,147
Michigan	89,372
Wisconsin	96,424
Minnesota	25,052
Iowa	76,309
Missouri	108,111
Kentucky	79,025
Kansas	20,151
Tennessee	31,092
Arkansas	8,289
North Carolina	5,156
California	15,725
Nevada	1,080
Oregon	1,810
Washington Territory	964
Nebraska Territory	3,157
Colorado Territory	4,903
Dakota Territory	206
New Mexico Territory	6,561
Alabama	2,576
Florida	1,290
Louisiana	5,224
Mississippi	545
Texas	1,965
Indian Nation	35,630

The troops furnished by the southern States were, with the exception of those of Louisiana, nearly all white. Florida furnished two regiments of cavalry, Alabama one white regiment, Mississippi one battalion, and North Carolina two regiments of cavalry.

Political.

Gen. Tom Ewing, the democgreenback—or greenodemback, we forgot which, and it does not matter—candidate for governor of Ohio, made a speech at Lancaster on the 24th inst., in which he vigorously assailed the republican party, of course twisting facts to suit himself, and glorified inflation and State supremacy by nullification of National laws.

The New Orleans Times, a democratic paper, has the candor to say that the negro exodus from the south was not originated by and has not been influenced to any appreciable extent by political or self-styled humanitarian emissaries from the northern States. The excitement among the colored laborers has become a "craze, a mania, an epidemic." The antidote, says the Times, is to be found at home. "To remove the causes of the excitement will allay it."

Complaint is made by the democrats that they are misrepresented when they are charged with reviving the question of State sovereignty. If they haven't revived it what does Alexander Stephens mean by saying the war settled nothing? What does Senator Butler mean by saying the party has gone back to the principles of twenty years ago? What do the southern journals mean by saying the country is getting back to the questions which agitated it before the war?—Tribune.

—Wong Wing, a converted Chinaman, who was elected treasurer of a Chinese Methodist church in California, has cleared out with $600 of the funds, alias sameee like Melican man.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. L. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price, $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.

Sold by all Druggists.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1873. WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION. BUFFALO AND LONDON. CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago induced several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of the World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers:

Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres.
JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several specialties.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.

NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Advisor" (1,000 pages, sent post-paid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).

SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Colcul (Stone in the Bladder), Stricture, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cataract, Club-foot, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of these diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has wrought cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Home Flowers.

There is in attending to flowers just that mixture of manual with mental occupation which is to most people peculiarly restoring as a relaxation, with the advantage that whatever is too heavy in the manual part of the work can be easily delegated to others, as it scarcely requires any skill. The mental part of the work, on the other hand, is not severe, and is all interwoven with keen and simple pleasures—the pleasure of beautiful colors and forms, of fragrance, and of freshness—not to mention association and hope. Our plants make just enough demand upon us to beguile us into a little daily lingering among them, which soon becomes a delightful habit; and though they will supply any amount of occupation, they never require enough attention to be a serious interruption to other pursuits. The very busy or very lazy may enjoy watching the continual growth and unfolding of ferns in their glass abode, without lifting a finger for weeks at a time to do anything for them, while there is room for any amount of delightful daily pottering over climbing or freely-flowering plants; and if once a spirit of anything like scientific observation gets a footing in our minds, there is no limit to the materials they will supply for it. Perhaps the chief drawback, in a moral point of view, to the advantages of window-gardening, is the really bloodthirsty spirit of revenge and intolerance which it kindles against slugs, spiders, wire-worms, green-fly, and other blameless creatures struggling for existence with exasperating and, as it sometimes appears to us, almost fiendish ingenuity. No doubt even they have interesting habits, but the window gardener who could watch them in a calmly scientific spirit must be more or less than human.—Saturday Review.

How Deeply Does the Earth Quake?

The recent earthquake at Virginia City was not noticed at all in the mining depths, but only by people on the surface. The famous earthquake of some years ago which shook down chimneys, fire walls, cracked brick buildings, and did other damage, was merely noticed by some of the miners working in the upper levels, but it did no damage, not even shaking down loose stones and earth. The station men in the various shafts felt it the strongest, and the deepest point where it was noticed was by the station-tender at the 900 foot level of the Imperial Empire shaft—900 feet below the surface. He said it felt like a sudden faint throb or pulsation of the air, as though a blast had been let off somewhere at a distance above, below, or in some indefinite direction. In some of the shafts the shock was not noticed at all, even by station men. Commenting on this peculiar fact at the time, the Gold Hill News remarked that the earthquake seemed to be an electrical disturbance, proceeding from the atmosphere, and not from the depths of the earth.—Sacramento Union.

Speculation.

Since the creation, it is estimated that 27,000,000,000,000,000, people have lived on earth. This sum divided by 27,864,000 the number of square miles, gives, 1,314,522,086 to a square rod and 5 to a square foot. Suppose a square rod be divided in 11 graves, each grave would contain 100 persons. But this is speculation, and of no benefit to the 1,000,000,000 people that now exist, 500,000,000 of whom are invalids, 33,000,000 dying each year. What they most want are the facts concerning Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. For years his Golden Medical Discovery has been the standard remedy for the cure of all scrofulous, throat, and lung diseases. While for over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been unrivaled as a positive cure for catarrh. The testimony of thousands of ladies has been published, certifying that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription positively cures the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. For full information see the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages, price (post paid), $1.50. Over 100,000 copies sold. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

The New Stock Speculations.

The new combination method of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have inaugurated, is attracting unusual attention in financial circles, by reason of its remarkable success. A customer in Providence invested nine times, and made over $5,000 in three months, by using from $50 to $500 capital. By this system, orders from thousands of customers, in various sums, are pooled into one immense capital, and operated as a mighty whole, thus giving to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and shrewdest skill. Profits are divided every 30 days. Any amount from $10 to $75,000 can be used in Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s combination with equal proportionate success. $15 will make $75 profit in the month. $200 will return $1,600, or 8 per cent. on the stock, and so on as the market varies. The new circular gives "two unerring rules for success," and shows how any one can operate profitably. Mailed free. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y.

It is remarkable that the active ingredients of Fellows' Hypophosphites are alkaloids from trees which attain to very great ages; taken in connection with the fact that this preparation will increase the longevity of the human family is a somewhat singular coincidence.

The Yellow Fever.

There were eleven new cases of yellow fever reported to the Memphis board of health on the 25th inst., up to six o'clock P. M., and ten deaths. Serious trouble is anticipated because of the refusal of the negroes in the city to obey the orders of the health officers, and the local military force has been called out to preserve order.

The mayor of St. Louis on the 25th inst. telegraphed to the national board of health that the yellow fever refugees from Memphis are arriving in such large numbers that the establishment of a quarantine camp has become necessary. He asked that tents and rations for 1,000 persons for thirty days be forwarded immediately.

Johanna Brennan, a refugee from Memphis, died in New York on the 25th of yellow fever.

Thirteen new cases of yellow fever and three deaths were reported to the board of health at Memphis on Saturday.

Naval Affairs.

Capt. C. H. Wells, chief signal officer at Washington, is granted leave of absence during the month of August.

Paymaster John H. Stevenson, attached to the New York navy yard, is granted leave of absence for one month from August 2d.

The despatch boat Tallapoosa arrived at Newport, R. I., Saturday morning, to await clearing weather, when she would proceed to the eastward.

A despatch from Chester, Pa., Friday, says the U. S. S. Vandalia, Commander Meade, has arrived there from New Bedford, and that she will tow the government dry dock to Pensacola. The Powhatan is at Philadelphia, having gone there from Portland under orders to do the same job of towing. Perhaps both vessels are to be employed.

News and Notes.

John Barrett, a notorious burglar and ruffian, under sentence in the State prison at Sing Sing, N. Y., for robbery, attacked and stabbed the keeper on Friday and then made for another keeper with a hammer, when the latter made a good shot and put a bullet through Barrett's heart.

George B. Durfee, treasurer of the Mechanics' mill at Fall River, is reported to be a defaulter. Durfee has been speculating in cotton. He dealt in margins and bought 20,000 bales on which he lost $120,000 which will require him to pay between $35,000 and $50,000. It is reported that his friends have made the amount good.

Dr. Stokes of St. Johnsbury, Vt., the alleged abortionist, has been bailed by five leading men of that town.

Hargraves Watson, an overseer in one of the mills at Fall River, Mass., has become insane on account of the troubles growing out of the strike, which prayed upon his mind, and he has been taken to the asylum at Taunton.

At Lowell, Mass., on Thursday last, a large Newfoundland dog was observed acting in an unaccountable manner on the margin of the south common pond. He seemed to wish to approach the water, but to be at the same time held back by a dread of it. He apparently suffered also, from spasms, during which he would leap high in the air and then writhe in agony. While a policeman went in search of a weapon to kill him and end his misery the dog jumped into the pond, in spite of his evident aversion to the water, walked twenty or thirty feet from the bank toward the middle of the pond, and there deliberately drowned himself.

Loring's steam yacht, the Psyche, reached Newport, R. I., Friday forenoon, in charge of an officer from a United States revenue cutter, having been seized at Vineyard Haven for lack of necessary papers.

The troubles in the Indian country are growing more serious daily. Gen. Miles is expecting to have another battle with the Sioux. A large number of Indians have come across the Canada line, and are making hostile demonstrations.

At Wimbledon, England, the site of the great national camp of volunteers, on Thursday there was quite a riot. A large mob endeavored to force an entrance to the volunteers' camp, and to effect their purpose set fire to the fence surrounding the camp, after besmearing it with petroleum. The police charged on the mob and drove them back, but not before many of the police and rioters were injured. The inhabitants of Wimbledon claim the right of an unrestricted entrance to the camp, hence their attempt to force an entrance when refused.

Political.

Gen. B. F. Butler has announced his intention of running as an independent candidate for governor of Massachusetts in the coming campaign, and a call for a convention to ratify his nomination has been issued. The general says that his position of last year on political matters is unchanged. Ex-Collector Simmons has announced his intention of supporting Gen. Butler if he runs as an independent candidate.

Owing to the lack of money to pay revenue officers, illicit distilleries have multiplied in the vicinity of Greenville, S. C., to such an extent that only five out of seventeen licensed distilleries are now running, and they will soon stop. The efforts of the democratic reform House to protect raiders on the revenue are proving even more successful than was hoped for.

The Portland Press tells of a greenbacker who, while denouncing Secretary Sherman as a Shylock, was asked by a listener: "Who was Shylock, anyhow?" To which the indignant orator replied, in withering tones: "Well, if you don't know, you had better go home and read your Bible."

The interesting announcement is made that three hundred of the best citizens of Union county, Arkansas, have banded themselves together and pledged their lives and property to put down the night riding, ball-dozing and general lawlessness that have prevailed there for the past two years. It is a good sign so far as it goes. The facts probably are that the political bulldozing, like all other forms of lawlessness, has developed itself into phases of crime which are not confined to its original purpose. From whipping and plundering the negroes, the night riders have probably proceeded to robbing the whites and exercising a political and personal tyranny over all who do not belong to their faction. The habit of lawlessness has grown by what it has fed on until it has become unbearably by the whites as well as by the blacks.

Several democratic papers are printing a statement of the dire straits to which some gentlemen prominent in inciting or prosecuting the rebellion have been reduced. It certainly is sad. One who was a major-general under Lee is doorkeeper of the Senate, and "the only man that ever whipped Sheridan" is a clerk in the stationery room. These are the lucky ones. A confederate commodore is living by odd jobs of wood-sawing in Cincinnati. A Mississippi colonel officiates as a car-starter in New Orleans, and "a proud Georgian who formerly wheeled battalions at Vicksburg" bosses sixteen Chinamen on a Nevada railroad. "One of Grant's class-mates" is an unhappy lightning-rod agent at the west, and confederate brigadiers are scattered here and there, unable to earn a living. Beauregard and Early are even worse off, if possible, standing on either side of a Louisiana lottery wheel, as advertisement s for a professional gambler. A brigadier-general at Shiloh is now a deck-hand on the Mississippi. There are laws of disorder as well as laws of order; and it may be wholesome to remember that these gentlemen are peculiarly lucky in one respect—in being Americans. Any one of them might have been a Russian, a Spaniard or a Prussian, or even an Austrian; and if they had taken up arms to destroy those countries, they probably would now have no heads to ache, no pride to be wounded. If life is worth having, they are to be congratulated.—Tribune.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. C. F. Lummis has lately discovered a cascade near the Profile house, which is described as being one of the finest in the mountain region of New Hampshire. It is on the north side of Mount Lafayette, about three miles from the Profile house, and is some fifty feet high. He has named it Thea's cascade.

A man found dead on Friday near Cumberland Mills, Me., on the Rochester railroad track, proves to be Charles Johnson, aged thirty, from New Hampshire, but lately living in that vicinity. He was a reckless fellow, and was seen drunk Thursday, driving about with two others, boisterous and quarrelsome. A cut in the back of the head, which injured his skull, and his pockets being empty, lead to the suspicion that he was murdered.

A Strange Phenomenon.

A gentleman residing in Wakulla county, by the name of Cox, who is cultivating a small farm, upon arising one morning last week, was surprised to find that during the night his residence had been changed from a region where water could not be seen, and was situated on the border of a lake. When he retired on the evening before his house was far away from any pond, lake or river, but upon going out next morning, his surprise can be imagined when, instead of his garden, an immense sink, fifty or sixty yards square, filled with water, running up within eighteen or twenty feet of his residence, met his gaze. During the night this transformation occurred, leaving not even the vestige of the tallest pine trees which were standing in their full majesty only twelve hours before.—Tallahassee Floridian.

Opening Up Africa.

The French government are making strenuous efforts to open up northern Africa to civilization. The proposal to unite Algeria to Senegal and London by railway is one which would have been ridiculed a few years ago, but which may now be regarded as no more impracticable than many other railway schemes which have been successfully carried out. Northern Africa, in which France has now a large interest, is a country which has always done a considerable trade, but the means of communication have been so bad as greatly to interfere with it. A railway which would carry goods farther in a day than they can be carried in a month by the present modes of travel would kindle northern Africa into new life and increase its trade tenfold.

President.—DEWITT C. BATES.
Secretary and Treasurer,—ROBERT J. S. WHITE

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 30 to 36 feet. Average assays taken promise enough from these openings show a value of $67.50 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCracken Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 28, 2 A.M.

Slightly warmer, south-east to south-west winds, and partly cloudy weather, with slowly falling barometer during the day.

AROUND HOME.

Two young seals in the new tank at Major Urch's aquarium attracted great attention on Sunday.

The city election takes place on Tuesday, August 5th. Its near approach is not provocative of much excitement as yet.

The Universalist picnic will be held at Fort Constitution on Tuesday, the Clara Batemen making two trips from Jones' wharf; tickets for adults, 25c each.

A son of Mr. Robert H. Hall, who left his home on Thursday last, was found on Sunday after diligent search, sporting among the campers-out at Wallis' sands, Rye beach.

People posessing good sense and overcoats had the latter on their backs, Saturday evening, when out of doors. People possessing better sense did not go out of doors at all.

Tugs were in requisition on the river, Saturday, but were not to be had. The Clara Batemen was having a new crank-pin put in, and the Ann was reported as having met with some injury on a recent trip up the river, and to be laying by in Dover.

Mr. John Dixon, who has leased the Railway wharf, recently purchased and thoroughly repaired by Mr. Thomas Shea, is erecting a building thereon one hundred feet long by forty feet wide and two stories high, to be used in the dressing, curing, and storage of fish. Mr. Dixon now has room for carrying on an extensive fish-curing business.

The schooner Gov. Goodwin arrived at Doane's wharf on Thursday last with three hundred and seventy-five barrels of mackerel. Schooner Levant, from Bangor, delivered at Doane's wharf on Saturday eleven hundred and fifty mackerel barrels; the rest of her cargo, 49,000 bricks, she takes to Boston. The schooner Daniel Marcy arrived at Doane's wharf on Sunday with three hundred and seventy-five barrels of mackerel.

Any person wishing to get an idea of the ravages of potato bugs when they are allowed to "go-as-you-please," by taking a stroll to the corner of Water and Salter streets can see a sample of their energetic labors. They have entirely stripped one large patch of potatoes, and are now making a stampede by thousands in every direction, to the neighboring gardens, crossing the streets, covering the fences, and getting into the houses and cellars in the vicinity. They are not agreeable visitors, and Paris green and kerosene are in demand.

The government ship reported as arrived in the lower harbor on Friday afternoon turned out to be the Constellation, and she did not enter the harbor at all, but stood off and on inside the Shoals. While coming to anchor near Appledore island, Isles of Shoals, Thursday night, she lost an anchor and sixty fathoms of chain. Saturday morning the ship's boats were engaged in dragging for the chains, and it was stated that as soon as she recovered her ground tackle the vessel would proceed to Newport, R. I. On Sunday she laid at anchor at the Shoals until afternoon, when she made all sail, but after beating about for several hours broucht up between the Shoals and Rye Beach, owing probably to the light wind and the approach of a heavy fog-bank. Her anchor had been recovered.

It is reported that a bill has been prepared and will be introduced at the next meeting of the city councils, providing that any person killing another for whistling, singing, or playing on any musical instrument any selection from "Pinafore," shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5 or imprisonment in the county jail for one week, or both, at the discretion of the police magistrate. We trust that the bill will not pass; and even if it should, the higher courts of the State would undoubtedly declare it opposed to the constitution of the United States, (which prohibits the infliction of cruel and unusual punishment,) as the infliction of any punishment at all for so venial an offence as the killing of a boy who whistles Pinafore would be cruel and outrageous. Let the city councils amend the bill so as to provide for the ample rewarding of the man who kills a Pinafore nuisance, pass it in that shape, and then calmly await a unanimous re-election at the hands of a long-suffering and grateful community.

The large new ship built by Thompson & Whitcomb of Kennebunk, insolvents, was sold at Kennebunk on Thursday last by the assignee for $41,000, to Nathan Sewall & Co., of Bath, Me., who procured a valuable ship at a low figure.

The seventy-five hours "go-as-you-please" race at Music hall, Boston, terminated Saturday night, Cropt taking the first prize with a record of 271 miles and six laps; Hichborn second, 263 miles and sixteen laps; Campanna third, 262 miles and eight laps; Lacouse fourth, 256 miles and six laps. Hanson and McLauglin, of Dover, made the following record: the former 214 miles and six laps, the latter 239 miles and seven laps.

ROBBERY IN GREENLAND.

As already reported, the house of Mrs. Lydia F. Pickering of Greenland was entered and robbed by some yet unknown thief on the night of the 18th inst., trinkets and silver ware to the value of several hundred dollars being stolen, and a casket that had contained jewelry being found outside the house next day.

On Friday night there was another mysterious robbery in that town, the house of Capt. George T. Ball being entered and robbed. Mrs. Ball, who occupied a room opposite the one where her husband was sleeping, was awakened in the night by the noise of a pair of creaking shoes or boots—queer things for a burglar to wear—and becoming alarmed raised the cry of "murder," which aroused Capt. Ball and of course alarmed the thief, who effectually disappeared while Capt. Ball was lighting a lamd. The robbery was the work of either a skillful professional—and professional burglars do not usually wear squeaking shoes—or of some one well acquainted with the internal arrangements of the house, for neither in entering or leaving the building did the thief leave any trace, and the key of the bureau drawer in which the articles stolen were kept was found by the thief in its hiding place under a mat on top of the bureau. The articles stolen were a gold watch, with a long-linked gold chain and Odd Fellow's seal attached; a diamond ring worth $300; a cluster garnet pin containing about two hundred stones, set in gold, as large as an old-fashioned cent; and a hair breastpin of peculiar shape. The watch is of the American watch company's make, and numbered 360,543. A reward of $200 is offered for the recovery of the the property; or a suitable reward will be paid for the recovery of any part thereof, or for information which will lead to its recovery or the arrest of the thief or thieves.

On Friday morning it was found that the fastenings on the windows of the residence of Edwin A. Peterson, Esq., who lives nearly opposite the house of Capt. Ball, had been tampered with on the previous night; and there were other evidences that there had been an unsuccessful attempt made at burglary.

POLITICAL MEETING.

A meeting of the national greenback club of this city was held in the old custom house on Friday evening of last week. There were present nearly all the prominent members of the club, and there was considerable enthusiasm manifested. It was voted to place a full ticket in the field at the approaching municipal election, and a caucus for the nomination of candidates was directed to be held on the evening of the 30th inst. Remarks were made by several members of the club, generally adverse to any alliance of the greenbackers with any other political party. It was decided to secure a prominent greenback speaker of Boston to deliver an address in one of the public halls of this city on the evening before election day.

"It Was The Cat."

At the Remenyi concert, given at the Standard on Sunday night, there was an occurrence conforming with the unities in a very considerable degree. As Miss Thurston was caroling forth a romantic ditty to some one, who in the song proves untrue to a fervent love, a large, energetic and frightened black cat sprang through one of the windows opening from the gallery. Whether it was the songstress, the pianist or Remenyi himself—who was tuning his fiddle in the wings—which attracted the cat, remains in doubt; but the cat, nevertheless, made a desperate bound for the stage, but fell short, and landed on the head of the amazed and bald-headed manipulator of the big bass fiddle. The cat from there made another spring and reached the stage. Miss Thurston had observed the cat from its entrance, but managed to retain her composure until a nervous old lady in the audience, who, until that moment, had not noticed the cause of the commotion, exclaimed "Gracious me! Why, what is that?" To which a gallery boy quickly responded, "Silent be, it was the cat."—Philadelphia paper.

—At a ball at Paris the other day, ladies were given a sort of check-book with conterfoils. On these checks were printed, "Good for——dance." These they gave signed to their intended partners, and then wrote the name of the partner on the counterfoil. By this means all mistakes were avoided.—London Truth.

—A gray old rat, either through confusion or the impulse of a fatal ambition, recently leaped into a vat of seething saccharine mixture at a chocolate cream and caromel factory in Boston, and when taken out was sugar-coated from the ends of his whiskers to the tip of his tail—the first rat on record to enjoy this distinction.

—This is the poetic style indulged in by a Baltimore reporter: "She wore a magnificent white silk, en traine, and fan-tailed, elaborately trimmed, and the usual bridal veil gathered was in such graceful folds about her classical features as to resemble a well-becoming cap, while its ample length fairly enveloped the queen-like figure it adorned." There! Isn't that real nice?

—At seven o'clock in the morning two duellists, who are to fight to the death at a place in the suburbs, meet at the ticket office of the railroad station. "Gimme a return ticket as usual," says the first duellist to the clerk in a terrible tone and with a ferocious twist of his moustache. "I—I say, do you always buy return tickets?" stammers his opponent. "Always." "Then I apologize."

—In the schools on the Comstock the arithmetical examples are adapted to the surroundings. Instead of saying, "I have nine apples; I will give William one-fourth of the number, John one-tenth, Henry one-fifth, and Charles one-eleventh; how many apples does John have?" they say: "suppose I buy seventeen and two-thirds shares of Union Consolidated at the market price, on twenty-six per centum margin, and the cross-drift on the twenty-three hundred don't pan out according to expectations, and the broker calls on me for more mud, and I can't put up, how much a share will Hale & Norcross be worth when the last drop of water from the flooded mines has passed through the Sutro tunnel?"—California Stock Report.

—A Georgia farmer uses a novel fertilizer. He kills snakes, lays them in the furrow, and then plants corn on them. These snakes are made to produce corn, which produces whiskey, which in turn produces snakes again.

—Roman loungers were treated to a rare spectacle recently on the Via Appia; a bicycle race between two ladies who both belong to the best society and are celebrated for their beauty. They appeared on their iron steeds, arrayed in the most coquettish of Spanish hats, vests and tights. The fair winner was Mme. Le Ghait, the pretty wife of the first secretary of the Belgian legation.

—The Albany Journal is very enthusiastic in behalf of Mary Anderson: "She is beautiful and a great actress. She has white arms. Standing as a statue, with those arms raised and her chin elevated so as to look at something much higher than herself, she gives out thunders of white silence and raises Texas in a variety of ways." Miss Anderson will probably be as much puzzled by this as anybody.

—In New York the sextons of the churches of Trinity parish now wear black robes, after the English fashion. The robes are of black poplin with broad collars of velvet. The sextons are distinguished from their assistants by broad bands down the front of their gowns. At Trinity church the sextons wear the robes while on duty; at the other churches of the parish only during the services.

—A remarkable story, showing the great advantages of ignorance, is told of a French cook who won a prize in the late lottery. She had felt certain, long before the drawing of the prizes, that No. 27 would turn out a winner; and she managed to buy it, and awaited the result with anxiety, but without fear. The list came out in due time, and surely enough No. 27 had won a big prize. Her master, therefore, questioned her about it, asking to be informed why she felt so sanguine. The explanation was simple. "Why, sir," she replied, "I dreamed three nights running that No. 8 would be a lucky number; that is how I came to be sure, because three times eight is twenty-seven."

Established 1756.

The Gazette s published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

— OF —

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Itch, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver," or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the care of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheaper wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ridging in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulceration, attacks, pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheaper wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, and directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

TOM PARKER.

A Sketch from Real Life.

Wildest of the wild spirits numbered among the students of "old Harvard" in years gone by, was Tom Parker, the son of a widow whose husband in his day had been known as a merchant in the business world of Boston. Than the latter a clock could not be more regular in its movements; rendering greater the mystery from whence Tom had derived his erratic nature, when his mother was also of a quiet temperament. If any roguery was perpetrated that came to the ears of the college authorities, not a doubt existed as to who had instigated it, and been chief in carrying it into execution. No suggestion that could have been made to him in the way of affording fun for its perpetrators, as well as giving the little community amid which the University was then situated, a theme for chat, would have found him at fault; a skillful engineer as he proved himself to be in the most seemingly impossible achievements. As a specimen of his ability in such matters, the following may be given.

On a chilly afternoon in autumn, a wagon load of fish made its appearance beneath one of the sheds of the village hotel, where it had been left by the owner preparatory to being disposed of among the sparse population then scattered between the Port and West Cambridge, and on its being seen by Tom and his chum, in the course of a stroll, after study, at the close of the day, the latter said to him, "Do you think, Tom, you could manage to get that vehicle and its contents upon the roof yonder?" pointing, as he did so, in the direction of the University. "Haven't a doubt of it," was Tom's ready answer; "it is but a question of time and hands enough to help; besides, the night will be most favorable, as there is no moon, and it is not likely many stars will appear." Sure enough, in the morning, when the owner went to look for his wagon, it was nowhere to be found, until the landlord of the hotel, in chancing to cast a glance in that direction, discovered it upon the roof of the most antique of the college buildings. The way the mad project had been carried into effect, under Tom's direction, was as follows: After being removed, amid the darkness of the evening, and the quietness of the neighborhood after nightfall in those days, to the rear of the building, the baskets of fish were taken out, the wheels removed, and then, by the help of ropes, it being but a one-horse vehicle, it was drawn up by ready hands at the windows of each floor until reaching the roof, where others had also been lending their aid; and then, when the wheels were again upon their axles, the fish were replaced. How it got there was as great a puzzle to the uninitiated as a reel in a bottle; but there it was, and there it would have been likely for a time to remain, but for a suggestion quietly given by one enlightened in the matter, for its restoration to the ground by the same process through which it had been elevated to its lofty position.

After being often reprimanded for his vagaries and threatened with expulsion, matters at length reached a crisis with our hero on an occasion that is remembered by many Bostonians. Edmund Kean, "the proud representative of Shakspeare's heroes," as he was wont to term himself, having given great offence to the play-going people of the "city of notions" at a former visit, by refusing to play, and leaving the house after discovering by a peep through the curtain that the audience was not as numerous as he wished it to be, they were excited to a high point of indignation a few years later, when he had again crossed the Atlantic, by an announcement of his re-engagement at the only place of the kind Boston then possessed, the old Federal-street theatre. When the night came for his appearance, every ticket was sold, and many were sold at speculative prices, filling the house to the most remote corner of the upper gallery; and in addition to those inside the old "temple of the muses," the streets in the near vicinity were densely crowded by a throng numbering many thousands. On the rising of the curtain at the usual hour, the manager came forward and announced that Mr. Kean wished "to make an apology; an humble apology, from the bottom of his heart." He then retired, but after a moment returned, leading the great actor by the hand, in citizen's dress. An uproar then commenced between those who, from a desire to see him perform, were willing to overlook the past, and others who were determined he should not be permitted to do so, to which the Babylonish confusion of tongues was harmony itself. Oranges, apples, and indeed every species of missile at hand within the theatre, from a soused pig's foot to an over-chewed quid of "pig-tail" were hurled upon the stage, mingled with all sorts of discordant noises. Finding it impossible to obtain a hearing, they withdrew, but Kilner, the manager, came forward again, after a few minutes' absence, with a placard announcing that Kean had left the house, and then reversing it, presented the question, "Shall the play go on without him?" The noise still continued without abatement, but Finn, the popular comedian, who afterwards perished among the victims at the burning of the steamer Lexington on Long Island sound, assumed for the occasion the hump of "the crook-back tyrant," in which Kean was to have appeared, and the performance went on, though never was pantomime more completely dumb-show to an audience than was the first act of Richard the Third that night. In the meantime symptoms of a destruction of the building began to appear. The benches in the gallery and upper boxes were torn up and thrown into the pit, followed by the iron rail wrenched from the front of the third tier of boxes, that on its way down shattered into fragments the glass chandeliers, scattering the oil from the lamps—for Boston boasted no gas in those days—upon the richly ornamented fronts of the boxes below. This of course stopped the performance, as well as driving the occupants of the pit across the ochestra to seek shelter upon the stage.

While this was going on inside, a vigorous bombardment of the building was kept up out-of-doors. Brickbats, stones and oyster-shells were brought to bear upon its numerous windows on Federal and Franklin streets, and in the rear on Theatre-alley, until not a pane of glass survived, presenting, with the shattered casements, a sad scene of destruction when daylight came. Pieces of timber procured from some building materials in the vicinity were finally used as battering-rams against the street doors and lower window-shutters, and when they at length gave way the mob had full sweep through the house; searching everywhere in vain for Kean, who had made his escape from the theatre immediately on leaving the stage. No further damage was done to the building, although the mob did not disperse until one to two o'clock in the morning.

Prominent among the most uproarious of the rioters was Tom Parker, who, in company with a kindred spirit among his college companions, had procured a horse and gig to convey them to the city, and stopping at every tavern on the route, by the time the theatre was reached, he was equal to anything that could offer in the way of fun and excitement. After amusing himself from the commencement of the outbreak, on the appearance of Kean, by alternately cheering and hissing, when the mob broke in from the street he stationed himself at the head of the stairway leading to the second tier of boxes, and it seemed as if he had inherited the spirit of the whole Spartan band, and that the passage was a second Pass of Thermopylæ; maintaining his position as he did, and pitching headlong all who attempted to ascend. Like the Spartan band, however, he became in time overpowered by numbers, and if not, like them, annihilated, he stood a good chance of becoming so, had not his companion dragged him off, deposited him in the gig, and drove him back to Cambridge. Having been recognized in the theatre by one of the college dignitaries who had accompanied thither the editor of a prominent Boston daily, hoping again to hear Kean in his famous character of Richard, he was next day expelled from the classic halls of Harvard. It proved, however, the most fortunate incident of his life, for on recovering from the bruises he had received, he eschewed "evil spirits," and the riots that followed an indulgence in their acquaintance, became an active, honorable man of business, and, better still, a blessing and consolation to his widowed mother, which he had never been before.

JOHN H. BOWLES.

TUESDAY, JULY 29, 1879.

The Yellow Fever.

Fourteen new cases of fever, and nine deaths, were reported at Memphis on Sunday. Two colored military companies went into camp on Sunday under command of a member of the governor's staff; the police and fire companies were strengthened, and all fears of trouble from the influx of colored people was allayed.

St. Louis established a quarantine against Memphis on Sunday.

Only three new cases of fever, and no deaths, were reported from Memphis on Monday up to noon.

There was one death from yellow fever at New Orleans on the 27th, and another in the same neighborhood on the 28th.

A stevedore died in New York on the 28th, of the fever, the victim being a Memphis refugee.

Naval Affairs.

The flagship Trenton sailed from Antwerp on the 15th inst., for Flushing, Holland, and from adrices received at the department was to sail from that point for Copenhagen, Denmark, the 20th inst.

The U. S. S. Adams, Comdr. Rodgers, arrived at San Francisco on the 19th inst., from Panama.

The Constitution, Capt. O. C. Badger, arrived at the Washington navy yard on Friday last from Philadelphia, to be fitted out as a training ship.

Political.

The democratic News and Courier, of Charleston, S. C., the most influential paper in that State, and noted for its "conservative" views, says that "the most important and the most dangerous idea that the democratic party will have to fight in the coming campaign" will be "the claim that this country is not a confederation, but a nation, and that the constitutional doctrine of State rights was abolished by the war and is now obsolete." The northern democratic papers do not so openly declare the aims of the supporters of the revivified "lost cause."

The crack white military company of Memphis having run away with the first report of yellow fever, and the colored military companies being the only force left to protect property and enforce sanitary regulations, the proclamation of the democratic governor of Tennessee calling attention to the fact must bring back peculiar recollections in the minds of those very men who have undertaken to deprive colored citizens of their rights.

A meeting of Boston democrats who disapprove the recent action of the Boston Post in discharging its entire force of compositors without warning, was held in Faneuil hall Saturday evening. Ten trades unions were represented, and Gen. Horace Binney Sargent was the principal speaker. The course of the Post was spoken of with marked disapprobation, and a series of resolutions was passed pledging the participants in the meeting to withhold support from the Post and from its subscribers and advertisers.

News and Notes.

Two of the crew of the schooner Bessie W. Somes, of Gloucester, were recently attacked on the banks while out in a dory attending traws, by an immense fish, which grasped the bow of their boat in its teeth, several of which were left embeddied in the wood when its hold was detached. One of the men, James Connors, was thrown overboard, but managed to scramble into the dory again. The fish pursued them, bitting several places in the bottom of the dory. The teeth are about an inch to an inch and a half long, edged with sawlike incisions, and do not resemble the teeth of any fish with which the fishermen are acquainted.

The McGarrahan claim seems to have met its quietus at last. The secretary of the interior has decided that the and of the Panoche Grande district, which McGarrahan says is his by virtue of a Mexican grant, cannot be held under a grant, but that the title is in the United States, and that it can be patented as any other land under the mining laws. The New Idria company can obtain a patent for one hundred and sixty acres at once.

There was a serious disturbance at Fall River on Sunday, caused by striking spinners assaulting "nobsticks" in a mill yard. Stones were thrown and shots fired by the mob, the fire being returned by the assaulted parties, by direction of an officer; one of the assailants was hit in the head and hip by bullets. There were several other minor disturbances, and one or two assaults.

Jennie Smith and "Cove" Bennett, now under sentence of death for the murder of the woman's husband at Jersey City, have been granted a new trial by the court of appeals of New Jersey.

The principal faro banks in New York are connected by telephone, and consequently an immense raid, projected by the society for the prevention of gambling, on Friday night last, after capturing one place was a complete failure as to a dozen others.

Mr. Eben D. French of Garland, Me., was poisoned by potato bugs recently. He had been gathering them from his vines and turned some hot water upon them, and was quite sick and badly swollen from inhaling the poison that evaporated from the bugs. He is recovering.

The Willet club of Willet street, New York went on an excursion to College point on Sunday. There was some fighting on the way, and Andrew Distill was fatally shot and two others wounded. The officer accompanying the party fired five shots into the crowd.

Ira V. White of Chester Depot, Vt., father of Herbert D. White, for whose murder Henry Gravelin was hanged at Windsor in April last, committed suicide Friday night by cutting his throat. He was intoxicated and placed in the lock-up at Chester, but in the morning was found dead, having nearly severed his head from his body with a jack-knife.

Western Pennsylvania was visited by a heavy rain storm Saturday, which caused a disastrous flood in the large streams. At Petrolia twenty-five large buildings were washed away, causing a loss of over $100,000. At Karns City the whole lower end of the town was carried away. The flood was the most disastrous ever known in that region. Houses, fences, outbuildings, lumber and other property were swept away, and many of the coal mines flooded. But few lives were lost.

Six miles from Atlanta, Ga., on the night of the 25th inst., Martin Defoor and wife, both near eighty years of age, were brutally murdered while in bed asleep. The murderers are not known, nor their object.

The Worcester (Mass.) Gazette of Saturday issued a base ball supplement, giving the likenesses of all the members of the Worcester base ball club, with descriptive sketches of each. The portraits are the best of any series ever published by a daily newspaper, so far as our knowledge extends.

A gravel train on a railroad near Waukeegan, Ill., was thrown from the track Saturday by backing into a cow. Four men were killed and another fatally hurt, and the conductor and a number of the workmen seriously injured.

The steamer Phenix on Sunday took an excursion party of 400 persons from Charlestown to Marblehead, Mass. As soon as the visitors landed they commenced to steal whatever they could lay their hands on in stores and gardens, tearing down fences and breaking windows, and insulting and assaulting men and women; several officers were badly beaten by the roughs for attempting to quell the disturbances. The citizens at length rallied to the number of several hundred, and the roughs retreated to the steamer. As the boat was leaving the wharf a shower of bottles and stones was thrown from the deck at the crowd of citizens on shore, and two of them were badly hurt. The exasperated citizens retaliated with a shower of stones, literally covering the steamer's deck, and a large number of the ruffians on board must have been hurt. Seven of the roughs were captured by the Marblehead police, and locked up.

Working of the Acton and Lebanon mines in York county shows them to be very rich in minerals. Surface assays, now being taken out, are stated to run from $50 to $90 per ton.

The Chilian government is buying large quantities of munitions of war of every description in New York and New England.

Large reinforcements have been sent to the Chilian army on the Peruvian frontier.

A grotesque genius, who was possessed of an idea that the United States cavalry might better ride ostriches than horses, imported a flock of the long-legged birds, and set them to laying their big eggs in the sands of New Mexico. His flock rapidly increased and now he has 117 stalwart birds. So much is easily to be believed, but when it is asserted that he has found a military advocate of his theory, in the person of the commanding officer of the ninth regiment, and that the colonel really thinks of mounting one of his companies of troopers on ostriches, "strong, docile, fleet, able to live for days without forage or drink, and requiring no grooming," the story passes the bounds of midsummer credulity.—Worcester Gazette.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.50 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "Metcalfe Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase such a mill this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for the New England States, To-Day:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29, 2 A.M.

Partly cloudy weather, light rains in the northern portions, southerly to westerly winds, slowly falling barometer, and in the eastern portion rising temperature.

AROUND HOME.

Attention is invited to the advertisement in another column, of a lady's turquoise brooch lost.

Fishing islands are quite a resort for sailing parties, and Charley Hall, the proprietor of the restaurant tent, is just adapted for the business.

Portsmouth Grange will hold a picnic and field meeting at the Hayes farm, Wednesday afternoon, July 30th,—or if rainy, the next pleasant afternoon. Supper at six o'clock.

Mr. Frank R. Starkey has been appointed ticket agent of the Eastern railroad in this city. He has for several years been station master and telegraph operator at the North Hampton depot.

The managers of the Rockingham and Farragut base ball nines cannot arrange a series of games between the two clubs, and they will not probably play this season, as was intended. This will be a disappointment for the lovers of the national game.

Wallis Sands is well represented by parties from Portsmouth, there being a dozen or more tents skirting the shore. Quite a large number of transient visitors were there on Sunday, and mine host Mr. John Banks had on his best smile.

Rock Cottage at Newcastle, Messrs. Clark, Cook and Prior, proprietors, looks inviting and cool. This is the "boss" summer retreat, it being supplied with every comfort and convenience and commanding one of the finest sea views on the coast.

The republican mayoralty caucus will be held on Wednesday, the polls opening at four P. M., and closing at eight. As there is no opposition to Mayor Sise's renomination, and no reason why there should be any, we hardly see the need of keeping the polls open for four hours.

Schooner Velocipido arrived in the lower harbor on Monday afternoon from the grand banks, with seven hundred quintals of fish. Just before leaving the banks she encountered a severe gale, in which she lost her mainsail, tore her foresail, carried away her main-topmast and badly sprung her fore-topmast, besides being somewhat badly strained, the damages received causing her to return home for repairs.

Mr. Charles Faver, who lives in Kittery and is employed as a watchman on the navy yard, fell overboard one day last week in deep water. Mr. Faver has lost a leg, its place being supplied by a wooden one, which had a tendency to keep his head under water; but notwithstanding this discouraging circumstance, and the still more discouraging one that he never learned to swim when he had two good legs, he managed to reach some sticks of timber some distance from the place where he fell overboard, and scrambled out unaided, much to the astonishment of a brother watchman, who until that moment was unaware that his friend had been enjoying a bath under such dangerous conditions.

As Mr. Solomon Schumann, who lives on Sherburne road and drives a milk cart, was coming into the city on Monday, one of the bolts holding the shafts to the axle gave away, letting down the shafts on the horse's heels and frightening him into a run. Mr. Schumann finding he could not control the horse guided him into a stone wall, where Mr. Schumann and a boy riding with him were thrown to the ground, the wagon turning upside down and distributing all the milk, with the exception of what was in two cans, in the road. Mr. Schumann was badly bruised, but fortunately escaped without any broken bones, his companion suffering no injury worth mention. The horse ran a short distance further and was then caught, with his legs badly cut by contact with the cross-piece connecting the shafts.

Thirty-four persons joined the Methodist church at Greenland last Sunday.

The strikers in Wallace's shoe manufactory at Rochester have gone to work at an advance of ten per cent over former wages.

A fine-toned bell has been presented to the Union chapel at Little Boar's Head, Hampton, by Mrs. John J. Marsh of Haverhill, Mass.

The services of two Boston detectives have been engaged to assist in ferreting out the perpetrator of the late robbery at Capt. George T. Ball's in Greenland.

The two-story house of Samuel A. Tobey at Eliot neck caught fire on Sunday afternoon at about three o'clock, and was damaged to the amount of about $100, the house being saved only by great exertions. Insured.

John Glaney, a Dover fireman, was picked up in an insensible condition on Haymarket square, Boston, late Saturday afternoon, and taken to the city hospital, where a severe cut on his head and several other injuries were cared for.

Boating parties were numerous in the lower harbor and at the river's mouth on Sunday. The schooner Wm. H. Russell was out with a party, the steamer Appledore made an excursion trip to the Shoals, and the steamer Little May also ran out to the islands with the Boston Sunday papers.

The United States training ship Constellation had not succeeded up to Monday noon in recovering her anchors, lost on Thursday night near Appledore island. Where the anchors were lost the water is about eighteen fathoms deep and the bottom rocky and very broken, so that grappling is very difficult.

The camping-out village of tents on Pocahontas point, Gerrish's island, is represented this season by a little tent with a big flag flying from its pole, pitched on the low bluff between the earthwork fort and the water, which is as near the point as tents can get this year, that place having been secured by the parties owning Seaside Lodge for their sole occupancy.

The spar buoy at Goat island point—sometimes called by a name not to be admitted to this paper—has lost its upper portion, the end of the piece remaining looking as though the spar was chewed off by a steamer's screw. The buoy is about as serviceable as ever, as no spar can be kept in sight at that point during the strength of the tide, and the broken one now there shows all right at slack water.

By the game laws of this State the prohibition against the shooting of woodcock does not expire until July 31st. This law has been strictly observed by the sportsmen of this vicinity belonging to the sportsmen's club, who are somewhat indignant at the alleged shooting of coveys of these birds by a person who is well known to the members of the club, and who is well aware of what the law is in the matter. The sportsmen aver that the person referred to has before shot game birds during the close season, and say that the next time they will make an example of him, if the requisite evidence can be procured.

On Saturday of last week Major Urch, the enterprising proprietor of Newcastle bridge, arrived home from Gloucester, Mass., whither he went to procure seals for his big aquarium, bringing with him two fine specimens of these curious and interesting creatures. They are about three months old, and when put in the new tank especially prepared for them at once made themselves very much at home. On Sunday they were visited and admired by hundreds of people, whose presence seemed to excite no emotion in the seals other than possible wonder what so many people were there for, as they—the seals, that is—flopped around on their benches or poked their heads out of water and gazed at the throng with their queer, inquisitive, half-human expression. Should they live, as they seem likely to do, they will prove a principal attraction of the popular resort provided by Major Urch.

New Hampshire Items

At a town meeting in Wolfeboro', Saturday, a vote was passed to bond the town debt, which is nearly ninety-five thousand dollars, at four per cent interest. The bonds are not subject to taxation, and are to be in denominations of from fifty to one thousand dollars, payable at stated intervals, in from two to thirty years.

Important changes have been made in the arrangement of the medical lectures at Dartmouth to meet a demand of the teachers of New England, many of whom are desirous of attending the lectures on anatomy and physiology during their summer vacations. Lectures upon these subjects will commence with the opening of the course, August 1st, instead of late in the fall as heretofore.

Prof. E. T. Quimby and party leave Hanover for Mt. Moriah at Gorham this week, to continue the triangulation of New Hampshire, in which he has been engaged about ten years, for the United States coast and geodetic survey. The work has already been extended over a large part of the State, and a few years more will complete it and furnish material for an accurate map. The professor's party is made up chiefly of members of the Thayer school of engineering, who in this way find an excellent opportunity to study and practice geodesty.

—"I say, where does the right hand road go?" "Don't know, sir; tain't been nowhere since we lived here."

—The Norristown Herald says that 36,226 Bibles have been distributed in Texas during the past year, and adds: "The Texans love the Bible. They use it for gun wads."

—"Rash, sinful man," said upbraidingly the chaplain to the prisoner, "suppose you were to die now, what sort of a conscience would you die with, eh?" "Oh, my conscience is as good as new; I never used it a bit," said the prisoner proudly.

—Louise, Victoria and Maud, the young daughters of the Prince of Wales, rarely appear in public in any but the simplest of dresses. They are sometimes seen with their mother at the theatre in plain white linen or cotton sailor dresses, with a little red trimming, and driving in neat sailor dresses of dark blue woollen. They went with their father and mother to the recent French Fair in gowns of plain pink cambric, with sashes of crimson harmonizing with the pink.

—It is hard for professional pride to remain silent when a good old tradition of the craft is outraged. The other night, when a new drama was produced at a London theater, the gallery was crowded, and the "gods" were pleased to approve of the piece generally until the burglary scene. But, when the burglar was seen "doing" the place with all the blinds up, so that he could be seen "at work" from the street, an expert present could bear it no longer, but yelled out, "Why don't you pull your blinds down?"

Speculation.

Since the creation, it is estimated that 27,000,000,000,000,000, people have lived on earth. This sum divided by 27,864,000 the number of square miles, gives, 1,314,522,086 to a square rod and 5 to a square foot. Suppose a square rod be divided in 11 graves, each grave would contain 100 persons. But this is speculation, and of no benefit to the 1,000,000,000 people that now exist, 500,000,000 of whom are invalids, 33,000,000 dying each year. What they most want are the facts concerning Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines. For years his Golden Medical Discovery has been the standard remedy for the cure of all scrofulous, throat, and lung diseases. While for over a quarter of a century, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has been unrivaled as a positive cure for catarrh. The testimony of thousands of ladies has been published, certifying that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription positively cures the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women. For full information see the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of over 900 pages, price (post paid), $1.50. Over 100,000 copies sold. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. A Close Shave.

Rarely has a ship been in such peril from which she finally escaped, as was the barque Forest, of St. John, N. B., in a recent trip across the Atlantic. The vessel was at the time lying-to on the starboard tack in a furious hurricane, with a tremendous sea running, and the barque most of the time pressed so low that her deadeyes were under water. The captain is his report says: "At 9:30 P. M., wind and weather the same, made a red light close under our port bow. Our regulation lights were burning brightly. Showed our flash several times, but it was next to impossible to do anything with a ship in such a storm, and such a short time. Found the red light belonged to a large full-rigged ship lying-to on the port tack, and that a collision was unavoidable, and expected both ships would founder in a very few minutes after coming together. This, fortunately, did not happen. We passed the ship on the port side, our yards locking his, breaking our foreyard and maintopsailyard short off in the slings, carrying away our mizzentopmast and mizzen rigging, lifts and braces. Our port bumpkin caught the ship's quarter, tearing it out, but the two bulls never touched. Could not tell what damage the ship received or what ship it was, as she was soon lost sight of in the darkness of the night, but saw that she was a round stern ship. Her maintopsail was flying to pieces in the wind, and jib half up blowing to pieces, showing they were trying to get her before the wind. Next day, weather more moderate, got our ship before the wind, and commenced to repair damages."

It is remarkable that the active ingredients of Fellows' Hypophosphites are alkaloids from trees which attain to very great ages; taken in connection with the fact that this preparation will increase the longevity of the human family is a somewhat singular coincidence.

PRINTING OFFICE!
UP ONE EASY FLIGHT.
Chronicle Building, Portsmouth N. H.
Over D. H. Montgomery's Store.

The Gazette s published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it it the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, or Eruption, Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Cough, it strengthens his system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Propr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Propr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scale from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which pores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Propr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

The recent improvements in the above building has enlarged the Job Office to double its former size, making it one of the lightest and most convenient offices the city for

The First Sewing Machine in India.

In the days when the sewing machine was in its earliest infancy, a lady residing in India imported one, and for a long time kept its mysterious working hid from the ken of her native tailor. This functionary was the very slowest of his proverbially slow "caste," and wasted no end of time drawling over hem and stitch. One day his mistress comes to him arm-laden with yards of some cotton fabric. "Dirzee," says she, "how long will it take you to run these breadths together?" "Tree day, Missis," replies Dirzee. "Three days? Nonsense! Three hours, you mean. You are a very lazy man, and I'll cut your pay. Give me the stuff; I'll do it myself." Then the lady retires to her boudoir, from the inmost penetralia of which a sharp and continuous click and whirr reaches the tailor's ears. He can't make out what the sound is, and he is much too lazy to speculate on it. He continues to "chew betel," and yawningly to ply needle and thread. After an hour or two "Missis" comes back, and throwing at Mr. Dirzee's feet the raw material now fashioned into a completed skirt, says: "There! See! You wanted three days, you sleepy fellow, to finish this, and I have done it already." Astonished, Dirzee turns over the drapery, examines the seams, scrutinizes the stitch, and satisfies himself that all is proper and according to tailor's rule. He is confounded. It passes his understanding. There lies the work done and no mistake. But how? He springs up from the mat on which he has been squatting; he kicks over the little brass vessel which holds his drinking water; he scatters right and left, thread, needles, thimble; he stops not to put on his sandals or to adjust loosened turban and waistcloth. Scared and bewildered, he runs for very life into the bazaar, shouting as he goes along "Shitan! shitan! [The Evil one! the Evil one!] He do tailor business that Mem's house. I listen! I hear! He cry 'Cleck, cleck, cleck!' Two hours time he neber stop cry. Den! Plenty too much true dis word I tell. Ebery bit true. All work done finish! I not go back dat bungalow." And he never did.

Looking After the Kitchen Fire.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for a man to look after the kitchen fire—and notwithstanding the existence of Magna Charta, the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights and the several amendments to the Federal Constitution, it does become necessary now and then for a man to do just this very thing—there is apt to be in the immediate vicinity of the kitchen more genuine, heartfelt lamentations than has ever been known in the world since the days of Jeremiah.

It is all very well to be told in an airy, off-hand way that all the fire needs is a little raking and a little coal and then to have the draft turned on. That may be what a kitchen fire needs when a woman has to attend to it, but when a man has to attend to it, it needs ever so much more. A man having a great mind and being disposed to philosophic methods, naturally wants to deal with the fire that has been (under protest) intrusted to his charge, in accordance with scientific methods. Now, it is a notorious fact that the majority of kitchen stoves are built in accordance with eminently unscientific principles, and consequently are not susceptible of being dealt with in this way at all. Philosophy has not any effect upon the fire whatever; what the fire wants and insists upon having is coaxing. It is the province of women to coax, and the man who attempts it becomes absurd at once. Most of us have seen men try to coax cats and dogs and babies and things of that sort, and have observed what a mess they make of it. Nobody ever has seen a man try to coax the kitchen fire except the man's wife—for he is wise enough to confine such exhibitions of himself to the bosom of his family—and the wife, for reasons of her own, does not talk about the performance much outside. She does not wish needlessly to incense him by holding him up to ridicule. She may want him to look after the fire again. But, beyond a doubt, it is a foolish sort of a performance, and reticence concerning it is wise; especially as the result generally is utterly disproportionate to the endeavor.

Apart from the moral difficulty, the mechanical difficulties in the way of keeping the fire going are apt to be tolerably serious. How, for instance, is it possible to poke a fire when there is not a shadow of a poker on the premises? Perhaps this is putting the case too strongly; of course, there may be a poker somewhere about, but if it is not to be found, for all the good it does, there might just as well not be any. And it is a momentious matter, in a small way, that there is nothing to lift the lids off the stove with. True, the lids can be worried off with the handle of an iron spoon, and it is possible to rake the fire by jabbing at it between the bars of the grate with the bread-knife—but these ingenious applications of means to ends never seem to be well received, when stated in the official report that is tendered at headquarters when the man at the fire is relieved. Indeed, there is something more than a mere probability that he will be told that even an owl—as if owls ever looked after kitchen fires—would have had sense enough to look under the stove for the poker and litter, in which sequestered nook, to be sure, as events prove, these useful instruments actually have been hidden away. Doubtless a matter tending not a little to excite the withering sarcasm so conspicuous in the comments upon his account of his stewardship is the way in which that stewardship has ended. The man has striven nobly for success, but to no purpose. Science and readiness of resource have proved of no avail—the fire has gone out!

Jeremiah had an uncomfortable time of it—we are all ready to admit that—but his lamentations were as fairly provoked as they were sincere; but, really, it must be remembered that Jeremiah lamented in a general sort of way—not because of any personal troubles, but because the people among whom his lot was cast were almost everything that they ought not to be, morally. With Jeremiah, in short, the misery was of a vicarious character; and that sort of misery, somehow, is not the hardest sort to bear. But there is nothing whatever of a vicarious character in the woes supported by the unlucky man who, in violation of Magna Charta and the other famous instruments of like import, is detailed to look after the kitchen fire. His troubles are real.—Philadelphia Times.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 1879.

The Maine Campaign.

At Bangor, Monday night, the republicans held the largest and most enthusiastic political meeting ever known in the city. A republican club was formed, having for one of its two vice presidents Paul R. Seavey, last year president of the Bangor greenback club. He was called to the platform and received with a perfect ovation, and made a most eloquent and powerful speech, stating that while he had always been a democrat until last year, his reasons for supporting the republican cause this year were the utter hopelessness of reform under democratic or greenback rule and the indignation he felt at the abuse heaped by Pillsbury upon a comrade whom he depicted in glowing colors. His eloquence and enthusiasm were contagious, and he was frequently interrupted by storms of applause from comrades and reformed men. Other soldiers, formerly democrats, enrolled themselves and made brief but stirring speeches. Senator Hamlin made one of the happiest efforts of his life, speaking nearly an hour in a telling and convincing manner, calling out much applause. At the close of the meeting large numbers of soldiers signed the roll, including many always heretofore democrats.

At a meeting in Waterville on Saturday, a man who voted the greenback ticket last year proposed three cheers for Senator Blaine; and the canvass of one school district in Fairfield, where but five republican votes were cast last year, shows that twenty-seven voters have joined the republican club. Advices from all over the State show that the republicans are becoming thoroughly aroused, and that recruits for the party are numerous from the democrats and greenbackers.

The Yellow Fever.

Ten cases of yellow fever, and two deaths, were reported to the Memphis board of health Monday afternoon. The policemen engaged in taking the census of the city completed their task on Monday; the result shows the population of Memphis to be 16,110, viz.: Whites, 4,283; colored, 11,827; adults, 10,651; children, 5,559. Of this total 9,743 have had the yellow fever, leaving 7,367 susceptible to the disease. Failing to secure transportation to the site selected for the establishment of a camp on the Paducah railroad, on Monday afternoon Col. John F. Cameron, with a detail of sixteen colored soldiers, took passage on a train furnished by the superintendent of the Mississippi & Tennessee railway, and established a camp five miles south of the city, half a mile below where Camp Joe Williams was established last year.

Nashville, Tenn., has stopped all railroad communication with Memphis.

News and Notes.

The roughs from Charlestown, Mass., captured at Marblehead on Sunday while creating all sorts of disturbances, were tried on Monday; three of them were fined $5 and costs each, and two $10 and costs each; another was sent to the house of correction for six months.

The "Willett club," whose members got into a fight on Sunday in which one of their number was shot dead and several wounded, on an excursion from New York to College point, was a temporary organization formed to raise funds for the payment of the expenses necessary to secure a new trial for two convicted highway robbers, and the excursion was projected with that end in view. It is feared that none of the wounded ruffians will die.

Another naval battle is reported from South America, it being stated that the Peruvian ironclad Huascar entered the blockaded port of Iquique, fought the Chilian fleet for two hours, and then retired unharmed, leaving two Chilian vessels, the Cousino and Abtao, well used up.

Mr. Wejsh, United States minister to England, has notified the State department by telegraph that his resignation is on the way across the Atlantic by mail.

A despatch of the 26th inst. from Colton, Cal., says: "Gen. E. Bouton of Los Angeles, while going from Colton to San Gorgony yesterday, was stopped by three men, taken off the road and tied to his wagon wheels. He managed to get his hand loose, drew his pistol, killed one of the men and wounded the other two. Robbery was the aim of Bouton's capture."

Thomas Tully, aged eighty, had a quarrel with his forty-years-old wife, at Clinton, Staten Island, N. Y., and put her out of the house. He then sat down in a chair, exhausted, and died from heart disease.

Thomas R. McEleny of New Bedford, treasurer of a Catholic temperance society, has run off with $400 of the society's money.

On Wednesday of last week, Mr. Thomas Newcomb, an aged, well-known farmer of Harrison, Me., was induced by two men to sign a written obligation to pay them $180 for forty-five pairs of "pruning shears." The document was ingeniously worded, so that Mr. Newcomb supposed he was simply signing a contract to be their agent.

The revenue cutter Grant sailed from Bangor on Monday morning on a tour of inspection of the lighthouses, having on board Secretary Sherman, who was accompanied as far as Bucksport by Postmaster-General Key, with his party, and several prominent citizens. Gen. Key and party returned on a special train to Bangor, and Monday afternoon visited the lumber mills near Orona.

Charles O. Shedd, while picking blueberries in Whipple's swamp, Tewksbury, Mass., on Sunday, heard cries of distress, and a search revealed a boy sunk to the armpits in quagmire. He had been in the mud about an hour, and was so faint from exertion and exposure that his voice could be heard but a few feet, and but for his timely discovery by Mr. Shedd he would soon have been suffocated.

Humprey Choate Allen and Michael Coleman of the schooner Addison G. Proctor, of Gloucester, Mass., lost from the vessel in a thick fog on St. Peter's bank June 25th and given up as drowned, arrived home in Gloucester on Monday. They were in a dory three days without water or food, except raw halibut, before they saw a sail. They were picked up by a Lockport schooner on the fourth day. They estimate that they rowed one hundred and sixty miles.

Hon. Harrison Garfield has begun a civil suit for damages against John Bottomley of Lee, Mass., and has attached all the latter's property, the sum named in the writ being $50,000. Some years ago Bottomley put all his property into his wife's hands, but in this suit it will be alleged that the transfer was void, and it was without consideration, and simply done to escape pecuniary responsibility in his many quarrels and lawsuits.

The clothes of John King were found on the river bank at Lewiston, Me., Sunday evening, and subsequently his body was found in the river. He is supposed to have been drowned while bathing. He was thirty-five years old.

John Donovan, while at work Monday in the third story of the building occupied by Wright, Bliss & Fabyan, in Boston, fell through the elevator way to the floor, and received injuries from which he soon after died.

Asa Morgan, a negro, was on Monday captured by the police near Atlanta, Ga., having been hunted down by bloodhounds; he was bitten by the dogs before being caught. He confesses that he, another negro and a white man murdered the aged couple Defoor, he holding the lamp while the white man killed the old people; and that a large amount of money was procured by the murderers.

The government of Chili is buying extensively throughout New England and the north generally improved war material of all descriptions, and for all branches of service. A contract was recently closed for $720,000 worth of submarine torpedoes. The Providence Tool company, which latterly furnished Turkey with so many stand of arms, is understood to have received heavy orders, one including 300,000 rounds of ammuniton. It is also said that the Sharpe's Rifle manufacturing company of Bridgeport, Conn., has an order for 1000 stand of arms.

Peter Pulver with his wife and neice, Mary Calkins, all of Lanesboro, Mass., were arrested Monday, accused of larceny, and appearances indicate that they have been thieving for a year or two, taking clothing, cloth, hanging baskets, hammocks and everything portable they could seize, from dooryards between Pittsfield and their house. Last Saturday night the two women, disguised as men, visited Pittsfield, where they stole a hand-cart, which they loaded with goods from clothes lines, conservatories and lawns, and took them home. Goods to the value of $100 or more were found in their possession. They were tracked by their use of the cart.

Thomas H. Benner, occupying the lodge at Antietam national cemetery, was instantly killed by his wife on Sunday. He accused her of intimacy with Haderfield, superintendent of the cemetery, and made an assault upon her, whereupon she seized a carbine and shot him through the heart. The wife was arrested and lodged in jail at Hagertown, Md. She alleges the shooting to have been to protect her own life.

George W. Sikes has got into trouble because he married Mary M. Coe, daughter of John Coe of Pittsfield, Mass., without her father's consent. The ceremony was performed at Lebanon, N. Y., on the 19th, being against Coe's wishes, and on Saturday the couple went to the bride's father's to get her clothes and other articles. While Mrs. Sikes was upstairs packing them her husband and Coe got into a dispute on the piazza, and Sikes drew a revolver. Coe ran into the house, but the husband fired, and the ball passed through the door, narrowly escaping Coe. Officers are looking for Sikes, who at once took to flight.

An exchange, while allowing that the friends of Chastine Cox have a right to their charitable opinions in his behalf, puts it to them very forcibly when it says that they must admit that he has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman.

The mysterious disappearance of the wife of John Shufelt of North Egremont, Mass., for the suspected murder of whom her husband was arrested, but discharged for lack of evidence, seems about cleared up as a case of elopement. It will be remembered that the theory of Shufelt was that his wife had disappeared with one Church. He has now received a letter from an uncle in Michigan, which says that the latter received a letter from the missing woman in May, dated at Mechanicsville, N. Y., saying that she wanted to go west, and asking the uncle to send her twenty-five dollars. She further told him that her address was "Care G. B. Church," and that she would stay in Mechanicsville till June.

The Rich California Banker.

When it became known that one of the richest California bankers had left the Pacific Coast and transferred his base of operations to the New York Stock Exchange, all the shrewd financiers watched his course with keen interest to see how he would succeed. The result has emphatically proved the wealthy banker's sagacity. Besides having a much wider and more promising field to operate in, he is known to have been in several stock combinations that paid immense profits. By the combination method of operating in stocks Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite orders of thousands of customers, in different sums, into one vast capital, and operate them as a mighty whole, dividing profits pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with great success in these pools. $25 would pay $100 profit. $500 would make $5,000 or 10 per cent. on the stock during the month. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) gives "two unerring rules for success," and full particulars, so that any one can operate in stocks, and make money. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Exchange Place, N. Y.

Truth is Mighty.

As the little leaven bid in the measure of meal, made all leaven, so truth gradually overcomes all doubt and disbelief. When Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., announced that his Favorite Prescription would positively cure the many diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, some doubted, and continued to employ the harsh and caustic local treatment. But the mighty truth gradually became acknowledged. Thousands of ladies who had uselessly undergone untold tortures at the hands of different physicians, employed the Favorite Prescription, and were speedily cured. Many physicians now prescribe it in their practice. So sanguine is Dr. Pierce of its power to cure, that he now sells it through druggists under a positive guarantee.

However quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, by the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites, he must abolish the habits of life which induced the disease; the effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can only be transitory, whilst man persists in the gratification of vicious or pernicious habits.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 90 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.50 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of GRAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCracken Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for the New England States, To-Day:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30, 2 A.M.

South-east to south-west winds, and warmer, partly cloudy weather during the day, with slight change in barometer.

AROUND HOME.

Republican city caucus this afternoon. See advertisement.

Rev. B. F. McDaniel of Exeter arrived in Boston on Monday from the Western islands, in the barque Kate Williams.

The Universalist picnic, which was to have been held on Tuesday at Fort Constitution, was postponed on account of the thick weather.

The steamtug L. A., Belknap, Riley master, from Boston, arrived at the navy yard on Monday having in tow a lighter loaded with hard pine timber from the Charlestown navy yard.

The barn and stable of Daniel A. Burnham of Kennebunkport were totally destroyed by an incendiary fire on Monday night, together with their contents; loss $3000; insured $2000.

Work in the department of construction and repair at the navy yard was suspended on Tuesday noon on account of the funds being exhausted. Work will be resumed on Friday, August 1st.

Two young fellows named Andy Criselle and William Ham had a walking match at the Granite State park in Dover on Sunday last, for $15 a side, Ham being the winner, and quite a large number of spectators being present. The Democrat strongly reprobates such exhibitions.

The entire "outside" of the CHRONICLE, Tuesday morning, was transported from the press-room to the composing-room in a peck basket, two water buckets and a wash basin. The press-room windows facing the police station were open that morning, and the police were for a half-hour or so under the mistaken impression that Col. Bob Ingersoll was holding a prayer meeting with the press gang.

A very pretty little French cottage has this season been put up almost on the very end of Kittery point, between Phillis' notch and Fort McClary. For beauty of situation it cannot be surpassed around here, as it faces the main channel from the sea to the lower harbor, and commands fine views both ways, seaward and up the river to the narrows. A dozen such cottages along that part of the river front would spoil the harmony of the scene; this one is just enough to set the scenery off, and attracts the attention and admiration of all who go on the river.

At Marblehead, Mass., on Monday afternoon at about one o'clock, as some children were playing near an open well at Martin's wharf, one of their number, John McIver, about eleven years of age, fell in and was drowned. The body was soon recovered and efforts made to resuscitate him, but without success. The deceased we are informed was a son of the McIver who formerly kept the Seamen's home in this city; there was some trouble between him and his wife, and a separation, the boy John remaining in the custody of his mother, who stopped in this city, while the father went to Boston to live; but one Sunday last season the father came down from Boston on a steamboat excursion, and the boy went away with him.

Dover has been afflicted with the leg mania in a more virulent and obstinate form than any other city in New England, for it commenced to rage there about as soon as anywhere, and kept at its height long after the ridiculous epidemic had entirely disappeared from most other places. But it is probable that even Dover will shortly recover, the "go-as-you-please" race in Boston last week having pretty thoroughly disgusted those citizens who still retained some interest in such folly. Great expectations were entertained by the Doverites as to what kind of a record would be made by two of the Dover men in that race, McLaughlin and Hanson, the latter of whom about five weeks ago won a sixty-hours race in Boston, and on his return home was met at the depot in Dover by a barouche-and-four, and brass bands and military companies and an immense procession of citizens, and escorted to his residence in a blaze of glory and enthusiasm. But McLaughlin and Hanson were not much of anywhere in the last contest, the latter being fifty-seven miles behind the winning man at the end of the race; and the Dover people are confident that they were "sold," as quite possibly they were, and are hopping mad about it. The managers of pedestrian matches have probably made about all the money they can in Dover, in that line of industry.

Naval Affairs.

The Powhatan and Vandalia left Chester, Pa., on the 29th, having in tow a section of the dry dock for the Pensacola navy yard.

Capt. Oscar C. Badger is detached from command of the Constitution, and placed on waiting orders. Lieut. Comdr. W. H. Whitney, Lieutenants E. W. Very and J. W. Carlin, Masters F. H. Crosby and L. L. Reany, and several minor officers, are also detached from the Constitution.

Capt. F. H. Baker is ordered to the Constitution as commanding officer. Lieut. J. M. Miller is ordered to the same vessel.

United States steamer Tallapoosa, McRitchie, from Washington via New London and Newport, arrived at Boston on Monday.

Surgeons Walter K. Schofield and Thomas Hiland have volunteered for duty under the national board of health, and their services have been accepted. They will be assigned to duty at Havana, or elsewhere in the West Indies, to act as inspectors of vessels leaving there for the United States.

The United States recruiting ship Minnesota has finished a successful recruiting trip up the Hudson. Two hundred and forty boys have been examined, of whom one hundred and thirty passed. She will arrive at New York on the 31st, and remain several days to give the boys a chance to get on board, and then go to Gardiner's bay for practice in gunnery.

New Hampshire Items.

George F. Lillis was blown up in Manchester on Monday by the premature explosion of a blast he had just put into a ledge, and was thrown several feet into the air, but escaped all but trifling injury.

Charles S. Faulkner, of the well-known firm of Faulkner & Colony, woollen manufacturers, died at his residence in Keene on Monday. He was reputed to be worth $800,000. His life was insured $50,000. He leaves a wife and five children, and was sixty years old.

The Unitarian grove meeting at Weirs closed on Monday.

George Fawcett Rowe of New York, the play-wright, Harry Edwards of the Boston theatre, and Walter A. Adams, son of the general superintendent of the Fitchburg railroad, got lost on Mount Washington, Friday, and Mr. Edwards was injured and came very near being killed by a fall.

In the celebrated case of the Phœnix life insurance company vs. Clark, at Lisbon, Judge Bingham denies the defendant's motion to set the verdict aside on the ground that one juror was not sworn, he finding a fair balance of evidence that the juror was sworn. The case is an important one, involving $2500.

Seth Tuttle of Hopkinton died on Sunday, aged about sixty-five years. He was an eccentric man, and figured in Lowell, Mass., twenty-five years ago, where his peculiarities led to the publication of "Seth Tuttle's Owl," a humorous sheet, which passed through a number of editions and created a great furore.

The announcement in Manchester papers that a person lately arrived from the south had been stricken with yellow fever created considerable excitement Monday evening, but the board of health have no information to justify it.

Gazette Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25th.

Washington is very much exercised at the lack of means to improve the river front so as to prevent the disagreeable and unwholesome odors that arise from the flats in the Potomac at low water. The Kidwell bottoms, so called, are a low, marshy, muddy series of flats along the south Washington front, where the sewerage of the city is emptied through its great sewers, and much of the foul deposit fails to pass away with the sluggish current, but remains festering in the sun when the tide goes out. For a long time plans have been contemplated for filling in and improving these flats, and Congress has been asked to take hold of the matter; but the excuse has been that the citizens were not united upon any plan, and were apparently split upon several "jobs." There is truth in this, but the trouble has become so serious now that the papers have taken hold of the subject and will hereafter bid the jobbers stand aside. When congress meets again it will probably be asked to make a grand effort to remedy the evil complained of and which is one cause of the foul air which Congressmen experience at the Capitol, and at the same time to beautify the river front of Washington. Now that is the ugliest quarter of the city, but under the hand of competent engineers it can be made the most attractive.

Persons now here from Pennsylvania say that the reports from the republican convention of that State to the effect that "Grantism" was in very small quantity, are not true. It is true that the resolution to present Grant as a candidate for 1880 was voted down, because many Grant men thought it premature. But those authorities say also that the Blaine and Sherman men were greatly annoyed by the aggressiveness of Grantism, and threatened a bolt if that idea prevailed. One fact was developed unexpectedly—that Sherman has suddenly taken a strong hold of Pennsylvania. His friends here attribute it to his steady work in the financial course marked out by his party, and his success as a cabinet officer. His popularity has improved with his party since he started out on his present stumping campaign, and our accounts from Maine say that the demand to hear him and the enthusiasm for him almost rival the feeling for Mr. Blaine. Mr. Blaine will have to get even by going to Ohio, as he proposes to after the Maine election, and arouse the Sherman men to enthusiasm for himself.

At this time last year the south had no thought that the yellow fever would appear in its cities. The history of August and September of that year will never be forgotten. Famine or war never made greater desolation. This year the fever has come much earlier, and the weather makes it decidedly more dangerous than then. The only advantage we have is that we have learned much in 1878 to profit by now. Memphis is already practically depopulated. The government is promptly supplying tents, medicines and provisions. The reports received by the national board of health here are of the most painful character. It is evident that the north and west must repeat their noble work of last year. They cannot organize for it too soon, and it is necessary to take extraordinary precautions against the fever's spread.

National Flags.

Egypt is supposed to have derived its name from the word coptos, a principal town, and gupta, guarded or fortified. The inhabitants of Egypt were early engaged in war, and were the originators of standards or battle-flags. Standards are now used by many tribes of savages. The standards of different nations are generally selected with a view to commemorate some principal event in connection with their history or achievements; but in some instances there is considerable mystery connected with the banners carried on various great occasions, in process of time they have lost all the significance they may have once possessed. The flag carried by the followers of Mohammed was of green. In Turkey, at the present day, when the Sultan appears in public he is preceded by an officer called an alemdar, who bears the standard of the prophet. The crusaders, who fought for the possession of the Holy Land, were led forward under the banner of the cross.

After the conversion of the Emperor Constantine to Christianity, there was borne before him a standard known as the laberam. It was a long pike with a traverse beam, to which was attached a silken veil, wrought with pictures of the monarch and his children, and on the top was a crown of gold inclosing a mysterious monogram representing the cross, with the initial letters of the name of Christ.

The flag of Ireland is of green, with the picture of a golden harp. The standard of Great Britain is formed by the union of the three crosses of St. George, St. Andrew and St. Patrick. It is called the great Union Flag of the Empire of Great Britain.

The national standard of Turkey is a flag bearing the figure of the new moon, and in the wars between the Christians and Moslems the Crescent and the Cross were the respective banners under which they fought.

The French national flag has varied greatly under different rulers, but is now a tricolor of blue, white and red. It was adopted by the nation at the first revolution.

The flag of the United States is said to have been suggested by the coat of arms belonging to the Washington family. Since it was first adopted by the Continental Congress in June, 1777, it has undergone several changes. At the present time it bears thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, with a star for each State embraced in the Union. These stars are on a blue field and grouped together, and symbolize the harmonious nature of the government and the sacred character it would seek to elevate. The red stripes are said to indicate daring, and the white, purity.

Character More than Reputation.

Keep straight ahead. The curve line may be the line of beauty, but it is better to be able to walk a crack than a circle. The man who can walk in a straight line may be all right, but he who can only walk in a cycloid curve is assuredly all wrong.

This injunction concerning your physical peregrissation applies as well to your spiritual itineracy. Are you slandered? Keep straight on in your course and let backbiting die the death of neglect. What is the use of lying awake nights brooding over the remarks of some false friend, that runs through your brain like lightning? What is the use of getting into a worry and fret over gossip that has been set afloat to your disadvantage by some meddlesome busybody who has more time than character? The thing cannot possibly injure you, unless indeed you take notice of it, and in combating it give it standing and character.

If what is said about you is true, set yourself right; if it is false, let it pass for what it is worth. If a bee sting you, would you go to the hive to destroy it? Would not a thousand come at you? It is wisdom to say little respecting the injuries you have received. We are generally losers in the end if we stop to repute all the backbiting and gossiping we may hear by the way. They are annoying, it is true; but not dangerous, so long as we do not stop to expostulate and scold. Our characters are formed and sustained by ourselves, and not by others. Value what you know of yourself more than what others may think of you.

Character is more than reputation, and the approval of your own honest conscience is a thousand fold more valuable than the commendation of a community. But you can have both. Live for God's approval and your own proper commendation and that of your friends will surely follow.—Christian at Work.

How French Butchers Work.—In Paris, the butchers on killing an ox make an incision in the breast near the neck and the nozzle of a bellows is inserted. A man then works the bellows for about fifteen minutes until the whole carcass is swollen out like a small balloon. The reasons given for this are that it makes the meat look better, more plump than it otherwise would, and that it enables the one who skins the carcass to get the hide off quicker and easier without injuring it. A novelty in pig butchery is to be seen there on the avenue of the pig-styes in the houses where they slaughter the grunters. The pigs are taken into a large round-house, something like a locomotive round-house in America, having a cupola in the roof to let the smoke off, and the floor being divided into triangular pens. A dozen or so of pigs are driven into each pen at a time. A man strikes each one in the head with a mallet. They fall down quietly, and are laid in a row. Then the butcher comes along, and cuts each one's throat, and a girl holds a basin under the pig's throat to catch the blood, which is all carefully poured into a large can and stirred by the girl to keep it from curdling. This blood is used in making the large black sausages so much sold in Paris. Another girl goes along the row and works the pig's front legs to keep the blood flowing, and twists the hind legs to disjoint them. A man then carries each porker to the side of the room and arranges them in a methodical row, heads all in line, and covers them with straw, which is set on fire and burns off the bristles that remain after the coarse ones have been pulled out.

Printers and Printing.—Many who condescend to illuminate this dark world with the fire of their genius through the columns of a newspaper little think of the lot of the printer, who sits up till midnight to correct their false grammar and orthography and worse punctuation. We have seen the arguments of lawyers, in high repute as scholars, sent to the printer in their own handwriting, many words—especially technical, and foreign terms—abbreviated, words misspelled and few or any points, and these few, if any, certainly in the wrong places. We have seen the sermons of eminent "divines" sent to the press without points or capitals to designate the divisions of the sentences; also the letters of the political and scientific correspondents. Suppose all these had been so printed—the printer would have been treated with scorn and contempt. No one would have believed that such gross and palpable faults were owing to the ignorance or carelessness of the author; and no one but the practical printer knows how many hours the compositor, and after him the proof-reader, is compelled to spend in reducing to readable condition manuscript that often writers themselves would be puzzled to read.

Flowery.—Here is a fine specimen of flowery writing by the correspondent of a country paper. The author should go to writing dime novels:

Last Thursday night, just as the golden sun was sinking below the western horizon, shedding a balo of magic splendor over the picturesque hills and mountains of Northern New Hampshire, your correspondent sauntered leisurely down the street to call on our honored and respected pastor, Rev. ——— and his excellent wife. As he neared the parsonage the last faint rays of the sinking sun fell down upon the little house, and revealed the fact that the roof had been newly shingled.

THE
New Hampshire Gazette!
Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. The GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities where is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Morbific matter of disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Itch, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Coffee or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, bilious heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of the above symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
UP ONE EASY FLIGHT.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, compound of cheap, crude, and drastic ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in regions of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative Effect, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be used, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge chiefly proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $27.00 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCormick Lode," capitalized at the value of $1,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, its thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upwards will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to

SPECIFIC GRAVITY

And its bearings on the human system, regarding health, etc.

How few there are who know the amount of worth to place on studying their health with a small dose of common sense taken at intervals every day of our lives. For instance: the air is stratified from the earth, each stratum varying in thickness in accordance with the amount of material retained by the laws of nature in its or their formation, each stratum of which expands and contracts both by atmospheric pressure and by the absence or presence of carloric generated from the sun's rays. Hence the reason of difference in regard to the atmosphere inhaled morning and evening in malarial districts, and that inhaled in the heat of the day, as each layer or stratum of air is the same to a species of animalculæ as the surface of the earth is to us, with this difference: their earth surface arises and falls as ships on the sea, subject to the same wave like motion and change similar to the changing of the tide without its periodical regularity. One reason of the out-of-door air being more pure as a general thing than the air in the houses is the wholesale slaughter, maiming, crippling and diseasing of the animalculæ by the now prevalent use of strong lights such as gas, coal oil, kerosene, and chemical preparations, as all winged animalculæ fly directly toward lights—the stronger the more attractive—and thereby become burnt, lamed, crippled, and in no way fitted to enter the pores of human flesh nor to be received as food in the absorbing glands. When we wish to ascertain the amount of this necessary food destroyed we have only to extinguish a strong lamp-light and with the aid of a strong microscope examine the crust adhering to the burnt part of the wick, to satisfy the most incredulous that we are thereby violating the laws of nature to a much greater extent than when the mellow light of the tallow candle was in vogue.

That yellow fever or tyhoid Egyptianico is a vein or current of noxious animalculæ is to me beyond a doubt, from the fact that they are remitted from one to another subject, and from the fact that when they become located in the pulmonaries it invariably terminates with gangrene on the lungs, and when confined to the stomach occasioning black vomit or mortification; in the winter the bile seems to pass off with the faeces in a perfectly natural way, and nothing is apparent to indicate other trouble than consumption, for which the disease is too frequently taken; some medicines used for one being antagonistic to the requirements of the other, and as in nine cases out of ten in winter the lungs are affected with gangrene, a mistaken diagnosis ends in galloping consumption, as it used to be termed, our only consolation for which is that it will make no odds a hundred years from now. CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Naval Apprenticeship.

We cannot agree with the New York Commercial Bulletin in its remarks on naval apprenticeship. The physical training may make bone and muscle, but practical seamanship is not learned by summer cruising on board a war vessel. "The customs of the service" may serve the purpose of the line and staff, but cannot make a seaman self-reliant in the hour of danger. The example of officers of the navy is most pernicious on boys on shipboard. A boy who aspires to be placed in command of a merchant ship should not enter the naval service as an apprentice, where responsibility is shunned, while it is sought after in the merchant marine. Some of the most practical seamen in our navy are those who entered the service as volunteers from the merchant marine during the civil war, and have since been promoted. The best seamen are found on sailing ships crossing the Atlantic. So far as regards seamanship, one year on the Atlantic in a sailing vessel would be worth more than the whole term of pupilage at Annapolis. Man-of-war's men are not eligible for the merchant service as able seamen, and cannot find ships, if known to be such. An experienced ship-master, when speaking of naval apprentices, remarked that he would prefer for his boy the house of refuge rather than the naval school apprenticeship. Before taking any more apprentices, our navy should be reorganized, for its aristocratic and political tendencies are sapping its vitality. An apprentice is eligible to the presidency; why not to the admiralty? It was so for a short time. May we hope it will be so again? Ambition is measured by the altitude of the goal to be reached. The boy of to-day is father to the future man.—American Ship.

Truth is Mighty.

As the little leaven hid in the measure of meal, made all leaven, so truth gradually overcomes all doubt and disbelief. When Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., announced that his Favorite Prescription would positively cure the many diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, some doubted, and continued to employ the harsh and caustic local treatment. But the mighty truth gradually became acknowledged. Thousands of ladies who had uselessly undergone untold tortures at the hands of different physicians, employed the Favorite Prescription, and were speedily cured. Many physicians now prescribe it in their practice. So sanguine is Dr. Pierce of its power to cure, that he now sells it through druggists under a positive guarantee.

Portsmouth Chronicle

The South Carolina Bulldozers.

Some weeks ago the northern democrats were alarmed at the republication by the republican papers in the northern States of an editorial in the Kingstree, S. C., Star, calling upon the democratic committee of Williamsburg county, in which Kingstree is situated, to notify Mr. Swails, an exiled republican, not to return to his home, and warning him that if he did return it would be at the peril of his life. There was no pretence that Mr. Swails was guilty of any other crime than that of opposing the democratic party; he was indeed arrested during the last campaign, but the charges brought against him were so frivolous and notoriously false that not even the shamelessly partisan democratic courts of Kingstree county would take cognizance of them, and Mr. Swails was driven from the county by violence, and threats of murder made by men who had murdered other men for the same offence as his—that of working for the success of the republican ticket in a strongly republican county. He was driven from the county and the State; and when it was reported that he proposed to return to his property and home, the Kingstree Star demanded that his return should be prevented—not by the courts or process of law, but by "the democratic committee," and if need be by murder. The republication of this remarkable editorial naturally caused great consternation among the northern democrats, who have always proclaimed that all the stories of bull-dozing in South Carolina were "radical lies" and base slanders on a high-toned democracy; and one of the first fruits of their alarm was seen in an article in the News and Courier, of Charleston, the most influential paper in South Carolina, commanding the Kingstree Star to halt in its attempt to stir up further lawlessness and murder. But the News and Courier, in its article, made an admission as extraordinary in its way as was the article in the Star which called it out, that admission being that the bull-dozing outrages which the republicans have always insisted marked the elections of 1876 and 1878, and by means of which the democracy obtained control of the State, did in fact exist, notwithstanding the energetic denials of such godlike gentlemen as Wade Hampton and Massacre C. Butler. The News and Courier says: "Things were done in the canvass of 1876 and 1878 that cannot and must not be done again. It was a supreme necessity. The necessity no longer exists."

The Swails case is again brought to mind by a despatch of July 29th, from Washington to the Boston Advertiser, which says that one reason for the warning given by the Kingstree Star to Mr. Swails not to return was developed in a letter from his attorney, then just received. One of the leading bull-dozers in his section sued him for libel for exposing the outrages, and attached his property. The time for his answer has nearly expired. Hearing that he was about to return, the published threat against his life was made to keep him away until judgment on the default could be taken against his property upon his failure to appear.

The Yellow Fever.

Eight new cases of the disease were reported at Memphis on the 29th inst., and five deaths were reported by undertakers. The city is deserted by all who can get away, and business is at a standstill. The indications are that the pestilence will extend over the whole Mississippi valley, but there is room for a strong hope that it will not be as fatal as last year.

There is a panic at New Orleans, caused by the deaths of two persons from the fever, and every train north is crowded with flying citizens. The work of systematically disinfecting the city is being vigorously prosecuted.

Louisville is increasing the stringency of the quarantine, and Hickman, Ky., has established a partial quarantine.

News and Notes.

Prescott G. Pillsbury, cashier of the Lawrence National bank of Lawrence, Mass., on Monday of this week informed the president of the bank, Mr. Stearns, that he had been for four weeks speculating in California mining stocks with the bank's funds, and was $64,000 short! The directors at once subscribed that amount, so that the bank loses nothing. Pillsbury's mining stocks have been sold for $28,000, and his bonds of $20,000 are good, so the directors will lose but $16,000. The defaulter has always stood very high in the social and financial circles of Lawrence, and is now utterly broken down.

Fourteen families of Icelanders, numbering sixty-six persons in all, landed at New York from a steamer from Liverpool on Monday of this week. They are bound for Minnesota, where they will found a colony.

Steamer Alhambra, from New York, while going up Halifax harbor ran into and sunk a becalmed schooner, but no lives were lost. The schooner was cut in two, and filled and capsized in less than ten minutes after being struck.

A sensation was produced on the 29th inst., by the action of Talcott H. Russell, receiver of the National Capital life insurance company, who attached property of a number of prominent and wealthy citizens of Connecticut. The suit brought is to collect the subscriptions to the guaranteed capital of the American Life & Trust company. Suits are also brought against other officials of life insurance companies that have been wrecked, the claims amounting to several millions of dollars.

River pirates boarded the schooner William H. Vanbame at a New York wharf on the night of July 28th, and attempted to wrench off the iron bars guarding a cabin window. Capt. Somers, the schooner's commander, remonstrated with a shotgun at short range, through the window; there was a yell outside, and the thieves hurriedly left in a boat, taking some heavy body with them. The deck was found disfigured with blood and bits of blackened flesh, and it is believed one of the pirates was pretty much blown to pieces. Two men have been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the attempt at robbery.

A cave fitted up for counterfeiting silver coin was recently discovered in the woods at Raynham, Mass., by a mechanic of the town, who took possession of the counterfeiters' tools and informed the authorities of his discovery. The cave has been visited by many people, and quite a number of counterfeit half-dollars found. A young man of Raynham, who has always borne a good reputation, visited the cave one evening with a crowd, and has not been seen since, and it is suspected that he knows more about the base money making than he would care to tell.

James Shepler, alias John Brown, was arrested July 24th at Danville, Illinois, charged with personating a revenue officer, and as such collecting large sums of money from various persons in Illinois, Missouri and Indiana. He was immediately tried, convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to imprisonment for two years.

Mrs. Pulver and her niece Fanny Calkins, of Lanesboro', Mass., who have been engaged in petty thieving in Pittsfield for a year or more, were sentenced to eighteen months and nine months respectively in the woman's prison at Sherborne, July 29th. Five complaints against them were tried.

Capt. William Abbott, an active and esteemed citizen of Rockport, Mass., aged eighty years, while fishing off the rocks at Rockport a few days ago caught a sea bass which weighed forty pounds.

Mrs. Abijah Packard, of Foxboro, Mass., drowned herself on the morning of July 29th, while in a state of mental aberration. She leaves an infant three weeks old.

Kate Webster, the domestic servant recently convicted of the murder of Mrs. Thomas, her mistress, at Richmond, England, was hanged July 29th. She confessed the murder and said she had no accomplices, either in the crime or the disposal of the remains.

Capt. Simpson, of the schooner Louisa Montgomery, at Pictou, N. S., reports that about ten miles eastward of Pictou island he saw an enormous sea serpent, which appeared to be about one hundred feet long, with a body about the size of a barrel. It was going straight along at the rate of seven knots an hour. Of what good a sea serpent can be in that region, when there are no summer hotels, we cannot imagine.

An old negro named Billy McDonald, who had been left in charge of a deserted mansion at Memphis, was found dead on the morning of July 29th, having been murdered by some unknown person during the previous night.

At Hughesville, Md., July 26th, John S. Acton loaded a shotgun with buckshot, went into the street, met John A. Dickson and shot him dead. Dickson was a large land owner and Acton one of his tenants; the men were each about forty-five years old, and of good reputation. Dickson leaves a widow and five children. The motive for the deed was revenge on account of Dickson's seduction of Acton's daughter, a very pretty and intelligent girl eighteen years old. Acton surrendered himself to the authorities, acknowledging the homicide and declaring that he did not regret it.

The citizens of Marblehead, Mass., do not propose to rely on moral suasion or the voluntary aid of non-officials to protect them from future incursions of gangs of roughs. The selectmen have voted to appoint one hundred special police, or as many as may be necessary, to maintain order at all hazards. The Charlestown thieves and bummers who threatened to "return and clean out the place" after their recent discomfiture, are promised all the fun they want if they attempt to carry out their threat.

The resignation of Minister Welsh, officially reported from London, closes a diplomatic career which has been brief but creditable both to the country and to the representative. Minister Welsh resigns because of family bereavement, two of his sisters and a brother having died within a short time. His retirement causes another important vacancy in the diplomatic service, leaving two, and perhaps three missions of the first class to be filled by new appointments. Mr. Stoughton recently resigned the Russian mission, and there are rumors that Mr. Kasson, minister at Vienna, now in this country on leave of absence, may not desire to return.

Secretary Evarts announces the organization of the United States commission for the industrial exhibitions at Sydney and Melbourne, Australia, as follows: Commissioner, Oliver M. Spencer, consulgeneral of the United States at Melbourne, Victoria; honorary commissioners, Augustus Morris, Sydney, N. S. W.; Samuel C. Lord, Melbourne, Victoria. Dr. C. C. Cox has been appointed secretary of the commission, and sails from San Francisco August 4th.

The post-office department has received advices stating the capture, in northern Texas, of a gang of highway robbers, who are being held for trial. Longmott, one of the Fort Worth gang of mail robbers, was recently convicted by the United States court for the western district of Texas, and sentenced to ninety-nine years in the penitentiary.

John Kraus, of East Farmington, Polk county, Wis., on the 29th inst. drove into the lake with his wagon, containing six children, to water his horses. The horses became frightened and ran into deep water, where Krans and five children were drowned. One boy escaped by swimming. The oldest child was a girl of seventeen years.

At the last cabinet meeting the question as to whether any of the money appropriated by the recent act making appropriations for rivers and harbors should be withheld was discussed, and it was decided in the negative. The full amount of nearly $9,000,000 will therefore be expended this year. The warrant placing this money to the credit of the war department has passed the treasurer of the United States.

The coinage of standard silver dollars in July falls between $500,000 and $700,000 short of the minimum amount fixed by law, namely, $2,000,000 monthly. The deficiency is due to the fact that on the 1st of July the stock of silver bullion at the San Francisco and Carson City mints had been so much reduced that there was nothing to commence work upon. Since then it has been impossible to procure bullion for those mints. Up to the 30th of June work was pushed forward continually at the Philadelphia and New Orleans mints, so as to run the coinage up to the $2,000,000 required for that month. The mint at Philadelphia will be run night and day during August to make up the deficiency for July.

An examination of the dam at Bangor, Me., shows that the undertow has been making very bad work with a portion of the structure. About one hundred feet of apron has been carried away, together with tons of ballast in several of the cribs in the dam. The water has eaten under for a distance of eighteen feet, and at low water the logs of which that portion of the dam is composed hang in mid-air without any support from beneath. It will require an outlay of some $3,000 to repair the damage, and three weeks' time. A crew of men is now at work upon the structure.

The Colorado beetle has appeared in a potato field at Killavullen, county of Cork, Ireland.

Mr. Catlin, United States Consul at La Rochelle, France, in a dispatch to the department of State, reports that the project of a new seaport near La Rochelle is to be realized. It will be commenced in April, 1880, and will require at least five years to complete it. The cost is estimated at fifteen million francs. The city of La Rochelle is pledged for fifteen per cent of this amount. When completed it will be the best seaport on the coast, admitting the largest vessels into its harbor, and connecting by railroads with the interior. All the improvements in docks, elevators, etc., will be adopted. It is expected to be of especial value to the commerce of the United States.

As a matter of fact the people of the country at large are better pleased with the national banking system now than they were three years ago, or two years ago or a year ago. There are doubtless, points in which the system needs reform and improvement, but as a whole it is an excellent working system. Security for the note-holder and the depositor is nearly perfect under it. Since the bank of Glasgow failure the excellence of the American system has become so apparent that British opinion demands, in the new banking legislation of parliament, the same banking publicity which is the great merit of our plan.—New York World.

AROUND HOME.

D. F. Borthwick, at the "Popular Store," Nos. 7 and 9 Market street, has a nice line of new prints and cambrics.

The steamer Tallapoosa arrived at the navy yard on Wednesday evening, the 30th inst., from Washington via New London and Boston, with stores and material for the yard.

The Rockingham base ball nine of this city and the Farraguts of Rye beach play a game at the Plains this afternoon, commencing at three o'clock. The friends of the Rockinghams will don the "blue."

The proprietors of the Wentworth at Newcastle propose to furnish music for dancing in the drawing room of the hotel on Wednesday and Saturday evenings during the season, for the pleasure of guests of the house and visitors from this city.

We were indebted to the courtesy of the proprietor of the Times for several columns of type, on the morning after the recent lightning distribution of one of the CHRONICLE forms. The new style of distribution is not satisfactory, and we shall hereafter have the type distributed in the old fashion—put in the cases one at a time.

The General Berry engine company of Rockland, Me., which organization it will be remembered stopped over one night in this city last fall on their way from Boston, and received unexpected attentions from the local firemen, have sent an invitation to the Portsmouth fire department to visit Rockland on or before August 15th.

The express messenger between Boston and Dover on the 28th inst. took to Dover the carrier pigeons that have before been noticed for their flights from Exeter and other places to Boston, and let them loose. They flew around in the air for several minutes, apparently bewildered, and then all started for Boston at once, in a direct line. The week previous they made the trip from Dover to Boston, a distance of about sixty-eight miles, in thirty-one minutes.

A party of well-known and successful theatrical amateurs of this city propose giving an entertainment at the Appledore house on Wednesday evening next, Aug. 6th, for the benefit of the New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Laighton Bros. & Co. have tendered to the managers the free use of their hall, and the tickets will be placed at fifty cents each. The steamer will make a special trip, returning at eleven P. M., or immediately after the performance.

The Dover Democrat of the 26th inst. says: "In these warm and sultry dog-days Portsmouth is actually agitated about a city election soon to come off there, to elect a new city government. The election day has been changed so often lately that we don't know when it comes this year, but sometime in August. The CHRONICLE goes for Sise and the old regime over again, while the Times hasn't brought out any ticket yet. A pretty time of year to talk about elections. They do it in Maine, but other people ought to know better."

The switch-lanterns on the Eastern railroad are reached by means of permanent step-ladders, on the top of each being a small platform for the light-tender to stand upon when fixing or lighting the lamp, the platform projecting slightly over the top step of the ladder. Last spring a pair of robins selected the upper step of one of these ladders, near the roundhouse, as a suitable place for their nest, and built their house on the inner edge of the step, beneath the projecting edge of the platform; and in that odd place, apparently undisturbed by the thundering past of trains, the screaming of steam whistles and the frequent trips up the ladder of the railroad hands, they raised during the season two crops of young robins. The railroad men who know of the whereabouts of the nest kept a jealous lookout for marauding boys while the young birds were in it, and had any youth attempted to despoil the railroad of its live stock he would have had to move rapidly to escape a remonstrance administered by the toe of a cowhide boot.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, July 30; Batchelder, J.

Mary Grace, Stephen Benson and John Henry, for drunkenness, were each assessed $9.90. In default of payment, all went to Brentwood.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

The republican mayoralty caucus was held at the Court house on the afternoon of the 30th inst., the polls being opened at four o'clock, and closing shortly after seven on a vote of the meeting. Mr. George W. Pendexter was chairman of the caucus, and Robert King secretary. The ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes	438
Necessary for a choice	220
Jeremiah F. Hall had	1
Frank W. Miller	1
Albert A. Fernald	2
William H. Sise	434

And Mr. Sise was declared the republican candidate for mayor of Portsmouth for the ensuing year. The vote was unexpectedly large, for no opposition to Mayor Sise's renomination being anticipated it was not supposed more than a couple of hundred of votes would be thrown.

GREENBACK NOMINATIONS.

The caucus of the national greenback party was held in the old custom house on Daniel street, on the evening of the 30th inst., and the following nominations made:

Mayor—Luther E. Martin, nominated by acclamation.

Aldermen—Ward one, William F. Fernald, George S. Hanscom, Asa T. Walker; ward two, Michael R. Perkins, James M. Sheldon, Edward J. Moulton; ward three, James M. Goodrich; ward four, James Janvrin, Joseph W. Coleman.

Councilmen—Ward one, M. M. Collis, William Critchley, Jr., William H. Sheafe, James S. Wood, Herbert K. Sheldon, Joseph Taylor; ward two, James Sanborn, John H. Stickney, Albert E. Wood, William Plaisted, John E. Roberts, Stuart A. Sheldon; ward three, Benjamin Tripp, William H. Haddock; ward four, Charles W. Martin, Addison Carroll, Charles H. Wallace, Lewis Holmes.

Assessors—Ward one, Wm. Andrews, William A. Plaisted, Benjamin Cheever; ward two, Albert A. Fernald, Alonzo F. Craig, Orwin Griffin; ward three, Job Meads; ward four, James W. Sowersby, William F. Brooks.

Overseers of the Poor—Ward one Ellsha Tripp; ward two, Freeman Sanborn; ward three, Thomas Lester; ward four, Charles H. Tucker.

City Committee—Four from each ward; Nathaniel K. Raynes, Marcus M. Collis, William H. Sheafe, Herbert K. Sheldon; John E. Roberts, Edward J. Moulton, Stuart A. Sheldon, Michael R. Perkins; James M. Goodrich, Wm. H. Haddock, Thomas J. Sheldon, Thomas Lester; Gardner J. Greenleaf, Walter T. Brooks, Charles H. Tucker, James Janvrin.

James Janvrin was chairman of the meeting, which was quite a large one; and Nathaniel K. Raynes was secretary.

A series of resolutions passed, and a statement of what the greenback party will do when they get control of the city, we shall print to-morrow.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. Thomas A. Stearns of Jaffrey was killed on the morning of July 28th. He was a farmer, and has this season had his house well filled with boarders from Dorchester, Mass. He had been to the village to make purchases, when his horse took fright and he was thrown out, and died in a very few minutes. He leaves a widow, one son and two daughters. Mr. Stearns was sixty-eight years old.

A horse belonging to C. S. Hoyt of South Wentworth was killed by lightning recently while feeding in a pasture.

The famous Irish setters "Elcho" and "Rose," owned by W. Jarvis, of Claremont, were stolen recently, the object being, it is thought, to get a large reward for their return. His dogs have met with many vicissitudes, one being in the hotel at Claremont at the time of the terrible fire last winter. It was let down from a window and saved, though a number of human beings were burned to death.

Naval Affairs.

The Powhatan and Vandalia each had a section of the Pensacola dock in tow when they left Chester, Pa., July 29th.

The training ship Constellation arrived at Boston July 29th, from the Isles of Shoals.

Capt. O. C. Badger, detached from command of the Constitution, is granted leave of absence for three months.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS

Scrofulous Ulcers and Sores, Abscesses, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, Erysipelas Sores, Old Sores and Discharging Wounds, Boils, Carbuncles and Blood Impurities, which manifest themselves by bursting through the skin and eating deep into the flesh, when treated internally by the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and externally with the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, rapidly heal and disappear. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Leprosy, Barber's Itch and all Scaly and Itching Eruptions of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Irritating and Itching Humors of the Scalp, which cause the Hair to become dry, thin, and lifeless and result in Premature Baldness, are permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SKIN DISEASE.

A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq., manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.

Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm. Corbett induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.

Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.

I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin diseases, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century.

J. A. TUCKER.

13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 20, 1878.

NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well-known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.

CUTICURA REMEDIES

Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.

Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.

CARBONDALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.

Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathsome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.

Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

Canary Birds.

Miss A. M. sends Rural Life these selected "Rules for Care of Canary Birds." They are seasonable, and apparently worthy of heeding by those who keep the popular pet, the canary:

1. During the summer season you should have both a drinking cup and a bathing dish in the cage, and should wash them well twice a day, and fill with fresh water. The seed cup should be filled every morning.

2. The room in which the bird is kept should never be warmer than seventy degree.

3. Feed plain food. Now and then a lump of sugar does no harm; but as a general rule, avoid sweets. Keep the cuttle fish dry and clean, and feed only fresh and dry seed.

4. Never place a cage where a draught can strike the bird.

5. Never smoke in a room where your bird is kept, as the odor of a cigar is fatal to canaries.

6. As a general rule, never keep the bird in a painted cage, for the bird will peck at the wires, and it will lead to disease.

7. When your bird is shedding feathers, which is generally styled molting, avoid draughts of air.

By obeying these simple directions you can keep birds in excellent health for years.

The Rich California Banker.

When it became known that one of the richest California bankers had left the Pacific Coast and transferred his base of operations to the New York Stock Exchange, all the shrewd financiers watched his course with keen interest to see how he would succeed. The result has emphatically proved the wealthy banker's sagacity. Besides having a much wider and more promising field to operate in, he is known to have been in several stock combinations that paid immense profits. By the combination method of operating in stocks Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite orders of thousands of customers, in different sums, into one vast capital, and operate them as a mighty whole, dividing profits pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with great success in these pools. $25 would pay $100 profit. $500 would make $5,000 or 10 per cent. on the stock during the month. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) gives "two unerring rules for success," and full particulars, so that any one can operate in stocks, and make money. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Exchange Place, N. Y.

However quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, by the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites, he must abolish the habits of life which induced the disease; the effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can only be transitory, whilst man persists in the gratification of vicious or pernicious habits.

—It is commendable to be proud of one's berth place, provided it be not directly over the boiler.

—An English traveler in Texas writes home to his friends: "I saw the ceremony of baptism by immersion celebrated the other day. When the fourteen candidates walked down into the water fifteen revolvers were deposited on the bank of the stream, that of the preacher making the fifteenth. An elder who noticed my look of surprise quietly remarked: 'You see, stranger, there are a great many horse thieves in these parts, an' Christian folks mus'n't be took unawares.'"

—That the sun never sets on the British empire is the frequent boast of Englishmen, but a glance at the word's map will show that citizens of the United States can make the same claim for the Union. From Eastport in Maine to the most westward of the Aleutian islands, acquired by the purchase of Alaska, is 197 degrees of longitude—seventeen more than half the distance round the world. When the fisherman in Behring's sea, as the sunlight fades from the water, drives his canoe for the most western home on United States territory, it has been more than an hour since the woodsman of Maine has seen the morning light shine through the forest.

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases arising from bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness," in many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the physical and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Indigestion, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to the Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensative impress. Are does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged glands, tickling cough, &c. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The blood purifying remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which field medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures current attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.80 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "Metracklin Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order, or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to

Daily Chronicle.

Wonderful Mechanism.

Mr. Felix Meier, an ingenious mechanic of Detroit, has constructed a clock which, in the number, variety and accuracy of its performances, eclipses the famed Strasburg clock, which it resembles in some particulars. It was exhibited at the residence of Mr. Meier, lately, to representatives of the press and a few specially invited guests.

The clock stands eighteen feet in height, and is enclosed in a black walnut frame elaborately carved and ornamented. It is called the American National and Astronomical Clock. Very appropriately the crowning figure is that of Liberty, upon a canopy over the head of Washington, who is seated upon a marble donic. The canopy is supported by columns on either side. On niches below at the four corners of the clock are four human figures, representing infancy, youth, manhood and age. Each of these figures has a bell in one hand and a hammer in the other. The niches are supported by angels with flaring torches, and over the centre is the figure of Father Time.

The striking of this clock is its interesting performance. At the quarter hour the figure of the infant strikes its tiny bell; at the half hour the figure of the youth strikes its bell of louder tone; at the third quarter the man strikes his bell, and at the full hour the gray-beard. Then the figure of Time steps out and tolls the hour. Then two small figures throw open doors in the columns on either side of Washington, and there is a procession of the Presidents of the United States. As the procession moves Washington rises and salutes each figure as it passes, and it in turn salutes him. They move through the door on the other side and it is then closed behind them. The figures of the Presidents are pretty fair likenesses of persons they are intended to represent. This procession moves to the accompaniment of music played by the clock itself. The music machinery is capable of playing several national and patriotic airs.

Another interesting feature of the clock is an orrery which shows the movements of the earth, moon and planets, all perfect and controlled by the machinery of the clock. There are dials which show the hour, minute and second in Detroit, Washington, New York, San Francisco, London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg, Constantinople, Cairo, Pekin and Melbourne. The clock also shows the day of the week and month in Detroit, the month and season of the year, the changes of the moon, etc., the whole forming most wonderful and complicated machinery.

Mr. Meier has worked upon this clock nearly ten years, and for the last four years has devoted his whole time to it. He is a Bavarian by birth, is about thirty-four years of age, and has lived in this country thirteen years. He is a stone cutter by trade. To furnish him time and means to complete this clock a joint stock company was formed called the American National and Astronomical Clock Company, with a capital stock of $50,000, and this company now owns the clock, upon which it has expended in actual cash $7000.

Set Your House on High Ground.

The house should be preferably located on a spot where the ground falls away in every direction, in order to secure good surface drainage; but it is even more important that the subsoil should be dry or even sandy. If not dry naturally, then it should by all means be susceptible of the most thorough artificial drainage, with an outflow that will always keep the pipes clear. Almost any sacrifice should be made to secure this important point; in fact, we would not advise any man to build a house on a spot where it can not be secured, no matter what the other advantages may be. We have heard surface drainage spoken of with indifference; and we have seen costly country houses where the water has been from one to three feet deep for many weeks during the winter, the result of bad drainage. The lower part of such houses is always damp; the walls, furniture, and clothing suffer from dampness, and the inhabitants from rheumatism in some of its direst forms. The cellar floor and walls should be dry; a wet or damp cellar is not consistent with good health, and its usefulness is greatly impaired.—Homestead.

—The grave of the mother of Abraham Lincoln, at Lincoln City, Ind., it is said, is unmarked by stone or tablet.

—Samuel Emery, a clever London actor, excels in personating the devoted husband, but his wife is suing him for maintenance.

—The death of "Hightoned" Brown is denied by the Kaufman Times. That makes no difference. Having written his obituary, he is dead to all intents and purposes. We shall refuse to recognize his existence from now on.—Waco (Tex.) Examiner.

—In the show window of a trunk store in Hartford, Conn., an interesting sight may be witnessed every evening, in an old gray rat catching flies upon the inner surface of the glass. The old fellow trots around among the satchels and travelling bags, and wherever he sees a fly upon the glass or the goods he goes for it with a nimbleness and dexterity which secure uniform success. His operations are often continued while several persons are watching him from the sidewalk, of whose presence and attention he seems quite oblivious. In the opposite window are spread sheets of sticky fly paper, where few or many of the insects are struggling, who would apparently be easy prey for the voracious and venerable rat; yet he appears to understand that the sticky paper is suspicious, and avoids it, attending strictly to business in his own department.

The Yellow Fever.

Eight new cases, five of them of colored persons, were reported to the Memphis board of health on the 30th ult., up to six o'clock P. M., but no deaths within the corporate limits. A telegraph operator died during the night, and another was reported dying. A daughter of the Memphis chief of police was in a critical condition at Raleigh, Tenn.

There is a panic at Brownsville, Tenn., and more than half the white families have fled the place; all business is suspended except the grocery business, and the grocery stores are out of stocks and can get no more.

Pickets on all roads leading from Memphis to Jackson, Tenn., have been established to enforce the quarantine.

There was a death from the fever at St. Louis on the 30th ult., the victim being a colored refugee from Memphis.

Two new cases were reported at New Orleans on the 30th.

The fever is raging at Havana, there being one hundred and seventeen deaths from it during the week ending July 26th.

Key West is and has all the season been entirely free from the disease.

There were two deaths from yellow fever at the New York quarantine station, on the night of the 30th.

New London, Conn., has had a scare over the reported death of a sea captain, just arrived from the south, of yellow fever. The doctors say, however, that he died of congested liver and exposure.

Deadly Epidemic in Iowa.

A disease akin to cholera is ravaging Centre Point, Linn county, Iowa. Fully twenty persons died from its effects during the thirteen days preceding the 30th ult., and an equal number were prostrated. It is also raging in Walker, seven miles from Centre Point. Several deaths occurred there, and forty coffins have been ordered. The physicians of Centre Point are worn out and the residents are fleeing from the place. The Dubuque Herald's correspondent at Centre Point telegraphs under date of July 30th that the cholera epidemic, as local physicians call it, is still on the increase. Not less than one hundred persons were reported sick in the rural towns and immediate neighborhood, with fatalities every hour.

News and Notes.

Herman Morter, a negro, in Claiborne parish, Louisana, entered a house occupied by two white girls, killed one and criminally assaulted the other, then robbed the house and fled. He was pursued by a large body of citizens, captured and killed.

Thomas McCulloch, aged nine years, was drowned in a creek at Jersey City on the 31st ult., in an attempt to rescue from drowning Joseph Murphy, aged seven.

Two young sons of Dr. A. R. Boyd in Livingston county, Ky., being ill, their father determined to give them sauturine, but through mistake gave them some poison. They were taken with spasms, and one died in half an hour and the other in forty-five minutes.

A large cannon burst on board the German gunboat Renown, at Wilhemshaven, on the 30th ult., killing three men and wounding thirty.

Officers Davis and Baker of Newton, Mass., while attempting to quiet two young men in a team in Newton early on the morning of the 30th ult., were fired upon by one of the men, who claims that he mistook the officers for highwaymen. Baker was shot in the head, the wound at first being thought to be fatal, but he is now in a fair way to recover. The young men, whose names are Davis and Cornell, were held in $10,000 each to await trial.

Pillsbury, the defaulting cashier of the Lawrence national bank, was lodged in jail at Boston on the 30th ult.

The New York police have traced and captured the river pirate shot by Capt. Somers. He is a well-known thief called "Bum" Moran, and was wounded in the face, hand and knee, his leg being terribly torn to pieces. His companions, Calden and Conroy, who are also under arrest, have been identified.

John Jenkins, a submarine diver, lost his life in New York harbor on the 30th ult., by the bursting of the air pipe while he was attempting to recover an anchor off the Battery. Emily and Edith Hugill, aged respectively eighteen and twelve years, were drowned on the 30th ult. at Brockville, Ont., while bathing; and two boys, brothers, were on the same day drowned at Dunnville, Ont. At North Andover, Mass., Eddie Crowley, nine years old, was drowned, and at Oxford, Mass., Lowrie Rich was drowned, both on the 30th ult., while bathing; and on the 29th, at Stafford Springs, Conn., a son of Henry B. White, six years old, lost his life while bathing in a pond.

John Hogan, a constable, of Cairo, Ill., on the 30th ult., shot and killed Charles D. Arter, chief of police. Arter was seated in a chair reading a newspaper, when Hogan approached him from behind, and without a word of warning shot him dead. The reason for the crime is not given.

The Knights of Honor from Haverhill, Mass., with invited guests, one hundred fifty in number, had a clambake at Salisbury beach, Wednesday. Forty bushels of clams were baked. There were more people on the beach than on any day during the season, being some 3,000. The horse railroad from Salisbury point to the beach carried 1,560 passengers.

A shooting affray occurred on the farm residence of Lucas Covert, near Columbus, Ind., at the breakfast table, on the 30th ult., between his sons, Henry and Aleck, in which Henry was killed and Aleck mortally wounded.

A desperate fight occurred on the 30th ult. between John Cole and Barnet Gordon, at Louisville, Ky., and Cole was killed by having a knife plunged into his throat.

Five young men were playing poker at Asheville, N. C. One was detected hiding an extra card in his breast pocket. The dirk of another was instantly driven through the card and into the cheat's heart.

By the sinking of a steam yacht near Clayton, N. Y., on the 31st ult., four ladies were drowned.

Edward R. Adams killed a man at Rome, Ohio, ten years ago. The crime would probably have been pronounced by a jury manslaughter in a low degree, if there had been a trial, but Adams fled and was not caught. He established himself in business successively at three distant points in the west, under assumed names, but in each instance was frightened away by a glimpse of somebody from Rome. At length he enlisted for five years in the army. His term recently expired, and he returned to his old home, gave himself up, and requested a trial, being convinced that the penalty of his crime could not be worse than to remain a fugitive.

The Sanitarian for August contains much interesting hygienic matter. It opens with a paper on "Out-Door Life," by Charles Denison, M. D. A very timely article is "Effect of Freezing on Yellow-Fever Infection," an official account of the case of the U. S. steamship Plymouth. The excessive virulence of diphtheria is shown in the article, "Diphtheria in Northern Vermont," by E. Harris, M. D. The use of galvanized and zinced pipes for the carriage of drinking-water is considered in "Boards of Health." The Editor's Table is as usual well filled. Under the head of "Yellow-Fever" the editor says: "Again and again the Sanitarian has admonished the advocates of the fresh importation theory that there is no safety in filthy conditions against disease anywhere, and that yellow-fever especially is prone to revel in the filth of hot climates in this country. It is far from affording us any particular satisfaction to adduce such testimony as that which now stares us in the face at Memphis in support of our position, and far rather would we that it were otherwise, but facts are stubborn things, and the admonition should no longer go unheeded." Other articles are of interest and value just now. A. N. Bell, M. D., publisher, New York city.

A few days since a Mr. Crow of Benedicts, Me., hired a Frenchman from Madawaska to help him in haying. After working three or four days he left, and Mr. Crow missed, as he thought, $50 in money. He pursued him and overtook him on his way home, and relieved him of $70 in cash and a new suit of clothes bought with the stolen money, but let the Frenchman go on his way rejoicing to his friends.

Allie Cowger went to hear a lecture on education at Crawfordville, Ind. The speaker said that everything else ought to be sacrificed for the acquirement of knowledge. Allie went home deeply impressed by what she had heard, stole a horse and some money, rode fifty miles to a female seminary, and had bargained for schooling, when a pursuing constable arrived.

One of the most remarkable incidents connected with the recent terrible windstorm in North Carolina was the destruction of the dwelling which Mrs. Adelaide Burton, of Roxabel, occupied. The lady was covered with the debris, and, as supposed, killed. Her body was removed from the timbers and prepared for burial. As the friends were in the act of removing the coffin to the hearse the next day, she revived, raised her head and asked what they meant by their singular proceedings. The sudden revival created great consternation among the large gathering of her friends who were in attendance. Mrs. Burton had remained in a trance for forty-eight hours. She was quite well at last accounts, and was superintending the removal of the debris of her house, preparatory to having a new one erected.

Alexander Brady, believed to be the oldest printer in the country, died at the age of eighty-four years at the residence of his daughter, in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 26th. He was born in New York, and removed to Brooklyn 53 years ago. Mr. Brady served in the war of 1812. For many years he was foreman in the composing-room of the New York Evening Post, when Mr. Logget was editor. About forty-five years ago a strike occurred among the men employed on the Post, and Mr. Brady organized a new force. Horace Greeley, then just from the country, earned his first week's wages in New York in the composing room of the Post under Mr. Brady. For forty years Mr. Brady was connected with the Methodist Book Concern, and up to two years ago he was actively at work. His faculties were unimpaired at the time of his death, his eyesight being so strong that he never used spectacles.

Sarah Bernhardt, the great French actress who has been so popular in London during the past three months, and who is announced as engaged for an extended tour in this country, is the mother of four children though never a wife. This trifling circumstance, however, did not prevent her being cordially received by the aristocracy of London.

It took only four weeks for the Lawrence cashier to use up sixty-four thousand dollars of the bank's money in speculations in California mining stocks. He could hardly have found a more expeditious road to ruin in the grosser forms of gambling.

Charles S. Davis, who assaulted Denis Kearney last April, and forfeited his bail, was re-arrested in San Francisco on the 26th inst.

—The English jockey cap, with its stiff visor, is taking the place of the silk hat so long worn for riding, and ladies have them made from the material of their habit.

—A Connecticut paper prints this astonishing statement: "Friday, one of our selectmen, E. W. Bartlett's oxen, received a severe cut in one of its fore feet, by causing a schthe to fall, which was hanging on a tree under which he was standing."

AROUND HOME.

Republican caucuses to-night, in wards one and two.

Bass fishing on the river is now in the order of sports. On Wednesday of this week there were six parties trying their luck, and several fish were taken; one of the parties is camping out on Fox point.

The amount ordered to be raised by taxation in Portsmouth this year is $135-000; to this ten per cent was added, to allow for draw-backs, making the total tax assessed $148,500. At the close of business on the last day of July the collector had received in round numbers $95,000; and as on all taxes paid on or before that date a discount of six per cent was allowed, the sum collected represents over $100,000 of assessed taxes.

Ginnaire & Clayton's model of New York harbor, showing the lower part of New York city, a portion of Brooklyn and Jersey City, the bridge and the entire harbor with its various islands and fortifications,—with steamers and every kind of sailing craft moving about in all directions on real water,—will exhibit in this city for a short season, commencing on Wednesday of next week. The exhibition will take place in Congress hall

The steamer James Sampson will make moonlight excursions every night for one week, commencing this (Friday) evening, leaving the navy yard landing in this city at 7:25, running as far down as Whale's-back light, and returning by nine o'clock; fare twenty cents for the round trip. Also, short excursions will be made down the harbor every afternoon, leaving the navy yard landing at 2:07 and returning at three o'clock; fare twenty cents. Number of passengers limited to fifty.

The returns to the secretary of the Grand Chapter of Freemasons show that there are in this State ten chapters having one hundred companions or over, Mount Horeb of Manchester leading with 251; then come Belknap of Dover, with 232, and Washington of Portsmouth, with 185. The total membership in the State is 2194, against 2123 in 1878. There are thirteen Past Grand High Priests of the New Hampshire Chapter living, of whom three belong in this city, viz.: Albert R. Hatch, John Christie and John R. Holbrook.

It was called exaggeration when a French paper said: "An empty carriage drove up to the door, and Sarah Bernhardt alighted from it." The new city directory of Portsmouth reports the tenement No. 9 Market street as vacant, and in another place says the editor of the CHRONICLE boards there. We should think nothing of this were we as fragile in appearance as the great French actress is said to be, but we tip the scales lively at a hundred and eighty pounds. No. 9 is not "vacant" when we happen to be at home, that's certain.

Shortly after midnight, on Wednesday of this week, two men drove down Pleasant street in a wagon, the horse being on a run and the men yelling and urging the animal on. Some distance down the street was an excavation extending perhaps half way across the street, and as it would require decently steady driving to pass it without going into the ditch on one side or hitting the lamp post on the other, in which latter case the occupants of the wagon would probably have gone into the ditch just the same, we confidently expected a good item. As it didn't come, we presume there was no smash-up, and that the team passed the strait in safety.

Mr. Woodbury Locke lost a good horse this week. The animal had been let to go to York, and on Wednesday the owner was notified that he had injured one of his ankles so badly as to be disabled. A jigger and four or five men were sent to York and the injured horse brought to his stable, where the ambulance party arrived at two o'clock Thursday morning, when Mr. Locke saw at a glance that the animal's leg was hopelessly broken, and ordered him to be killed at once.

Gov. Head will visit this city in a few days for the purpose of ascertaining what repairs and alterations are needed on the old arsenal at the south end.

About forty pieces of property have been sold at auction recently by the city collector for non-payment of taxes, nearly all being bid off by the city clerk as agent of the municipality.

The Hanover street school house is receiving a much-needed renovation during the vacation. The ceilings of the several rooms have been whitened, the walls and blackboards painted and the desks and wainscoting varnished, and the yard fence is being put in thorough repair.

Mr. B. F. Webster is putting up a large and costly house on the top of "Rundlett's mountain," as a residence for himself, we believe. Judging from the frame it will be a very handsome structure when finished, and worthy of its site, which is one of the most sightly spots in the city.

For years there has been trouble with the sewer at the junction of Congress and Vaughan streets, owing to the Congress street sewer at its outlet being lower than the one on Vaughan street into which it discharges. A gang of men have for several days been at work to remedy this evil, and a decided improvement will result.

Mrs. Lucy S. Goodwin, of Chelsea, Mass., wife of Dr. B. S. Goodwin, died on Tuesday, July 29th, after a long and painful illness from cancer in the stomach. Mrs. Goodwin was born in York, Me., in the year 1819, and was the daughter of the late Arthur Witham. Her remains were taken to York for interment.

The schooner Planet started out on a pleasure excursion on Tuesday of this week, and made a good thing of it, as every day she brought in big fares of mackerel. On Thursday she made two trips, and landed six thousand mackerel. Her crew consists of Capt. Norton, of Newburyport, and the men employed by Mr. Levi Downs.

The Catholics of Dover had a picnic on the 29th ult., for the benefit of their church, the total proceeds being about $1300. A gold watch and chain, presented to the young lady who raised the largest sum by sale of votes prior to and on the day of the picnic, was secured by Sarah Carbury, who turned in $252.20, the total amount received from the watch being $825.80.

The Concord railroad in May last put in position at the station in this city a new railroad scale of Fairbanks' latest patent, the works of which are overhead instead of beneath the platform, as in the old styles. The capacity of the scale is forty tons—sufficient to weigh any car likely to be loaded or received here. A neat wooden building with corrugated iron roof has recently been erected over the scale.

The number of private picnics this season is greater than we ever knew of before; hardly a day passes but a half-dozen or more parties—large enough to be called picnic parties—are in the woods or at the seashore, and the big teams are doing very well. Portsmouth Grange had a field meeting and basket picnic at the Hayes farm at the Plains on Wednesday afternoon of this week, by invitation of Mr. Charles H. Hayes, master of the grange; the attendance was numerous, and the social good time usual at the grange gatherings was enjoyed.

The proposed erection of a public fountain on Haymarket square by the high school class of '79 is we hear abandoned, owing to the refusal of the aqueduct company to furnish water for it. We have heard several persons suggest that the fountain would be more appropriate as a memorial if put up in the yard of the high school, or its immediate vicinity, rather than on Haymarket square; but a fountain without water wouldn't be of much use anywhere, as has been shown at different times by the city fountains in front of the post-office and on Congress street.

Thursday morning at about one o'clock a young man came into our office and wanted to know if we had seen his cow! He said the old critter had been driven into town from pasture Wednesday evening, but had disappeared before the boy having charge of her could drive her to her barn. We told him his cow had not been in our office, nor we out of it, during the evening, so we hadn't seen her. Just then a melodious bellow came in through the windows, evidently from a neighboring street, and our visitor exclaimed "That's she—hear her sing," and darted out. He came back about an hour later and reported everything all right—the derelict cow at her moorings and a bucket of milk in the refrigerator, to astonish the women folks in the morning. A newspaper office is the place to go to when you have lost anything, whether a cow or a pocket-book; if the article is to be found, that's the way to find it.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

A quorum not appearing up to nine o'clock, the mayor and four aldermen adjourned themselves; without having transacted any other business than the making of informal but earnest speeches regarding the absentees.

BASE BALL.

A game of base ball was played at the Plains on Thursday afternoon, between the Farragut nine of Rye beach and the Rockingham nine of this city. The day was especially fine, and a large audience from the beach houses and from this city was present to encourage the players. During the early part of the game the playing was quite interesting, very few errors being made by either side; but it soon became evident which was the stronger side, when the playing by the Rockinghams became decidedly loose. The success of the Rockinghams was due wholly to the excellent pitching and catching of Messrs. Folsom and Byington, of Exeter, who volunteered their services for the game. The following is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Farragats	0	0	1	0	2	0	2	4	1	—10
Rockinghams	3	2	5	4	1	0	0	3	2	—20

GREENBACK PRONUNCIAMENTO.

The following resolutions were adopted at the caucus of the greenback party Wednesday evening.

Whereas, By the infamous legislation of the Congress of the United States, a large amount of the property of our citizens is exempted from all taxation, thereby placing the burden of supporting the State, county and municipal administrations upon citizens who have not the good fortune of having their property invested in United States bonds, and by reason of legislation still more infamous to meet this unjust and unequal system of taxation, three times the number of days' labor and three times the amount of sales of merchandise and of the products of the farm are now required than between the years 1865 and 1873; and

Whereas, The existing government of this city now soliciting a re-election, as appears by its last official report has taken no steps whatever towards retrenchment in the expenditures of the people's money, but on the contrary has been as extravagant as any of its predecessors, even in the best of times. It has maintained the war salaries of its numerous officials; it has laid out and accepted streets and highways of doubtful utility and of expensive construction; it has purchased at an extraordinary price an extensive tract of salt water, and destroyed the mill thereon, the rental of which would more than have paid the interest on the purchase money; it has kept a large number of idle men on our streets, apparently for no other reason than to secure their votes, and has generally endeavored in every way possible to ape and imitate the expensive municipal governments of our large cities; therefore

Resolved, That the candidates in this caucus nominated are hereby solemnly pledged, if elected, to inaugurate an immediate and rigid retrenchment in the administration of their public duties, that in the public expenditures there shall be the following reductions:

	Instead of	Shall be

Lively Stock Operations.

The current of recent events has given great impetus to business in Wall street, and many successful turns are reported where immense profits are made in short periods. The most successful way that we have heard of yet for operating in stocks is by the Combination Method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y. By this system thousands of orders in various sums are pooled into one vast capital and operated under the most experienced and skillful management, thus securing to each shareholder superior advantages and profits, not possible in any other way. Profits are paid at the end of thirty days. A gentleman in Boston made $737.20 on an investment of $100. Many others are doing as well or better. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with equal proportionate success by this Combination or Co-operative Method. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent on the stock; $100 would return $900, or 9 per cent. during the month, and so on according to the market. The new circular contains "two unerring rules for success" and full information, so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 59 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

However quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, by the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites, he must abolish the habits of life which induced the disease; the effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can only be transitory, whilst man persists in the gratification of vicious or pernicious habits.

New Hampshire Gazette!

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow-blotchy spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated Feeling about the Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried high up and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

Cuticura

Scrofulous Ulcers and Sores, Abscesses, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, Erysipelas Sores, Old Sores and Discharging Wounds, Boils, Carbuncles and Blood Impurities, which manifest themselves by bursting through the skin and eating deep into the flesh, when treated internally by the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and externally with the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, rapidly heal and disappear. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Leprosy, Barber's Itch and all Scaly and Itching Eruptions of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Irritating and Itching Humors of the Scalp, which cause the Hair to become dry, thin, and lifeless and result in Premature Baldness, are permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SKIN DISEASE.

A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq., manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.

Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm. Corbett induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.

Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.

I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin disease, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century.

J. A. TUCKER.

13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 20, 1878.

NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well-known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.

CUTICURA REMEDIES

Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.

Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.

CARRODALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.

Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathsome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.

Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2350 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 60 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.60 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of CAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCracken Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1875, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase such a mill forthwith, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30th.

The reports coming from Ohio to the effect that Hon. H. B. Payne and certain other leading democrats have joined the Honest Money League of the Northwest is doubtless true. But I do not put faith in the further report that they will join the republican party, or even openly oppose the election of Mr. Ewing because he is a greenbacker. It is barely possible that a few may abstain from taking active part in the campaign because their views have not been considered as they think they should have been. There is probably no mistaking the democracy of Mr. Payne and his friends, and they will probably stick to their party through greater reverses than the temporary control of the greenback element implies. But there is significance in the movement towards strengthening the Honest Money League, which was organized on an non-partisan basis, from the ranks of the democratic party. It seems that the drift is towards honest and stable finance; that all parties are divided on the money question, and that men of all parties who think alike in reference to the policy to be pursued must act together in matters of national concern. Thus while men like Mr. Payne will stay with their party in all local elections, in elections pertaining to national affairs they will either control the nominations of the party or unite with others in securing members of Congress who will sustain the policy. The movement spoken of above, therefore, has no reference to present partisan politics, but it may have a great bearing upon the important elections of next year. I cannot be far out of the way in saying that the tendency of the times in politics is towards the maintenance of a financial policy which will ensure stability and the continued improvement of all industrial interests.

The information about trade and the crops received here from all parts of the country, both private and official, is very encouraging. Throughout the north and west this is especially true, and in most parts of the south it holds good. In the section just south of here the unfortunate drouth has decreased the crops and may induce some suffering, but everywhere else abundant crops will further improve the state of prosperity already set in for a permanency. With these conditions emigration has been larger than common this summer, and the western States and Territories will receive great accessions to their population, both from the eastern States and abroad. Canada is contributing a large share of emigrants. It is estimated that the population of Colorado will be doubled this year, and Kansas is filling up more rapidly than ever before. Colorado claims that from the present basis of representation it will have four members of Congress after 1880, and Kansas expects seven. Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska are also growing rapidly, while on the line of the Northern Pacific railroad in Dakota the growth is almost equal to that in Kansas. Dakota will have to be admitted as a State shortly. The star of the empire is indeed asserting itself.

The topic of most interest here just now is the yellow fever. We have one well defined case, and the health officer urges that every precaution be taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The fever has never appeared here to such an extent as in cities further south. In fact, Washington can justly claim to be a very healthy city. Among its white population the death rate is, I believe, less than in any other city of its size in the United States. The rate among the colored people is here, as in other large places, twice as high as among the whites.

Lively Stock Operations.

The current of recent events has given great impetus to business in Wall street, and many successful turns are reported where immense profits are made in short periods. The most successful way that we have heard of yet for operating in stocks is by the Combination Method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y. By this system thousands of orders in various sums are pooled into one vast capital and operated under the most experienced and skillful management, thus securing to each shareholder superior advantages and profits, not possible in any other way. Profits are paid at the end of thirty days. A gentleman in Boston made $737.20 on an investment of $100. Many others are doing as well or better. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with equal proportionate success by this Combination or Co-operative Method. $15 would make $75, or 5 per cent on the stock; $100 would return $900, or 9 per cent. during the month, and so on according to the market. The new circular contains "two unerring rules for success" and full information, so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 59 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

The Political Atmosphere.

It is a curious feature in our national politics that we spend a great deal of time in speculating upon the question who is to be our next President. The term of four years is so brief that a newly-elected chief magistrate has hardly taken his seat before the politicians begin in earnest to talk about his successor. A great many thoughtful people are every year giving in their adherence to the plan of lengthening the term of the presidency, whether the incumbent be, or be not re-eligible to office.

But a more noticeable fact just at this time in our politics is the almost complete subsidence of the tide of discussion upon the Presidential candidacy. This is one of the signs of midsummer. In the spring candidates were talked about to the fullest extent; the interviewer was abroad, and what with Tilden on one side, and Grant on the other, the readers of the public press were kept in a perpetual ferment; and the foreigner who looked over the papers would very naturally conclude that the election was thereupon close at hand.

But hot weather has its effects. A man full of perspiration, with a fan at work to get a little whiff of a breeze, doesn't feel inclined to grow excited over a campaign a twelfth-month off. He prefers to subside a while, and take things coolly. So whereas the papers were full of valuable and wise information three months ago about "favorite sons" and "that bar'l of money" and "Sherman's fences," we are now treated to a welcome respite. Even Ben Butler's programme to appropriate the Massachusetts governorship does not seem to create much more than a ripple of disturbance.

Politics are talked over somewhat at watering places, and the village statesman leans over the fence, and "saves the country" when he ought to be freeing his mind upon the subject of the crops. But as a general thing farmers and workingmen alike are enjoying a season of quiet before the lively season begins. Our friends over in Maine are warming up a little, and the greenbackers here in Portsmouth are saying terrible things of our city government, but the "indications" for the next few weeks in the political skies point to settled weather. Look out for squalls though, before long.

The Yellow Fever.

Nine new cases, four of them colored persons, and four deaths, were reported at Memphis on the 31st ult. The wife of the Memphis chief of police had been taken down with the disease at Raleigh, Tenn., and his daughter, previously reported ill, was dying.

The New Orleans board of health on the 31st adopted resolutions deprecating the stringent quarantine adopted against that city by other places, declaring that no cause for it exists, and that there is no fear of an epidemic in New Orleans.

The ship Templar has arrived at San Francisco from New York, having lost the captain's wife and twelve of the crew from yellow fever, contracted at Rio Janeiro, where the ship put in for repairs.

Naval Matters.

Lieut. Comdr. Theodore T. Jewell is ordered to the Constitution as executive officer.

The U. S. S. Wachusett left New Orleans on Wednesday, July 30th, for Key West.

In a despatch dated July 17th, on board his flagship, the Trenton, at Flushing, Holland, Rear Admiral Howell reports that while at Antwerp the Trenton was an object of great curiosity to the people, and was crowded with visitors. The Alliance sailed from Southampton on the 8th of July, and anchored at Antwerp on the 9th. She was to sail for Copenhagen about the 20th of July. The Enterprise arrived at Copenhagen from Christiana on the 4th of July, and after a stay of six days sailed for Cronstadt. The Quinnebaug, at latest advices, was still at Constantinople. Commander Farquhar reports a delay in obtaining the firman to make a cruise in the Black sea. The Wyoming has been ordered to continue her cruise in eastern waters. The health of the squadron continued excellent.

News and Notes.

Weston and Rowell are to tramp it in New York for the Astley belt, commencing September 1st.

Fanny Davenport, the actress, was married on the evening of the 31st ult. to Mr. Edward Price of New York, at Canton, Pa.

Five of the government bonds stolen from the Manhattan bank, of New York, have reached the treasury department at Washington and been refused redemption. The figures thereon had been most skillfully altered, and it is believed that all the bonds stolen from that bank have been negotiated by the robbers.

A row-boat with a pleasure party of five persons was run into by schooner Hayes on Thursday last, in the Raritan river, near New Brunswick, N. J., and capsized. Two ladies were drowned.

Lorillard's horse Parole was third in the race for the Goodwood cup at Epsom, England, July 31st, Isonomy being first and The Bear second.

In a fire at Battle Creek, Mich., on the 31st ult., a woman and her infant child perished in the flames, while two other children were so badly injured that they are not expected to live.

The American Society of Hibernians of Peabody, Mass., held a picnic at South Lawrence on the 31st ult., and there was a scene of the most disgraceful drunkenness and rowdyism.

Irish bids fair to be put upon the list with the "dead" languages. In a paper recently read before the London Statistical society, it was stated that in 1871 the area in which Irish was spoken had decreased from 10,000 square miles in 1851 to 6000, while the number of people speaking it had decreased during the same twenty years from 1,500,000 to 600,000, of whom less than 400,000 spoke Irish only. It is also said that throughout Ireland there are now probably not 5000 persons who can read an Irish book, and not a single Irish paper is being published in the country.

New Hampshire Items.

In Alstead, on the afternoon of the 30th ult., two barns and a shed on a farm occupied by Albert French were burned by lightning, with twenty tons of hay, three calves, farming tools, etc.

The steam mill of David Whiting & Sons, at Wilton, was damaged to the amount of $1000 by fire and water, on the afternoon of July 30th. Insured.

Considerable feeling has been excited in the interior of the State through the closing of the fishway at Amoskeag falls, as is reported by authority of one of the fish commissioners. It is said that large numbers of salmon are seen below the falls, seeking to go up the river, but unable to do so on account of the closing of the fishway. A petition is in circulation at Manchester asking the removal of the commissioner responsible for the closing of the way.

Political.

Senator Blaine has sent assurance to the Ohio republican committee that he will spend one week in Ohio after the Maine canvass closes.

John Kelly, the grand sachem of Tammany, in an interview, says that Tammany is unmistakably opposed to Tilden and Robinson, and that if the democratic State convention nominates Robinson for governor, the Tammanyites will not vote at all, thus throwing the State into the hands of the republicans beyond a hope. Gov. Robinson says he does not seek a renomination, but is in the hands of the people. He is in the hands of Tilden, rather, and Tilden has decided that Robinson shall be renominated; and Tammany will support him, too, after he is nominated, notwithstanding Boss Kelly's bold talk.

A special correspondent of the Boston Post writes to that paper from Washington a column and a half about Ben Butler's career as a demagogue and an opponent of the democratic party and principles. Ben will have the support of the great body of the Massachusetts democracy, for all that.

The Lewiston Gazette quotes Mr. Sherman, s description of the legal-tender notes in 1852, as "stamped with the same national sanction as that with which we stamp our gold and silver coin," and wants to know if this is not the fiat doctrine pure and simple. It sounds like it, indeed; but Mr. Sherman said, in the same debate, "I agree that this measure can only be justified on the ground of necessity. The senator from Vermont (Mr. Collamer), whose opinion is certainly entitled to the highest consideration and who supports it by an able argument, contends that this measure is unconstitutional. I confess, if I did not feel its necessity, I would shield myself behind his conviction and vote against it." This is not the fiat doctrine; and we have here a new illustration of the injustice of picking a sentence, or a piece of a sentence, out of a speech or series of speeches, to represent the opinion of a public man upon a question like this. His utterances must be construed together; and it is to his credit that in making up his volume of speeches on finance and taxation, Mr. Sherman has not undertaken to revise them, but has allowed them to stand as they were delivered, trusting them, as a whole, to the just judgment of his countrymen.—Portland Advertiser.

Greenback Management in Maine.

The Honest Truth, a republican campaign paper published at Augusta, Me., is doing work in the interests of honesty and good government. The following is one of the unpleasant things it says to the greenbackers of Maine:

Greenback papers are claiming great credit for the reduction of State expenditures by the last legislature. Why then is not the State tax decreased? It is not one dollar less than it was under Governor Connor, and every one knows that the present State government was helped in its finances by a railroad tax of $50,000, collected from the railroads of the State by the republican State government just at the close of Governor Connor's administration. All this large sum went to the aid of the present year's finances, and as no tax will be collected from the railroads this year, Gov. Garcelon's administration will close with a deficiency, leaving the administration of Governor Daniel F. Davis to begin anew the work of properly adjusting the finances of the State. Meanwhile do not forget that the last legislature did not reduce the State tax one single mill, and that they are inevitably destined to close the present year with a large deficiency!

—Bald-headed men have at last found a champion in the person of the inventor of the patent fly-disperser. It consists of a wire frame made to fit the head of any person. Inside the frame is a set of wheels and springs similar to those in a clock; then there are five fans which, when set at work, revolve rapidly, not only causing a cool breeze, but driving away the flies.

—A store was broken into one night, but, strange to say, nothing was carried off. The proprietor was making his boast of it, at the same time expressing his suprise at losing nothing. "Not at all surprising," said his neighbor. "The robbers lighted a lamp, didn't they?" "Yes," was the reply. "Well," continued the neighbor, "they found your goods marked up so high that they couldn't afford to take them."

—The Boston girl who visited her aunt in San Francisco, and soon after eloped with a waiter, left a note behind in which she said: "Don't worry; we shall be married before you get this, and as —— is from as nice a family as I, if he has been a waiter, it will come out all right. He graduated at Yale college, but his father lost his wealth and became very poor. He could find nothing else to do just then, so accepted the first thing that offered; but he has a promise of something better now. So forgive us and write mamma, and let there be as few comments made as possible."

—Thrift is one of the Iowa virtues. A Davenport clergyman was called upon to marry a couple one night last week. They were nicely dressed, in their twenties and evidently well to do. After the ceremony had been performed the groom thrust his hand in his pocket and fished out three quarters, which he held in the palm of his hand, saying to the minister, "There, take your pay from that!" "Let us see," mused the minister, "the publishing of the marriage notice will cost half a dollar!" "O, will it?" replied the groom; "well, then, take the whole of it! It ain't much matter, anyway!"

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 2, 2 A.M.

Warmer southerly to westerly winds, partly cloudy weather, and stationary or slowly falling barometer.

AROUND HOME.

At a meeting of the governor and council, Thursday, Ellery A. Hibbard of Laconia and Dr. Jeremiah F. Hall of this city were appointed trustees of the State asylum for the insane.

It was Truman Sanborn who was nominated by the greenbackers for overseer of the poor in ward two, and not Freeman Sanborn. Mr. Freeman F. Sanborn is not a greenbacker, but a republican.

The hull—or what is left of it—of the schooner M. E. Eldredge, formerly of this port, but sold some months ago after being burned to the water's edge near Provincetown, Mass., arrived at Boston from that port on Friday in tow of tug Woolley.

By a postal card from Manchester we are informed that "the name of the new steam fire engine for Portsmouth is 'Col. Sise,' her motto 'We'll try,' and her number 'No. 2.'" From this we infer that the new machine is to take the place of the old Sagamore, which we think is proper.

The printing establishment of L. N. Fredericks at Dover was burned Friday morning. Loss on machinery, $5000; insurance $3300. The building was owned by David Lawrence. Loss $500; insured. Fredericks was in the employ of D. Lothrop & Co., whose loss is about $300, with no insurance. Kinnear's livery stable was slightly damaged, but the loss is covered by insurance.

Hosea B. Carter has our thanks for a copy of the "New Hampshire Official Succession for Two Centuries," published by the Globe Printing House, East Hampstead. This is an invaluable little book for reference, containing, as it does, lists of the State, county and town officers, the post-offices, legislature for 1879-80, with complete lists of the governors, justices, attorney-generals, representatives and senators to Congress, officers of the legislature, etc., during the State's existence. It contains also a political map of the State.

We are informed by Mr. Anderson, of the firm of Anderson & Junkins, carpenters and builders, that the statement published in the local papers that they are to build a house on the site of the Bowles cottage, on Middle street, is incorrect. Mr. Junkins has purchased the lot, and at some future time proposes to erect on it a dwelling for himself. Messrs. Anderson & Junkins have contracted to build the large new residence for Mr. John Sise, on Court street, and being competent workmen, as other work done by them shows, will no doubt do the job in a manner creditable to themselves and satisfactory to Mr. Sise.

By the new apportionment of taxes, Portsmouth's share has been reduced from $50.65 to $41 on each $1,000 of the State tax for the next four years. The State tax payable by this city will, for the next two years, be $16,400, instead of $20,260, as it has been for several years post. The proportion of Greenland has been reduced thirty-seven cents, Newcastle five cents, Newington eleven cents, Rye (including Gosport) thirty-five cents, Hampton three cents, Hampton Falls ten cents, and Seabrook nine cents. The proportion of Stratham has been increased thirteen cents, Exeter eighty-seven cents, and North Hampton seventeen cents.

On Tuesday night of this week, at Dover, a young man named Frank Smith, a worthless, drunken fellow whose wife some time ago left him and sought a home with her father, Mr. Oliver E. Webster, went to Mr. Webster's house and created a disturbance, for which he was arrested on Wednesday and bound over in $200 to keep the peace, a friend becoming surety for him. Wednesday evening Smith again went to Webster's house and assaulted his wife, threatening to cut off her head; he caught her and threw her down, but was prevented from injuring her seriously by Mr. John Bray, who was in turn assaulted by Smith for interfering. On Thursday Smith was before the police court on three charges—assault on Mr. Bray, aggravated assault on Emma Smith, and forgery, the latter charge being based on the following action of Smith's: His wife, receiving no support from him, went to work in the shoe factory of Strong, Burt & Moore to earn her own living; but recently, about the time her monthly wages became due, Smith went with a written order purporting to be signed by his wife, and collected all the money then due her, the signature to the order being forged. In default of bonds of $1000 on the several complaints against him, Smith went to jail, and will no doubt go from there to State prison, where he belongs.

In addition to the burglaries and attempted burglaries in Greenland already made public, the Greenland correspondent of the News-Letter reports the following: On the 25th ult., in the forenoon, Prince Dawson's house, which is situated in a somewhat lonesome spot on Newington road, was entered and a hatchet and a pair of mittens were taken. All the cooked victuals in the house were eaten by the thieves, and some of the dishes were left broken. Fortunately for Dawson a trunk, containing together with other things about $5 in money, was overlooked. An attempt was also made to break into the dwelling of Mrs. M. J. Avery, and the residence of the widow of the late Gen. T. A. Burleigh. One night early in the previous week the house of Hall C. Jackson was broken into and goods to the amount of $15 stolen.

On Monday evening of this week a double-scull race in sfiell boats took place on the river between Dennis J. Lynch and Walter Costello, and Nicholas Zambelli and Daniel Hurley. The race was from Portsmouth bridge to the stone beacon and return, Messrs. Lynch and Costello winning.

George O. Paul, Esq., treasurer of the town of South Newmarket, paid the county tax of the town on Wednesday of last week, South Newmarket being the first town in the county to pay in full.

FIRE AT THE ALMSHOUSE.

About three o'clock, Friday morning, some of the occupants of the second floor of the almshouse were awakened by smoke, which rapidly increased in volume. Their cries of "fire" aroused Mr. Shannon, who quickly traced the smoke to a room occupied by Isette Spinney, an insane woman about sixty-eight years old, and it was found that she had ripped open her feather bed, and placed the feathers from it, with birch bark, clothing and other articles on a box in one corner of her room, and set them on fire. By hard work the flames were soon extinguished, though had the alarm been delayed a few minutes longer the building would probably have been destroyed, and very likely some of the inmates would have lost their lives. The fire had caught the moulding at the top of the room, followed it around, and scorched the woodwork outside. Miss Spinney was found in a nude condition, badly burned about the head, chest, stomach and arms, and nearly suffocated; the poor creature was kindly cared for by the matron, Mrs. Shannon, and though suffering considerably is not reported as dangerously injured. She says the spirits prompted her to burn herself to death, which was why she started the fire. She has always been closely watched, but by some means had managed to secure two bunches of matches, which she secreted in the bottom of her trunk until ready to set the fire.

THAT PRONUNCIAMENTO.

Mr. Editor: The greenback pronunciamento published in the CHRONICLE of Friday, while full of hackneyed buncombe, gives a list of proposed municipal expenses which is worthy some attention. The item of street expenditures is reduced seventy per cent! a retrenchment that causes the footing of their list to look well—but how would their streets look at the close of a year of greenback administration, with $6500 laid out upon them under the supervision of a street commissioner whom they propose to pay $400 per annum, or $1.25 per day? There is no doubt that quite a saving could be effected on our streets, but when a person or a party talks about a saving of seventy per cent it is simply nonsense. The proposed reduction of the contingent appropriation from about $8000 to $2000, is equally absurd; altho' that a saving of $1000, or fifteen per cent, could be made, we have not the least doubt. The salary reduction is suggestive, especially if the officials are to be paid in fiat money. Cut a man down to $400 per annum, and when he calls for his pay give him a piece of paper (that is worth no more than any slip of paper of equal size and quality) and tell him he is paid, and that settles it. Leaving the fiat part out of the discussion, and we have left simply a crowd of clamorous hungerers for the municipal treasury chest, who would make no better showing than is now made at the end of one year of their administration, as the records of 1876 will show. For we recognize the familiar democratic whine behind this sham curtain of greenbackism.

A POLL TAXPAYER.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

The republicans of ward one met in the ward room on Elm street, Friday evening, and nominated candidates as follows:

Aldermen—Floron Barri, William F. Noyes, Charles A. Shannon;

Councilmen—Ira W. Brock, Frank G. Thurston, James E. Dixon, Freeman R. Garrett, William H. Gardner, Nicholas P. Bryant;

Assessors of Taxes—George W. Pendexter, Joseph H. Berry, George T. Vaughan;

Overseer of the Poor—William H. Smith.

The republican caucus of ward two was held at the court house on Friday evening, and the following nominations made by acclamation:

Aldermen—William A. Hodgdon, John Laighton;

Councilmen—John S. Tilton, Warren P. Webster, Charles Manent, John M. Clark, Albert A. Gurney, Benjamin Plumer;

Assessors—Lewis G. Davis, Ebenezer F. Brackett, Rufus K. Oxford;

Overseer of the Poor—Sam'l S. Green.

The caucus balloted for a third candidate for alderman with the following result:

Whole number of votes	141
Necessary for a choice	72
Blanks	2
Daniel L. Kendall	1
Samuel H. Kingsbury	3
Plumer D. Norton	2
James Moses	22
Jeremiah F. Hall	112

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

The democratic nominations in ward three were made Friday evening, as follows:

Alderman—Jeremiah Sanborn;

Councilmen—George Bilbruck, Winthrop Hoyt;

Assessor—Justin V. Hanscom;

Overseer of the Poor—William H. Canty.

Truth is Mighty.

As the little leaven hid in the measure of meal, made all leaven, so truth gradually overcomes all doubt and disbelief. When Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., announced that his Favorite Prescription would positively cure the many diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, some doubted, nd continued to employ the harsh and caustic local treatment. But the mighty truth gradually became acknowledged. Thousands of ladies who had uselessly undergone untold tortures at the hands of different physicians, employed the Favorite Prescription, and were speedily cured. Many physicians now prescribe it in their practice. So sanguine is Dr. Pierce of its power to cure, that he now sells it through druggists under a positive guarantee.

However quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, by the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites, he must abolish the habits of life which induced the disease; the effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can only be transitory, whilst man persists in the gratification of vicious or pernicious habits.

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases arising from bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulceration, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS

Scrofulous Ulcers and Sores, Abscesses, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, Erysipelas Sores, Old Sores and Discharging Wounds, Boils, Carbuncles and Blood Impurities, which manifest themselves by bursting through the skin and eating deep into the flesh, when treated internally by the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and externally with the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, rapidly heal and disappear. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Leprosy, Barber's Itch and all Scaly and Itching Eruptions of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Irritating and Itching Humors of the Scalp, which cause the Hair to become dry, thin, and lifeless and result in Premature Baldness, are permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SKIN DISEASE.

A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq., manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.

Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm. Corbett induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what the remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.

Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.

I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin diseases, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century.

J. A. TUCKER.

13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 29, 1878.

NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well-known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.

CUTICURA REMEDIES

Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.

Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.

CARBONDALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.

Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathsome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.

Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

warranted, on the reputation of Dr. Collins, its inventor, an old physician, to be the best plaster in the world of medicine. The union of the two great medicaments, viz., Electricity and Medical Gums and Essences, fully justifies the claim, and entitles this remedy to the foremost among all curative compounds for all Internal Aches and Pains and Chronic Ailments.

Price, 25 Cents.

Be careful to call for COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER, as you get none worthless imitation. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.00 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "Mutchenka Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six hundred and seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock made to the order of HOBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by Express, C. O. D., to

PROMINENT WOMEN OF NEW YORK.

One of the most remarkable women of the city is Miss Mattie Morgan, who does the singular work of reporting the cattle market for the Times and other leading papers. This is work from which by reason of the constant exposure, and other disagreeablenesses required, the majority of male reporters shrink; yet Miss Morgan performs it daily and does it better than her competitors of the stronger sex. Then again she goes as a paid emissary to the races at Saratoga and elsewhere, writing descriptions for influential papers which gladly employ so able a correspondent. For her duties in the city, she arrays herself in appropriate attire. A short skirt (short here has a real significance, and means a length reaching not below the ankles) of dark, durable material, devoid of feminine nonsense of any kind, a sacque, plain, dark hat with sometimes a veil, and you have her ordinary outfit. Note book in hand she looks the thorough business woman, and the thorough business woman she is, for she fairly beats the men on their own ground, doing work specially adapted to them, so much more intelligently that they are completely distanced. Yet Miss Morgan was bred a lady, and in the evening when her day's work is ended, she is gladly welcomed by a limited circle of refined families to whom she brought letters of introduction, on her coming here some years ago, and who value her companionship, listening with pleasure to her conversation varied by experience of the world combined with native wit. She is of Irish extraction. During her father's life-time her chief amusement was to follow the hounds in those spirited chases, some idea of which may be derived from Scott's account of the exploits of Diana Vernon. After her father's death, the property devolved upon the eldest son, and refusing to lead a life of dependant idleness, Miss Morgan came to New York to try her fortune, bringing letters of introduction to some of the best families. Previously, however, so great is her knowledge of horses, she had been employed by Victor Emanuel, King of Italy, to choose some of his most valued hunters, and so well did she execute the commission that some handsome decorations were bestowed by her royal employer, to say nothing of an elegant watch and chain presented as a mark of his especial esteem. These of course she preserves with care, regarding them as some of her most precious possessions. Yet strange to say Miss Morgan expresses herself emphatically as "down on women's rights," thus being all the more singular as she herself is a striking illustration of the fact that a woman may enter successfully a field of labor hitherto monopolized by men, and drive them out by her superior qualifications for the work.

Another remarkable woman living here is Miss Susan King, who starting in life with a fortune consisting of a round 0, has by intelligent speculations in real estate amassed a large fortune, which she liberally dispenses for the advancement of relations not so fortunate herself. Then as a shining light stands forth Dr. Mary Putman Jacobi, whose ideas in medicine are gladly listened to by the most eminent physicians of this place. Everybody has heard of the Drs. Elizabeth and Emily Blackwell, and of all three of these distinguished women I may send you some future anecdotes and personal description. LUCY CARTER.

NEW YORK, July 31st.

Truth is Mighty.

As the little leaven hid in the measure of meal, made all leaven, so truth gradually overcomes all doubt and disbelief. When Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., announced that his Favorite Prescription would positively cure the many diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, some doubted, and continued to employ the harsh and caustic local treatment. But the mighty truth gradually became acknowledged. Thousands of ladies who had uselessly undergone untold tortures at the hands of different physicians, employed the Favorite Prescription, and were speedily cured. Many physicians now prescribe it in their practice. So sanguine is Dr. Pierce of its power to cure, that he now sells it through druggists under a positive guarantee.

The Way Vanderbilt Succeeded.

When Commodore Vanderbilt was running steamboats, he beat all rivals by crowding on steam to the utmost, and even running down his enemy if necessary, to accomplish a triumph. When he went into railroading, he adopted a much shrewder and more successful way, by uniting vast lines and their tributaries under his own management, thus capturing all rivals, by sharing with them the immense pool of profits that were made by his skillful manipulation. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., accom-plisa a much greater success in stock operations by their new Combination Method of dealing. By this system the orders of thousands of customers are pooled into one vast sum and co-operated under the most experienced management, thus giving to each shareholder all the benefits of large capital and best skill. Profits divided monthly. Any amount from $5 to $25,000 can be used with great success. $15 will make $75 profit. $80 would return $720 or nine per cent on the stock during the month, according to the market. The new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success" and full explanations, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. city.

Portsmouth Chronicle

MONDAY, AUGUST 4, 1879.

He Spoke Too Soon.

Mr. Finley, a South Carolinian who publicly boasted of his rebel sentiments upon the recent announcement of his designation for examination as a second lieutenant in the army, has become alarmed at the feeling aroused among the loyal element in Washington, and has caused several democratic senators and representatives to intercede in his behalf with the President and prevent a revocation of his appointment. Senator Lamar made a strong appeal to the President on Saturday in behalf of Mr. Finley, alleging that the remark attributed to him was made in jest, and that Mr. Finley is thoroughly loyal to the country. The President will take no action, pending an investigation ordered into the facts by Secretary McCrary. The time has not yet quite arrived when disloyalty to the Union, and devotion to the "lost cause," are all that is required to secure an appointment in the national army, though nothing else is demanded in applicants for offices in the gift of the Senate and House of Representatives.

The Yellow Fever.

Thirteen new cases in the city, and four just outside its limits, were reported at Memphis on the 1st inst., and three deaths. Among the new cases are two Catholic clergyman.

Two new cases and one death were reported in New Orleans on the 1st.

Two seamen, both belonging to Havana steamers, were sent to the New York quarantine hospital on the 1st inst., with yellow fever; and the Spanish barque Antonio Sala, which arrived at New York a month ago from Havana, was on the 1st sent back to quarantine, two of the crew having died of the fever.

It is reported by private despatches, that notwithstanding the denial of the board of health in Mobile, there are a dozen cases of yellow fever in that city.

"Told You So."

The Boston Post says: "It is ascertained beyond a doubt that the late reduction of eight cents per pound in the tax on manufactured tobacco, which went into effect on the 1st of May last, has failed to materially benefit either consumers or the trade, while it has reduced the national revenue derived from this source at the rate of $4,000,000 per annum. It has not stimulated or increased the consumption of the article to any perceptible extent, because the actual consumer gets but little more for his money than under the former tax of twenty-four cents per pound. Whatever benefit has accrued from this reduction has been gained at the other end of the line, by the tobacco planters, who now get a higher price for their crop. But so far as manufacturers are concerned, the government concession is nearly offset by the enhanced cost of the raw material." Well, that is just what the republican opponents of the reduction of the tax said its effect would be—to put money in the pockets of the tobacco planters of the south, at the expense of the whole Union. But the reduction was demanded by the "solid south," so of course the Confederate Congress granted it, just as it granted full protection to southern illicit distillers and other raiders on the revenue, by refusing to appropriate money to pay officials for enforcing the revenue laws.

News and Notes.

Rev. W. H. H. Murray is reported as being financially swamped by his connection with the buckboard wagon manufactory at New Haven, Conn. His stock in the company, amounting nominally to $40,000, and the high-bred horses on his stock farm at Gilford, Conn., have been attached, and the farm would be too but that it is too heavily morgaged to make an attachment worth while.

Another Arctic exploring expedition is to be fitted out in England, by private enterprise.

Mrs. Frances L. Stone, of Lynn, Mass., was on Friday held in $3000 for trial before the superior court, on a charge of committing an abortion on the person of Mrs. Lydia E. Allen.

Edward Jarvis, a young man belonging in Cambridgeport, was sitting on a bench on Boston common, Friday evening, when a gang of roughs came along, and one of them without any provocation drew a pistol and shot him in the head, inflicting a serious but possibly not fatal wound. The cowardly ruffians then ran away, and the injured man was cared for by the police.

A Tucson, Arizona, despatch reports Henry and Matthew Shellenbach killed and two merchants wounded near Solaro camp, Santa Ritas mountains, on the 30th ult., by Mexican highwaymen.

A fire at Hamilton, Ont., Friday evening, destroyed property valued at nearly a million dollars. One person was killed and another seriously injured.

Francesco Portello, the Italian who murdered his employer in New York recently, has been trying to starve himself to death in jail, but was frustrated by the use of a stomach pump, with which liquid nourishment was administered in spite of his resistance. Of what use it can be to keep him alive against his will, only to kill him on a certain specified date, does not appear; better let him die.

As the result of the judicial investigation into the cause of the steamboat accident on Lake Quinsigamond, at Worcester, Mass., on the 4th of July, the Coburns, owner of the boat and his assistant, have been arrested on a charge of manslaughter, and held in $5000 for examination. They were engaged in an unlawful business, having no license for the conveyance of passengers, and advertising a carrying capacity much greater than the boat possessed.

The London News says that the impression prevails that Lieut. Carey, who commanded the scouting party with which Prince Napoleon went to his death, has been sentenced to be shot on the ground of cowardice and misbehavior in the presence of the enemy, and that Lord Chelmsford has not dared to execute the sentence, but has sent it and its victim home to England, to be dealt with as may seem good to the authorities. The impression prevails very geyerally, and is credited in quarters not likely to be easily misled.

A queer trade war is reported as waging in New York. The retail tea sellers have attempted to stimulate their trade by gifts of glass and stone-ware among their customers. The crockery dealers found themselves suffering from the free distribution of what they had to sell, and protested against the incursion into their field of business. Failing to carry their point in this way, they determined upon retaliation, and now buyers of tea-pots are given tea, just as buyers of tea were presented with tea-pots.

Doc Middleton, a notorious horse and cattle thief, for whose capture large rewards were offered by different counties of Nebraska, was taken on the 27th ult. n his camp on the Niobrara iver, about 200 miles northwest of Columbus, Nebraska, and taken into that town. On the morning of the capture a body of detectives and soldiers from Columbus and Grand Island surrounded the house of Richardson, Middleton's father-in-law, and captured Middleton and five of Middleton's gang. Richardson was compelled by threats of hanging to lead the party to Middleton's camp, which was found in a deep canyon near the river, surrounded, surprised, and Middleton, his wife and two of his gang captured. Middleton was found to be severely wounded, the result of a fight with detectives the previous week.

James Campbell of Littleton, Me., has six acres of potatoes growing. He also keeps geese. The geese found their way into the potato field and commenced a raid upon the potato bugs, which they rapidly gobbled up. They march between the rows, with an eye each to the right and left, and "gather them in." Regardless of the price of poultry next Thanksgiving, Mr. Campbell thinks his geese have already more than paid for their keeping.

John D. Weise, of Pittsburg, Pa., attempted to murder a woman named Irwin on Friday night with a razor, and cut her badly about the head and face. Being closely pursued by two officers he took refuge in a closet and opened fire on the police, who returned the fire and shot him dead.

Col. Thomas J. Treadwell, U. S. A., of the ordnance department, died very suddenly at Governor's island, New York harbor, Saturday morning.

Frederick Malcho, a murderer, ventured from his hiding-place in the woods to his home at Wilberton, Ill. He feared the officers of the law less than he did his neighbors, who, as he knew, would like to lynch him. Hungry and fatigued, however, he had resolved to take the risk of this visit. It was night, and after eating a hearty meal, he lay down on a bed to sleep, first placing a loaded gun within reach, and stationing his wife at a window to keep a lookout for lynchers. He had not slept long before she awoke him to say that mounted men were approaching. He unhesitatingly shot himself through the heart.

The American Union telegraph company are enjoined from building a line on the right of way of the Wabash railroad, in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, pending a permanent decision, some months hence, in the suit brought by the Western Union telegraph company.

Rev. John Graham of Brighton, England, lost his life at Cape May, N. J., Friday morning, while bathing in the surf, he having ventured out too far. The body was recovered through the brave efforts of Dr. Graham's niece. She secured the drowning man and clung to the pier with him until aid reached her, when the doctor was found to be dead. The cause of his death is said to have been congestion of the heart, resulting from fright.

An affray occurred in a saloon in New Britain, Conn., Friday, the fight being subsequently resumed in the street, during which Michael Martin stabbed James Brady with a large pocket-knife, killing him instantly. Another man was also stabbed, but not seriously.

Mrs. John Howe, wife of a prominent business man of Cincinnati, and her servant, Anna Brown, on Friday night fell through the floor of a vault at a residence in Covington, and before they could be rescued both were suffocated. Mr. Howe, hearing her cries, ran out, jumped down to their relief, and was taken out insensible, but was resuscitated.

Private advices received at San Francisco, say that Gen. Grant has engaged passage in the steamer City of Tokio, and will arrive in that city September 12th.

The British Quarterly Review for July has been promptly republished by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., No. 41 Barclay street, New York. The public have been looking for this number with much interest, as it had been announced that Mr. Gladstone would be one of the contributors. His article is entitled, "The Evangelical Movement: its Parentage, Progress, and Issue;" and in the course of it he shows that although it never became dominant in England, yet that it altered the general tone and tendency of the preaching of the clergy after the tractarian movement had begun. St. George Mivart is author of an article entitled, "The Feelings and the Intellect." "Reforms in the University of Oxford" is by J. Thorold Rogers, and gives a brief account of the actual condition, domestic arrangements, and the reforms that have taken place and are needed in the university. The article on "Irenæus," by Dr. Quarry, gives a general idea of the gnostic heresies, as a prelude to a sketch of Irenæus and his views, especially those respecting holy scripture and ecclesiastical tradition. This paper is to be followed by others relating to the church and the eucharist. Other papers are: "The City Companies," being a history of the celebrated city livery companies, showing their wealth, the trust nature of their property, and their misappropriation of trust funds; "The City of Glasgow Bank Failure;" and "England and the Greek Question." The number ends with the usual notices of contemporary literature. Four dollars a year.

Charles C. Comforth, fifteen years old, was drowned in Cascade brook at Saco while trying to learn to swim, on the 1st inst.

Saturday forenoon, at Biddeford, Joseph Lafayette, fifteen years old, threw stones at a French youth named Edward Bargerout, twenty years old, as the latter was playing top, and was kicked in the abdomen by the latter and probably fatally injured.

—A floating debt is likely in time to sink any enterprise.

—A Syracuse boy put his sister's switch into a cannon for wadding. He said that was the proper way to bang her hair.

—When you see a young man attired in a white flannel shirt, his face slightly burned with exposure, and hear him talk knowingly of "jib fores'ls," and "running under the wind," and "slacking the main sheet," it doesn't follow that he is much of a yachtsman. The chances are that he would be sessick on a drawbridge.—New Haven Register.

—When John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home," once returned to Boston after a long absence in Europe and called upon a lady, an old schoolmate, who said: "Mr. Payne, don't you find Boston much changed?" "Yes, madam," he answered, "very much; I receive many invitations to attend church, and very few to dinner."

—Preault dined one day with a miserly painter, who gave him to eat a soft-boiled egg and a little vinaigrette, washed down with some Suresnes of a bad year. "We will repeat this little debauch," said his host, folding up his napkin, "whenever you like." "All right," said Preault, glaring at his entertainer with hungry eyes, "suppose we repeat it right now!" —French Wit.

A few days since a party out sailing on Great Bay probably saved the drawbridge of the Concord & Portsmouth railroad from destruction by fire. A spark from the locomotive of a passing train fell in a crack in a tie, which was quickly in a blaze, but the parties in the boat saw the incipient conflagration, and hastening to the bridge, clambered up and soon extinguished it with a few buckets of water.—Times.

—The colored people of Dorsey county, Ark., recently have prayed very earnestly for rain. The leading church engaged this in species of labor, not considering itself well enough supplied with members, sent over into an adjoining county and borrowed a few, agreeing to pay a heavy interest in hymn books. Even this failed, but the cow of emergency was taken by the horns when the preacher issued the following proclamation: "We's bound for to have enough members in dis church to meet do occasion, and I hereby sets my hand and seal to do articlel what says 'all collured persons, respectable or otherwise, in dis county, and all de counties jinin', is declared members of dis church till after de next rain.'"

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 4, 2 A.M.

Slightly cooler and partly cloudy weather, with local rains, south-west to north-west winds, and nearly stationary barometer.

AROUND HOME.

The United States ship Portsmouth arrived in the lower harbor on Sunday morning.

Hon. T. M. Fogg, of Auburn, Me., will speak in favor of the national greenback party on Market square this evening.

On Thursday of last week schooner Eagle, loaded with wood, went ashore near the mouth of the harbor at Ogunquit; the next day she was gotten off and taken back to her wharf, leaking badly.

Franklin Webber, Elias A. Stevens, Jotham Day and Lorenzo Littlefield of Kennebunk have had some twenty sheep killed recently by dogs. Two dogs, supposed to have committed the depredations, have been killed.

We are informed that never before were there so many summer visitors at Rye beach as now. The hotel coaches from this city for Rye and York beaches and Kittery point were crowded inside and on top about every trip last week.

Saturday was the most uncomfortably hot day of the season, so far; we believe the thermometer only marked about one hundred and seventy-five degrees above zero, in cellars and well-shaded back yards, but those figures but faintly indicate how sultry the day was.

A fifty-mile heel-and-toe walk for $50 a side came off in Dover city hall on Friday, the contestants being Roland Eaton of Dover and John Meagher of Manchester; the latter won, Eaton leaving the track at the end of his thirty-second mile, at which time Meagher was four miles ahead.

Messrs. Dennis J. Lynch and Nicholas Zambelli were the winners in the double-scull boat-race last week with Walter Costello and Daniel Hurley, from Portsmouth bridge to the south beacon and return. Two of the men got into the wrong boats, in the item as previously published.

Two drunken fellows, named James Commer and Michael McLaughlin, were driving a blind horse in Dover on Thursday evening, and making terribly crooked work of it, when they met a wagon containing Mr. Jones, a son of Ex-Sheriff Jones of Lee, with his wife and two children, and capsized it, breaking one wheel and spilling the butter, eggs, berries, etc., which it contained, all over the street. The two children were caught under the wagon as it fell, but were not much hurt.

Capt. Lemuel Drew, of Newmarket, who died at the residence of his son in Dover on the 27th ult., was for forty years well known on the river as the owner and skipper of packets and "gundalows," at the time when most of the carrying trade was done by water. He was a jovial, robust, heavy man, weighing when in his prime something over two hundred pounds; but at the time of his death, which was caused by cancer in the stomach, he was so greatly reduced as to weigh it is said but ninety pounds.

Patrick Lang, a Dover boy about eight years old, came very near losing his life on Thursday last in the river near Sawyer's mills at Dover, and would have lost it but for the bravery of Lorenzo White, a peddler from Wolfeboro' Junction, who was crossing the bridge and heard him cry out, and instantly leaped into the river. The boy was sinking for the third time when Mr. White reached him, but Mr. White managed to catch him by the neck as he was going down, and by great exertion landed him in an insensible condition.

The startled Fawn, a steamer seventy-five feet long and ten feet beam, arrived at this port on Thursday of last week with a party of ladies and gentlemen from Haverhill, Mass., on board. This steamer is claimed to be the fastest in the United States, and it is said that there is a standing offer of $10,000 to any craft that can beat her. She took the prize at the Centennial exhibition, and it is asserted that she can steam twenty-six miles an hour—which anybody can believe who wishes. She has no cabin, her two engines occupying all her hull room. She has a sort of canvas-covered upper deck on which the passengers live, and where they sleep and take their meals.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, August 2; Batchelder, J.

Wm. W. Gurley, who has for some little time been meandering around Greenland living from hand to mouth, was arraigned under the State tramp law, and bound over in the sum of $300 to appear for trial at the October term of the supreme court. In default of bonds he went to jail.

Rev. W. H. Sigston was before the court on a complaint charging him with obtaining money under false pretences, Mr. James Janvrin being the complainant. Mr. Sigston was arrested in Newburyport on Saturday morning, and expressed entire willingness to accompany Sheriff Kent to this city to face the charge. The evidence was that the defendant was in this city in March last, soliciting subscriptions for a temperance paper published in Iowa, and procured four subscribers, one of them being Mr. Janvrin, and that no papers have as yet been received by either of the four. Mr. Sigston showed that he is the authorized agent of the paper, and that he had before procured subscribers for it, and forwarded the money; he admitted receiving the money in this city as charged, and using it for his own purposes, but said that as soon as he had procured a sufficient number of subscribers he should forward the subscriptions in a lump, as on previous occasions, and the subscribers would then receive their papers, the terms when the money was paid being that the subscription was not to commence until the first paper was received. After hearing all the evidence Judge Batchelder dismissed the case.

THE MODEL OF NEW YORK HARBOR.

The Dover Enquirer says of the model of New York harbor, recently shown in that city, and to be exhibited at Congress hall this week, that it "is a truly wonderful and curious piece of mechanism, and should be seen by every one. It is not a painting or a panorama, but the buildings, vessels, wharves, and everything, are exactly represented in miniature; steamships, ferry boats, and sailing vessels of all classes are floating in actual water, moved by some mysterious machinery, which gives it all an actual and life-like appearance." The Democrat says: "As a specimen of mechanical ingenuity it has not been equalled by anything ever seen in this city. Pay it a visit; you will not regret it."

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

Aldermen—Benjamin F. Mugridge, William S. Hazel;

Councilmen—John S. Tuckerman, William G. Marshall, Willard M. Gray, Charles E. Senter;

Assessors—Henry F. Wendell, William P. Bennett;

Overseer of the Poor—James W. Nutter.

The population of the capital of Cashmere, which was 300,000 before the famine, is now said to be but 30,000.

The democratic city census was held at the Court house on Saturday evening, and Mr. Solomon Seymour was nominated as the party's candidate for mayor for the ensuing year.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

The republican nominations in ward four were made Friday evening, the following gentlemen being the candidates selected:

Aldermen—John E. Ham, John Nutter;

Councilmen — Lafayette V. Newell, George Humphries, Charles W. Drown, Horace S. Spinney;

Overseer of the Poor—Joseph Grace;

Assessors — Oliver Ayers, Oliver H. Locke.

Political.

The committee of experts who have been examining the new Chicago city hall, report that the work has been done in an outrageous manner. They found a total of two hundred and forty-one serious defects. The city council will probably order the structure torn down. Chicago is a strongly democratic city, and the city hall was put up under the supervision of democratic reform officials.

Hon. James G. Blaine addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting at Skowhegan, Me., Friday evening. D. F. Davis and Congressman Reed addressed a very large audience at Richmond on the same evening. The latter meeting was presided over by a gentleman who was a strong greenbacker last year.

The mayor of Chicago on Thursday night made wholesale changes in the police department, two captains, four lieutenants and seven detectives being superseded. All the dismissed officials are republicans. The Chicago democrats hold to the old democratic creed, "To the victors belong the spoils."

The Massachusetts republican State convention will be held in Worcester on the 16th of September. It is understood that the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the republican party will form the theme of an address upon that occasion, but that there will be no separate observance of the party's birthday.

New Hampshire Items.

A. M. Burnham, architect and builder, of Montpelier, Vt., who has been superintending the building of the new Unitarian church in Lisbon, was fatally injured by a falling rafter on Friday.

Of the funded debt of Manchester, $10,000 was liquidated Friday. Outside, the city's expenses for July were $52,744.56.

—The Baptist Weekly asks: "How can a summer vacation be prevented from working evil?" The practice of being sure that you have enough bait every morning before you start will help mightily. Nothing so tends to demoralize the average man as to find, as he sits fishing four miles from the hotel and at a time when the fish are biting well, that the bait is all out and he must fain return for more. —Albany Journal.

However quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, by the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites, he must abolish the habits of life which induced the disease; the effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can only be transitory, whilst man persists in the gratification of vicious or pernicious habits.

Fort McClary.

The editor of the Exeter News-Letter was one of a party that came down the river in the little steamer "La Chiquita," Capt. Fifield, of South Newmarket, a few days since, and he describes a visit to Fort McClary as follows:

A citizen of the town informed us that the sergeant, who had charge of the fort, lived a short distance away, and might possibly let us in, although there were displayed all about us, big signs saying, "No admittance to the Fort." Only think of it, nothing but a "sergeant" in command of this huge pile of granite! But then sergeants are great men in Maine, and one of them is going to be elected governor next month. One of our party volunteered to visit the sergeant's house, and in a short time returned with two young ladies bearing the "big key" that would admit us all to the forbidden land. It required considerable effort to turn back the bolts in the rusty lock, but it yielded at last, and we were within the walls. A feeling of desolation crept over us all. On every hand were the same huge blocks of granite as on the outside, intermingled with immense Rodman and Parrott guns, and huge piles of shot and shell. It looked as though a terrible and destructive shower of shot and shell had descended and left death and destruction around, and the sole occupant of this desolated mass was one poor cow. She

"Was monarch of all she surveyed,
Her right there was none to dispute."

What there is of this fort was built during the war of the rebellion, for what purpose no one of us could imagine. Thousands of dollars must have been expended here by the government for no earthly use, and finished granite to the amount of thousands of dollars is laying around, and has been for years. We unanimously voted that Uncle Sam should sell at auction the property laying around loose, and use the proceeds to straighten the river at the "roundabouts." On leaving the premises we made up a purse for those who had opened the gates for our gratification, but the gift was politely refused, with the remark "that they did not take money, the sergeant did not allow it." We were taken aback by the reply, our experience with "Government officials" heretofore, being of a different kind; there is hope for the republicans of Maine, at the next election, if this one is a fair simple of her "officials." We tendered the young ladies our sincere thanks, and left behind us one of the follies of the government.

—An item is a western newpaper ends as follows: "The captain swam ashore; so did the chambermaid; she was insured for fifteen thousand dollars, and loaded with iron."

—A mother, noticing her little daughter wipe her mouth with her dress sleeve, asked her what her handkerchief was for. Said the little one: "It is to shake at the ladies in the street. That is what paps does with his."

—"A few words on step-mothers," remarks a western lady: "I do not believe there is a woman in the whole United States that ever got credit for raising a step-child. No matter how strong may be her desire to rear it as she would her own, there are always persons to interfere with the domestic affairs of the family, while if it was an own child they would be beneath sowing the seed of discord and misery that can never be eradicated while life exists."

CHARLES W. GARDNER.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)

DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business for exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago formed several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which business then merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The corporation has been organized and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers:

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. H. PIERCE, V. Pres.
JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER H. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of undoubted skill have been chosen as the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our medical specialities.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases are treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especial care facilities of a superior order for the cure of all the peculiar diseases peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Palpitation, Fits, Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.

NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, sent post-paid, for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).

SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are constantly called upon to perform are, the knife for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Calculi (Stone in the Bladder), Stricture, etc., etc. Also treat successfully, without a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-feet, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its various merits upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases for which it is the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Hysteria, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most potent specific in all complaints peculiar to the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Cuticura

Scrofulous Ulcers and Sores, Abscesses, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, Erysipelas Sores, Old Sores and Discharging Wounds, Boils, Carbuncles and Blood Impurities, which manifest themselves by bursting through the skin and eating deep into the flesh, when treated internally by the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and externally with the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, rapidly heal and disappear. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Leprosy, Barber's Itch and all Scaly and Itching Eruptions of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Irritating and Itching Humors of the Scalp, which cause the Hair to become dry, thin, and lifeless and result in Premature Baldness, are permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SKIN DISEASE.

A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq., manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.

Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm. Corbett intoned me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.

Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.

I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin diseases, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century.

J. A. TUCKER.

13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 20, 1878.

NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well-known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.

CUTICURA REMEDIES

Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.

Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.

CARBONDALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.

Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathsome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.

Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

JAMAICA GINGER

THE QUINTESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER, CHOICE AROMATICS, AND FRENCH BRANDY.

A PREPARATION so elegantly flavored and medicinally effective as to entirely supersede previous preparations, Essences or Extracts of Ginger, Composition, Herb Teas, Pain Relievers, and the hundred and one disgusting and nauseating possets with which we are been wont to dose ourselves. Its instantaneous effects in Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cramps and Pains, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Cholera Infantum, Diarrhœa in Teething and all Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Sluggish Digestion, Want of Tone and Activity in the Stomach and Bowels, Oppression after Eating, Rising of Food and similar Ailments, Chills and Fevers, Colds and Chills, Feverish Symptoms, Malarial Fevers, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Symptoms of Rheumatism, Neuralgic and Gout, Cold Extremities, Suspended Circulation and Depressed condition of the Vital Forces, render it the Standard Household Medicine throughout the length and breadth of the land. On sea, on land, for the traveller, for the young, the aged, under all circumstances and conditions, both as a medicine and as a gentle stimulant or beverage, it is the most grateful and effective preparation ever compounded in the history of medicine.

Beware of diluted and worthless imitations recommended by dealers for purposes of gain. Ask for and get upon having SANFORD'S JAMAICA GINGER.

Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists, Grocers, and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States and Canadas. Price, 50 cents per bottle. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.00 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "Mountain Ranger," established at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000).

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D.

Arthur Dumont, of Manchester, aged fourteen years, was run over by a heavily loaded team on Saturday, and probably fatally injured.

The Methodist church, parsonage and barn in Hudson, about three miles from Nashua, were destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. The fire originated from a kerosene furnace taken to the barn to cook dinner by the wife of Rev. Mr. Baxter. Loss, probably $4000; insurance $1000 on church, and $800 on parsonage.

Thursday morning Lucinda Gale, a maiden lady, got lost while blueberrying on Sugar Loaf mountain, in Alexandria. After dark she attempted to descend the east side of the mountain, and proceeded down its precipitous sides till she got to a position from which she could not retreat, and to go ahead would be instant death on the rocks one hundred and fifty feet below. In this perilous position she remained all night, not daring to sleep for fear of falling from the ledge. During Friday she succeeded in scaling the ledge above, and was found late in the day nearly insane from thirst and exhaustion by a party in search for her.

The open season for plover, woodcock, ducks, and other kindred birds began with August 1st and continues until February 1st. Sportsmen in considerable numbers have availed themselves of the situation.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1879.

The Yellow Fever.

Twenty-six new cases of fever, and nine deaths, were reported at Memphis between Saturday morning and Sunday evening. A special from that city to New York reports the illness by fever of a niece of Col. John N. Sanderlin, eight miles from Memphis, on the Raleigh road. She has not visited Memphis since July 4th, nor had any correspondence from there. The despatch says: "The only plausible theory advanced is that a refugee family sickened in the house last year, and it is thought the germs of the disease have been brought to life by the recent warm weather. If this theory is true, not a hamlet or village affected last year can escape a visitation of the plague."

Two seamen on a brig from Havana were admitted to the quarantine hospital in New York, Saturday, with yellow fever.

News and Notes.

At Chicago, Saturday, William Fitzpatrick and Edward Ryan, deck hands, while in a fight in a building just over the river, were precipitated over a railing and both were drowned.

Mrs. George Newton was burned to death at Altoona, Pa., Saturday, by the explosion of coal oil, with which she was lighting a fire. Her body was burned to a crisp.

Nearly two years ago Edward P. Paige, chief clerk in the Vermont Central railroad freight office in Burlington, Vt., was discharged, it being rumored that there was a deficiency of several thousand dollars in his accounts. Nothing further had been done in the matter until Saturday evening, when he was arrested on the charge of embezzling $17,000, and was committed to jail.

It is said that charges are to be preferred against the commissioners appointed to finish the new county court house in New York, and their architect, Leopold Lidtiz, by the central taxpayers' association. It is charged that since the commission was established nothing but reckless expenditure has been indulged in, either on the part of the commissioners or their architect, thus involving an outlay of $430,000. It is claimed that all of the work could have been done for one-third of that amount, and that before the court house is completed, a further sum will be called for, there being very little money left to be paid out on former appropriations.

A serious affray occurred Sunday night in Providence, in which John Green, of South Kingstown, was quite dangerously stabbed in the breast, and his companion, Peter Drum, of Providence, was rendered senseless by a blow on the head. The assailants were two unknown men, believed to be Italians.

The valuation of Boston on the 1st of May shows a loss from last year of $18,198,200, leaving the total valuation at $612,253,690. The rate of taxation for the current year is $12.50 per $1000.

Mr. Edward F. Price, who married the popular actress, Fanny Davenport, last week, was married some years ago to Kitty Baker, also an actress. Mr. Price and his wife were for some time members of Miss Davenport's company, but the wife finally became jealous of her husband, and a year or so ago filed a bill for divorce on the ground of infidelity. On Thursday, July 25th, Mrs. Price was granted an absolute divorce from her husband, and eight days later he married Miss Davenport.

Kansas became one of the States of the Union on September 15th, 1856, and the twenty-fifth anniversary is soon to be celebrated at Lawrence, in that State, by a reunion of the old settlers and all others who took part in the work of liberation.

David Anderson, one of the members, of a picnic party at Eaglewood, New Jersey, Friday, fell from the Palisades two hundred and fifty feet, and it is feared was fatally injured. A horse had previously backed off the precipice and with the wagon was dashed to pieces.

The body of an unknown man was found floating in the dock at India wharf, Boston, Sunday morning. His hands were tied, and foul play is suspected.

Four unknown men, supposed to belong to a gang of desperadoes in Indian Territory, rode into Coneyville, Kansas, Saturday, robbed the post office, and committed other depredations. The citizens resisted, and one of them, named Fitzpatrick, was killed, and another named Roberts was wounded. The robbers then left and shortly after a detachment of United States troops started in pursuit of them, but at last accounts had made no arrests.

Thirteen members of a desperate band of robbers, charged with burglary, outrages upon old people and other crimes, have been arrested and lodged in Reading, Pa. jail. All are young German tramps.

Information is received by the secret service division of the treasury department that photographic counterfeit five-dollar notes on the Globe national bank, of Boston, Mass., letter C, and the Dedham national bank, of Dedham, Mass., letter B, made their appearance Saturday at San Francisco.

Rev. Thomas Rines, of Augusta, Me., known as the blind Advent preacher, died suddenly at Naples, Me., Sunday.

Fourteen persons were killed at Durango, Spain, Saturday, by the explosion of a powder magazine.

It is announced that the Queen of England has been advised to return Lieut. Carey to duty, which is the euphonious way of saying that the home authorities of the army do not consider him criminally negligent in regard to the death of the late Prince Napoleon.

At Stowe, Vt., the other evening, a Miss Brown was reading in bed, holding the light in her hand, when she fell asleep and dropped the lamp on the bed, setting the clothes on fire. She screamed for help, which arrived in time to save her life, but she was badly burned, her back being blistered nearly the entire length.

Naval Affairs.

Leave of absence is granted to Lieut. Comdr. Thomas M. Gardner, commanding the Montauk, for one month from August 4th; to Lieut. Comdr. Crowninshield, commanding the Portsmouth, for two weeks; to Carpenter B. F. Fernald, attached to the naval asylum at Philadelphia, from August 15th to Sept. 1st.

Commander Frederick Rodgers is detached from command of the Adams on the 12th of August, and ordered to proceed home and wait orders. Commander John A. Howell is detached from the naval academy, and ordered to command the Adams on the 12th of August.

Antonio Williams, seaman on the United States training-ship Minnesota, at a recent full dress muster of the officers and crew, was presented by Capt. S. B. Luce on behalf of the government with a gold life-saving medal of the first class, for heroic conduct in saving four men of the lost United States steamer Huron. The medal was accompanied by commendatory letters from the secretaries of the treasury and the navy.

The Way Vanderbilt Succeeded.

When Commodore Vanderbilt was running steamboats, he beat all rivals by crowding on steam to the utmost, and even running down his enemy if necessary, to accomplish a triumph. When he went into railroading, he adopted a much shrewder and more successful way, by uniting vast lines and their tributaries under his own management, thus capturing all rivals, by sharing with them the immense pool of profits that were made by his skillful manipulation. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., accomplish a much greater success in stock operations by their new Combination Method of dealing. By this system the orders of thousands of customers are pooled into one vast sum and co-operated under the most experienced management, thus giving to each shareholder all the benefits of large capital and best skill. Profits divided monthly. Any amount from $5 to $25,000 can be used with great success. $15 will make $75 profit. $80 would return $720 or nine per cent on the stock during the month, according to the market. The new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success" and full explanations, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. city.

Truth is Mighty.

As the little leaven hid in the measure of meal, made all leaven, so truth gradually overcomes all doubt and disbelief. When Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., announced that his Favorite Prescription would positively cure the many diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, some doubted, nd continued to employ the harsh and caustic local treatment. But the mighty truth gradually became acknowledged. Thousands of ladies who had uselessly undergone untold tortures at the hands of different physicians, employed the Favorite Prescription, and were speedily cured. Many physicians now prescribe it in their practice. So sanguine is Dr. Pierce of its power to cure, that he now sells it through druggists under a positive guarantee.

However quickly a patient may recover and approach towards robust health, by the use of Fellows' Hypophosphites, he must abolish the habits of life which induced the disease; the effect of the greatest triumph in medicine can only be transitory, whilst man persists in the gratification of vicious or pernicious habits.

City election to-day.

The store of B. F. Haley at Newmarket was broken into on Friday night, and a quantity of goods stolen.

The U. S. S. Portsmouth, Commander Crowninshield, will remain in the lower harbor for the rest of this week, for the purpose of enlisting boys for the navy.

Hon. Wm. P. Frye will speak on the political questions of the day at North Berwick, Me., on the 11th inst., and at Kittery on the 12th. Hon. Eugene Hale will speak at North Berwick on the 22d inst.

About nine-tenths of the grocers and provision dealers of the city recently signed an agreement to close their stores at seven o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, but the others refusing to agree, the early-closing scheme is abandoned.

The schooner Neptune's Bride, of Calais, came near getting into trouble Monday morning, at Fray's wharf. She had been hauled in too near the head of the wharf, and as the tide went down her forefoot took the ground, so that at low water her stern was so deeply submerged that she came near filling, and a very little further drop in the tide would have done it. With the rise of the tide she got out of her unpleasant predicament unharmed.

On Sunday forenoon last, Mr. Levi Bird, who lives on the North road, lost two little daughters, aged respectively three and five years, they dying within four hours of each other after a few hours' illness, of cholera infantum. They were buried on Monday afternoon from the Pearl street church, the funeral being attended by a very large number of people who deeply sympathise with Mr. Bird and his wife in their great affliction. We believe an infant a few months old is the only little one left the bereaved parents.

The Garrick Club of this city will give an entertainment at the Shoals on Wednesday night. Steamer Appledore will return immediately after the performance, thus giving those wishing to visit the Shoals on that day a rare opportunity to prolong their stay and yet return in season to reach home by eleven o'clock P. M. One dollar for the round trip. The proceeds of the entertainment after deducting expenses will be applied to the fund of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. For further information apply to Col. T. E. O. Marvin, president of the society.

FOREPAUGH'S SHOW.

The Boston Globe says of Forepaugh's show, which exhibits in this city on Monday next, that "the usual stock of adjectives which are brought out to describe the attractions of a circus have all been used in the perfunctory notices of Forepaugh's circus, and yet the entertainment has not received the fullm ced of praise which it merits. The ring entertainment is thoroughly good in every respect, with not one single objectionable feature, and very much that is novel and artistic. Robert Stickney's feats are rendered with a grace and daring which leave them almost shorn of their peril, and cause the spectator unfeigned astonishment; his somersault act on a bareback horse is a most difficult one, and done in a wonderfully perfect manner. Both Wooda Cook and William Gorman deserve special mention, and Miss Jeanette Burdeau, Miss Pauline Lee, Miss Annie Carroll and Miss Emma Stickney are attractions to the show which deserve great praise. The male performers shall be particularized at a later date. The menagerie is the most extensive that has ever been in Boston, and it far excels those who have claimed to have the biggest collection on earth. It contains about sixty cages of rare animals, as well as a giraffe, a hippopotamus and a dozen elephants. A better exhibition has not been seen in Boston. The museum contains many curiosities. Undoubtedly the greatest interest centres in the circus, and the ring performance is certainly different from anything given this season by preceding shows."

Portsmouth & Dover Railroad.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad was held in the Common council room in this city at three o'clock Monday afternoon. The attendance was large, on account of the interest of the stockholders in the controversy existing between this corporation and the Eastern railroad company and the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire in regard to the payment of the rent of this road, which has been withheld by the latter corporations. The meeting was called to order by Hon. Frank Jones, president, and the following report submitted:

To the Stockholders of the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad:

The directors respectfully report, that the construction of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad commenced in December A. D. 1872, under contracts with Geo. H. Peirce for grading, masonry, bridging and fencing, and with Ross & Lord for the pile bridge over the Piscataqua river; and the road was completed and in running order in February A. D. 1874. The cost of the road was estimated by the engineers at $6,000,000, and the work would have been completed within that sum, but for certain extraordinary expenses which were not included nor anticipated when the estimates were made. The principal of these were the discovery that a truss would be necessary at the eastern end of the Piscataqua bridge and that the piles must be secured at the bottom by large quantities of stone, the extra cost of right of way and depot grounds in the city of Dover, and the fact that the bonds of the cities of Dover and Portsmouth accepted in payments for stock were sold at some discount. And to this is to be added the interest account up to the completion of the road. The result was that the whole road was completed at the cost of $759,800.00.

By the charter the corporation were authorized to lease their road or any part thereof to any railroad corporation whose road may connect with their road,—as well before as after its completion. Under this power this railroad was leased on the first day of June A. D. 1872 to the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire for fifty years from and after the time when the road should be so far completed as to be fit for ordinary use as a railroad, at an annual rent of six per cent upon the capital stock of the road and one half of any net income of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad which may exceed the six per per cent. The capital stock was to be fixed at a sum, equal as near as practicable to the actual cost and expense of building the railroad. It was stipulated that the road should be built upon such exact route as should be agreed upon by the directors of both corporations or by their agents, mutually appointed; and the road was to be constructed under the direction of agents to be mutually agreed upon by the parties. And because the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire was itself under lease to the Eastern railroad company of Massachusetts, the last named corporation in writing ratified and confirmed the contract, and covenanted to protect and indemnify the E. R. R. in New Hampshire from all costs and damages for or on account thereof.

Accordingly the location and construction of the road was placed in charge of an engineer selected by the Eastern railroad, all contracts were submitted to and approved by them, and the road was located and built substantially under their direction. As soon as it was so far completed as to be in running order they took charge of the road and have used and run it from that time to this, under the lease, and substantially according to its requirements. The rent of the road at six per cent on its cost has been paid by them regularly every half year, down to January first 1879.

Just before the last six months rent became due, the Eastern railroad company, and the trustees who held the trust mortgage of the same, addressed to us a request that the annual rent of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad be reduced to four per cent per annum. The reasons alleged for making this request are:

1. That the rent reserved by the lease is unreasonable and excessive compared with the income derived from the road, which, the lessees assert, is barely sufficient to meet its operating expenses;

2. The general settling of values since 1872 and the fact that all property since that time has very largely depreciated in market price and earning capacity;

3. That the rates of interest on money and capital have been greatly reduced, and average now no more than four per cent per annum;

4. The condition of the Eastern railroad company, which has barely escaped bankruptcy, and is now burdened with an enormous debt the interest of which absorbs its entire income; and the fact that many years of skillful management with the most rigid economy will be necessary to restore it to the list of dividend paying corporations;

5. That the cost of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad was excessive; that the cost has never been settled between the parties; that the real cost of the road was at least one third less than is claimed by the directors.

Upon consideration of this application the directors were unanimously of opinion that we have no power to grant any reduction of the rent stipulated in the lease; and that if we had the power, there exists no good reason for making any abatement.

The chief and only reasonable ground for the claim made by the Eastern railroad is, that our road cost too much, and in fact that it did not cost the sum by us represented. But, as we have already stated, the lease was made before the construction of our road commenced, and it was provided in the lease that the Eastern railroad should have as much control in building as our own directors. You selected one of the directors of the Eastern railroad for your own president; the engineer was accepted upon the recommendation of the officers of the E. R. R. Co; the contracts were all submitted to their inspection and approved before they were awarded; and it was understood at the time, that the work was going on under their direction, and certainly under their supervision and with their approval. The interest of the Eastern railroad as lessees required the attention of their officers to the progress of the work, and it has not been suggested that the duty was neglected. No remonstrance was ever made against any act of your directors, and no information was ever asked which was not freely given. It will not be readily believed that any fraud, misrepresentation or concealment was practiced by your directors or any of them; and it would hardly be necessary for us to make any formal denial, if such a charge were implied in anything contained in the application of the directors and trustees of the Eastern railroad. Your directors had no notice or opportunity to be extravagant or to allow extravagance, and that they themselves were deceived, cheated or imposed upon, is very improbable. The books and accounts of the corporation and of the directors have always been kept open and subject to inspection and examination; and they have been at least three times freely and carefully examined by parties not connected with this board. If errors or frauds had existed they must long ago have become known.

So far as this question affects the obligations of the Eastern railroad to pay rent to the stockholders of this corporation, the objection comes too late. The lessees accepted the road as soon as it was substantially completed, in February 1876, and have held it ever since to their own use; and they have made without protest or dispute eight semi-annual payments of rent according to the terms of the lease. It is unreasonable for them now to deny the propriety of our proceedings, or the correctness of our accounts, since the lapse of time has made it difficult or impossible to ascertain mistakes or detect fraud, or to obtain redress against offenders, if contrary to our belief any wrong or error has actually occurred. For five and one half years purchases and sales of stock have been made, and all business relating to this railroad or growing out of its construction has been transacted upon the faith that the rate and amount of the rent are definitely settled; and we are advised that such is the legal aspect of the case.

But we believe it easy to demonstrate that no considerable error of fraud can have occurred; and that the road cost substantially every dollar which is represented to have been expended upon it. The cost was nominally large, for the road was built in a time of depreciated currency, and when labor and material were very dear. As we have stated, the estimates of the engineers, well known at the time to the Eastern railroad, were not exceeded except in particulars arising from some unexpected causes. Compared with present prices the cost of the road was no more than the lessees must reasonably have understood and expected. To complain because a change of prices has happened, is in the same degree unreasonable as it would be for this corporation to demand a higher rent, if after the completion of the work, prices had risen instead of falling. Personally the directors court investigation as to all their doings, and will meet any responsibility which may justly attach to them. But we have not felt at liberty to surrender any rights which have accrued to the stockholders from the long acquiescence of the lessees of the road.

The other reasons alleged by the E. R. R. Co. for a reduction of the rent do not seem to us substantial.

The rate of interest or dividend reserved, six per cent upon the actual cost of the road, is precisely equal to the legal rate of interest in this State, is less than the rate of interest current at the time of the lease, is not above the general average rate of fair securities in New England, and was fixed on the part of the Eastern railroads by men perfectly competent to make an intelligent contract on such a subject. And we have yet to learn that the advantages of the road to the Eastern railroad companies is in any respect less than was fairly anticipated. On part of many citizens of Portsmouth and Dover the construction of the road was advocated as a means of connecting two cities of considerable importance, and as a link in the great line of railroad, which when completed by the construction of about fifteen miles of road along the north shore of Lake Winnepiseogee will be from the northwestern part of New Hampshire, and all the country beyond to Montreal and the great Lakes, by some fifty miles the nearest access to the sea coast and by way of the Eastern railroads and also by the Boston & Maine railroad, the shortest and best line from all that great region to Boston. The cities as corporations were induced to lend their credit for the construction of our road, and many persons subscribed to the stock, simply on the faith of the Eastern railroad, that they might so aid a useful enterprise without actual loss. But the leading motive of the Eastern R. R. company in promoting the enterprize and making the guaranty of six per cent upon the actual cost was quite different, and it was one in which our cities and stockholders had no great concern. The Eastern R. R. Co. was suffering from very active competition with the Boston & Maine railroad, which drew away from the Eastern freight and passengers at Portland, Great Falls, Newburyport, and we believe other points along their line. By striking the Boston & Maine at Dover, the Eastern railroad Co. would be enabled practically to divide the business from that place to Boston, and ultimately to share all the advantages which may accrue from the extension of railroads north and northwest of Dover. We have not the means of estimating exactly how far the objects of the E. R. R. Co. in promoting the building of this road have been attained. But if they make such use of it as we should expect from the ability of their officers and trustees, they may take one half the whole business from Dover to Boston, as well as all between Dover and places this side of Boston, or may so control the action of the Boston & Maine railroad that the evils of competition at Portland, Great Falls and Newburyport may be materially diminished. We apprehend that the transportation from Portsmouth towards Boston of the passengers and freight which come from Dover, does not materially increase the cost of trains otherwise necessarily run upon the Eastern railroads; and the greater part of all that is received from this source ought to be set to the credit of the advantages derived by the Eastern railroad from our road. So far as this business is or may be bartered for other advantages, they should be placed to the same credit.

The depreciation in values and the general reduction in the rates of interest upon money, doubtless operate at this time disadvantageously to the Eastern railroads, in the performance of their contract with the Portsmouth & Dover road. But the same cause affects all loans and investments made about the time this railroad was built. It is probably temporary in its nature. And it is nowhere recognized as a legal or equitable excuse for the non-performance of a contract according to its terms.

But if it were reasonable to give consideration to the embarrassed condition of the Eastern railroad Co., the circumstances of our railroad seem to preclude us. Of the 7,578 shares in this corporation 6020 stand in the names of the city of Dover and the city of Portsmouth. But they are not stockholders in the ordinary sense, because they in fact loaned to this corporation their credit to an amount equal to the stock they hold, and issued them for their bonds which are still outstanding. The semi-annual rent upon $602,000 of our stock exactly pays the interest upon the bonds of the two cities. It was the understanding that the cities should really assume no burden except such as may occur in the management of the road after the expiration of the lease. It would be futile for them to address to the holders of the bonds the arguments which are presented to us by the directors and trustees of the Eastern railroad Co. Ordinary holders of stock might consider liberally the present situation of the E. R. R. Co.; and it is not improbable that the holders of the remainder of our stock might actually do so. But neither the directors nor this corporation can undertake to dispose of the rights of the cities; and we are advised that it is doubtful whether the political government of the cities have power for such cause to make the abatement requested.

We regret the embarrassments of the E. R. R. Co., though from its excellent situation and abundant business, under good management, we feel able to predict for it great future prosperity; we regret that its managers should regard the contract with our road at this time a burden; still more as citizens of Portsmouth and Dover do we regret that the times have not favored the completion of our original enterprise, the results of which we still believe would remove all cause and disposition to complain on the part of the E. R. R. Co. We would willingly favor that corporation, from our connection with it and because it is the agency thro' which large a portion of the business both of Portsmouth and Dover is carried on, and we desire heartily to cooperate with the mayors in their endeavor to place it upon a sound financial basis; but after careful consideration it appeared to us, as we have already stated, not only that we have no power to reduce the rent stipulated in the lease, but that no good reason exists why you should attempt to do so. We have therefore respectfully declined the request contained in the communication of the E. R. R. Co. and their trustees.

It seems to us unfortunate at least, that this request should have been made for the first time within a few days only before the July dividend became due; and that it should have been followed by the entire withholding of the semi-annual payment of $22,734.00 due on the first day of that month, for the use of the road for the preceding six months. It left us no alternative, but to take measures to enforce the contract. We have therefore caused formal demand to be made both upon the E. R. R. in N. H. and the Eastern railroad company, and have placed the claim in the hands of lawyers to be enforced; we cannot refrain from the expression of hope that the managers of the E. R. R. Co., upon more mature reflection will by payment avoid litigation, which under the circumstances is likely to be peculiarly unpleasant and exasperating.

We submit the votes we passed in reply to the demand of the Eastern railroad.

FRANK JONES, for the Directors.

The Eastern railroad has offered to pay the rent due July 1st, 1879, if the treasurer of the Portsmouth & Dover would give a conditional receipt therefor in the following form:

BOSTON, July 1, 1879. Received of the Eastern railroad company twenty-two thousand, seven hundred and thirty-four dollars as rent of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad due July 1st, 1879, without prejudice to the claim that a less sum is actually due.

By a unanimous vote the stockholders refused to give such a receipt, the evident spirit of the meeting being no compromise. During the progress of the meeting several speeches were made by stockholders, which plainly exhibited their determination to persist in the demand for what is actually their right.

A ballot was then taken for directors with the following result: Whole number of votes, 6404; necessary for a choice, 2203; and each of the following gentlemen received the whole number of votes cast, and were declared elected: Frank Jones, Daniel Marcy, William H. Sise, Albert R. Hatch, Oliver Wyatt, Andrew H. Young and Charles H. Sawyer.

Voted to adjourn to Sept. 4th at three o'clock P. M., at the same place.

At a meeting of the directors held subsequently to the stockholders' meeting, Frank Jones was elected president and George L. Treadwell treasurer.

Political.

Assistant Postmaster General Tyner, who has just returned from a protracted trip on the Pacific coast, and who had facilities for learning the political situation in California, says that the republicans are certain of electing three of the four members of Congress in that State.

No democrat, who is a democrat, and knows why he is a democrat, can be a "greenbacker." Greenbackism means centralization, the extension of the power of the National government, the utmost departure from the democratic philosophy of government. The democrat says to the government: "Hands off!" The greenbacker and his mongrel crew say: "Take care of us; furnish us with employment; provide us with a currency; put us in leading stings; if necessary, surround us with federal bayonets!" When a person who calls himself a democrat joins the greenbackers he ceases to be a democrat or he doesn't know what he is doing.—Boston Herald.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION. BUFFALO AND LONDON. INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1878. CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)

DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business the exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago secured several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers: Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres. JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.

NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.

CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several specialties.

LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all the chronic diseases peculiar to females.

NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other Nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.

NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, 167 prescriptions) sent for $1.50 or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book," (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).

SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon to perform are Amputations, Removals of Tumors, Cancer (Stone in the Bladder), Stricture, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-feet, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. Also pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.

Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated more thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Incipient Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness.

do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Cuticura

Scrofulous Ulcers and Sores, Abscesses, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, Erysipelas Sores, Old Sores and Discharging Wounds, Boils, Carbuncles and Blood Impurities, which manifest themselves by bursting through the skin and eating deep into the flesh, when treated internally by the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and externally with the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, rapidly heal and disappear. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Leprosy, Barber's Itch and all Scaly and Itching Eruptions of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Irritating and Itching Humors of the Scalp, which cause the Hair to become dry, thin, and lifeless and result in Premature Baldness, are permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SKIN DISEASE.

A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq., manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.

Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 12 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of WM. CORBETT induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.

Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.

I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin disease, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century.

J. A. TUCKER.

13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 20, 1876.

NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well-known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.

CUTICURA REMEDIES

Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.

Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.

CARBONDALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.

Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathsome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.

Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2300 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 90 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.05 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCracken Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, four times as much as this Company, and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to Nijne Novgorod Fair.

The great market of the eastern world has been held at this junction of the Volga and Olga rivers in Russia, every summer for hundreds of years. Here the nations of Europe and Asia meet with their products for trade. Cossack, Chinese, Turk and Persian meet the German and the Greek with every variety of merchandise that mankind employs, from sapphires to grindstones, tea, opium, fur, food, tools and fabrics, and last but not least, medicines. J. C. Ayer & Co.'s celebrated remedies from America were displayed in an elegant Bazaar, where the Doctor himself might sometimes be seen. They are known on the steppes of Asia as well as the prairies of the west, and are an effectual antidote for the diseases that prevail in the yaourts of the north as well as the huts and cabins of the western continent.—Lincoln (Ill.) Times.

—Sheridan, on one occasion, after a poor amateur performance, was asked what actor he liked best. "The prompter," said he, "for I saw less and heard more of him than any one else."

—There are few, even among the good mottoes of our time, which will rival the following, when carefully put into practice. It contains within a few words the positive, the comparative and the superlative duty of man: "Get on; get honor; keep honest."

—When Congress busies itself with little nothings we are reminded of the story of Talleyrand. When a council of ministers met to discuss an important question a nobleman said to the wit, "Monsieur, what has passed in the council?" The gruff reply, uttered in a tone of supreme disgust, was, "Three hours, sir; nothing more."

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1879.

The Yellow Fever.

There were fifteen new cases of yellow fever and one death, at Memphis on Monday. The negroes still refuse to obey the orders of the board of health, and threaten to make serious trouble.

The St. Louis authorities are establishing a still more rigid quarantine.

Two new cases were reported at New Orleans Monday.

One hundred and thirty-seven deaths from yellow fever occurred in Havana last week.

Naval Affairs.

Pay Director R. H. Clark is detached from duty as inspector at League island, and ordered to settle his accounts.

Pay Inspector Edwin Stewart is detached from duty as inspector of flour, etc., at New York, and ordered to duty as inspector at League island.

News and Notes.

The town of Volcano, W. Va., was totally destroyed by an incendiary fire on Monday. Loss $75,000; insurance $43,000.

As a bridal party of French people was crossing the track of a railroad at Lisbon, Me., Monday evening, one of the teams in which the party were riding was struck by a train, and a man and two women instantly killed. Two carriages got safely across the track.

Zibe Studley, of Killingly, Conn., on Sunday morning attacked his wife with a club as she was sleeping in bed, and beat her so that she will probably die. Jealousy, induced by the gossipping of neighbors, caused the assault.

Gen. Badger, collector of the port of New Orleans, was on Monday shot at by a man who is supposed to be partially insane from poverty and suffering.

A storm which raged in England on Saturday night last is said to have been the most severe known there for many years. Crops were destroyed, cattle drowned, and the damage by hail amounts to many thousand pounds sterling.

London despatches report that the king of the Zulus is a fugitive, and the chiefs declare that they want no more black kings, but want a white man to rule over them.

A whole family, consisting of E. P. Desnew, his wife, and two children were struck by lightning at Rochester, Minn., Sunday night. The wife and children are dead, and Desnew will die.

At Point Vian, Province of Quebec, on the 4th inst., a family named Monette, consisting of seven persons, were poisoned from eating bread which had been standing in the same place with Paris green. Three are dead, and there is no hope of the others recovering.

Martin Henny was arrested at San Francisco on Monday on a charge of murder, committed in Independence, Iowa, about five years ago.

The Canal bank of New Orleans has discovered a deficiency of $20,000 in the accounts of Cashier Chevalier-Jourmonville, who recently resigned.

Michael McAnana of Biddeford, Me., sixty-four years old, committed suicide by hanging himself near Westbrook, Monday morning.

The body of Daniel Tower, an old man, who strayed from the Lunenburg, Mass., poorhouse, six weeks ago, was found in Townsend by haymakers, last Friday. Medical Examiner Hartwell of Ayer thought Tower had been dead three weeks. It is believed he lived in that vicinity, within a quarter of a mile of the houses, for three weeks, as a bed of boughs was found.

Mary A. Cunneen, four years and a half old, died at Fall River, Mass., Saturday, from sunstroke, as is reported. Sunday her brother, Walter Cunneen, seven years old, died from the same alleged cause. Both children lived with people not their parents, at Bell Rock, a suburb in the eastern part of the city, and the remarkable coincidence of two children in the same family dying from sunstroke within two days has naturally excited some suspicion. The cases will be investigated.

New Hampshire Items.

Francis Robinson, of Warner, has eighty ewes that last spring had eighty-seven lambs, and has not lost one of that number. He sold every one at $2.50 apiece.

The manufacturing establishments of Nashua have not been as busy as now since the war. Every man who is capable and wants employment can obtain it, and the indications are that prosperity has come to stay.

Gen. Joe Hooker has accepted an invitation to participate in the veteran soldier's reunion at the Weirs on the 25th, 26th and 27th insts. It is expected that the gathering will be the largest ever held in the State by the boys in blue.

Michael Dee of Franklin Falls, a laborer on the highway, went to the residence of Charles H. Davis, highway surveyor, on Friday, and made a deadly assault on Davis, fearfully lacerating his arm. The cause was a dispute about pay. Dee is held for trial in $300 bonds.

Political.

It is announced that "Senator McDonald of Indiana, hard-money democrat, has yielded to the call of the Ohio democrats" to stump that State for Ewing, the extreme rag-money inflationist. Democratic "principles" are elastic enough to be stretched any way that the party demands.

Kentucky had an election on Monday, choosing a full list of State officers for four years, half the members of the Senate and a full House. How many thousand democratic majority the party managers had decided to return has not been stated, but probably somewhere between 50,000 and 100,000.

Indian Depredations.

The fair reader shudders when she thinks of the settler's wife watching, from the door of her rude hut, the retreating form of her husband going out to his daily labor—going out perhaps to return not again, for before nightfall a savage hand may have laid him low among the prairie grasses. Or it may be that a child, a bright-eyed daughter, is snatched away in an unguarded moment, to grace the next war dance. When we read the heart-rending details of these savage depredations, we are apt to blame the government for not taking more strict precautions to insure the settlers' protection. But we daily read of the depredations of that arch-fiend, consumption, with scarcely a thought of its terrible inroads upon human life. Tens of thousands of homes are annually desolated by consumption to one by Indian outrage. Like the Indian, consumption oftenest comes stealthily, and no danger is apprehended until the victim suddenly finds himself hopelessly ensnared, and death's fatal arrow ends the scene. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a powerful alterative, or blood-purifier, and tonic, has restored thousands of consumptives who had tried every other remedy recommended to them, without obtaining any relief, and are willing to testify to its remedial powers.

—Song of the archery clubbist: "Hey the merry maiden and the tar-get."

—A gentleman who called upon Hanlan at Toronto recently found the sculling champion of the world drawing lager beer in his saloon. An elderly Scotchman when told that that was Hanlan behind the bar remarked: "It's a pity to see the lad there; it takes all the poetry out of his glory on the Tyne."

—The young man from the city now goes hunting in the woods and loses his way. In this dilemma, he determines to trust to the instincts of his dog, and follows the sagacious animal at a mad pace through undergrowth and across gullies, and finally brings up at a woodchuck's hole, in the heart of the forest, and as much lost as ever.—Boston Post.

CITY OFFICERS-ELECT.

Mayor—William H. Sise.

Aldermen—Ward one, Floron Barrl, William F. Noyes, Charles A. Shannon; ward two, William A. Hodgdon, John Laighton, Jeremiah F. Hall; ward three, Jeremiah Sanborn; ward four, Benjamin F. Mugridge, William S. Hazel. Six republicans, three democrats.

Common Councilmen—Ward one, Ira W. Brock, Frank G. Thurston, James E. Dixon, Freeman R. Garrett, William H. Gardner, Nicholas P. Bryant; ward two, John S. Tilton, Warren P. Webster, Charles Manent, John M. Clark, Albert A. Gurney, Benjamin Plumer; ward three, J. H. Morrison, Edward D. Coffin; ward four, John S. Tuckerman, William G. Marshall, Willard M. Gray, Charles E. Senter. Twelve republicans, six democrats.

Assessors of Taxes—Ward one, George W. Pendexter, Joseph H. Berry, George T. Vaughan; ward two, Lewis G. Davis, Ebenezer F. Brackett, Rufus K. Oxford; ward three, Justin V. Hanscom; ward four, Henry F. Wendell, William P. Bennett. Six republicans, three democrats.

Overseers of the Poor—Ward one, William H. Smith; ward two, Samuel S. Green; ward three, William H. Canty; ward four, James W. Nutter.

The officers-elect in wards one and two are all republicans; in wards three and four, all democrats.

Whether it was the continued hot weather, the certainty of Mayor Sise's re-election, or some other cause, that made the city election on Tuesday so utterly dead, we cannot say; but it was the quietest election day we ever knew in Portsmouth, and our memory goes back to the days of the old town meetings in Jefferson hall, when forty or fifty fights on the Parade, the open throwing of venerable eggs at the other party, and the covert throwing of vitriol on the clothes of well dressed people, with all-night session's and free rum, and the total absence of women from the streets, were incidents of nearly every electoral contest. Nobody seemed to care much who got elected, or if nobody did. A good illustration of the general apathy prevailing was afforded in ward two, which last year threw about six hundred votes, over four hundred of which were in the box before one o'clock; this year at two o'clock less than two hundred and fifty votes had been thrown, and of this number about thirty had been cast for Col. Sise by democrats. We saw one good, square republican with ballots in each of his hand—greenback in one and republican in the other—giving them to any who wanted them, and not seeming to care which the voter selected, or if he didn't select any; he was merely accommodating a greenbacked friend, who had gone off to get up somewhere else a little excitement which he failed to find at the polls.

There was a ripple of excitement in ward four along in the afternoon, when it appeared likely that even "old Sebastopol" would give a majority for Col. Sise. "Then and there was hurrying to and fro" of democrats to hunt up "Capt. Dan;" and that sturdy old veteran, who has stood in the breach so many times, hastened to the rescue, and by dint of superhuman efforts barely averted the lasting horror of having the ward give a republican majority. Mr. William S. Hazel, for alderman, led the democratic ticket, running four votes ahead of any other candidate, and twenty-three ahead of the mayor vote.

The total vote of the city for mayor was but 1298, against 1751 last year, a falling off of 453. Col. Sise's vote is 851, a loss of 138 from the previous year; Mr. Seymour had 381, which is 211 less than Mr. Treadwell had at the last election; and Mr. Martin, who a year ago received 165 votes, this year received just the odd 65. But the greatest falling off is in the vote for "Scat.," who last year had five votes and this year has but one. Col. Sise's majority over all others is 404, against a majority of 227 a year ago.

So far as we have heard there was not the least disturbance during the day—not even a dog fight; everybody seemed to regard the election as a good joke, and not even the candidates evinced a great deal of interest in the result.

THE PERENNIAL NUISANCE.

Mr. Editor: The stench arising from the north mill-pond is such that the board of health should take the matter in hand. I see no reason why the city should be allowed to maintain a nuisance more than a private citizen. The city makes laws that "no one shall maintain a pig-stye, privy or other nuisance on the borders of either mill pond," ect. Now I would like to enquire if the city drains (each about three feet in diameter) that open into the north pond on either side of the Kearsarge mills are not a thousand times worse than a pig-stye or privy? Quite a snug sum of money was paid out by the city not long since to ascertain the best and cheapest method by which the nuisance might be abated, but the people have received no benefit, the board of aldermen, for reasons best known to themselves, having made no forward movement in the matter. I am credibly informed that water standing in the dining room of a residence on the borders of the pond was turned black in one night recently, and that the fence nearest the pond was perceptibly blackened by the action of the gases generated from the fetid matter in the pond.

If any one could have seen this beautiful sheet of water, Sunday last, he could have feasted his eyes on about half an acre of green scum about three-quarters of an inch thick, that was gathered on the northeast shore festering in the sun, and which might easily have been scooped up and carried off in a scow or flat-boat through the gates at high water; but the aldermen (the common council being a nonentity,) seem to have fallen asleep as regards the north pond. We will recommend its purification to the next board, and hope that the ward one delegation will attempt at least to do something to rid us of this nuisance and breeder of malaria. **

ANNIVERSARY.

On the 25th day of July last, Miss Sarah Carter of Kittery, Me., celebrated the 83rd anniversary of her birth.

The pastor and wife, and members of the 2nd Christian church in Kittery, of which Miss Carter is an active and very worthy member—being one of the original number—and neighbors and friends, gathered at her home in the afternoon, till all seemed to be life and animation inside and outside of the old mansion. The old and young mingled their happy voices together, and vied with each other to make the occasion one of interest and profitable enjoyment to all present.

The hostess, as usual on such occasions, with which she has often been favored, was in her happiest frame of mind, bestirring herself in a way that would do credit to any one many years her junior. By her special request the good old hymn, "All hail the power of Jesus' name" was sung, and then followed the singing of other appropriate and soul-stirring melodies.

As the day—which was very beautiful—was drawing to a close, a collation was served, bringing together upon a large table a part of the choice viands and rich delicacies such as the genuine New England women know how so well to provide. At the proper time the guests were invited to seats, grace was said, and the wants of the material man were supplied. Table-full after table-full came and went until all were—I think more than satisfied. An abundance was left for the benefit of the aged pilgrim, after the many present should go to their homes.

Among the many unusual things in the history of this aged lady is the fact that she lives in the house in which she was born, and it has always been her home. Much of the time she lives alone. The house stands near the bank of the Piscataqua river, and the view is picturesquely grand.

Think of the changes which must have taken place during the past four-score years in the surroundings, and in the old sea-board town of Portsmouth, only two miles away. And during all this time, apparently the same waters have ebbed and flowed within the banks of this majestic river, that swelled the tide when none but red men dwelt in the dense forests here. But the old gives place to the new. One after another of the old landmarks are removed, but there is to human appearance permanency and durability enough in the old mansion, and vitality sufficient in its tenant, to endure the ravages of time for another decade of years. But whether her days are many or few, may they be serene, and her exit from earth joyous. ONE PRESENT.

KITTERY, Aug. 1st, 1879.

THOMAS J. TREADWELL.

Lieut. Col. Thomas J. Treadwell of the United States army, stationed at Governor's island, New York harbor, died at that place on Saturday morning last, of Bright's disease of the kidneys.

He was born in this city, being the son of the late Hon. Thomas P. Treadwell, secretary of State for New Hampshire in 1847—50, and a nephew of Samuel P. Treadwell, now of this city. He was appointed a cadet at West Point military academy from this State, and graduated in 1854 with a very high rank in his class; he was soon appointed to positions of trust and responsibility, and ever since up to date of his death has been engaged in active and faithful service.

At the breaking out of the rebellion he was appointed to purchase supplies for the army, clothing as well as arms, and filled the position with such faithful ness and intelligence as to win the high compliments of his superior officer. One of his purchases of blankets alone amounted to over $5,000,000. On one occasion he was approached in his office by a person who had a lot of inferior sabres to dispose of, and who was willing to "make it worth while" for the faithful officer to pass them; but the fellow was invited to leave the office in such a style that he thought it best to do so in double quick time, and was reported to headquarters by the indignant officer, though it is understood that the sabres were afterward passed by another official.

For five years from Sept. 14th, 1864, Col. Treadwell acted as principal assistant to the chief of ordnance, and was in charge of the bureau from November, 1866, to May in the following year. On his retirement from the office at Washington he was placed in command of the arsenal at Frankport, Pa., and remained at that post until June, 1876. Shortly before the latter date he was engaged in inspecting the arsenal at San Antonio, Texas. During his period of service Col. Treadwell acted at various times as a member of boards to examine officers for appointment to ordnance duty and also for promotion, being engaged on the latter duty during the early part of last summer. He also served on various boards—to test guns, modify gun carriages, ascertain and remedy defects in metallic cartridges, and to determine the calibre of small arms. He had at the time of his death served for several years as a member of the board of ordnance.

He received his lieutenancy in 1856, and four years later was made first lieutenant, and held that rank at the commencement of the rebellion. He was made captain in the fall of 1863, and brevetted major and lieutenant colonel in March, 1866, becoming a full major of ordnance two years later.

Col. Treadwell was held in the highest esteem, in private life and by his associates in the army; and Gen. Dyer, chief of the bureau of ordnance, considered him one of the ablest and most judicious of his subordinate officers.

He married a daughter of Mr. J. H. Abbott of Concord, N. H., who also died on Saturday, surviving her husband only about twelve hours. The funeral of Col. Treadwell and his wife takes place at Concord to-day, from St. Paul's church.

AROUND HOME.

A tenement house is being put up on Short street, on a portion of what is known as the Walker estate.

Gov. Head and wife were in this city on Tuesday, leaving for Newcastle and the Wentworth at an early hour.

The picnic of the Universalist Sunday school was held at Fort Constitution on Tuesday, the party going down in a steamer and enjoying themselves fully while there.

A deposit book was on Tuesday brought into the Portsmouth savings bank on which $115 was deposited in June, 1836, and which had not been presented there since; the treasurer added to it $1310.70, dividends to July, 1879.

We tender our thanks to Messrs. Plumer D. Norton, William S. Hazel, Frank W. Rand and Ivah N. Rugg for their prompt courtesy in furnishing us with the election returns on Tuesday immediately on the close of the polls.

The entertainment at the Appledore this (Wednesday) evening will doubtless be well attended. The fare for the round trip, including admission to the play, will be one dollar and twenty-five cents. Tickets will be good for passage by the eleven o'clock boat, or to go in the evening at six o'clock.

Mr. Samuel H. Pillsbury of Kittery extends the time for the acceptance of his challenge to any boat on the river not exceeding twenty feet in length, for a race with his yacht "Myth" four miles to windward and return, for any sum from five to twenty-five dollars, for one week from this day. Time allowance, on water-line measurement.

A request has been made to the mayor for the concurrence of the board of health, that Lieut. N. J. Coffin and the city physician be empowered to test the specific gravity of the atmosphere in the tent of the Forepaugh menagerie at intervals during the day of its visit in Portsmouth, as it is thought valuable information may be obtained therefrom for the public benefit.

William F. Stanwood, of Boston, hired a team ten days ago from Daniel G. Sowle, of Exeter, for three days, and nothing was heard of the man or team until Monday, when Mr. Sowle received a letter from Stanwood, saying that the team was at Greenough's stable in Newburyport. Sowle has recovered his property, but says he loses $50 by the rascal. The same man swindled Mr. Pitman, a hotel-keeper, out of $35 for board for himself.

On Monday and Tuesday of this week Lieut. E. H. Taunt and Dr. P. M. Rixey, of the navy, and Messrs. John S. Sides and Adolph Nelson of this city, succeeded in bagging thirty-eight woodcock, the largest number of these birds shot in this vicinity for years. The recent marked increase in the number of game birds is owing to the protection afforded them by the game law of the State, which prohibits their being killed during the six months commencing Feb. 1st, that being their breeding season.

Mr. William Hurd, of Dover, is in Connecticut with his gospel temperance tent. A despatch from Norwich to the Boston Globe, last week, had the following: "Mr. Hurd says that he was proprietor of a 'gin-shop' in Boston for over thirty years, and that the Lord has taught him to read the Bible by a miracle within the past four years. He makes original comments on the scriptures as he reads. He carries with him as he travels a series of panoramic views illustrative of his moral descent, each picture being typical of a vice peculiar to a certain stage in his downward career. On Saturday evening he is to address the workingmen of the city, and will present two immense pictures (covering the entire front of the tent) of 'Heaven' and 'Hell' as they appear to his imagination."

The "working model" of New York harbor was shown to the newspaper men and their ladies, and other invited spectators, at Congress hall on Tuesday evening. While there is nothing soul-harrowing about the exhibition, it is interesting and worthy of a liberal patronage, for in looking at the model we obtain a bird's-eye view of the lower part of New York city, Brooklyn, the Jersey shore, the big bridge, and the various islands, fortifications, etc., which abound in New York harbor, while ocean steamships, side-wheelers and other water craft, propelled in some mysterious and undiscoverable manner, sail about in real water, and run to their docks or put to sea just like the real article. Among the vessels represented are the steamers Algeria, City of Berlin, Celtic, City of Pekin, Plymouth Rock and Massachusetts. The model is really a remarkable display of mechanical ingenuity, and is stated by disinterested parties to be geographically correct. Go and see it; it is well worth a visit.

Concerning the latest pedestrian match in Dover the Democrat says: "Meagher won the race, such as it was. There was not much excitement about the matter, and but few people were in the hall. Quite likely the hot weather had something to do with it, but the fact that pedestrianism as a show, or a sport, or a game of win or lose, is played out in Dover, had more to do with the absence of the crowd than anything else. We have had a 'big run' here, and we now sincerely hope that the end has come and we shall have no more of this sort of business. We hope the city authorities will refuse to rent the hall for another exhibition of this kind on any terms or conditions. It is a good time to stop now and close the doors." The only thing to be wondered at in the matter is that the people of Dover did not long before get tired of such useless exhibitions; after five or six months of "grand go-as-you-please contests," sham matches gotten up to swindle persons silly enough to bet money on one side or the other, "ladies" races, etc., it is no wonder the Doverites call for a rest.

NAVY YARD ITEMS.

Commodore Earl English, chief of the bureau of equipment and recruiting, paid an official visit to the navy yard on Tuesday and received the regular salute.

Naval constructor Theodore D. Wilson is ordered as a member of the board of survey on the Constitution, at New York, and Asst. Naval Constructor George F. Mailett as a member of the board of survey on the Juniata, at League island.

STOMACH BITTERS

It is passive suicide to permit the health to be undermined, the constitution broken, and the lease of life shortened, by nervous complaints, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, headache, or intermittent or remittent fevers, when it is a fact established by unquestioned evidence that the Bitters will prevent and remove these evils. All the symptoms of lassitude and general debility speedily vanish when this invigorant is given a trial.

"The Flurry in Stocks"

Always means an opportunity for some shrewd and lively operator to make a handsome profit. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have established the new combination system for operating in stocks, so that capital in any amount from $5 to $50,000 can be used profitably at any time that may suit the customer. By pooling the orders of thousands of patrons into one immense sum, and operating them as a mighty whole, under the most experienced skill, vast profits are made which could be gained in no other way. These are divided pro rata among shareholders—monthly. An investment of $10 returns $50, or 5 per cent on the stock. $100 pays $950, and so on, according to the market. A St. Louis patron made over $300 per cent on an investment in October by the combination method. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success," and full information so that any one can operate with profit. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.—In bronchial and othe chest affections, in arresting incipient consumption, and in lessening the distressing symptoms of this disease in its hopeless stages, as well as in cases of nervous debility in giving tone to the sysytem, Fellows' Hypophosphites is undoubtedly a valuable remedy.

JOHN MCMURRAY,
Methodist Minister, Newport, N. S.

You Can be Happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and only use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—believe it. See "Proverbs" in another column.

Can't Preach Good.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a law suit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters. See "Truths" and "Proverbs," other column.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION. BUFFALO AND LONDON. INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1878.
DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago lodged several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers:
Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres.
JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.
NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the faculty.
CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the practice of our several specialties.
LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of marked attainment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.
DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially those of peculiarities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.
NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Spasms (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.
NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Advisor" (1008 pages, prepaid postpaid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book," (168 pages, 10 cents post-paid).
SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform are those for Nasal Polypus, Hare-lip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Calculi (Stone in the Bladder), Stricture, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-foot, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. Our pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.
Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning grace of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapped bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has wrought cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness.
I do not exhibit this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Cuticura
Scrofulous Ulcers and Sores, Abscesses, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, Erysipelas Sores, Old Sores and Discharging Wounds, Boils, Carbuncles and Blood Impurities, which manifest themselves by bursting through the skin and eating deep into the flesh, when treated internally by the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and externally with the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, rapidly heal and disappear. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Leprosy, Barber's Itch and all Scaly and Itching Eruptions of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Irritating and Itching Humors of the Scalp, which cause the Hair to become dry, thin, and lifeless and result in Premature Baldness, are permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.
SKIN DISEASE.
A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq., manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.
Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.
Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm. Corbett induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.
Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.
I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin disease, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century. J. A. TUCKER.
13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 20, 1878.
NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well-known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.
CUTICURA REMEDIES
Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.
Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.
CARBONDALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.
Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathsome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.
Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $37.60 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCrackin Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $5.00 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express, C. O. D., to —Husband—"Maria, my dear, you seem to be very lonesome in my company. Do you not love me now as you did before our marriage?" Wife—"Why, of course, Gerald; but you know since our marriage we have become one, and I feel lonesome without a second party."

—The French fair conducted in London by the members of the Comedie Francaise called out all of the professional beauties of the city to preside at the tables. Mrs. Cornwallis West sold cigars at an exorbitant price. "I bought two yesterday," pleaded one customer on the second day. "But you have not bought one to-day," was the answer, and there was no help for it. Five minutes later the same vivacious lady was holding out another cigar to the same victim. "I have just bought one," he said. "Yes, but you bought two yesterday," was the victorious retort. No wonder that the two days' receipts were swollen to something like $40,000.

—The Bangor Commercial tells of a fifteen-year-old daughter of Peter G. Kimball of Carmel, Me., who is exciting much astonishment in that vicinity by her strength and ability to perform hard labor. She has been doing housework in the family of Mr. Clayton in Hampden, and the other evening she started out after supper and put up forty-five bunches of hay and milked the cows before sunset. The next day after dinner she completed her work around the house and entered the field again. She loaded four loads of hay and stowed them away in the barn, then prepared supper for a party of four, and after serving it walked to Newburgh and obtained a pair of shoes for herself and returned home before dark. None of the young men in the neighborhood dare compete with her in the field, either in heavy or expeditious work.

—Of the English writer and lawyer, Judge Talfourd, a very delightful story is told. At one corner of Russell Square, near his house, an old woman had for several years kept an apple-stall where he frequently made a small purchase. Standing at his parlor window one very wet day, Talfourd observed the poor old creature in her usual place, and crouching down wet through with the pelting rain. The sight aroused all his kind and pitying nature. He tried in vain to pursue his literary or legal labors; again and again he went to the window to see the same distressing sight. At last he threw on coat and hat, rushed off into the rain, purchased an enormous gig umbrella, and brought it back triumphantly and placed it over the old woman. "Wasn't it a glorious thought?" he was heard to ask. "The thing actually covered her and her apple-stall, too."

THURSDAY, AUGUST 7, 1879.

Joseph L. Smith, Greenbacker.

A very serious charge is made by the Boston Journal, and supported by strong evidence, against Mr. Joseph L. Smith, the greenback candidate for governor of Maine. He is charged with having made a heavy bid to the republicans for the governorship last year, when the contest laid between him and Garcelon, offering to throw greenbackism to the dogs if the republican Senate would elect him. The Journal, which is an extremely cautious paper, positively asserts that Mr. Smith told some of the leading republicans that he would sink the financial question entirely if elected, and not refer to it in his message. As an assurance on this point, he submitted the following memorandum as a pledge of what he would do:

In regard to resumption, I have to say that by the time the governor's message is delivered that will be an accomplished fact, or the act of 1869 repealed, and in either event would appear to me to be entirely supererogatory, especially as it is a matter wholly in the power and duty of Congress. My present opinion is I shall not refer to it in case I have to draw up a message. In regard to bulldozing, the principle you set forth is eminently just and proper, and I would thank you for your suggestion, and shall insert the substance.

But very soon Smith himself saw that it would be impossible for him to omit all reference to the financial question in his message as governor, and that he would be compelled to refer to it in some form, whereupon he proposed to insert in his message the following distinct and specific declaration—agreeing to consider the question settled and advising all good citizens to so regard it. Here are the precise words which Smith agreed to insert in his message:

The financial question has been fully and ably discussed during the fall campaign, and remains for others than us to decide upon; and whatever decision may be reached by them it is the duty of all law-abiding citizens in all parts of the country to give it an earnest and cheerful support.

The Journal further asserts that the memorandum is now in the hands of a republican; that it is in Mr. Smith's handwriting, and signed with the initials "J. L. S." If this charge can be disproved, it will benefit Mr. Smith; but unless he can clear himself, it must deprive him of the support of honest greenbackers.

The Government Credit "Restored."

The Boston Post says that Mr. Sherman, the secretary of the treasury, has nearly restored the credit of the government to the place where the democrats left it in 1860. Let us see whether the republican policy and party—for Mr. Sherman is but a skillful agent in carrying out that policy—has "restored" the credit of the government to any such place.

During the last two years of the Buchanan administration the democratic statesmen adopted a revenue policy which did not afford sufficient money to meet the current expenditures of the government, and the secretary of the treasury was compelled to go into the market to borrow money to meet the ordinary expenditures in a time of peace. In June, 1860, four months before the election of Mr. Lincoln, and when there was no prospect of war, Mr. Buchanan's secretary of the treasury was obliged to pay twelve per cent for a small loan. In December, 1860, more money was required to pay current expenses, and Congress authorized the issue of $10,000,000 of one-year treasury notes, bearing six per cent interest. Of these notes $5,000,000 were advertised to be awarded the last days of December to the highest bidder. The bids ranged from twelve to thirty-six per cent discount, and as twelve per cent was the best offer the amount was disposed of at that rate. Later the balance was sold at a discount of eleven per cent. On the 8th of February, 1861, while Mr. Buchanan was yet President, Congress authorized the issue of $25,000,000 of United States six per cent bonds running twenty years, and the secretary advertised for bids for $8,000,000, and after opening all the bids, which ranged from seventy-five to ninety-six cents, the amount was awarded at ninety cents!

That is where the democrats left the credit of the country in 1860. Now let us see where it is at present, and then we can judge whether or no the republican policy has "restored" it to where the democrats had managed to get it before they were driven from power.

In 1878 a large amount of money was needed to take up the outstanding high-interest bonds that were subject to call; and the first batch of bonds put on the market, amounting to $50,000,000, though bearing but four and one-half per cent interest were snapped up in a hurry by capitalists at a premium of one and a half per cent—and this, too, notwithstanding the Nation is burdened with an enormous debt, due solely to the democratic attempt to destroy the Union. Hundreds of millions of four per cent bonds were also put on the market, and eagerly taken, none of them being disposed of below par.

Under democratic management of national affairs, at a time when there was no national debt, the public credit was so low that even the small amount of $10,000,000, represented by bonds bearing six per cent interest, could be raised only by hawking the bonds about the country and selling them at a discount of twelve per cent from their face value! Under republican management, with the country burdened with an immense debt, and in spite of democratic opposition at every step, the public credit has been lifted higher than it ever was before, so that the United States low-interest bonds to the amount of hundreds of millions of dollars were eagerly sought for by capitalists all over the world, and the recent enormous loans were placed more advantageously than any government loan of any nation was ever placed before.

News and Notes.

A message has been received at Boise City, Idaho, from Col. Bernard, stating that the Indians attacked and defeated the United States troops July 28th, wounding two men and capturing all the provisions, most of their baggage, and twenty-three mules. Bernard sends for all the men of his company fit for duty to attack the hostiles, who are strongly posted at the junction of Big creek and the middle fork of the Salmon river. Their number is not stated. Bernard is about one hundred and fifty miles from them.

Chicago has a first-class sensation, caused by the developments which connect Leonard Swett, a prominent lawyer and respected citizen, with the celebrated stamp fraud, by which Uncle Sam was robbed of nearly $34,000.

The town of Bridgewater, in Windsor county, Vt., is appropriately named, for it has seventy-five bridges within its borders.

The expenses of the town of Stannard, in Caledonia county, Vt., last year, were only $123, which included the support of one pauper, which cost $42.

Mr. Henry H. Smith, a prominent citizen of Denmark, Me., and deputy sheriff of Oxford county, was thrown from a cart recently by the sudden starting of his horse. His back was broken, and he can live but a short time.

A man named Higgins was recently liberated from the Maine State prison on a conditional pardon. He passed himself off as one of the Bowdoinham robbers, and going it wild for some time, was taken back to the prison on the 5th inst. by Warden Tolman, and placed in his old cell. He spent $400 while he was out.

The Peruvian minister at Washington has received the following despatch: "The Huascar and Union have visited the Chilian ports, destroying the launches and capturing the steamer Rimac, with the entire Zungay regiment of cavalry, fully armed and supplied with horses, besides three vessels loaded with coal and copper."

Steamship Lewis David has been wrecked on the island of Ushant, off the the French coast, and twenty-seven lives lost.

Henry J. Munson, the assumed clergyman who married himself to Miss Mattie A. Eaton in a Worcester, Mass., chapel, a few weeks ago, has been tried in the criminal court in that city on a charge of lewd and lascivious cohabitation, adjudged probably guilty, and committed for trial. The accused attempted to intersperse the proceedings with prayer, and behaved generally in such a manner as to raise a doubt whether he is knavish foolish or insane.

Stephen D. Frost, of Lawrence, Mass., was arrested on the 5th inst. for the robbery of a watch and gold pin from Warren A. Simmons. Frost claims a United States detective with a warrant for Simmons' arrest. On the way to the police headquarters he offered to release his prisoner for $10, but afterwards offered to take $5. Simmons told him he had no money, when Frost grabbed his watch and was in the act of taking Simmons' scarf pin when an officer appeared and arrested him.

Charles Stockinger of Stony creek, Conn., fifteen years old, trap tender at a glass ball shoot, was accidentally and probably fatally shot recently by Edward Daniels of Branford, who was drunk.

Charles Fechter, the well-known actor, died on the night of the 4th inst. at his farm at Richland Centre, Pa. He was fifty-four years old. The cause of his death was a complication of diseases of the liver and kidneys.

The young women of the Windsor Locks, Conn., Congregational church held a loan exhibition the other day, and among the many exhibits was a deed of land in 1563 to Matthew Grant, one of Windsor's first settlers, and Ex-President Grant's ancestor.

On the 1st inst. a murder was enacted in Sussex county, Va., which resulted in the death of a mother and her infant. James Rose (colored), a farmer of the above named county, went to Petersburg on Friday morning. During his absence his house was visited by a woman to whom he was formerly married, but whom he afterward forsook to take up with another woman, named Maggie Tinns, by whom he had a child. The forsaken woman was accompanied by a negro man. On arriving at the house, the man shot Tinns through the head, killing her instantly, while the infant's head was chopped off with a spade by the enraged woman. This double murder was discovered on Saturday, when Rose returned home. The murderers have been arrested, and acknowledge their guilt.

Solomon Senn, partner in a large iron-founding firm in Chicago, on the 5th inst. had a dispute with the foreman, Conrad Engleman, concerning the casting of a large pillar, alleging that Engleman was spoiling it. This the latter denied, and resigned his position on the spot; Senn then repeated the charge, and Engleman told him he lied, when Senn drew a pistol and shot him dead. The murderer then mapped the pistol at his own head, and it missing fire, went to his private office and cut his throat from ear to ear. Both men leave families, and were sober, industrious and peaceable. Senn was rich, and Engleman poor.

New Hampshire Items.

Sullivan N. Nesmith of Manchester, road master of the Concord railroad, aged about fifty-five years, died suddenly on the evening of the 5th inst., of heart disease. He was out on the road the day before as usual. He leaves a widow and two children.

Edmund J. Langley, of Canaan, forty years old, was found hanging to a tree on the 5th inst., dead. His mother was buried the previous day.

W. H. Bartlett of Nottingham was killed by being thrown from his wagon at the new State prison on the 5th inst. Cramping of the wheels by turning too short caused the overturning of the wagon, and he was thrown out, striking upon his head. He was a merchant, and about fifty-five years old.

A sensation was created at Laconia on the 5th inst., at one of the summer boarding houses, by the announcement that Mrs. Augusta Gilbert, of New Haven, Conn., had lost a set of diamond earrings valued at $500 or $600. Suspicion was directed to another lady boarder from Providence, R. I. She was immediately arrested by Sheriff Cogswell, who, armed with a search warrant, selected three ladies, who were instructed to thoroughly examine the clothing on or about the prisoner. She made such resistance as to render this impossible, whereupon the sheriff called in two physicians, who succeeded in bringing to light the lost treasures. The prisoner was held for examination.

A meeting of the officers of the Second New Hampshire Regiment was held in Peterboro' on the 5th inst. Major E. J. Copp, of Nashua, was elected lieutenant-colonel, and Lieut. F. A. Barker, of Keene, major. It was voted to hold the regimental encampment at Keene, subject to Col. White's order.

On Monday and Tuesday of this week eight large salmon, measuring from two and one-half to four and one-half feet in length, were lying in the Pemigewassett river at the mouth of Dickerman brook in New Hampton. Their presence caused some excitement in that vicinity, and a large number of people went to see them.

THREE TIMES THE LARGEST SHOW IN THE WORLD!

THE GREAT FOREPAUGH SHOW!

Noachian Menagerie, Gigantic Museum and Classic Circus!

IN ALL ITS UNDIVIDED ENTIRETY, AT

Portsmouth, Monday, August 11th, 1879.

A CORPULENT AMPLITUDE OF AMUSEMENTS. Mountain piled on mountain of attraction deployed to please. Alpine and cloud touching in its ambition. Opposition to fraud and monopoly. It is monstrous and flagrant egotism for any rival to dispute its right to the first place.

For more than half a generation the name of ADAM FOREPAUGH has been household property in every palace and farm-house in the land. The profession have always, as they do now, pronounced his the

and during more than a decade and a half the Forepaugh Show has never changed name or proprietor, but has always been under the exclusive ownership, control and management of the greatest wild beast importer, and the world's most extensive show property owner, ADAM FOREPAUGH. In his stupendous establishment will be found almost

EVERY WILD BEAST UNDER THE SUN.

Since last year he has added

A Native Herd of 12 Huge Asiatic Elephants

$41,000 BEHEMOTH OF HOLY WRIT,

Twenty-foot Giraffe in Harness. Six-ton Rhinoceros!

School of Sea Lions, South American Tapir, White and Brown Bears, Wild Ostrich, African Eland, Horned Horse,

BLACK AND BENGAL TIGERS,

AFRICAN AND ASIATIC LIONS.

20 MALE EQUESTRIANS,

TWELVE LADY RIDERS

inspired by the most famous equestrienne known to the arena, M'LLE CARROLL. One hundred daring circus stars from the first amphitheatres of the old and new world. Six acres of pavilions and three special trains. Six golden chariots and fifty-four brightly embellished dens.

DAZZLING FREE STREET SHOW!

ADMISSION: ADULTS, 50 CENTS; CHILDREN UNDER NINE YEARS, 25 CENTS.

Two full performances every day at 2 and 8 P. M. Doors open one hour before. Under no circumstances are games of chance or gambling permitted on the grounds, and Mr. Forepaugh suggests that the proper authorities join with him in the suppression of this too prevalent vice.

☞ WILL EXHIBIT IN DOVER, ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 12.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 7, 2 A.M.

Clear or partly cloudy weather, winds mostly from north to west, and on the coast falling barometer.

AROUND HOME.

The trustees of the State normal school have elected Miss Susie Cate of Dover assistant teacher in the training department.

The schooner Jesse Williamson, Jr., of this port, goes on the marine railway at Kittery on Friday, to receive a thorcug overhauling under the superintendence of Mr. Warren Keen.

The Weekly is disrespectful in the extreme toward its worthy contemporaries. It speaks of "the beery CHRONICLE" and "the pious old Journal—almost equally beery." And all about the municipal election, too.

The Appledore and Oceanic houses at the Shoals are now so crowded that the parlor floors, boat houses, and piazza settees and chairs are occupied at night by guests who are bound to stick regardless of these hard sleeping accommodations—Times.

The thieves who broke into B. F. Haley's tailor shop in Newmarket last week stole two or three hundred dollars, worth of dry goods. The store of G. D. Greeley was broken into the same night, but nothing was carried off.

By invitation of Mr. A. Stevenson, owner of the steamer James Sampson, the inmates of the Children's Home took a trip down the river in that boat on Tuesday of this week, the ride being greatly enjoyed by the little folks.

The model of New York harbor will be on exhibition at Congress hall for the rest of this week, from ten o'clock A. M. to ten o'clock in the evening. Admission ten cents. Viewed from a distance through an opera glass the model presents a picture of rare beauty.

After the present season is over the Wentworth at Newcastle is to be extended eighty feet on the front of the main building, which is to be carried up three stories and topped with a French roof. The house thus enlarged will have a front of one hundred and sixty feet, with an ell of one hundred and forty feet, and room for three hundred guests, its present capacity being one hundred and seventy. In the rear of the hotel a dam has been run across the lagoon at a cost of $1200, making a large and safe salt-water pond for bathing, or the cruising of inexperienced boat sailers.

The annual picnic of St. Mary's Benevolent society of this city was held at Pinkham's grove, Dover point, on the 6th inst., and was very largely patronized. There were foot-races and other sports, and a game of base ball for a prize of $25, the contesting nines being the Farmington club and the Granite States of this city, the latter winning by a score of seventeen to five. Burns of Dover won a three-mile race in seventeen minutes and some seconds; Messrs. Daniel Crowley and James McGill of the Granite State ball club won the first prize in a three-legged race, and James Buckley and Timothy Hennessey of this city the second prize.

A correspondent of the Boston Post talks thus improperly about the people and town of Newcastle: "Newcastle itself is a curiosity. Years ago it was a thriving fishing settlement; but now, with the decadence of years, it has nothing but lawns for streets, grass-grown, a fort in ruins which has stood from time immemorial, and the queerest collection of gable-roofed houses, painted in all colors or none at all, that exists anywhere. The grocery looks like a barn, except that it has a broad platform and steps, whereon the villagers sit to interchange news and gossip. Newcastle people occupy a limited range of thought about anything except the trials of the sea. They despise the land, and it is even said that when one of them is compelled to make a semi-annual trip to Portsmouth, he makes the passage in his dory rather than ride or walk a shorter distance. They are a hardy set of men and women, intelligent, but occupy almost as much of an isolated position towards the rest of the world as if they were domiciled at the North Pole. It's worth a journey hither to study idiosyncrasies, if for nothing more."

The tax-payers of the city will not this year reap the benefit of the wholesale reduction in municipal expenses promised by the greenbackers, they having failed to carry the election. We thought it would be so.

Newmarket has a haunted house, in which ghosts cut up various antics, consisting principally of the uttering of groans and slamming of doors. The recent material tenants of the house have given it up to the sole occupancy of the disembodied spirits, instead of disembodying them some more with a dose of duck shot, which would undoubtedly prove efficacious in quieting them.

Many of our best people, ladies and gentlemen, went to the Shoals on the 6th inst. in the steamer Appledore, to attend the dramatic performance of the Garrick club of this city in the hall of the Appledore house, for the benefit of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The forenoon boat carried out a large number, and many more went out on the six o'clock trip. A better evening for an excursion it would be hard to select.

A Dover man was recently called on by a person who represented that he had discovered a very valuable gold and silver deposit in Canada, and that the land could be bought very cheap, as its owner knew nothing of the mineral wealth it contained. For $500 the discoverer would show the Dover man where the mineral deposit was situated, and would pay his fare to Canada and all expenses on a tour of inspection. The Dover man borrowed $70 on his gold watch, added to that sum $400 he had on hand, gave the amount to the speculator, and the pair started for Canada, where they arrived in the evening and put up at a hotel. Next morning, as might readily be supposed, the speculator was not to be found, and the confiding greenhorn now wishes he had his $470 back.

A correspondent of the Providence Journal, writing from Concord, says of the late Col. Thomas J. Treadwell that he "was not only a thorough officer but a noble man, exemplary in every act of his life. Personally he was one of the handsomest men I ever saw and as good as he was handsome, a devoted husband and father. His wife was sweet and quiet and retiring in her habits, not being strong in health, but passionately fond of her husband and children, one lovely daughter and two fine boys, the eldest a member of St. Paul's school. The sudden death of Col. Treadwell was so great a shock to his wife that her feeble frame could not stand up under it, and she soon followed him. 'Lovely and pleasant were they in their lives, and in their death they were not divided.'"

The greenback "boom" seems to be booming the other way, everywhere except in Maine, and possibly election day may show that the boom does not amount to much even in that State. In Kentucky, where the greenbackers threw 26,000 votes last year, the party does not appear in the election returns at all this year, excepting as "scat.," and very feeble scat. at that. In this city the party did better than that, for by the aid of the excitement created by the speech of a greenbacker from Maine, delivered on Market square the night before the election, they did manage to get out sixty-five voters, their total being more than one-third as large as it was last year. At this rate it will be some time ere the national greenback party secures control of the Nation and its greenbacks. The greenbackers may, though we do not believe they will, be able to again carry the State of Maine for the democracy; and whether they do or not, that will be about the end of them as a party.

BANK MEETING.

The annual meeting of the corporation of the Portsmouth Savings Bank was held on Wednesday afternoon.

The treasurer's report shows an increase in the amount of deposits for the year of $79,653; and in the number of depositors, 249. Besides the regular dividends, and payment of taxes, expenses, etc., these has been added to the guaranty fund and surplus account $26,275. The expenses for the year are two hundred and sixty-six thousandths of one per cent of the deposits.

There being two vacancies in the corporation, from the deaths of Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett and Augustus Lord, Messrs. C. C. Jackson and Mercer Goodrich were chosen to fill them.

The old board of president, treasurer and trustees were re-elected, with the addition of Mr. H. M. Clark in place of Mr. Hackett.

The recommendation of the trustees in February last that the extra dividends be made in future once in five years only, was adopted; thus returning to the rules of the bank for fifty years, and which was only changed to conform to a temporary State law.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION

The regular meeting of the Board of Instruction was held Wednesday evening, the 6th inst.; present Mayor Sise, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Wilson, Messrs. Locke, Sherburne, Gardner, Hoyt, Knight, Newton, Goodrich, Vaughan, May and Pender.

The chairman announced the following committees:

On Salaries, Mr. Vaughan, Mrs. Wilson, O. M. Knight;

On Examination of Teachers, Messrs. Hoyt and Goodrich, and Mrs. Knight;

On Text books, Messrs. Gardner, Pender and Vaughan;

On Truancy, Messrs. Knight, Newton and Sherburne;

On Purchases, Messrs. Locke, Gardner and Knight;

District committees: No. 1, Messrs. Hoyt and Locke, and Mrs. Knight; No. 2, Messrs. Pender and Newton, and Mrs. Wilson; No. 3, Messrs. Gardner, Sherburne and Goodrich.

Mrs. Wilson, and Messrs. Sherburne and Knight, were appointed a committee to report grade committees, and reported the following:

Preceeded to the election of a secretary of the board; eleven votes were cast, all for John Pender, and he was declared elected.

Grammar grade, Messrs. Gardner, Hoyt and Pender;

Intermediate, Mrs. Wilson, Messrs. May and Sherburne;

Primary, Mrs. Knight, Messrs. Goodrich and Locke;

Suburban, Messrs. Newton, Vaughan and Locke.

Report accepted and adopted.

Voted to proceed to elect a member of the high school committee. Twelve votes were cast, of which Mercer Goodrich received one, Mrs. Knight three, and James R. May eight, and Dr. May was declared elected.

Voted that the schools open Sept. 1st instead of August 25th.

Voted that Mr. Kidder's salary be $750 per annum.

Adjourned.

FOREPAUGH'S SHOW.

Concerning this show, which will be in this city on Monday next, the Boston Traveller reporter after visiting it wrote as follows:

The menagerie exhibition is unusually fine and complete. A herd of elephants, a hippopotamus, the only giraffe in the country, a den of magnificent specimens of lions, a white yak, a massive rhinoceros, sea lion, zebra, and a multitude of other attractions perhaps not less worthy of mention, are conveniently displayed. The grand entree introduced a gorgeous procession, and the other numbers followed without intermission until the end. Of the performers, Mr. Robert Stickney, a name familiar to every circus-goer, stands at the head. His riding was a marvel of excellence, daring and grace being so skillfully blended that the most perilous feats appeared easy of accomplishment. His principal somersault act, and riding and driving seven horses bareback, were, perhaps, the most interesting portions of the exhibition. Mr. Woods Cook in a principal act, and Mr. Herr Drayton in the cannon-ball act, were unusually good, and the riding dog Hector was hugely appreciated. Miss Emma Stickney's manage act was one of the prettiest in the arena. The lady has obtained wonderful control over her horse, which goes through a great number of manœuvres under her guidance. Miss Lottie Miranda's gymnastic performances on the trapeze were surprisingly good, and Miss Annie Carroll, a gifted rider, does some remarkable feats of leaping and vaulting in her bareback riding act. The appearance of eleven trained elephants in the ring, under the direction of Mr. Adam Forepaugh, Jr., showed the marvellous intelligence of the animals, who went through a great variety of tricks with wonderful precision. A contortionist, rejoicing under the name of Ajax, is by long odds the best we have seen. Other acts, among them the trick horse "Mahomet," the leaping of Messrs. Cary, Snow and others over the elephant herd, were liberally applauded, and at the conclusion the audience dispersed, evidently satisfied that one of the best shows of the season had commenced a most successful stay in Boston.

Naval Affairs.

The U. S. S. Vandalia, with one section of the Pensacola dock in tow, arrived at Port Royal, S. C., on the 5th inst., for coal. The Powhatan, towing the other section, passed Port Royal on the previous night.

The Saratoga arrived at New Bedford on the 5th inst., from New London. The secretary of the navy has issued a general order awarding medals of honor to David M. Buchanan and John Hayden, apprentices of the United States navy, for gallant conduct in rescuing from drowning John Lee Robey, an apprentice boy who fell overboard from the Saratoga, July 15th, in Newport harbor.

Commo. T. H. Stevens is ordered to hold himself in readiness to command the South Atlantic squadron.

A Winter Swimming Bath.

After this season Coney Island will be made attractive by means of wonder swimming baths, after the style of the celebrated Vienna swimming baths. Two immense tanks are to be built in the rear of the Sea Beach Palace, 200 by 100 feet each in size. During the winter months these will be filled by a constantly renewed stream of sea water heated to the ordinary summer temperature. They will be surrounded by a platform, on the outer edge of which will be ranged about one hundred alcove rooms overlooking the swimming bath. These rooms will be neatly furnished, each containing a table, lounge and two chairs. Opening out of these rooms will be three small bath-rooms. When a bather comes from the water he will be rubbed down by an attendant, one being provided to each room, after which he can sit or lounge in the alcove room, smoke, have refreshments brought, and watch the bathers. At each side of the alcove a small fir tree will be placed, so as to give the surroundings of the bath a fresh appearance. One of the swimming baths will be devoted entirely to ladies, and the attendants will be women. The bath and attendance will be provided at fifty cents a head. A band will be engaged, and the hotel run as in summer.

Indian Depredations.

The fair reader shudders when she thinks of the settler's wife watching, from the door of her rude hut, the retreating form of her husband going out to his daily labor—going out perhaps to return not again, for before nightfall a savage hand may have laid him low among the prairie grasses. Or it may be that a child, a bright-eyed daughter, is snatched away in an unguarded moment, to grace the next war dance. When we read the heart-rending details of these savage depredations, we are apt to blame the government for not taking more strict precautions to insure the settlers' protection. But we daily read of the depredations of that arch-fiend, consumption, with scarely a thought of its terrible inroads upon human life. Tens of thousands of homes are annually desolated by consumption to one by Indian outrage. Like the Indian, consumption oftenest comes stealthily, and no danger is apprehended until the victim suddenly finds himself hopelessly ensnared, and death's fatal arrow ends the scene. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a powerful alterative, or blood-purifier, and tonic, has restored thousands of consumptives who had tried every other remedy recommended to them, without obtaining any relief, and are willing to testify to its remedial powers.

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.—In bronchial and other chest affections, in arresting incipient consumption, and in lessening the distressing symptoms of this disease in its hopeless stages, as well as in cases of nervous debility in giving tone to the sysytem, Fellows' Hypophosphites is undoubtedly a valuable remedy.

JOHN McMURRAY,
Methodist Minister, Newport, N. S.

—A fellow in a cattle show, where he made himself conspicuous by his bluster, cried out: "Call these prize cattle?" Why, they ain't nothing to what our folks raised! My father raised the biggest calf of any man 'round our parts." "No doubt of it," said a bystander, "and the noisiest."

—The surgeon had prescribed a bath for a soldier who was a little ailing, and ordered that he be conducted to an adjoining establishment by a sergeant. At the end of an hour's waiting at the bath-room door, the sergeant, hearing no noise, entered the room and found the soldier seated by the side of the bath-tub. The water was as it was when the soldier went into the room, except that its level had been perceptibly lowered. "Ma foi, sergeant," said the soldier, "you may put me in the guard house if you want to, but I can't drink another drop!"—French paper.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)
DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago induced several medical gentlemen to associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL, the organization has been continued and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers: Hon. R. V. PIERCE, Pres. F. D. PIERCE, V. Pres. JNO. E. PIERCE, Sec. LESTER B. SMITH, Treas.
NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.
CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms come within the province of our several specialties.
LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very ably managed by a gentleman of more judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.
DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females.
NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy (Fits), Disease (St. Vitus's Dance), Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty.
NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For particulars see "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" (1,000 pages, sent post-paid for $1.50) or "Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book" (100 pages, 10 cents post-paid).
SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are called upon most frequently to perform, are those for Nasal Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Ano, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele (Dropsy of the Scrotum), Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Cancer, and other deformities, Club-feet, etc., etc. We also treat successfully, by a new method without surgical operation, Cancers, Club-feet, Spinal Curvature, and other deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and in my private practice, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing the positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Irritability, Hysterics, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats fully on all those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Cuticura
BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS
Scrofulous Ulcers and Sores, Abscesses, Milk Leg, Fever Sores, Erysipelas Sores, Old Sores and Discharging Wounds, Boils, Carbuncles and Blood Impurities, which manifest themselves by bursting through the skin and eating deep into the flesh, when treated internally by the CUTICURA RESOLVENT and externally with the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, rapidly heal and disappear. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Ringworm, Psoriasis, Leprosy, Barber's Itch and all Scaly and Itching Eruptions of the skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Irritating and Itching Humors of the Scalp, which cause the Hair to become dry, thin, and lifeless and result in Premature Baldness, are permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.
SKIN DISEASE.
A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq. manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.
Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicine and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.
Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm. Corbett induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid the amount agreed upon, and then asked him what this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.
Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.
I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin diseases, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century.
J. A. TUCKER.
13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 20, 1878.
NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.
CUTICURA REMEDIES
Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.
Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.
CARBONDALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.
Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most loathesome cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.
Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.60 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of PAY ORE.

The mines are the direct extension of the "McCracken Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000, (four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside Twenty-five Thousand of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $2.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. WHITE, Treasurer, and forwarded to the General Agent. Amounts of $100 or less may be remitted, if subscribers prefer, by Post Office money order or registered letter. Subscriptions exceeding $100 may be sent by express. C. O. D. to

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 4th.

Names are added rapidly to the list of applicants for the English mission. General Grant and Senator Windom are the latest mentioned. Whether such appointment would injure the chances of either gentlemen for a presidential nomination each will ask himself anxiously. But it probably would not. Ministers to England have become Presidents more than once.

General Grant once refused or neglected to spend the several millions voted by Congress for river and harbor improvements. While it is certain that a greater portion of the $9,000,000 voted by the Forty-fifth Congress for the same object will be wasted, it seems the wiser course in the administration to use it. The President has no right to assume that Congress did not know what it was about. As a man he might sometimes do so, and get credit for sagacity, but as President he must see that the laws are executed.

I am sorry to say that the national board of health has in its make-up, so far as appears, few of the elements of success and usefulness. It is not adding to our knowledge of yellow fever or methods for its treatment, and it is not aiding in the prevention, treatment or suppression of fever in the southwest. The board however now has arrangements by which the latest and most reliable reports as to the yellow fever are received. It is gratifyto know that no such visitation as that of last year is probable.

The Mississippi river commission will, after all, have its first meeting in New York, instead of St. Louis or Washington. The manifest advantages of Washington for the purposes of the commission will doubtless make it the place of regular meeting. The government has here the most perfect survey of the river from its source to its mouth, and in various forms, an immense amount of information on the subject not accessible elsewhere, and which could not be easily transferred.

The cabinet is out of town is bulk. None of it remains. In its absence I may say, what other newspaper men have omitted so far, that the cabinet is, whatever its merits may be, the homeliest that ever has assembled. There is not a really good-looking man in it. Secretary McCrary, the best-looking and best-natured member, is, as is well known, anxious to get into some other position. He says that one of his reasons is the ugliness of feature that characterizes his associates. Senator Hamlin, whose sympathies are with the secretary on this subject, but against him as to the policy of the administration, has written him that he will vote for his confirmation in any place he may be nominated for.

Serious charges are just made against Collector Badger, of New Orleans. It is too early to decide now, for they are caused by political dissensions in Louisiana.

The curious story was told here some days since, and has found its way into print, that Mr. Tilden has expressed a belief that Judge Field of the Supreme Court would be the strongest democratic candidate for the presidency. I cannot, of course, speak for Mr. Tilden, but the report alluded to is undoubtedly incorrect. The gentleman said to have authorized it denies it emphatically.

The public debt statement for July, delayed one day for some reason, shows an increase of six millions for the month. Payments under the arrears of pensions act have been made much faster than was thought possible by the secretary, and this alone caused the increase. The receipts have been more than satisfactory, and promise to be for some time to come.

Portsmouth Chronicle

FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1879.

Democratic circles in New York are agitated to know whether they are to go for reform by ciphers or reform according to the rules of Tammany hall. John Kelly, head sachem of Tammany, says that if Gov. Robinson, Tilden's henchman, is renominated, the adherents of Tammany will not vote for him; and could he make his threat good this would flatten the democratic party of that State out as thin as a sheet of paper, for Tammany controls 60,000 votes, not to mention Tammany's transcendent ability at ballot-box stuffing, repeating and false counting. But the great reform cipherer goes right ahead in his work of renominating his pet, regardless of Tammany's threats, and seems to win in every preliminary contest. The mayor of New York shows abundant readiness to do Tilden's bidding, and Tammany's supporters are ruthlessly set aside to make room for officials who will work in the interests of reform a la Tilden. The latest instance of this is the removal of Gen. Smith from the office of police commissioner, and the appointment in his stead of James E. Morrison, late the mayor's private secretary, an anti-Tammany democrat, and chairman of the democratic organization of New York county. The Irving hall democrats held a meeting on the evening of the 6th inst., denounced Tammany and John Kelly and all their works, and resolved that no Tammany delegates ought to be admitted to the democratic State convention. In this fight between Tammany and Tilden it is more than probable that the latter will win, for though Tammany is tricky and unscrupulous Tilden is just as unscrupulous and still more tricky, and in addition he has a firm grip on all the political offices of the State. Tammany must submit to the yoke of the great reformer. "Heed scantiness cramp emerge."

The Yellow Fever.

Eighteen new cases of fever, ten of them being colored, and two deaths, were reported at Memphis on the 5th inst. On the 6th seventeen new cases were reported, and two deaths, one of the latter being a Catholic priest, the second clergyman of that faith to become a victim. The secretary of war on the 6th ordered 500 army tents forwarded to Memphis for use of the fever refugees in camp, with the understanding that they be paid for by the national board of health, if upon investigation it appears that the latter has funds available for the purpose.

There were eleven new cases and two deaths in Memphis on the 6th up to noon.

Murderous Work.

In Meriwether county, Georgia, on the 5th inst., Warren Swett denounced W. B. Reynolds for making scandalous statements against him, and demanded a retraction, which was refused. Reynolds then fired at Swett but missed, when the latter shot Reynolds fatally.

At Millville, Ray county, Missouri, on the 4th inst., Dr. James L. Roberts, a highly respected citizen aged sixty years, was murdered while sitting in a store by Dr. J. L. Keyes, a man about thirty years of age and addicted to strong drink. The murderer shot his victim twice through the body, and then mounted his horse and escaped. At Cape Girardeau, Mo., on the 5th inst., Samuel Nussbaum cut his wife's throat and then his own; the wife may live, but the man will die.

At Albany, N. Y., on the 6th inst., Thomas Mallon, aged sixty years, shot his wife dead with an old Enfield rifle loaded with buckshot.

At Middleton, Ohio, on the 6th inst., a livery stable keeper named Charles Ballett shot his wife and then put a bullet through his own head; both died instantly. Ballett was a drunkard, and his wife had sued for a divorce.

A man named Telifero won $5 from a man named Moore in a game of poker at Morton's Gap, Ky., and Moore, when they next met, demanded a chance to get back the money, but Telifero said, "No; I knew when to stop;" upon which Moore retorted, "Then this is a good time for you to stop living," and killed him with a knife.

On the 5th inst. the sheriff of Palapinto county, Texas, and a posse, had a fight with the "Jones gang" of horse thieves while attempting to arrest them; Larkin Jones was killed and John Jones was wounded. Enoch Jones, old Jones and two other thieves were captured. Jack Morris, who was left to guard the wounded Jones, assisted the latter to escape. Morris was arrested and jailed. On the morning of the 6th inst. twenty-five masked men overpowered the four guards of Palapinto jail, obtained the keys under threats of burning the jail, and shot Morris dead in his cell.

On the 7th inst., at Harrisburg, Pa., W. K. Miller was paying a visit to a young woman named Hammaker, when Samuel E. Albright, another suitor for the lady's hand, walked into her house, shot Miller dead in her presence, and escaped to the mountains.

News and Notes.

Augustus Brown was run over on the evening of the 6th inst., by a train on the Eastern railroad, at Salem, Mass., losing one of his legs.

James Haley has been arrested at Lowell for complicity in an assault on Policeman Griffin of Newburyport, and acknowledges his guilt. Capt. Griffin was a special policeman on the 4th of July, and in attempting to quiet a disturbance was set upon by a gang of roughs, and beaten so badly that he died in a few days. A fellow named Toomey, and another rough, are now awaiting trial for the murderous assault.

While the safety valve of a locomotive was being ganged in the Boston & Albany roundhouse at Greenbush, N. Y., on the 6th inst., the boiler exploded. The engine was thrown forty feet, turning a complete somersault on the way, and landed upon a turn-table, which was shivered. Three men were instantly killed, and three others badly scalded and bruised.

The Chilian account of the late naval battle differs somewhat from the Peruvian report. The Chilians say the Huascs found the Chilian squadron in unexpected force in Iquique bay, and after a short fight ran away. But a private despatch from Valparaiso says the Chilian blockade of Iquique has been raised.

Parties in San Francisco, who have been working up the matter for some time past, have discovered the wreck of the steamer Brother Jonathan, which foundered off point St. George, near Crescent City, in July, 1865. She lies in an upright position, in twenty-two fathoms of water, about fifty fathoms from the submerged rock on which she is supposed to have struck. There was about a million in treasury notes and bullion in her safe, and the finders are fitting out an expedition for its recovery. The treasure belonged to the government, whose claim, it is held, lapsed on the expiration of ten years after the loss.

Cool Burgess, the well-known negro delineator, shot William Widgery, a fruit dealer in a saloon at Toronto, on the 6th inst., for alleged criminal intimacy with Burgess' wife. The shots took effect in Widgery's arm and hand. Burgess escaped arrest and fled to New York. Widgery apparently sought the quarrel with Burgess, the former, accompanied by a man named Blakely, having gone to the hotel where Burgess was stopping and tried to pick a row with him. Blakely had a revolver, which Widgery took and fired at Burgess after the latter had shot him, but missed his aim.

Editor Love, of the Burlington, Vt., Evening Review, has been thrashed again by an offended reader. He seems to be the champion newspaper man in the State for such experiences. His assailant was fined $12.

Milton Musser, a well-known Mormon elder of Salt Lake, was cowhided recently on his doorsteps by Dr. Bane, whose mother is vice president of the anti-polygamy society. Musser had published an offensive article concerning Mrs. Bane.

King Menelek, who rules the southern portion of Abyssinia, has sent a letter to the anti-slavery society announcing that he has abolished the slave trade throughout his dominions.

The landrath of the canton of Uri, Switzerland, has voted in favor of the restoration of capital punishment for murder, and for arson, when involving loss of life. As this is a provisional law, it will require to be ratified by the plebiscite.

The stable of Daniel Wakefield, at Biddeford, Me., with most of its contents, including one horse, was burned on the afternoon of the 6th inst. A colt, very badly burned, was saved. At the time the wind was blowing violently toward the house, and but for the exertions of the men connected with the Forepaugh circus, which was exhibiting in the vicinity, the house and other buildings must have been burned before the arrival of the engines. Loss, $300; no insurance.

A letter was received in this city yesterday, from Rev. James Murray, of Cherokee, Kansas, in which he says Henry J. Munson is a fraud and a worthless fellow, facts already known in this city. Munson has a poor wife and grown-up children in Cherokee, the family supporting themselves by washing and ironing. He will have to play the insanity dodge pretty shrewdly to evade the law in this State.—Worcester (Mass.) Spy.

The Simpson and Wilson families of New England had a reunion at Windham on the 6th inst.

Benjamin Tuttle, a prominent citizen of Jefferson, and proprietor of the Grand View house, was found in his barn on the morning of the 6th inst., with his throat cut, having apparently been dead an hour. He had for some time suffered from mental depression, and but a few days previous attempted to hang himself.

H. H. Morgan, aged twenty years, a member of Harvard college, class '80, and a son of Ex-Judge Morgan of Louisiana, was drowned at Weirs on the 6th inst. He was camping on an island a mile from shore with a fellow-student, H. E. Armstrong, of the Harvard law school. According to his usual custom, young Morgan undressed, took a boat and went out about fifty rods from the shore to bathe. His friend, remaining on shore, saw him dive from the boat, and soon after heard him call, but could not distinguish what he said. The boat drifting from him under a high wind, Armstrong, thinking he wished him to catch the boat, he being the better swimmer, immediately jumped into the water with his underclothing and shoes on, but becoming exhausted and unable to reach the boat, he turned for the shore without looking for Morgan, until he had nearly reached land, when upon looking around he discovered that Morgan was swimming with difficulty. Calling to him not to be frightened, he swam toward him, but failed to reach him before he sank. His strength failing, Armstrong was obliged to return to the shore for his own safety. Recovering himself and removing his clothing, he immediately swam back, with the hope of yet saving Morgan, but failed to find him. He again returned to the island and signalled for help, which arrived in about an hour, and soon recovered the body.

James A. Wilkerson, the democratic caddidate for treasurer of Jennings county, Indiana, last fall, has been sentenced to a fine of $1000 and a year in the penitentiary at Jeffersonville for conspiracy to import illegal voters into the county. Wilkerson belongs to a wealthy and influential family.

It has been discovered that some one in the folding department of the democratic congressional committee has been surreptitiously putting up republican speeches for circulation in Ohio under democratic franks. Examination disclosed a large number of such speeches, and they were burned.

After all the country had heard about the outrages committed by Commissioner Davenport and the federal election officers in New York city last year, the Wallace committee left that city without making any investigation. What was the matter?

A large number of northern families who settled in Virginia just after the close of the war have got the Kansas fever, and are preparing to remove to that State against the protest of the democratic press of Virginia. They say they want to live in a State where their votes will be counted, and where they will not be ostracized on account of their political opinions.

When Davenport walked into the room of the Wallace committee, the democratic members of that perambulating concern suddenly recollected that there was something out of gear in the Rhode Island constitution, and hastened off to catch the Providence boat.—N. Y. Tribune.

It is passive suicide to permit the health to be undermined, the constitution broken, and the lease of life shortened, by nervous complaints, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, headache, or intermittent or remittent fevers, when it is a fact established by unquestioned evidence that the Bitters will prevent and remove these evils. AROUND HOME.

A fishing schooner brought into this port on Wednesday afternoon of this week thirteen large, handsome sword fish.

A great deal of drunkenness is reported to have been visible at the picnic of the St. Mary's Benevolent society at Dover point on the 6th inst.

A game of base ball between the Rockingham club of this city and the Farragut's of Rye beach is projected for this afternoon, to take place at the beach.

The house, barn and carriage house of Rufus Walker of Kennebunk were burned on the morning of the 6th inst., with their contents. Loss $2000; partially insured.

William T. Hamilton of Hagerstown, Maryland, who married a daughter of the late Richard Jenness of this city, was on the 7th inst. unanimously nominated for governor of Maryland by the democratic State convention.

There was a prize shooting match between the young ladies of the Archery club on the afternoon of the 6th inst., the prize being a golden arrow. Five young ladies contested, the trophy being won by Miss Eastman, daughter of Commander Thomas H. Eastman, U. S. N.

Rev. Dr. A. J. Patterson, formerly of the Universalist church in this city, was in town on the 6th inst., on his way to Poland Springs, Me., where he will spend a couple of weeks. Mrs. Patterson, who accompanied her husband as far as this city, remains here on a visit to her sister.

The republican convention of York county, Me., was held on the 6th inst., and nominations made as follows: For senators, J. W. Dearborn of Parsonfield, George H. Wakefield of South Berwick, and Charles P. Emery of Biddeford; clerk of courts, Amos L. Allen of Alfred; county treasurer, Charles E. Weld of Buxton; county commissioner, Richard L. Goodwin of Berwick.

"The Kingdom of God from its Origin to the Final Completion," is the subject of a lecture which Mr. Benjamin Durgin of Kittery will deliver from the custom house steps in this city on Sunday at six o'clock P. M. The subject will be "handled on purely scientific and natural principles, and in an exhaustive as well as original manner." Mr. Durgin extends a cordial invitation to all to attend.

The Garrick club of this city met a gratifying reception at Appledore, Wednesday evening, being liberally patronized by the guests of the house. Their rendering of the bright and amusing comedies, "Aunt Charlotte's Maid" and "A Pretty piece of Business," was received with hearty manifestations of appreciation by the fashionable audience present from both the Shoals hotels and from this city. Miss Emma Flanders' vocal selections elicited loud and prolonged applause, which was well merited by the favorite soprano. Miss Alice Hanscom presided at the piano with admirable skill, and displayed remarkably good judgment as an accompanist. The entertainment resulted in an acceptable contribution to the funds of the S. P. C. A., for whose benefit the Garrick club was organized.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Aug. 7; Batchelder, J.

John McMann, Frank Richards, George Hughes and John Crowley, for drunkenness, were each fined $3, and James Gilchist, alias "Scotty," was fined $5 for the same offence, the costs in each case being taxed at $6.90. This would have been a very good day's work for the court had the culprits when they were getting drunk saved over enough money to pay their several assessments; but as none of them had done so, the lot went up.

ELECTION STATISTICS.

A glance over the returns of the city elections for a half dozen years past shows some odd facts, among them that at the last election Col. Sise had the largest majority received by any candidate for many years on the smallest total vote—and we are not sure that any such majority was ever before given, or so small a vote ever before cast, since the city charter was adopted.

In 1873 T. E. O. Marvin was elected over Frank W. Miller by one vote, the declaration being: Marvin 997, Miller 996, scattering 13; total, 2006.

In March, 1874, Mr. Miller received 1233 votes to Daniel Marcy's 846, there being 44 scattering votes. Thus the majority against Capt. Marcy was 431, though he received within five votes as many as were thrown for Col. Sise at the recent election, when the latter's majority over all others was 404. In September of the same year, after the democrats had gerrymandered the city into seven wards, including "old ward six," Mayor Miller was defeated of a re-election by twelve votes, though he received 238 more votes than were cast for Mayor Sise on the 5th inst. The vote at that election was: Miller 1089, Moses H. Goodrich 1101, scattering one; total, 2192. Nobody pretends to believe that any such vote as that—893 votes more than were thrown at the late election—was ever honestly cast; but it was so declared.

In March, 1875, the astonishing total of 2329 votes was declared on the governor vote, as follows: Cheney, republican, 1078, Roberts, democrat, 1251, scattering 10; Roberts' majority, 163. This was the time when the Cambridgeport foundrymen, the Gloucester fishermen, and the liberty men from the marine barracks at the navy yard, gave such a grand impetus to the cause of reform in ward six. In September of the same year the vote for mayor was as follows: Goodrich 1069, Jeremiah F. Hall 849, scattering four; Goodrich's majority 216.

In 1876, the republicans having carried the State and rubbed out ward six, the city election was held in August, the democrats running Mayor Goodrich for a third term, and the republicans putting up John H. Broughton. The vote was: Broughton 1169, Goodrich 830, scattering seven; total 2006; Broughton's majority, 332. Mr. Goodrich's vote was cut down by the defection of many Irish democrats, who were displeased with his action in a police matter.

In 1877 Mr. Broughton was re-elected by a majority of 99 in a total vote of 1740, as follows: Broughton 918, Samuel P. Treadwell, democrat, 787, Albert A. Fernald, prohibition, 33, scattering two.

In 1878 the total vote of the city was 1851, Mr. Sise having a majority of 227, the vote being: Sise 989, Treadwell 592, Luther E. Martin, greenback, 165, scattering five.

Any person choosing to deduce a moral from the foregoing is at liberty to do so if he can; all we can make out of it is that political matters, like the white man, are "mighty onsartin."

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

Committee on accounts submitted bills to the amount of $10,450.81, which were ordered to be paid.

Committee on sewers stated that they were unable to report on the petition for a sewer on Winter street, and it was referred to next city government.

Philip Powers requested the board to abate the tax on his house for the years 1877 and 1878, giving as his reason that he was poor and unable to work, and might at some time become a public charge. Request granted.

Frank Jones asked leave to open Fleet street for the purpose of repairing drain. Granted.

Anderson & Junkins asked leave to encumber Middle street for purpose of making repairs. Granted.

Committee on claims reported on claim of Edward C. Bean for sheep killed by dogs recommending that he be paid $3.50 for each sheep killed. Referred to Alderman Mugridge, with power.

Mayor Sise, to whom was referred the claim of Samuel P. Treadwell for compensation for services as city treasurer, recommended that he be paid $400.

Committee on bills on second reading reported favorably on amendment to ordinances in relation to transferring streets to the compact part of the city, and the same was passed.

Committee on gas lights recommended that the petition of Rev. E. M. O'Callaghan for gas light on Summer street be granted. Laid on the table.

Committee on claims reported recommending that the claim of the assessors for pay for extra services be referred to next city government. Laid on the table.

A communication was received from the high school class of '79 requesting the city government to supply water for the proposed drinking fountain on Haymarket square. Referred to the mayor to report.

The city councils met in convention to canvass the votes cast at the last election for mayor, and William Sise having the largest number of votes was declared elected. Aldermen Barri and Hodgdon and Councilman Thurston were appointed a committee to notify Col. H. Sise of his election, and the convention then rose.

In board of aldermen, (resumed,) Mayor Sise thanked the aldermen for their uniform courtesy to him during the past municipal year.

Voted, That the thanks of this board be tendered to His Honor Mayor Sise for the courtesy and diligence with which he has presided over the board during the past year.

Adjourned.

MR. WAITE'S WORK IN DOVER.

The Dover Enquirer, noting the departure from that city of Rev. A. A. Waite, says:

He commenced here the Fourth of July, and consequently was here just four weeks, and during that time his congregations have constantly increased, until his tent was much of the time crowded. He had as high as 2,500 at times, but the average was about 1,200. He held in all about fifty afternoon and evening meetings, which made his labors especially hard, and yet his zeal has not abated in the least. At every meeting something new and fresh and vigorous was produced, and a constant and increasing interest kept up. The order in and around his tent has been equal to that in our best conducted churches, which is somewhat surprising, as many do not hold a tent in so much veneration as a house of worship. His earnest, unpretending, devoted labors have disarmed opposition, and gained for him hosts of friends. His skill in drawing upon the blackboard, by which he illustrates and enforces the gospel truths he preaches, is wonderful, both for rapidity and accuracy, and fixes those truths more firmly in the minds of his hearers. Some, especially the young, may forget his words, but very few will ever forget his apt and beautiful illustrations. The good he has done for temperance and the gospel, cannot be definitely known until the harvest; but this is evident, that there has been an increased interest in our city in both temperance and religion. Some over five hundred have signed the pledge, many of whom have been drinkers, and many of whom have never signed before. We wish him success and support wherever he may go, feeling assured that great good and no harm can come from his labors, if conducted as they have been in Dover.

Keeping Hens from Sitting.

I have tried many ways of curing sitters, and can safely say that the easiest, most expeditious and effectual one I have ever used is to put about two or three inches of water in the bottom of a barrel, or tank, and place the hens in it, letting them stand from 18 to 24 hours. The water will prevent their sitting, and when placed back in their runs they will the sooner return to that portion of their legitimate business of helping to fill the egg-basket. Neither will the hens become frightened, as when ducked. Out of some fifty hens that I have so treated this month, I have had but one occasion to repeat, and that one so persistently refused to be governed, and caused so much trouble, that for both our sakes I had her for breakfast this morning.—Cor. Country Gentleman.

We commenced this season with over forty hens, and haven't been troubled with their setting this year. As soon as they show signs of it, we cut their heads off. It is a sure cure.—Gardiner Home Journal.

—The present tense—Where the circus is.

—"You love me?" echoed the fair young creature, as her pretty head oiled the collar of his summer suit. "Yes," he said tenderly, "you are my own and only—" "Hush!" she interrupted, "don't say that—be original. That sounds too much like Barnum's show bills."

—Said Rev. Dr. John Brown to his theological students:—"Young gentlemen, ye need three things to make you good ministers—learning, grace and common sense. As for the learning, I will try to set you in the way of it; as for grace, ye must always pray for it; but if ye have not brought the common sense with ye, ye may go about ye business."

Representative Casey Young of Tennessee admits that the ostracism of republicans in the south is as universal as ever, and he does not think it will ever abate. He declares that no matter how honest or intelligent a man may be, or how desirable his wealth or his social characteristics, he will not be regarded as a desirable citizen if he is a republican.

The report of the committee appointed by the last legislature of Maine to investigate the State printers has been submitted to the governor and council. The commission first speak of the difficulty and large amount of work necessary to be done to investigate all the accounts of the State printers for the last ten years, and conclude by saying that they have been unable to obtain the necessary data for such an investigation. They report nothing in confirmation of the accusation made against the State printers.

Indian Depredations.

The fair reader shudders when she thinks of the settler's wife waiting, from the door of her rude hut, the presentiing form of her husband going out to his daily labor—going out perhaps to return not again, for before nightfall a savage hand may have laid him low among the prairie grasses. Or it may be that a child, a bright-eyed daughter, is snatched away in an unguarded moment, to grace the next war dance. When we read the heart-rending details of these savage depredations, we are apt to blame the government for not taking more strict precautions to insure the settlers' protection. But we daily read of the depredations of that arch-fiend, consumption, with scarely a thought of its terrible inroads upon human life. Tens of thousands of homes are annually desolated by consumption to one by Indian outrage. Like the Indian, consumption oftenest comes stealthily, and no danger is apprehended until the victim suddenly finds himself hopelessly exhausted, and death's fatal arrow ends the scene. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a powerful alterative, or blood-purifier, and tonic, has restored thousands of consumptives who had tried every other remedy recommended to them, without obtaining any relief, and are willing to testify to its remedial powers.

INCORPORATED JANUARY, 1872. WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION BUFFALO AND LONDON. CAPITAL STOCK, $250,000.

(Successors to R. V. PIERCE, M. D.)
DR. R. V. PIERCE, having acquired a world-wide reputation in the treatment of Chronic Diseases, resulting in a professional business far exceeding his individual ability to conduct, some years ago associated several medical gentlemen of associate themselves with him, as the Faculty of the World's Dispensary, the Consulting Department of which has since been merged with the INVALIDS' HOTEL. The organization has been completed and incorporated under the name and style of World's Dispensary Medical Association, with the following officers: Hon. R. McPherse, Pres. R. D. Pierce, V. Pres. Jno. R. Pierce, Sec. Lester B. Smith, Treas.
NINE PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS of eminence and skill have been chosen as the Faculty.
CHRONIC DISEASES of all forms cure within the province of our several specialties.
LUNG DISEASES.—This division of practice is very and unusually successful, a combination of measures being used with skill: Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases treated with the most successful results.
DISEASES OF WOMEN.—Especially are our facilities of a superior order for the cure of all the chronic diseases peculiar to females.
NERVOUS DISEASES.—Paralysis, Nervous Debility, Spinal Irritation, St. Vitus's Dance, Neuralgia, and other nervous affections, receive the attention of a skilled specialist.
NOT NECESSARY TO SEE PATIENTS.—By our original system of diagnosis, we can treat many chronic diseases as successfully without as with a personal consultation. For medicines and Treatise, sent postpaid for $1. Invalids' and Tourists' Guide Book, (100 pages, 10 cents postpaid).
SURGICAL CASES.—Among the operations which we are constantly performing are the cure of Tumors, other than those of Uterus, Polypus, Harelip, Tumors, Fistula in Anus, Piles, Hernia (Rupture), Hydrocele, Dropsy of the Scrotum, Varicocele, Ovarian and Uterine Tumors, Cancer, Stone in the Bladder, Strictures, etc. Operations successfully, by a new method of without surgical operation, Cancers, Tumors, Spinal Curvature, and other Deformities. (See pamphlet entitled, "Motion as a Curative Agent," sent on receipt of 10 cents.)
Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, BUFFALO, N. Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, have relieved many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman. I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while wrestling with the positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, fitted it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and can just what, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhea, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

A Remarkable Letter from J. A. Tucker, Esq. manufacturer of the Bay State Superphosphate.
MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I think I have paid for medicines and medical treatment during the last twenty years all of three thousand dollars, without receiving any permanent relief.
Last May while taking a Turkish bath at 17 Beacon St., a young man employed there by the name of Wm. Corbett induced me to allow him to apply a preparation that he had upon me, assuring me that it was perfectly harmless, and for a certain consideration he would cure me within thirty days from the time he commenced. In case he failed to do so I was to pay him nothing. I consented and he applied it nearly every day for five weeks, when the disease entirely disappeared. I very cheerfully paid him the amount agreed upon, and am free to say that this remedy was, and he replied that it was no other than CUTICURA.
Since that time I have had no trouble from this disease, and have not had such good health in twenty years as I have had during the last six months.
I have since my recovery bought CUTICURA and given it to friends suffering with skin diseases, and in every instance it has cured them. I believe it to be the greatest discovery of the present century. J. A. TUCKER.
13 DOANE ST., Boston, Dec. 20, 1878.
NOTE.—Mr. Tucker is a well-known citizen and has served the city in many important capacities. He is at present a member of the Board of Aldermen. He is also well known to agriculturists and farmers as the manufacturer of the celebrated Bay State Superphosphate.
CUTICURA REMEDIES
Have done for me what hundreds of dollars spent on other remedies have failed to do, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as first-class articles.
Yours truly, MARK BRANDAN.
CARBONDALE, PA., Dec. 20, 1878.
Skin and Scalp Diseases should be treated externally with CUTICURA, assisted by the CUTICURA SOAP, and RESOLVENT taken internally, until cured and for some time afterward. Where the Humors are confined to the Blood and do not show themselves on the surface, the RESOLVENT alone will speedily drive them from the system. The CUTICURA REMEDIES infallibly cure the most tenacious cases of Scrofulous and Skin and Scalp Humors, as is attested by hundreds of unsolicited testimonials in our possession.
Prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists and Dealers. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

The property of this Company consists of the "Mountain Ranger" and "Expert" Mines, which aggregate 2500 feet in length and 600 feet in width. Work done on them in several localities, shows in every case MILLING ORE, varying in width from 40 to 80 feet. Average assays taken promiscuously from these openings show a value of $67.60 per ton. The three shafts already down show a splendid body of RAY ORE.

The mines are the natural extension of the "McCrackin Lode," capitalized at the rate of $10,000,000. (Four times as much as this Company,) and which milled, with a twenty-stamp mill during eight months of 1878, and shipped to San Francisco, as shown by the books of Wells, Fargo & Co., bullion valued at Six Hundred and Seventy Thousand Dollars ($670,000.)

FOR THE ARIZONA CONSOLIDATED to pay regular dividends, all that is needed is a mill. To purchase and erect this, the Trustees have set aside One Quarter of the whole capital stock of this Company, ten thousand (10,000) shares of which are now offered at the subscription price of $3.50 per share. This will be sufficient to erect a twenty-stamp mill and set it in complete operation. The management will be conducted in an energetic and economical manner.

Subscriptions for five (5) shares or upward, will be received, and the certificates of stock promptly mailed. Drafts or checks should be made to the order of ROBERT J. S. The Cuticura Remedies.

To enable the Times to furnish its readers with some reliable information regarding the Cuticura remedies, which are now attracting so much public attention, a reporter called yesterday upon Mr. Peter Van Shaack, of Van Shaack, Stevenson & Co., wholesale and retail druggists, corner Lake and Dearborn streets, when the following facts were elicited:

R.—Will you oblige the readers of the Times by answering a few questions regarding the Cuticura remedies?

Mr. Van S.—Certainly; fire away.

R.—Do they sell well?

Mr. Van S.—The sale of the Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent, and Cuticura Soap have been unprecedented.

R.—What reasons do you give for so large a sale?

Mr. Van S.—I give four reasons. First, they are original and revolutionary in their composition and mode of treatment. Second, they undoubtedly possess great curative properties. Third, there are thousands upon thousands of sick and suffering who have tried and found wanting the usual remedies and modes of treatment, and who are ready to welcome a really great and successful medicine. Fourth, the price of them is within the means of every invalid.

R.—Are your large sales of these medicines through your agents?

Mr. Van S.—No; they are legitimate mail orders. We employ no travellers on the road—are fundamentally opposed to that way of selling goods—the retailer has to stand such expenses, and such staple goods as these require no one to force them off.

R.—Do you class them as patent medicines?

Mr. Van S.—I do not. They are proprietary only so far as their names are concerned, these being held as trade-marks by Weeks & Potter.

R.—Can you tell us something about this firm?

Mr. Van S.—Weeks & Potter are importers, wholsale druggists and chemists, and for twenty-five years have been the foremost house in the trade in New England.

R.—It is popularly supposed that advertising will sell most anything, regardless of merit. Is it true?

Mr. Van S.—No. A remedy falsely claiming to possess virtues of which it is in fact destitute, will surely fail. No reputable firm—and druggists are the most competent judges—would think of risking fame and fortune on any medicine unless it had, under the most trying circumstances, proved itself to possess extraordinary medicinal value. The expense attending the introduction of such remedies is enormous. A fortune must be spent before any return can be expected. If, after a wide distribution, they are found to possess the virtues claimed for them, those who have been cured will recommend them one to another, and thus make them remunerative. When a man backs his statements with his own money, you may generally rely upon them. This Weeks & Potter are doing.

R.—Have they ever before prepared remedies for popular use?

Mr. Van S.—I believe not. They are, like ourselves, agents for a great many, but we think these are the first that they prepare themselves. It is but once in a lifetime that a discovery is made of a remedy that such a firm as Weeks & Potter are willing to stake reputation and fortune on.

R.—Are their prospects flattering, or otherwise?

Mr. Van S.—Very flattering. As I said before, the remedies possess great merit. And, besides, they treat blood and skin diseases according to a new and thoroughly rational plan, that must take a firm hold on the confidence of those who suffer from chronic diseases of the blood, skin and scalp.—Chicago Times.

An Income Without Care.

By the combination method of operating in stocks a handsome income can be secured without care. Capital in any amount, from $10 to $50,000, may be used with equal proportionate success. By this system Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., pool the orders of thousands of customers, of various sums, into one vast amount, and co-operate them under the most skillful management, dividing profits monthly. Each share-holder thus obtains all the advantages of the largest capital and experienced skill, and the percentage of profits is very great; $20 will pay $100 in 30 days; $250 will return $1,825, or 7 1-2 per cent. on the stock, and so on, as the market varies. A prominent publisher of the Rock Island (Ill.) daily Argus, made $104.15 on an invest of $20.00, in October. Hundreds of others are doing even better. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular has "two unerring rules for success in stock operations" and full information, so that any one can deal in stocks. All kinds of bonds and stocks wanted. New Government bonds supplied. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.—In bronchial and othe chest affections, in arresting incipient consumption, and in lessening the distressing symptoms of this disease in its hopeless stages, as well as in cases of nervous debility in giving tone to the sysytem, Fellows' Hypophosphites is undoubtedly a valuable remedy.

JOHN MCMURRAY,
Methodist Minister, Newport, N. S.

There is a man in Paris who makes a living by attending funerals for the sake of the black crape and gloves distributed on such occasions. The sale of these brings him in five francs daily, and for a dollar a day a man may live comfortably in Paris.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1879.

A Happy Time for Law-breakers.

The sympathy shown in Congress for the illicit whiskey distillers of the south, by the democratic congressmen whose constituents they are, and the refusal of the democratic Congress to appriate money for the payment of officers to enforce the revenue laws, is working finely for the "moonshiners," who are enjoying a glorious season of freedom from federal tyranny and taxation. United States Marshal Wallace, of South Carolina, reports that there has been a general suspension of operations against the violators of the revenue laws in that State, as there is no money to pay deputy marshals, and men do not care to risk their lives in the service of the government without compensation; and as a consequence, the illicit distilleries are going ahead full speed, and the licensed distilleries have all been compelled to close. Deputy Marshal J. C. Duff has been shot and killed by moonshiners in the mountains of Polk county, Tenn.

The Yellow Fever.

Twenty-nine new cases of fever were reported at Memphis an the 7th inst., nineteen of them being colored persons; and there were three deaths. The committee of safety have sent circular letters to absent Memphians in other cities, asking their assistance in supporting the poor now in camps.

New Orleans was declared entirely free from yellow fever on the 7th, and it is reported that the quarantine against that city has been removed by several other places.

There were five fever patients in the quarantine hospital at St. Louis on the 7th.

New Hampshire Items.

W. C. Prouty of Harrisville has deserted his family and eloped with a Keene dressmaker.

A party from Bear island, who were sailing on lake Winnipesaukee recently, were capsized by a squall and remained in the water fully three hours before help reached them. They were finally rescued uninjured.

A lady in Kensington recently missed one of her chickens from the flock, and on making search captured a large frog with the chicken in his mouth.

D. F. Locke's steam planing-mill at Nashua was burned on the 7th inst. Also a dwelling occupied by D. Hartwell. Loss on mill, $2,500; no insurance. Loss on house, $1000; insured.

News and Notes.

A most repulsive baby farm, located in a room in a court leading from 292 Hanover street in Boston, was broken up Thursday by officers of the S. P. C. C. In a crib was found the lifeless body of an infant some three months old, and outside the house, under a rickety old shed, were two older children, tied into chairs with ropes. The woman running the place was not to be found.

There is so much competition among the starch factory people at Aroostook county, Me., that they are offering two dollars a barrel for potatoes to be delivered this fall, and in many cases paying one-half this in advance, notwithstanding the largely increased acreage planted this year. The price paid last year ranged from seventy-five to ninety cents a barrel.

A girl named Horr, ten years old, was assaulted in a berry pasture at Pelham, Mass., on the afternoon of the 5th inst., by a tramp, knocked down with a club, and so severely injured that a physician was sent for. The tramp was pursued, but escaped.

Collector Robinson, of Gloucester, Mass., left that place on the 7th inst., under instructions from the State department, to join the United States steamer Kearsarge, and cruise in provincial waters, collecting fishery information for use of the department in its negotiations with Great Britain.

A hurricane on the Buctoche river, New Brunswick, on the night of the 6th inst., destroyed eighty buildings, killed three persons and injured many others.

Henry Rhinebeck, of Pittsburg, Pa., broke his neck on the 6th inst., in diving at one of the bathing places at Martha's Vineyard. He struck his head on the bottom.

George Siegler, his wife and two daughters, were poisoned at Wilkesbarre, Pa., on the 7th inst., by drinking coffee in which tartar emetic had been placed by some unknown person. They are in a precarious condition.

At Arbville, N. C., on the 7th inst., a sheriff's posse attempted to capture two desperadoes named Jenkins and Jefferson. The men fired and fought till overpowered. One of the sheriff's party was killed, and all the other twelve except one were wounded in the hand-to-hand conflict before the men were captured.

The steamer Burgos, recently wrecked on the coast of Newfoundland in a dense fog at night while on the passage from New York to Europe, was boarded next forenoon by several hundred men from the island, who stole all the cargo and fittings they could lay hands on, notwithstanding the protests of the captain, who had a large gang of men aiding his crew to save cargo at the time the pirates appeared. Three small schooner loads of stolen property have been recovered.

Naval Affairs.

First Lieutenant Frank D. Webster, U. S. M. C., is ordered to duty on board the Constitution.

The practice ship Constellation, Comdr. McNair, from Boston for Annapolis, Md., arrived at Newport, R. I., on the 6th inst.

Political.

The Portland Argus, the most noted democratic paper in Maine, says: "It begins to look as if the democratic leaders in Maine had been playing with the greenback torch until they have set their wigwam on fire."

The democratic Times, of New Orleans, is preparing a mighty feast of crow to devour after the next national convention of the democratic party. Of the great reformer of Cipher-alley it says: "A product of the same baneful influences which erected his friend Tweed into political sovereignty in New York, he is to-day the lingering embodiment of the political corruption of that era. A hypocrite, a coward and a corruptionist, he has nothing to commend him to the hearts or to the intellectual choice of the men of the south." But Reformer Tilden will proceed to re-nominate himself, for all that, and the southern democrats and Tammany hall will then meekly fall into line, as they did before.

The Herald, of Vicksburg, Miss., a democratic paper, says: "If there is a fair election this fall he is a prophet, indeed, who can tell how the State would go in the presidential election." That "if" is a very large one, and anybody can prophesy how Mississippi will go. There will not be a fair election, as there has not been a fair election in that State for years; and the State will go democratic, of course, the bullet being mightier than the ballot there, as elsewhere throughout the south.

—A new Hudson river steamboat is to be built to succeed the Daniel Drew. It will be flat-bottomed, made of iron, with boilers below the deck, and will be the fastest steamer in the world.

—A new method of attaching the umbrella to the belt is copied from the quiver of the toxopholite. A small sheath is hung by a chain to the belt, and through this the umbrella is passed, so that it assumes somewhat the position of a rapier as carried by gentlemen of the olden time.

—That lightning is just as eccentric in Georgia as elsewhere appears from a recent statement in the Forsyth Advertiser, which says that a large tree was struck and felled to the ground, and "a young man riding near by on a mule, received such a heavy shock as to jar the beast from under him."

—When a young fellow arrays himself in his best clothes and on his way down town is for the first time accosted by the bootblacks with "shine yer boots," he may consider that he has crossed the dividing line that separates boyhood from manhood, and that it is in order for him to purchase a meerschaum pipe.

—This from North Cambridge: A bright little fellow of four, the son of a former pastor of a flourishing church, who attends the infant class in Sunday school, received last Sunday morning a card on which were the words, "Pray without ceasing." After his mother had explained the text he said, "I guess I won't show this to the minister; he prays long enough now."

—The latest thing in the furniture combination line is a combined parlor-organ, secretary-bedstead and dressing-table, which a Pennsylvania piano manufactoring firm is soon to put in the market, for the benefit of people who live in small apartments in cities where economy of space is another name for economy of expense. Each different form of the article is said to be elegant and complete in itself, and a perfect disguise of the other uses to which it can be put.

—The most difficult people to get along comfortably with are the super-sensitive people. We all have them among our friends. They are perpetually on the lookout for slights, and ready to feel injured on the slightest provocation—often on no provocation at all. One has to be as careful in his treatment of them as if he were walking on eggs. Every word must be watched, every tone guarded, and no attention that could possibly be expected must be omitted. In short, intercourse with these people is so intolerable that we instinctively avoid them as far as we can. Were all men of this stamp, life would soon be a burden too grievous to be borne.—Examiner.

—Editors are seldom heard discussing the propriety of taking summer vacations and leaving their congregations. Editors must preach every day. Editors must stay and "stick it out." Editors can't move their studies to the mountains or breezy seaside. Editors must get their inspiration at the same old desk the year round, the desk which looks out on a patch of brick wall ten feet opposite and an iron shutter. Newspapers never close their pulpits. Would'n it be ridiculous to propose vacating a newspaper's pulpit for two or three months during the warm season, and sending the staff to Europe or Long Branch to cure their bronchitis? Newspaper men are like cooks—they must broil at the furnace the year round. Folks can't do without their morning chops, coffee and paper.—N. Y. Graphic.

—A dead snake can be brought to life with a pint of whiskey. You drink the whiskey and then look at the snake.—Boston Post.

—"Wise as serpents" will do for a maxim, but they have killed a big black snake out in Port Jervis, N. Y., which was curled up in hen's nest, busily engaged in digesting a porcelain nest-egg that it had swallowed nobody knows how many days before.

THREE TIMES THE LARGEST SHOW IN THE WORLD!

THE GREAT FOREPAUGH SHOW!
Noachian Menagerie, Gigantic Museum and Classic Circus!
IN ALL ITS UNDIVIDED ENTIRETY, AT
Portsmouth, Monday, August 11th, 1879.

A CORPULENT AMPLITUDE OF AMUSEMENTS. Mountain piled on mountain of attraction displayed to please. Alpine and cloud touching in its ambition. Opposition to fraud and monopoly. It is monstrous and flagrant egotism for any rival to dispute its right to the first place.
For more than half a generation the name of ADAM FOREPAUGH has been household property in every palace and farm-house in the land. The profession have always, as they do now, pronounced his the

and during more than a decade and a half the Forepaugh Show has never changed name or proprietor, but has always been under the exclusive ownership, control and management of the greatest wild beast importer, and the world's most extensive show property owner, ADAM FOREPAUGH. In his stupendous establishment will be found almost

EVERY WILD BEAST UNDER THE SUN.

Since last year he has added

A Native Herd of 12 Huge Asiatic Elephants

More than are owned by any other one man on earth. They give an incredible example of brute culture under the able tutorship of a chip of the old block, ADAM FOREPAUGH, JR.

AFRICAN AND ASIATIC LIONS.

20 MALE EQUESTRIANS,

TWELVE LADY RIDERS

inspired by the most famous equestrienne known to the arena, MLLE CARROLL. One hundred daring circus stars from the first amphitheatres of the old and new world. Six acres of pavilions and three special trains. Six golden chariots and fifty-four brightly embellished cars.

DAZZLING FREE STREET SHOW!

ADMISSION: ADULTS, 50 CENTS; CHILDREN UNDER NINE YEARS, 25 CENTS.
Two full performances every day at 2 and 8 P. M. Doors open one hour before. Under no circumstances are games of chance or gambling permitted on the grounds, and Mr. Forepaugh suggests that the proper authorities join with him in the suppression of this too prevalent vice.

AROUND HOME.

C. E. Walker & Co. lost a valuable draught horse on Thursday night, by colic.

The inmates of the Children's Home were on Friday furnished with complimentary tickets to the exhibition of the model of New York harbor, by the manager.

The "Tally-ho coach" from the Farragut house, Rye beach, was in town Friday evening, packed full of passengers, and with its horn tooting after the genuine English fashion—a long way after.

The depot at Hayes' crossing on the Conway division of the Eastern railroad was set on fire by a spark from an engine on the 5th inst., and consumed. The contents of the ticket office were saved.

The schooner A. J. Williams, Capt. Murch, takes an excursion party from Durham to the Isles of Shoals on Monday, the fare out and back, with a chowder thrown in—and some of it thrown out again—being but one dollar per head.

Two yachts, one the schooner Edith, of Boston, with Capt. Ed. Baker, formerly of the steamer Appledore, as sailing master, and the other a sloop yacht whose name we did not learn, came into the harbor on Friday. The Edith laid at Tredick's wharf for the night, the sloop soon going out again.

A report in the Boston and New York papers of Friday morning, that the barque Harvard, of Boston, commanded by Capt. Samuel Pray of this city, from Port Pirie, Australia, for Dunkirk via Queenstown, was ashore at Dunkirk and would have to go into dock, was contradicted Friday evening.

It is reported that the Eastern railroad has purchased the Annable property on Deer street, adjoining the depot, the sum paid being $3500. The road, it is stated, propose to sell the building and have the same removed. The land will be utilized for a restaurant building and other railroad purposes.

While Charles Drew and Charles Knowlton of Newmarket were sailing in Great bay on the 7th inst., a sudden flaw capsized their boat and both were thrown into the water. After remaining there half an hour, their situation was perceived by two men camping out on an island, who rescued them in an exhausted condition.

In the cottage of the late Nathaniel Herrick, at the Hedding camp-ground, live four generations, viz.: Mrs. Herrick, aged seventy-four years; her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Arman, aged fifty; her granddaughter, Mrs. Grace M. Bellis, aged twenty-nine; and two great-granddaughters, aged respectively seven and two. The Journal mentions this circumstance, and adds: "Hon. Frank Jones is one of the most regular attendants at the Middle street Baptist church in this city, when he is in town. Seated with him may frequently be seen Mrs. Leavitt, his wife's mother, (one would think her quite young as a grandmother;) her daughter, Mrs. Frank Jones; her granddaughter, Mrs. Charles A. Sinclair; and two bright-eyed great-grandchildren, Gracie and Sophie Sinclair.

Quite a large number of people gathered at the camp grounds at Alton bay on the 5th inst., under the auspices of the Dover reform club, to inaugurate an annual temperance camp-meeting for eastern New Hampshire, to be held at that place if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Wm. H. Dodge was chosen president for the day, and Geo. F. Guppy secretary. A brass band played at intervals, and there was some good singing; Rev. A. A. Waite, Rev. Mr. Rieker, Rev. J. G. Smith of Farmington, and many other gentlemen, made remarks. Mrs. C. H. Fitzgerald of Dover closing the speaking. An executive committee for the permanent organization of a camp-meeting association was elected, James Janvrin and Frank W. Miller being the Portsmouth members. In numbers and enthusiasm this first meeting was a success far beyond the expectations of its projectors.

The Methodist Episcopal church of Newmarket has leased the boarding department of the Hedding camp-meeting for the present year, hoping thereby to clear their church of debt. Good board furnished during the week of the camp-meeting, beginning at noon on Monday, for $4; any less number of days, $1 per day; single meals—dinner fifty cents; breakfast or supper, forty cents; meals for children under ten years of age, half-price. The boarding house will be open the week before camp-meeting, and will furnish supplies to tent companies wishing it.

The Portsmouth cricket club has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Rev. Charles A. Holbrook; vice presidents, Wm. Russell Foster, Edward D. Coffin; recording secretary, James Palmer; managing committee on matches, William Sladen, John Rafferty, Samuel W. Wallis; financial committee, Edward D. Coffin, D. M. Lenigan, Wm. Russell Foster; treasurer, Rev. Charles A. Holbrook; corresponding secretary, T. Bartlett Emery.

Dr. Johnson, of Kittery, had his carriage run into and smashed on Thursday last by a team which was evidently from the beach, the doctor's carriage being at the time standing on Richards avenue. The careless driver of the beach team stopped long enough to hand the doctor a ten-dollar bill, not nearly enough to repair the damage he had caused, and then drove off at a rapid rate.

Mr. Samuel Lamprey, who as a teacher of dancing has probably never had a superior in this city, as the hundreds taught by him will testify, will open a juvenile dancing school at Congress hall about the middle of September, to continue on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons for a term of twenty-four lessons. The date of the first lesson will be announced hereafter.

E. C. Kinnear, Esq., of Dover, has received from the Episcopal parish of St. Michaels at Charleston, S. C., a very handsome silver goblet, suitably inscribed, in recognition of his services in securing the remission by government of the duty, amounting to $1,588.65, charged by the custom house on the admission of a chime of bells sent from Charleston to England to be recast.

Mr. Nathaniel K. Walker, one of Portsmouth's most esteemed business men and citizens, will on September 1st have completed fifty years' business in this city. He proposes to retire on that date from further public labors—a release well deserved, and in which he will have the heartiest wishes of this entire community for his comfort and enjoyment.—Journal.

The beautiful model of New York harbor will be on exhibition this day and evening. This afternoon the exhibition is especially intended for the accommodation of little folks, who will be admitted for five cents each. Everybody should see this model, and the cost is but a trifle.

An orchestra of seven pieces is stationed at the Shoals for the season, and hops are given three evenings a week at each hotel. Ready communication between the islands is kept up by the little steam yacht "Pinafore," formerly the "Mollie."

The schooner Hattie Lewis, Capt. Garland, has been chartered to take a party of about thirty gentlemen from Dover to New York, to be gone two weeks. The steam-tug Ann took a party from Dover to Boar's Head on the 6th inst.

This is the time of year and the kind of weather when a dose of extract of ginger is sometimes of real value. No better article than Preston's extract of Jamaica ginger is in the market.

D. F. Borthwick, at the Popular Store, Nos. 7 and 9 Market street, has a complete line of cottons, linens, black and colored silks, etc., at popular prices.

Lieut. Fred L. Dodge, U. S. A., wife and son, from Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, are at the Wentworth at Newcastle.

The managers of the State fair, which is to be held at Dover next month, offer $3,100 in eight purses for trotting horses.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, Aug. 8; Batchelder, J.

Michael Monday, John Clark and Frank Watson, regular customers, were sent to Brentwood for thirty days and ordered to pay $6.90 costs each, for drunkenness.

FOREPAUGH'S SHOW.

Of this show, which appears in this city on Monday next, the Boston Journal says:

The ring performance is most creditable to the management and the individual actors therein, and includes riding, leaping, juggling, horizontal bar acts, trapeze performances, the feats of trained horses and dogs, clownish eccentricities and the other features usually seen in a first-class circus, though it is rare indeed that an entertainment of such general excellence is furnished. The exhibition of trained animals is one of the finest of the many fine shows which we have been privileged to see this season, the most remarkable feature being that afforded by the trained elephants, which may safely challenge the world to compete with it. These huge and apparently ungainly, but really nimble animals, seem endowed with almost human intelligence and assurance. Their most noticeable performance is that where nine of them form an immense pyramid upon the tall cylinders provided for the purpose, exactly as represented in the lithographs posted in the store windows advertising the show. The beautiful trick horse "Mahomet," a snowy Arabian, excited much interest, as one of the finest formed of animals, as well as one of the most docile and intelligent ever exhibited here.

The Herald says the combination gave "excellent performances," and commends the menagerie and the several performers at length, and in strong terms. The Transcript says the exhibitions "proved highly satisfying in every respect," and that Mr. Forepaugh "has provided the largest, best and healthiest menagerie that has ever been the fortune of Boston to witness at home, and his array of equestrians and other performers are real artists in their respective lines, without exception. There are no slips of any name or nature to mar the entertainments, and the resultant gratification of everybody is a matter of course." The Post says "the entire entertainment is well worth the price of admission, and is carried out to the letter. The performers in this circus are all clean-looking, well-dressed, gentlemanly-appearing men, and the ladies rank with any other in the business, while the management endeavors to give the public perfect satfaction and succeeds in so doing."

SANFORD'S JAMAICA GINGER

Enlarged May 1, 1879. Price unchanged.

The only combination of the true Jamaica Ginger with choice aromatics and French brandy, for correcting intemperate habits, regulating the stomach and bowels, breaking up colds, chills and fevers, is SANFORD'S JAMAICA GINGER. For relieving gouty and rheumatic pains, preventing malarial fevers, and promoting sleep it is truly wonderful. Ask for SANFORD'S. taug10

GONE FOREVER!

So say the ladies of their beauty when the mirror shows them their once jet or golden ringlets streaked with gray; but never was there a more
